Communications should be accompanied by the name of the writer; not necessarily by publication, but as evidence of good faith on the part of the author. Write only upon one side of paper; and, in giving names and dates, be careful to make them plain and distinct. Advertising copy should reach us not later than Wednesday in order to insure its insertion in the issue of the current week.

SATURDAY, OCT. 27, 1900.

The average politician is now as busy as the accommodating woman who cares for her neighbor's baby on wash day.

Much war is now going on, but it is said that more steel is used in the manufacture of pens than in all the sword and gun factories in the world.

JOHN SHERMAN, the veteran Ohio statesman, died in Washington last Monday at 6:45 a. m., of brain exhaustion, after being nearly completely unconscious for about 36 hours. His remains were interred at Mansfield, O., last Wednesday.

Since Mark Hanna insists that "the full dinner-pail" is the paramount issue, the party at which the most used meats would circulate well together seems in order. For instance, the ratio of 16 links of wiener wurst to 1 pound of unembalmed beef might check the desired vote, while the "free and unlimited" carving of hogs and cattle might be promised "without the aid or consent" of P. D. Armour or any other butcher.

How He Enjoyed Himself.

If you would enjoy your work, go about it as if it were a game you were set upon winning. Here is an illustration. A certain old farmer learned this secret—which is not a new one—while watching two "city fellows" playing chess. "The game was long, and he ventured to interrupt it."

"Excuse me," he said, "but the object of both of you is to get them little things from where they are over to where they ain't?"

"That partly expresses it," replied one of the players.

"And you have to be continually on the lookout for surprises and difficulties?"

"Constantly."

"And if you ain't mighty keeferful, you're going to lose some on 'em."

"Yes."

"An' then there's that other game that you dress up odd fur, an' play with long sticks an' a little ball."

"You mean golf."

"I think prob'ly that's it. Is that game amusin'?"

"It's quite interesting, and the exercises is very beneficial."

"Well, I reckon it's a mighty good joke on me."

"To what do you refer?"

"The way I've been havin' fun without knowin' anything about it. If you gentlemen really want to enjoy yourselves, come over an' git me to let you drive pigs. You git all the walkin' you want, an' the way you have to watch for surprises, an' a figger so's not to lose 'em, would tickle you most to death."

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. The Tallest Woman Living.
Abomah, a superb specimen of the African negro, who enjoys the distinction of being the tallest woman living, is black as ebony, and endowed with great physical strength, combined with a symmetrically moulded figure, is now on her way to Liverpool. She was formerly one of the attendants and bodyguards of the barbaric King of Dahomey, whose Amazonian warriors have been famous alike for their prowess and cruelty. Trained for her blood-thirsty calling from early childhood, she was inured alike to hardship and pain. Her stature increasing out of all proportion to her years, she became a particular favorite of the monarch, and led his army. This extraordinary woman stands over 8 feet in height, and can easily support the weight of a man on her outstretched hand.—X.

He Won the Dollar.

A showman was making a great fuss in the front of his exhibition about the wonders he had inside. A man standing in the crowd with a little boy beside him cried out:

"I'll bet you a dollar you can't let me see a lion, or a tiger, or a bear."

"Done," eagerly said the showman. The money was placed in the hand of a bystander.

"Now walk this way," said the showman, "and I'll soon convince you. There you are," said he, triumphantly, "look in the corner at that beautiful Nubian lion."

"I don't see any," responded the other.

"What's the matter with you?" asked the showman.

"The blind," was the grinning reply; and the blind man pocketed the money and went away.—X.

Just Tarry or Pay a Fine.
The Argentine Republic has considered it necessary to make drastic regulations in order to secure a due increase of population. All sorts of schemes for this purpose were devised and discussed, and at length the legislature passed an act making it illegal to reject an offer of marriage. The fines imposed go to benefit the man or woman whose offer has been refused. The clause of the act reads as follows: "Young citizens of either sex who shall, without legitimate motive, reject the address of him or her who may aspire to her or his hand, and who shall contumaciously remain unmarried, shall pay the sum of 500 piastres for the benefit of the young person, man or woman, who has been so refused." Twenty is the age at which the unmarried are to be convicted, and 80 the age when the fines are to cease. The act provides that every male from the ages of 20 to 80 shall pay a tax till he marries, and pay it once a month.

Young Lady—When I encouraged your suit, Mr. Film, I did so because you led me to believe that you were an artist. Now I find you are only a photographer, so please consider that you have developed another negative.

Must Be Introduced.
A good-natured young fellow was at a rustic picnic, and rashly spoke to a young lady without the formality of an introduction. He happened to see a large caterpillar crawling on her lace collar, and (jumping toward her) he said:

"Madam, permit me to—"

But the young lady waved him off with an imperious and insulting gesture, and said:

"How dare you speak to me without an introduction? You certainly are no gentleman, sir."

Here the caterpillar overbalanced and fell on her neck.

