THROUGHOUT the land May 1st was celebrated as Dewey Day in commemoration of that eventful battle in Manila harbor. Eloquent men repeated the story of the heroism of that great and distinguished man, George Dewey. They told the value of the victory which he and his men won, so that we all may forever hallow the day set apart by a grateful people to commemorate a deed so glorious as to be breathed into immortality.

JUDGE JOHN E. MANN, who was serving his twenty-fifth year as judge of the Probate court of Milwaukee county, died Monday at 8:15 p. m. in the Cream City, aged 78 years. In the deceased was the oldest jurist in years and point of service on the bench in the state. He went to Milwaukee from West Bend, where he was circuit judge for seven years. His death resulted from a stroke of vertigo, which he sustained while walking to the court-house at 9 a. m. of the day of his death. As he was last elected to serve until Jan. 1, 1902, Gov. Scofield will have to appoint a successor to him as Probate judge of Milwaukee county.

KOHLVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

Mr. Peter Miller and Miss Lydia Benedum spent Thursday at West Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and Miss Miller of Kewaskum spent Sunday with Mrs. Klumb and family.

It seems that quite a number of our young ladies intend to get married in the near future, as quarling bees are all the rage now days.

Philip Schellinger was kept quite busy moving buildings this week, as three buildings of Eugene Van Epps. Philip Illian's hands is rapidly going up under the halo of a number of carpenters. Mr. Illian intends to have the building ready for business by June 1st.

CENSUS.—A baby boy arrived at the home of Joe. Hosp last Sunday, and William Luecke had a like experience Monday, while Mr. and Mrs. Hamm rejoice over the arrival of a baby girl. We extend congratulations.

A barn owned by Henry Kohl, which was moved 1 1/2 by its foundation by the cyclone, was replaced in position by Mr. Schellinger in two hours, which shows that he is an expert in that line.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM. A cyclone passed through this vicinity on the 27th ult., at about 9 p. m. It seemed to have originated 1 1/2 mile south of here, where it overturned Henry Conrad's shed, smashing the binder and doing other damage. From there it proceeded in a northerly direction, knocking the chimneys off the Saint John church, breaking a number of windows and overturning Joseph Hosp's shed. Its next object was an empty building belonging to Wm. Sell, which was totally destroyed. The aerator of Jacob Hamm's cheese factory was bent out of shape and a small building thrown from its foundation. The next thing the storm struck was Ph. Schellinger's lumber yard, where an immense number of boards were scattered over the entire village and thrown through the walls of adjacent buildings. A bird-cage, 8x10x12 feet, belonging to Geo. Gutjahr, was carried about 200 feet. From here the storm went in a north-easterly direction and wrought terrible havoc with Henry Kohl's forest and buildings, a mile from here. A new barn, 38x80 feet was moved 1 1/2 feet from its foundation, while an empty log barn was actually lifted up and set down beside its foundation, and a shed was twisted out of shape.

The cyclone did much damage besides that afore mentioned. Fences of every description were blown over and fence-boards were carried over forty rods. An immense number of trees were also blown down. The storm moved with great rapidity, having only lasted 3 minutes, but its track was several hundred feet wide. The entire loss to farmers in this vicinity is estimated at several hundred dollars, and our oldest citizens say it was the most destructive storm that ever swept through here.

VILLAGE BOARD PROCEEDINGS.

Kewaskum, Wis., May 1, 1899, 7:30 p. m.

The board met in regular monthly session with President Adolph Rosenheimer in the chair and all trustees present, except Joseph Gritter.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The following bills were allowed: Charles Buss, cleaning village hall and repairing sidewalk, $2.50

G. W. Wright, inspector of election, 3.00

N. J. Morten, same, 3.00

Charles Belzke, same, 3.00

Joseph Schmitt, clerk of election, 3.00

Carl Kuehn, same, 3.00

Nic Mayer, ballot clerk of election, 3.00

Wm. Miller, same, 3.00

Chas. Fechtner, trimming of lamps, April, 4.00

Kewaskum Statesman, job done report and printing 200 bill heads, 8.00

H. Backhaus, Sr., gravel for last year, 2.00

K. E. L. Co., electric current month of April, 40.00

The president reported that 16-foot oak planks, 2 and 2 1/2 inches, suitable for the bridge, could be sold and delivered by August Schurr for $22 per thousand feet; and, on motion of N. J. Morten, the president was authorized to purchase such planks on said terms.

On motion the board adjourned.

