Mixed Up in a Row. Gus Drumm and Herman Bielow of

Van Dyne, yesterday afternoon had warrants sworn out against Frank Kelly, Will Ferry, Bernie McBride, James Coyne, Hank Friday and William Kelly, charging them with assault. Drumn bore evidence of having been mixed up in something stronger than a Sunday chool picnic. His head was a mass of bruises, both eyes were colored a pro-nounced black, and a heavy gash over his right eye and gashes in his scalp, testified to his claim that he had been badly handled. Bielow also had a bad looking head. The men claim it all hap pened in a row Saturday night.

Big Sciznie of Nets. Deputy Fish Warden Carpenter con fiscated 6000 feet of gill nets and a 150 feet seine and three rows on the east some and three rows on the east shore of Lake Winnebago and arrested Benedict Schoenborn, Joseph Guiel, Mat-thew and John Schoenborn, Jacob Schmitz and August Pitzen on a charge of illegal fishing. Pitzen pleaded guilty in Justice Watson's court Saturday afterernoon and paid a fine and costs amounting to $28. The others will be tried August 31.

Coat West with Men. John Tingle, aged 26 years; Thomas Blanton, 32 years, shook a game of dice in the Corbeille saloon on Brooke street Saturday afternoon. Nothing was said about a black serge coat hanging on the wall being one of the stakes. But when the mea left the coat also disappeared. It was the property of the proprietor, who reported the loss to the police. Chief Nelan and Officer Ecke rounded un the Nolan and Officer Ecke rounded up the men near the old St. Paul depot. They bad the black serge in their possession.

New Chapel Opened. The new Baptist chapel at North Fond du Lac was opened to the public yesterday afternoon, a Sunday school service beig held at 230 o'clock and a preaching service at 3:30. Rev. Henry Happell of the First Baptist church of this city, who raised the funds for the construction for the North Fond du Lac chapel, preached the sermon, and the choir of the church gave the musical pro-gramme of the service. The chapel is gramme of the service. The chapel is a small, conveniently-arranged building and is so constructed that an addition, which will be the main part of the building, can be built whenever the condition will warrant carrying out the plans. Mrs. Carrington Lewys in Town. Mrs. Elwin Lewys, formerly Mrs. Abbie Beeson Carrington of this city, arrived in Fond du Lac today with her husband and her daughter, Miss Mary Carrington. VOL.-VI. NO. 48.

Shaffer Onoted as Predicting that the Strike will Come to an End Before Long.

Pittsburg, Pa, Aug. 22.-The American Tinplate officials made a successful run-in this morning of thirty nonunion-ists to operate their Star plant at Twelfth and Etna streets. The strikers had been notified that 150 men would arrive over Pennsylvania road at 2 o'clock and large number of strikers gathered at station to receive them. When the rain finally arrived, over two hours late. the thirty-two newcomers, under the ruidance of six of the company efficials and the protection of twenty-five police-men, were marched to the mill, three blocks away. No demonstration what-ever was made by the strikers, but they followed the crowd and tried to get a chance to talk to the nonunionists to dischance to talk to the nonunionists to us-suade them. The police, however, pre-vented all communication by forming a hollow square about their charges and keeping all strikers at a distance. No keeping all strikers at a distance. No trouble occurred and the new men were safely lodged in the mill. The strikers claim that five of the men broke away from the guards and took to the hills.

"Peace with Honor."

Warning to Peace Disturbers.

Seven foreigners arrested for disturb ing the peace at the Pennsylvania Tube plant last evening, were given a hearing by Magistrate McGarvey this morning and severely reprimanded. The magistrate requested the Amalgamated officials to instruct the foreigners as to the rights of others as well as how for their clais to instruct the foreigners as to the rights of others as well as how far they themselves could go without breaking the law. He said:
"Hereafter I want it very clearly understood that anyone arrested in connec-tion with strike disorders will be made to feel the utmost penalty of the law. We have but one duty to perform, and that is to protect the commonwealth, and this duty will be fulfilled at all hazards. It is the duty of the officers of the Amalgary gamated association to inform the men that have been arrested and those not aring the strikers to call tomorrow and Sainarday and receive their money. The strikers are guessing as to what the move made by the company means. It was reported that every employe will be asked when he calls for his money whether he wants to return to work, and if enough men signify their intention to return the mill will be started Monday.

The fires in the bar mill of the Painter plant have been lighted and preparations made to start the mill. According to Manager Harper many of the old men are back at work and more are coming in each day. He expects to have the entire plant running next week.

Assistant Secretary Tighe denied the story that Secretary Bishop of the Ohio state board of arbitration was in New York with a new proposition of settlement. Bishop, he said, was in Columbus, and had no connection with the organization.

