

PRESIDENT AROUSED.
Wants to Know Why Miles' Departure was Delayed—The Soldiers Suffered.

Washington, D. C., July 21.—President McKinley is thoroughly aroused over the delay which has occurred in the departure of Gen. Miles and the expedition under his command for Porto Rico.

For several days Gen. Miles and his troops have been waiting at Playa del Este awaiting the naval convoy which is to be furnished by Admiral Sampson. The troops are growing impatient and the delay is being looked upon as a serious matter. The delay is believed to be inexcusable and it is believed that the war department with dispatch would have been able to supply the necessary convoys for Gen. Miles' transport to the island. It is believed that the delay is a serious matter and it is believed that the war department with dispatch would have been able to supply the necessary convoys for Gen. SPAIN DARES NOT.

Government feels that it is too weak to make a proposal of peace.
Washington, D. C., July 21.—Without any very tangible reason there has been a notable diminution of the optimistic expressions among officials to the effect that an early peace might be looked for. The reason for this change in opinion is explained by the fact that private advices, entirely unofficial in character, from sources in Spain indicate that there is no present hope of overtures from Spain, the government of which is so far from the United States as to be almost entirely inaccessible.

AGAIN OFFERS TO RESIGN, BUT QUEEN REGENT ASKS HIM TO THINK IT OVER.

London, July 21.—According to a special dispatch from Madrid, Senor Sagasta, the premier, has refused to resign and has been counseled by the Queen Regent to advise with other political leaders relative to his future course.
It is reported that Senor Sagasta's return to Madrid is closely connected with a change in the ministry and that Gen. Weyler will form a cabinet in which Polavieja will be minister for war. This combination, it is further asserted, will support the dynasty in the representation of constitutional rights and continue the war to the utmost limits.

OFFICERS 'BLAME' SPAIN.
Sortie Out of Santiago Ordered by Scheming Politicians.

Chicago, Ill., July 21.—While the officers of Admiral Cervera's squadron decline to discuss the probabilities of peace or the consequences that may follow Watson's expedition and the invasion of Porto Rico, they do not object to a letter from Annapolis to the Chicago Record, they talk very freely of their own experience and consider themselves as having been sacrificed by the politicians. This expression was used by one of them in discussing the fate of their vessels from Spain to the West Indies under the command of Admiral Cervera. He said that the politicians had demanded an expedition to the island of Cuba, and that they were now being sacrificed by the politicians.

GEO. NUGENT, Editor.

By the surrender of Gen. Toral at Santiago de Cuba, the American forces are put in possession of the whole eastern end of the island, an area of 5,000 square miles. General Pando is at Manzanillo, about 100 miles from Santiago, with several thousand men and there are 10,000 Spaniards at Holguin, in the same province. When Gen. Shafter's army is rested he will probably take the field against these places.

GEN. SHAFTER informs the government at Washington that the roster of his Spanish prisoners at Santiago de Cuba numbers 22,789, a greater number than the soldiers under his command. The prisoners are to be sent back to Spain under parole not to serve against the United States again during the war. They include in their number the Spanish garrisons in several towns of the province outside Santiago, such forces as were under the direct command of Gen. Toral.

THE next stage of the war with Spain is the invasion of Porto Rico by Gens. Miles and Brooke, with an army of 40,000 or 50,000 men. It is expected that the Wisconsin regiments at Charleston and Jacksonville will form part of the army, and it will give them their only chance for participation in the war, as peace is likely soon to follow the capture of the island. At the same time with the descent on Porto Rico, Commodore Watson will sail for the coast of Spain, with a powerful fleet of battleships. He will bombard the Spanish forts and try to find and destroy the fleet of Admiral Camara, all that now remains of Spain's once powerful navy. The government of Spain is represented as being in despair and is likely to sue for peace at any time, but it does not dare to accede to American demands, fearing the resentment of the populace.

THE soldiers of the Second and Third Wisconsin regiments got a touch of military service at Charleston last Saturday that was so severe as to give rise to grave complaints. The regiments were ordered out early in the morning for a practice march of six miles into the country and return in heavy marching order. The men are not properly quartered at Charleston and do not obtain the rest in their hot, stuffy barracks in cotton warehouses that they would have in tents. There had also been a failure in the arrangement for rations, and the soldiers had to go without their breakfast. The march was over a rough cobble-stone street, in the blazing sun, and hundreds of the men became exhausted and fell out of the ranks, coming straggling along into the camp hours after the head of the column arrived. Maj. Gen. Wilson, who commands the division declared that the men shammed inability to keep up with the column, and that the officers were lacking in that they did not compel their men to keep their places. He insisted that the march was not a hard one and that men fit for soldiers should certainly be able to make it. He gave prompt orders to have the march repeated and even lengthened on Monday, but on that day the march was shorter, and as the men had their breakfast and the weather was cooler the boys came through all right.

ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE of Madison has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in opposition to Gov. Scofield. He is a very popular man with a portion of the party, and two years ago showed great strength but not enough to win. For several ballots he led all other candidates, but was finally overcome by the combined opposition, the greater part of the strength of all the other candidates going to Major Scofield. The friends of La Follette made a hurrah campaign for him and they are likely to do so again. His following is principally among the young men of the party, and the element which had been organized into the Young Men's Republican clubs of the state took charge of his campaign two years ago. Mr. La Follette's former law partner, Sam A. Harper of Madison, was the head of the league of Republican clubs of the state and directed the work. The league held its state meeting in Milwaukee during the time of the state convention and aided the La Follette movement with all the means in its power. Mr. Harper, who was a great organizer, died a few months ago, and thus Mr. La Follette loses the aid of his strongest lieutenant. The situation this year is vastly different from what it was two years ago. Then Gov. Upham had declined to be a candidate for re-election and there were several candidates for the place. Now Gov. Scofield is a candidate for a second term, and his friends claim that it has been the uniform usage of the party to give a governor a second term if he wanted it, thus making it a part of the unwritten law of the party and having some binding force on the convention. Mr. La Follette bases his candidacy on the need of a reform in political matters that will take the administration of state affairs out of the hands of "the machine," but his opponents say he merely wants to change machines, and that he is using the very methods which he is condemning.