LETTER FROM FOREST COUNTY.

Geo. F. Strohm, who moved from here to Wabeno with his family a few weeks ago, writes as follows from there under date of May 2d:

"We arrived here safely on April 20 but found some very bad roads as the frost was just coming out of the ground. Our cattle now find plenty of feed in the woods, as the grass has a good start. We have had fine weather all along, with the exception of a few rainy days. I am well satisfied with the country and intend to clear enough land to raise some potatoes this summer. We can sell all the logs we can market, as there are two saw-mills here—one owned by Schmidt & Stork and the other by Ruch Bros., who also run a shingle mill. I have my house about finished and will start at the stable this week. Fish and game are plentiful, and if nothing interferes with my present plans I will make a living as easily here as I did in Washington county. There is plenty of work in the saw-mills and at carpentering, as quite a number of houses are being built."

WAYNE WAFTINGS.

Miss Agnes Clark is on the sick list. John Schmidt held a barley-hauling race this week.

James Whitty called on John Clark and wife last Sunday.

Henry Petri and Wm. Bryant of Milwaukee visited here Sunday.

A baby girl has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hamm at Kohlsville.

The recent rains gave pastures a rich green hue and boomed vegetation generally.

Opgenorth & Merten began work on the foundation for the new school house this week.

Town Chairman Charles Doms transacted business at the county seat Thursday.

Aug. Becker, the mason contractor of Kohlsville, is doing some work for Philip Eckel this week.

Mrs. Leonard is enjoying a visit from her daughters, Mrs. Greener of Milwaukee and Mary Leonard of Chicago.

Mrs. James Clark returned home from Byron last Sunday, after spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitty.

One of our farmers is busily engaged removing the manure that he hauled onto his land last winter, for fear it would spoil.

A few days ago Michael Darmody's "fine Durham" cow lost a horn as the result of a ladder falling from the straw stack.

Some of the young men who attended the dance last Saturday night must have had a decidedly good time, as they did not get home until the next evening.

The opening dance in Philip Eckel's hall was largely attended Saturday night; and, judging by the time it broke up in the morning, it was highly enjoyed by the dancers.

A rather mean trick was played on one of the musicians at the dance here last Saturday night. During an intermission somebody made an extra hole in the clarinet-player's instrument, which resulted in discords that puzzled the artist for some time before he discovered the cause.

BARGAINS IN VEHICLES.

H. W. Schurr, who manufactures and deals in wagons, buggies, etc., at the corner of Prospect and Fond du Lac aves, offers the following bargains:

New milk-wagons, each, $24.00

First-class top-buggies, each, $25.00

Road-wagons, each, $28.00

Set new buggy-wheels, complete 7.50

Second hand milk-wagons and other goods at proportionately low figures. All goods guaranteed for 1 year. Give me a call! (jy1)

A. T. Watson moved into the Klotz building on Main street Saturday, and Editor Johnston moved into the place vacated by A. T. Watson.

Frank Meenk went to Oostburg last Monday. Miss Ida Bruggink returned with him and will visit her sister, Mrs. C. R. Van de Zande, for some time.

Don't forget the dance in Guentler's hall tonight. Good music and a good time guaranteed to all who attend. Be sure and come, as everybody is invited.—CHAS. KREGER.

One of the deer owned by William Wedde escaped recently and created considerable excitement in the neighborhood. However, after a lively skirmish, Hugh Fitzpatrick and a few assistants succeeded in capturing the animal.

Joseph Haug and Lizzie Dieringer were married at the Catholic church last Monday, with Nicky Kemmel of Kewaskum acting as the groomsmen and Miss Mary Dieringer as the bridesmaid. The young couple left on the 2 p. m. train to spend the week in the Cream City.

OBITUARY.

Jacob Schlaefers, the well-known jeweler of this place, died Thursday evening of typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of two weeks' duration. He was born at Rhenish, Prussia, in 1854, came to America in 1867 and located at St. Michaels, where he remained for five years. In 1872 he went to Buffalo county and lived there until 1882, when he came here and opened a jewelry store. The following year he married Miss Theresa Strobel, who preceded him in death in 1893. Three years ago he married Miss Theresa Budde, who survives him together with five children.

The funeral will be held today at 9 a. m. from the St. Mathew church. The Catholic Knights will attend in a body, as the deceased was a member of the local branch.

He will be sadly missed by a large circle of friends. That he was a prosperous business man is shown by the fact that at the time of his death he owned a fine business block.
