Paris, Aug. 2.—An attempt on the life of the Shah of Persia, Muzaffar-Ed-Din was made this morning, but luckily it resulted in no harm to his majesty.

A man broke through a line of policemen and tried to mount the royal carriage which was being escorted to the palace.

At the police station, the man expressed regret that he had been unable to carry out his intention. He said: "This is an affair between me and my conscience."

It was a quarter past 9 o'clock when the carriage of the Shah emerged from the court of the palace.

A requisition was secured and Newton made two or three attempts to get the officer to turn his head by calling his attention to someone in the crowd.

New London, Mo., Aug. 2.—Alexander Jester is free. Twelve men, after hearing the evidence in the case and after a half day of argument officially declared him not guilty of the murder of Gilbert W. Gates. They returned this verdict a few minutes before 9 o'clock last night.

When the words "not guilty" fell on the air and a rush was made for the old man, who was sitting calmly in his rock-chair. Then began the handshaking and congratulations. Jester's two sons, Harvey Jester and William Hill, greeted their father heartily.

STORM IN STATE.

Lightning Strikes Near Sleeping Children—Plymouth in Darkness.

Plymouth, Wis., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—Plymouth was visited by the heaviest storm of years last night, much damage being done in and around the city.

The residence of Charles Berry was struck by lightning. The bolt entered the room in which his two children were sleeping, knocking the children up and scorching them.

At a result of the storm the city will be in darkness tonight, as the damage to the power lines is so extensive that it will be necessary to burn down the lines.

MR. BUTLER IS HOT.

North Carolina Senator Sends a Challenge to Congressman Bellamy.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 2.—Senator Marion Butler sent the following letter yesterday under a special delivery stamp to Congressman Bellamy of Wilmington:

The Hon. W. D. Bellamy, Wilmington, N. C.—Sir: You are quoted in the Raleigh morning paper as saying: "I wish to see you mean that you feel it your duty to forego my seat from the state and to go to Germany to see the Kaiser."

It is that a cowardly, lawless mob should do it? If you think I should be expelled from the state, I suggest that you undertake the job yourself. You are one man and I am one man. If you mean what you say and have any courage (except when you have a mob of red shirts behind you), I suggest that you proceed to Raleigh and fight the election on your own merits. You have not the courage to undertake this job, then I suggest that you have the decency to resign your seat. Respectfully, MERRILL BUTLER, Chairman.

This is plain language and it is commendable as personal challenge. Both the senator and congressman are looked upon as men of personal courage.

London, Aug. 2.—The war in South Africa is clearly approaching an end. Hunter has been holding out, especially in the Transvaal, but British troops ought to be able to catch that command with a few more days' fighting. New Map of the United States.

In about two weeks there will be for distribution at the United States Land office one of the most interesting maps of the United States ever published.

The map is prepared for more than a year, and it is now nearing completion. On a United States map will appear for the first time the many islands which came under the dominion of Uncle Sam as a result of the war with Spain.

In addition also will appear the Hawaiian group. The space occupied by the states on maps heretofore issued by the department will be smaller on the new map, sufficient space being allowed for the Philippine Archipelago, Guam, Porto Rico, the Hawaiian Islands and Alaska.

Rural Routes to Remain.

That the rural free delivery service is growing popular at a tremendous pace is shown by the activity of the department officials in acting upon recommendations of inspectors in the field for the establishment of new routes.

What was only an experiment in this service of the agricultural constituencies two years ago is now firmly established, and within the present fiscal year about 3,000 routes will be put in operation. The recommendations of inspectors in the thrifty and progressive states of the Mississippi valley are generally acted on promptly and few recommendations from Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota are rejected. At the next session congress will be called upon to increase the appropriation for this service to about $3,000,000. There are 1,263 routes in operation now. There are on file applications for 2,700 routes, which, with 500 additional routes, can be established with the funds available. Accordingly, at the end of the current year, there will be in operation about 4,500 rural free delivery routes divided in proportion among the states. It will thus be seen that every application for the service in Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas now on file and recommended by the inspectors will be put into force within the current fiscal year. By July, 1901, the cost alone will have reached $2,500,000 a year.