"Youch! Oh, take it off! Oh, please do take it off, somebody!" screamed the fair one.

The young man was the only "somebody" nearby, and he said:

"I couldn't think of it, madam; I haven't been introduced to the caterpillar."—X.

Kewaskum Statesman.

SATURDAY, OCT. 27, 1900.

C. & N. W. RAILWAY TIME-TABLE. TRAINS GOING NORTH. Milwaukee, 2:10; Racine, 2:40; Kaukauna, 3:10; West Bend, 3:40; Hartford, 4:10; Kewaskum, 4:40; Fond du Lac, 5:10.

LAONICAL LOCALS. Stock fair next Wednesday. Election a week from next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Backhaus, who live one-half mile south of here, left Tuesday for Clintonville, to attend the funeral of a relative.

John Thorn and his sisters, Anna and Mary, of Hartford were guests of their uncle Jos. Grittner and family here from Sunday till Thursday.

Miss Meta and Adella Wagner, who have been visiting their brother Rudolph and wife here, returned to their home at Oconto Falls last Saturday.

Wednesday last L. D. Guth was summoned to serve as a juror in the U. S. district court, which will convene in Milwaukee on Nov. 7th, at 11 a. m.

Wm. F. Backhaus, the cattle dealer, last Thursday purchased the lot just east of H. J. Ebenreiter's store on Main street, from Nic. Guth, Sr., for $800.

Otto Backhaus, vice-president, and E. P. Scheibe, secretary-treasurer of the Marshallfield Brewing Co., called on the A. F. Backhaus family here Sunday.

John Wunderle accidentally cut a gash about 3 inches long on his head Thursday, while splitting wood, as a result of the axe catching a clothesline overhead.

Frank Smith left Thursday for the western part of the state to re-engage in the work of getting stave timber out of the woods for the Stolper Coopers Co. of Milwaukee.

As the result of experimenting by sowing turnips in with 12 acres of barley, Jacob Brissel reaped a good crop of the grain besides about 1,000 bushels of enormous turnips this season.

Mrs. Susanna Mayer, the venerable mother of S. F. Mayer and Mrs. Andrew Pick of West Bend, died at the latter's home on the 19th inst., aged 64 years, and was interred last Monday forenoon.

Miss Katie Werner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Werner of the town of Wayne, and Frank Wittmann of the town of West Bend, were married at St. Bridget's church by Rev. Vogt last Tuesday forenoon, and boarded the 3:36 p. m. train here the same day for a wedding trip to New London.

Democratic day, Oct. 27th, will be observed tonight under the auspices of the Bryan club, with a grand rally at the party headquarters in Marx's hall. Music will be furnished by the Kewaskum brass band, and Hon. Martin Hughes of Sheboygan will address the people upon the political issues of the day.

Attorney A. C. Backus spent last Wednesday at home here. August now delivers a Republican address nightly in the southern part of the county, and for some time previous to this week he had been speaking in the northern part of the state. He expects to continue stumping in the county until the campaign closes, and probably will speak here on the eve of the election.

BOILER EXPLOSION AT HARTFORD.

One of the most terrific explosions ever heard in Hartford took place there last Tuesday at about 11 a. m., when the boiler of the engine used to operate the drill for the city well exploded. A large crowd of men were around it but a few minutes before watching the pumps, which had just been put in to test the supply of water. Tool boxes filled with hammers, wrenches and old iron, were blown over 100 feet from the engine, while boards from the engine-shell were scattered for nearly half a block, together with chunks of wood and gas pipes.

The men who were running the engine, drill and pump luckily were on the other side and above the engine, thus escaping unhurt. George Hess, who was in front of the Palace drug store, about 75 feet away, was completely covered with soot and mud. George Hall was badly burned and hurt about the head and knee, as flying iron and the suction stem hit him about 50 feet, where he landed on his head in the roadway. Chris Kaiser, who was cleaning a window of the mill-door about 50 feet away, had the glass all smashed to pieces in his hands, but he was not hurt, though large pieces of iron were blown into the mill. Jacob Jalger was blown about 45 feet, but he also escaped uninjured.

The engine had been used in operating the city water works for over a year. The drillers, having sunk the well over 1,000 feet, had just placed a deep water pump to test the supply. The boiler was inspected but a few months ago and pronounced all right. Many teams ran away as a result of the explosion, but no serious damage was done by them.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

WEDDING BELLS. Otto Wesenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesenberg, was married to Mary Schief, daughter of George Schief, Sr., at the church of the Ev. Peace congregation here Wednesday at 11 a. m., by Rev. Erber. The following attended the bride, viz: Gustav Schief, Nettie Schaefer, and Minnie Adams of Plymouth. The groomsmen were Chas. Schief, Robert and Albert Wesenberg. The celebration took place at the bride's home, with near relatives and friends and members of the Ev. Peace congregation present. The young couple left on the 5:43 p. m. train Thursday for their future home in Milwaukee, where the groom is employed as a motor-man on the street railway. We extend best wishes for their future.