It is said that the Joliet strikers are discussing the advisability of going back to work should the mills be opened again, and that developments may be expected before Sunday.

The statement issued on Tuesday by the anti-strike element caused a change of sentiment in the few wavering adherents of Davis, and m South Chicago yesterday the opinion was voiced by many that the question was effectually settled.

Members of the lodges who heretofore have been reticent concerning their position in the matter, now display no hesitancy in declaring that the first decision of the lodges is the final one.

The charters of the lodges, so peremptorily revoked by Secretary Tighe, have not been returned to the national body, and the officers assert that at the national convention of the body, to be held in Wheeling, W. Vs., next May, the authority of the deputy of President Shaffer will be questioned. They express confidence of the restoration of their privileges.

St. Joseph, Mich., Aug. 22.—Duff Mason, Joe Mason and Bert Morris, the three St. Joseph oarsmen who hope to gain the distinction of being the first oarsmen in the history of Lake Michigan to row in a small open boat across the lake from St. Joseph to Chicago, began their voyage at 8:32 last night.

As the little boat passed down the St. Joseph river and entered the lake the boys were cheered at every dip of the long oars. Good wishes were extended to them by scores of friends and citizens collected about the docks to witness the first few hundred yards of the sixty-two-mile voyage to Chicago.

The oarsmen had blankets and food stored away in the stern of the boat, and, if overtaken by any unexpected squalls or delays, they will be in a position to remain in the craft for several days without enduring any hardships. Fond du Lac. Successor to Chas. C. Schaefer.

While disclaiming any intention to sue for peace with the United States Steei corporation, President Shaffer believes that the end of the strike is not far off During the last two days he has been talking about "peace with honor." "It won't be very long until we have honorable peace. We are slowly getting what we started out to fight for. Just at present both siges are in the heat of battle and there can be no talk of a truce, but it will come in short while, I think."

Mr. Shaffer would not tell on what he based his prediction of a near-by settlement, but his statement is interpreted to mean that when the Lindsay & McCutcheon mill in Allegheny, owned by the hoop combine, is started in full, the contention of the strikers will have fallen flat and they will be ready to accept the combine's proposition.

Jackson marks the end of a memorable career. A career filled with active work for his government and the people of the lake region. Capt. Jackson was a sailor by instinct and, while born far inland in the little village of Boston, Nettington-shore, England, he took to life as a sailer in his thirteenth year and continued to sail the lakes until a year ago.

The captain was born on September 8, 1827, and a few years later his father came to America and settled in New York. The mother and the boy followed in 1839 and the following year the young Jackson started his career as a sailor, making his first trip from Buffalo to Chicago. For nearly sixty years he continued his life on the lakes and in this time he sailed many of the largest boats plying between Buffalo and Chicago. River Falls Has New Idea for Automobiles. Black River Falls, Wis., Aug. 22.— [Special.]—Sidney Clark of this city, 89 years old, and who invented the paper collar, has just completed a model of a spring automobile. It is but about ten inches long and he runs it with a spring taken from a small lever clack. He put inches long and he runs it with a spring taken from a small lever clock. He put a weight of about ten pounds on it and it worked to perfection. He claims that the principle is complete and that any amount of power can be applied and that they can be built to run any length of time. The machine is practically noiseless. Clark is sanguine that he has a valuable invention.

Janesville Physician Does Not Believe in Dr. Kock's Bovine Tuberculosis Theory.

Janesville, Wis., Aug. 22.—[Special.]—Dr. William Finckney Roberts stands ready to give his life for the good of mankind by submitting himself to be exmankind by submitting himself to be experimented upon in order to give a practical demonstration of the bovine tuber-culosis theory of Dr. Koch. If the theory is correct, and the Janesville physician thinks it will not be so, it will be a great boon to the human race. The theory is that bovine tuberculosis cannot be transmitted to people. Dr. Roberts does not agree with Dr. Koch and is willing to sacrifice himself to save people from suffering by any false theory.

Dr. Roberts was born in Brooks, Waldo county, Me., in 1838; was the youngest of eleven children, and was left an orphan at the age of 8 years, since which

The screams of both caused the neighbors to come and Dr. Buchanan was summoned. It was too late, however, the girl dying in horrible agony, and the mother had gone temporarily in sane.

Contrary to the wishes of her mother, the young girl, who but recently recovered from a severe attack of scarlet fever, yesterday afternoon borrowed a bicycle from a girl friend and, accompanied by another, rode out to Duck creek, four miles away. On the return trip she punctured her tire and was compelled to walk most of the distance.