THE SLAUGHTER OF HUMBERT.

The assassination of the easy-going, good-natured King Humbert of Italy, the oldest son and successor of the gallant Sardinian, who threw off the hated Austrian yoke from northern Italy and united the Italian states, speaks of the purposeless but sullen and murderous anarchism that is rife at the present moment, especially in continental Europe, and to a certain extent in all parts of the world.

It seems of a piece with the recent attempt against the life of the Prince of Wales and the murder of the Emperor of Austria, as well as with the utterly unprovoked killing of President Carnot of France.

Humbert was beloved by his people, and the dispatches from Monza say that it was with difficulty the regicide was safed from the fury of the populace. But, so illogical is human nature that no doubt there are many who would gladly have acted with the mob and yet whose daily speech breathed discontent against the governments and rulers. It is the thoughtless talk of people who know better that betrays half-crazed desperadoes to these frightful deeds.

Evening Wisconsin.

The Michigan boy who refused a tip for holding Helen Gould's horse seems to have only imagined that she would give him a good start in life, as upon going to her New York residence he was turned away and became a subject of a charity instead of philanthropy. Luckily the boy fared better at the hands of a Miss Sullivan of the Soldiers' Relief association, in that she gave him transportation back to Phoenix, Mich., where William Jackson now finds the expense of his Gotham trip such that instead of giving him a start in life his refusal to take a "tip" from Miss Gould has resulted in a $60-setback.

The Washington correspondent of the Detroit Free Press says: "Mayor Rose of Milwaukee, who made such a good impression at the Kansas City convention, is a fast friend of ex-Gov. Peck, and the plan is said to be to elect the latter to succeed Congressman Otjen, and then to elect Rose to succeed Senator Spooner, provided the Democrats carry the legislature, as they hope to do." This may account for Rose refusing to be a candidate for governor.

R. M. LAFOLETTE'S nomination as the Republican candidate for governor has been conceded for some time now, but thus far none of his supporters have favored him with an ode similar to Kipling's tribute to Lord Roberts.

The late earthquake in Utah is reported to have been "so severe that the people became thoroughly frightened," but we presume the Mormon inhabitants were not shaken in their belief.

A Mascot Hen.

A farmer in Clay county, Ia., has a bin containing about 800 bushels of wheat. About a month ago he proposed to market the grain, but on going to the bin he discovered that a hen had nested on the wheat, and that to remove the grain would "break her up," so he decided to wait until she had laid and saved the chick. He kept the hen in the bin, and she never found anything that would give her such quick relief. It is for sale by L. Rosenheimer.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent me a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. BURDICK, Liberty, R. I. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.

Watch These Agents.

Many farmers throughout the country are being swindled by agents who sell them a "ball-bearing churn," guaranteed to turn out butter in 2 minutes. It is charged that the agents use a chemical during the demonstration to make the cream form butter quickly. After the agents are gone the farmer learns to his sorrow that he cannot make butter with the "ball-bearing churn" in an hour.—X.

Broken Bric-a-Bracs.

Mr. Major, the famous cement man of New York, explains some very interesting facts about Major's Cement.

The multitudes who use this standard article know that it is many hundred per cent. better than other cements for which similar claims are made, but a great many do not know why. The simple reason is that Mr. Major uses the best materials ever discovered and other manufacturers do not use them, because they are too expensive and do not show large profits. Mr. Major's cement costs $2.75 a barrel, and another costs $2.50 a barrel, while a large share of the so-called cements and liquid glue upon the market are nothing more than the glue, dissolved in water or other liquid, and in some cases, altered slightly in color and odor by the addition of cheap and useless materials.

Major's cement retails at 1 1/2c a bottle, and when a dealer tries to sell a substitute you can depend upon it that his only object is to make larger profit.

Insist on having Major's. Don't accept any other brand of cement.