Wm. Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hess of the town of Wayne, was married to Miss Katie Brissel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brissel, at the church of the Ev. Peace congregation here at 2:30 p. m. last Thursday, with Rev. Erber officiating. The bride was attended by Julia Hess and Clara Stagy, while Nic. Hess and Chas. Brissel served as the groomsmen. After the ceremony a celebration was held at the bride's home. The young couple will reside at Milwaukee, where Mr. Hess is in the employ of the street railway company. We extend congratulations.

THE CHURCH FAIR. The fair held in the Holy Trinity school house here from Monday to Thursday night was a grand success, both attractively and financially. The building was nightly packed with people from here and all surrounding sections of the country, and all seemed well pleased with the many entertaining features of the fair.

The first floor was entirely used for exhibiting the various articles to be disposed of, and the display proved a great attraction for visitors who admired the rich lot of prizes. On the second floor the entertainments were given, with standing room at a premium every night. The program of each evening was interesting, and the young people who took part therein deserve great credit. The presence of the St. Agnes Juvenile band of Fond du Lac, which consisted of 6 pieces, was quite an attraction on Tuesday evening, and their musical selections were highly appreciated.

The net receipts for the four evenings amount to over $1,300, which is considered a neat sum towards the building of a new church.

FOR SALE. Seven or eight Shropshire rams and a yearling buck.—PETER CAMPBELL.

AUCTION.—On Saturday, Nov. 3, John Kinney will sell, at his farm, 3 miles west of Kewaskum, in the town of Wayne, a lot of live-stock and farm implements. See bills.

I will sell my blacksmith shop, with dwelling house and barn, all buildings in good condition. Will also consider trade on other real estate.—J. W. BLACKMOR, New Prospect.

NOTICE TO SHEEP BREEDERS.—The undersigned has some thoroughbred Shropshire spring rams for sale cheap. Anyone desiring to buy one or more for breeding purposes may call at my farm, 2 1/2 miles north of Kewaskum.—J. N. FERSCHBACHER.

UP TO THE MINUTE. TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS:—I desire to announce that I will meet any and all competition in Marble and Granite work of any design you may select. No matter where you are or what you want, or where you want the work done, you will "save money" if you come to see me.

I have just received two carloads of handsome monuments and markers, and we are now busy at work on some of the finest designs ever turned out, though we are ready to fill more orders on short notice.

P. W. HARNS, West Bend Marble and Granite Works.

Narrowly Escaped Suffocation.

Henry Foerster of the Foerster Bros., well drillers, narrowly escaped suffocating in a well on Sam Hawig's place at Wayne last Wednesday afternoon. The well in question is 30 feet deep, and sometime ago Foerster Bros. got a drill stuck therein, while engaged in the work of deepening it. They did their utmost to recover the drill and had given it up as lost until last Wednesday, when they finally attempted to accomplish the task by blasting the rock at the bottom of the well. Afterward Henry went down into the well to see how things looked, and luckily took the precaution to have a rope bound around his waist. He had been at the bottom but a few seconds when he signaled to be pulled up and immediately fell over. When hoisted up he was unconscious and remained so for ten minutes afterward. Gas had been formed from the dynamite explosion to such an extent that the victim would have suffocated to death but for the rope which he had around his body.

Seeing them is Enough. The price you pay for a Jacket or suit is high or low, according to how much satisfaction it gives. No matter what you pay for something distasteful, it's dear at any price. Just so with good things; they're cheap at any price. But best of all is, get good satisfaction giving things at a low price—that's the Palmer Garment. Just to meet this demand it was put on the market. To prove how well it does, come in and ask our clerks to show you the line; it will need no more talking. For sale by... L. ROSENHEIMER, Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

WE SHOW AN EXCEPTIONALLY LARGE ASSORTMENT OF... LADIES' COATS AND CAPES and cordially invite the Ladies to call and inspect them. The workmanship cannot be improved, the linings are of the very best quality, and the trimmings made to match the garment. Every garment shown was made for us, and you can rest assured that we have no old garment to sell for this Fall's style. We do not sell $20 jackets for $9.95, nor $15 capes for $7.99, as some stores advertise, but we do claim to give you as good a $7.50, $10 or $12 Jacket or Cape as can be bought in the state. ...CLOTHING... Never in the history of our business have we shown a larger or better assortment of Fall and Winter Clothing. We have Clothing for everybody, from the boy who is about to discard skirts to the largest man in Washington county. The prices we have marked all our... SUITS AND OVERCOATS at make them appeal very strongly to conservative buyers. Especially worthy of mention are the Fancy Suits shown by us with reversible vests—one side being of the same goods as coat and pants, while the reverse side is of fancy silk. They must be seen to be appreciated. Give us a chance and we will show you all the new Fall creations. ...JOHN GOETTER & CO., WEST BEND, WISCONSIN.
