IT IS A PLEASURE

To recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all afflicted with blood or skin diseases. My blood was out of order, and I suffered for years from psoriasis. I tried several remedies without benefit. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for two months I was restored to my former good health and feel like a different person. As a blood purifier I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. Omas, Wis., Oct. 18, 1895.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Following the honored custom which our fathers in this country established, and in conformity with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, William H. Upham, governor of the state of Wisconsin, do hereby set apart Thursday, the 28th day of November, 1890, as a day of public Thanksgiving...

A MOVEMENT is on foot looking toward the establishment of a trade school at the Waukesha reformatory. Advocations are to be selected much after the manner depicted in "Looking Backward."

THE U. S. Supreme court has decided that Thomas A. Edison has the first claim to patent on the principle of incandescent carbon conductors made of fibrous or textile substances for electric lighting.

ACCORDING to the new apportionment, Waukesha and Washington counties will comprise the Fourteenth Senatorial districts. The population of this county is 24,077, and that of Waukesha is 36,562.

THE Pabst theater building, which was opened at Milwaukee last Saturday, is said to be the finest play-house in America, although there are many larger and more commodious. The cost is estimated at $300,000.

OWING to a scarcity of vegetation, farmers throughout milk shipping sections of the state used an unusual amount of fodder this fall and now find themselves somewhat short on a supply for the winter. This probably accounts for raising the price of milk to 6 cents a quart in the Cream City.

THE correspondent who wrote to the State Experiment Station in Madison, some time ago, advising farmers to feed their surplus potatoes to stock, forgot to state that the practice should be introduced gradually; and, as a result, some farmers who fed by the wagon-load are now "down on" potatoes as a food for stock.

THE unprecedented record recently made by a Lake Shore and Michigan Southern train—510.1 miles in 481 minutes and 7 seconds—shows that electricity has steam "on the run" as a motive power, and that unless better time generally is made by steam locomotives than formerly, they are destined to be supplanted by electricity.

ONE Judge Nelson, of the United States District court in New England, refused a man naturalization papers because he appeared in his workday clothes.—Ex. This reminds one that, jurists, like the rest of us, are apt to be peculiar, not to say prejudiced. For instance, an interested lady once sought to improve the appearance of a Wisconsin judge by remarking that a certain friend of hers "changes his shirt every day," whereupon the judge replied: "Well, he must be a very dirty man."

THE St. James, London, Gazette says it is not surprising that Lord Dumra-ven's pamphlet has raised a storm of indignation in America, also that "his charge of foul play is entirely gratuitous. It is totally unworthy of any good sportsman to make such a charge now that no inquiry is possible, and it is exceedingly discreditable. The officials of the New York Yacht club have behaved throughout like gentlemen and sportsmen." It is about time for his Lordship to quit offering excuses that do not excuse, now that he is being criticised at home.

WHILE at Green Bay last September we casually noticed a young man wearing white shoes, black stockings, grey-knee-pants and a negligee shirt with the words "On my way to N. Y." on the back. We neglected to contribute when "the hat was passed," supposing that it was a scheme upon the part of the fellow to gull people. However, it now transpires that he was gulled, having been "led to attempt the long walk from Peshtigo to New York by non-sensical tales about a prize for the accomplishment of the feat," and he suffered so from excessive walking that on arriving as far east as Buffalo a surgical operation became necessary. His folks, we learned, are respectable residents of Peshtigo, and his sister, Fannie Culbert, will undoubtedly receive the support of the public in denouncing the practical joke and the parties who played it.

WEST BEND BLORE.

The County board has been in session since Tuesday, and among the different questions that confront them are: The tramp nuisance; court and general claims; the election of a keeper for the county farm.

From what we have been able to learn, the board will adopt measures to cut the price of keeping tramps to 50 cents, from 75 cents, per day. This is a timely move, as experts say there is 80 per cent profit in this class of boarders.

Some of the members of the County board whose nerves are not accustomed to unusual claims against the county, appear to be shocked at the claim of an ex-official. This claim is for fees, etc., from Nov. 15 to Dec. 31, 1894, and amounts to some $700.

MISFORTUNE UPON MISFORTUNE.
A Farmer Recovered From Injuries of a Runaway Only to Meet Death From the Same Cause, Etc.
While returning home from Kewaskum with a load of lumber, last Monday, Fred. Bruesewitz's team ran away and killed him. The coroner's jury found that he fell off the front end of his wagon when in front of F. Backhaus' yard, 1 1/2 miles north of here, and that death resulted from his skull being crushed by one of the wheels of the wagon driven by him.
The deceased met with a similar accident on the 24th of last May, which was caused by the breaking of a neck-yoke while his horses were descending a hill, and he was so seriously injured that he only recently recovered.
Last Tuesday, while some members of the family were on the way to Kewaskum to meet relatives, the back-seat of their wagon fell to the ground with its occupants; and, as a result, Mrs. Wussow (nee Ella Bruesewitz) had her left arm broken. Truly, it seems that "misfortunes never come singly."

BEBRAVED.
[Written for the STATESMAN.]
How cold and drear the north winds blow—
The summer days have flown;
My heart is cold and dreary, too,
For I am all alone.
Last night, while slumbering I lay,
Death came with silent tread,
And touched her heart;
And, I awoke to find that her soul had fled.
My wife was all I had to love;
And now that marble cheek
Will blanch no more in glad surprise,
These lips no welcome speak.
Heard is the voice I loved to hear,
Cold is her hand and heart,
Closed are those bright and laughing eyes,
And I from her must part.
Oh, cruel death, why did you come
To wrest her from my breast;
Come, come and take me, too, I pray,
That I with her may rest.
—L. A. S.