The afternoon being very warm, she was tired when she reached home, and told her mother of 'the mishap. This called forth the reproach, and the girl immediately repaired to her bedroom and swallowed the poison.

In the opinion of the physician and nurses nothing can save the mother from losing her mind but possibly the return of her husband.

The Reid family belongs to the most cultured set of Green Bay, and is much thought of. Both parents are known to fairly idolize their children, and for this reason sympath in their bereavement is expressed everywhere.

Railways -- Past and Present. It need not surprise us to learn that a fifth of all the money in the world is invested in railroads. To buy the railroads would exhaust the supply of currency. For the government to buy them, in accordance with current proposals for governmental ownership, would involve financial operations that stagger the brain. In the United States alone from $12,500,000,000 to $13,000,000,000 are invested in the great systems that interline vested in the great systems that interline the continent. There are 1,500,000 cars, 37, 600 locomotives and the payrolls include nearly 1,000,000 men. Exactly seventynearly 1,000,000 men. Exactly seventy-three years ago there were three miles of track—flat-faced, wooden track—in this country, a brace of unmistakable, but otherwise valueless locos, and a few strings of leathery railway carriages.— Ainslee's Magazine.

CHAPTER VII.—(Continued.) "There would, we hoped, be no great lifficulty in our reaching Monmouth's forces when the hour came. In those roublous times the main rodas were so nfested with highwaymen and footpads that it was usual for travelers to carry weapons and even armor for their protection. There was no reason, therefore, we had of it, and then came a rattling and a dramming from Portsmouth, where the troops were assembled under arms. Mounted messengers clattered through the willows through the village street with their heads low on their horses' necks, for the We were standing ur doorway in the gloaming, watch ag away to the eastward, when a little nan galloped up to the door and pulled p his panting horse.

there will be some more skillful leaders and veteran soldiers in the west present to take his place. But, if he knew the y to take his place. But, if he knew the isages of war, how came it that he should fight upon a private quarrel at such a time?" He drew a flat, brown book from his bosom, and ran his long, thin finger down the table of contents, "Subsectio nona"—here is the very case set forth, 'An in bello publico provocatus ad duellum privatae amicitiae causa declinare possit,' in which the learned Fleming layeth it down that a man's private honor must give way to he good of the cause. The prayer finished, we all rose with the exception of Saxon, who remained with his face buried in his hands for a minute or so before starting to his feet. I shrewdly suspect that he had been fast asleep, though he explained that he had paused to offer up an additional supplication. My father placed his hands upon my head and invoked the blessing of Heaven upon me. He then drew my companion aside, and I heard the jingling of coin, from which I judge that he was giving him something wherewith to start upon his fravels. My mother clasped me to her heart, and slipped a small square of paper into my hand, saying that I was to look at it at my leisure, and that I should make her happy if I would but conform to the instructions contained in it. This I promised to do, and, tearing myself away, I set off down the dark-ened village street, with my long-imbed companion striding by my side.

"Please accept hearty thanks on and made a strong and well woman of me in two weeks. I suffered with bearing-down pains, backache and continual headache, and found no relief until I tried Peruna. It cured me completely, and I feel as young and well as when 18. I wish every woman knew the merits of the medicine, and no home would be without it."—Mrs. E. A.

These cases are treated with the same care and fidelity as the private patients of a regular family physician. During the past year a large number of cases have been cured. Every item of the treatment is directed, for which no charge whatever is made.

Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Bordulac, N. C., Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Bordulac, N. C., writes:

"I was troubled with very serious female weakness; had spells of flowing that exhausted me so that I feared I would lose my mind. I suffered untold agony with my back, the pain extending down my left leg. My pain was so severe that I would have welcomed death at any moment—so no one need wonder that I recommend Peruna so highly, for it cured me entirely of that. Not a sign of pain has returned, and that will soon be two years now.

"I am glad that there is a way I can speak, trusting that many a sufferer will read my testimonial, and not only read but believe."—Mrs. Wm. Henderson.

Millions of Mothers

TSE CUTICURA SOAP, assisted by Cuticura Ointment. the great skin cure, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin of infants and children, for rashes, itchings, and chafings, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use Cuticura Soap in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and excoriations, for too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used these great skin purifiers and beautifiers to use any others, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. Cuticura Soap combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuticura, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odours. No other medicated soap is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world.

The roar of a lion can be heard farther than the sound of any other living creature. Next comes the cry of a hyena, and then the hoot of the owl; after these the panther and the jackal. The donkey can be heard fifty times farther than the horse and the cat ten times farther than the horse and the cat ten times farther than the dog. Strange as it may seem, the cry of a hare can be heard farther than that of either the cat or the dog.