It is now announced that the La Follette men have induced George W. Wolf of Rhine, Sheboygan county, to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in the Fifth (this) district. Opposition to S. S. Barney of West Bend has been expected from this source for some time, but it was not until a few days ago that Mr. Wolf consented to enter the field. He is an outspoken advocate of La Follette's reform ideas, and it is said that Bob's supporters throughout this district will unite on Mr. Wolf.

THE WAY TO PEACE.

If the United States were at war with a sane nation, having a government controlled by the ordinary dictates of common sense, there would have been a plea for peace weeks ago—surely after the destruction of the only efficient squadron which it has aloft.

But there is no reckoning on Spain. The ignorance of its people is so dense, the government is so much more concerned for the safety of the dynasty than for the welfare of the nation, that it apparently will not yield until thoroughly smashed.

A TYPICAL AMERICAN.

Capt. "Buckey" O'Neill, the most picturesque man in the West, was one of the first to fall before Spanish bullets in ambush at Santiago. He came from Arizona with his band of Rough Riders, but all over the land hearts will grieve for having lost in him a near and dear friend. He was too splendid to be the representative of a portion of the country, and all Americans may be proud to have him taken as a national type.

In the vastness of Western territory "Buckey" found a fitting stage for the drama of his life, which was so many-sided that an Eastern journal well described him as "Arizona miner, scout, judge, sheriff, mayor, gambler, dead shot, soldier, hero and all-round good fellow."

To have been all these and to have so lived as to leave the stamp of his personality upon the community is distinction enough for one man. Fate or fortune gave him many opportunities. His real name was William Owen O'Neill. He was born of Irish parents at St. Louis in 1850. He graduated from the national law school of the District of Columbia, and later out of 72 applicants for assistant paymaster of the navy he passed at the head. However, there was some delay in making the appointment, and O'Neill became impatient and left for Arizona, where he found opportunities which led to prosperity and distinction. He was at different times editor of the Arizona Miner, the Phoenix Herald, and the Hoop and Horn, a cattleman's paper.

In that country of chance and hazard "Buckey" got hold of some good mining properties, and was elected sheriff three consecutive terms. His reputation as a fearless regulator of the morals of that community will be long remembered. He was the best shot in the territory, and became the terror of lawbreakers. He came unscathed from a number of fights. His next political office was that of sheriff of Yavapai county. He was three times defeated for congress but was unanimously elected mayor of Prescott, the only vote against him having been his own.

When the call for arms came "Buckey" formed his company so quickly that the President telegraphed his thanks, and the riders went straight to San Antonio, each man proud to be with his captain and willing to die for him.

The women of Prescott presented the riders with a silk flag (the first raised near Sevilla, Cuba,) while the men gave "Buckey" a revolver. Judge Ling, who made the presentation speech, said: "Mayor O'Neill, we want to give you a mount; it's not full grown, but merely a Colt. It bucks, but, every time it does so, we know you will direct it so that a Spaniard will bid the devil good morning."

"Buckey" then started to the front and while at San Antonio he wrote Thurlow Weed Barnes a letter, in which he said: "I am ready to take all the chances. Who would not gamble for a new star on the flag?" "Buckey" gambled and lost, and the Rough Riders are mourning a gallant comrade and a brave soldier, who died "with his boots on," while facing the enemy.—X.

The storm

See a snow storm in summer?

We never did, but we have seen the clothing at this time of the year so covered with dandruff that it looked as if it had been out in a regular snow-storm.

No need of this snowstorm. As the summer sun would melt the falling snow so will...

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten times out of every ten...

It does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick again and short hair becomes long hair.

We have a book on the Hair and Scalp. It is yours, for the asking.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expect from the use of the Vigor, we will refund your money.

Breakfast Bacon.

The pan was sizzling hot, the bacon of water thickness and properly marked with a streak of fat and streak of lean, and was not allowed to touch the pan until the members of the family were heard on their way to breakfast.

Notwithstanding all this, on a sultry morning when nothing else in the way of food could be tolerated but a few slices of crisp bacon, here it was straight and pallid instead of brown and curly.

Potatoes Among the Chinese.

It has always been supposed that as the potato is a native of the Rocky Mountain region, both of North and South America, it was unknown in the old world until after America was discovered.

Water in Farm Crops.

Those crops always pay best which have most water in them, and water furnishes the water without charge.

Wheat Drill Attachment.

The device shown in the sketch is simply an A-shaped sled placed just in front of the hoes of the common roller.

For Marketing Eggs.

A regular egg case is doubtless best for carrying eggs to market, but better than carrying them piled up one upon another in a basket is the device shown in the cut.

Fight Weeds.

Weeds get the mastery at the start because they are always adapted to the soil in which they grow.

Sharp Tools.

There is little danger that either the scythe or cradle will be left dull while these operations had to be done by hand.

Curtis Sheep Dip.

The highly recommended Curtis sheep dip may be easily prepared by any farmer.
