Communications should be accompanied by the name of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of good faith on the part of the author. Write only on one side of paper, and, in giving names and dates, be careful to make them plain and distinct. Advertising copy should reach us not later than Wednesday in order to insure its insertion in the issue of the current week.

SATURDAY, JAN. 18, 1902.

If Cuba's future is as peaceful as was her election there will be ample cause for congratulating her.

SENATOR PLATT, of New York, not to be outdone by his colleague Senator Depew, will soon take himself a second wife.

MARCONI'S recent successful experiments will give pause to Pacific cable projects. A cable to the Philippines will cost many millions while the wireless etherial route is free.

It appears that Miss Roosevelt has accepted the Kaiser's invitation to spill liquor over the prow of his Majesty's American built yacht. How Mrs. Nation must envy her that role.

MRS. EMIL L. BOAS says of American woman, "She has just a little too much adoration. She must be worthy of her inheritance and the liberty she enjoys must not become license."

ACCORDING to Consul Haynes at Rouen, France, the importation of American coal into that country has begun and bids fair to out serious inroads into the importation of the English article.

STATISTICS show that the inhabitants of the United States drink more coffee than any other nation in the world. More than one billion pounds were consumed last year, of which the cost was $70,000,000.

CHICAGO evidently believes in encouraging home industry. Some of her citizens have organized "The Pig Club" which will give a weekly dinner at which the menu will consist entirely of pork and pork products.

KANSAS is wrought up over the serious problem of what to present to General Funston. He has a $1,000 sword. His army position is for life, so a house and lot would hardly prove appropriate. Why not a cradle or a baby carriage?

THE census returns show that more than twenty per cent. of the industrial wealth of the country is produced by one hundred and eighty three corporations and that these corporations have an aggregate capitalization of $3,607,539,200.

It is reported that Mr. Roosevelt intends to send Mr. Cleveland as a delegate to the coronation of King Edward and that Congress will be asked to appropriate $25,000 to foot the bills. Congress may be asked but we have grave doubts of its heeding the request.

THERE is no truth in the statement that Mr. Roosevelt "compelled his wife to shake hands with nearly nine thousand people" on New Year's day. Mrs. Roosevelt shook hands with the diplomats and officials and merely bowed to the remainder of those who attended the reception.

A NOVEL Christmas celebration is reported from London. Some twenty members of "the Swimming Club" held a swimming contest in the Thames on Christmas day. Membership in this club is conditional upon the applicant having bathed in the Thames every day from the first of September to the first of April.

Child Worth Millions. "My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird, of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by crop had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure. One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly. All druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schmidt returned from their wedding trip through Minn. last week, and left for New Fane last Monday where they will reside on a farm.

A Good Recommendation. "I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.

An Attack of Pneumonia Warded Off. "Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Jonaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.

LACONICAL LOCALS.

DR. HAUSMANN DEAD.

Well-known Physician Falls a Victim to Bright's Disease and Heart Trouble. Dr. William Hausmann, one of the best known physicians of this section of country, died at 11 o'clock Tuesday evening of Bright's disease complicated by heart trouble.

DR. WILLIAM HAUSMANN.

—Chas. Jacks, one of the passenger conductors running on this division, spent Saturday hunting rabbits in this vicinity. —Phil Guenther, of Campbellsport, gave us a call on Monday and ordered posters for a mask ball to be held in his hall on Feb. 10th.

—See the new ad. of Jacob Groeschel, agent for the celebrated Richardson & Boynton Company's Furnaces. Anyone wanting a good heating apparatus put in their house will do well to write him and get his figures.

—The board of directors of the Kewaskum Mutual Fire Insurance Company met at the secretary's office last Tuesday afternoon. The old officers were re-elected, namely: President, Adolph Rosenheim; Vice President, A. G. Koch; Secretary, Jos. Schmidt; Treasurer, Peter Klumb; Gen. agent, Hy. Oppenhorst; Special agent, J. W. Gehl, Henry Oppenhorst, who has been a director ever since the company was organized, resigned and Jno. Tiss was elected in his place.

—The clearance grab sale which has been in progress at the Mayer jewelry store for the past week has been a success. The sale began on Monday and the large number of packages that had been put up disappeared one after another until the pile was nearly gone and the little jeweler had to suspend business and adjourn for the day in order to replenish the stock. Mr. Mayer informs us that the sale is to last two weeks and at its close the Graphophone, upon which every purchaser of a "grab" was given a chance, will be raffled.

—Wm. Clark has gone to Milwaukee where he has secured a position on the street railway as motor-man. John Weber, of Hilbert, is stopping with his brother-in-law, Jake Hawig, this week and paying a visit to his old time friends here.

—The Misses Kate Michel and Anna Hall, of New Cassel, visited from Saturday to Monday with the Schoenharr family. —Conrad Mack, formerly of St. Kilian, but now living at Lomira, where he conducts a hotel, called in the village Wednesday.

CAMPBELLSPORT CULLINGS.

B. C. Foote, our station agent, is on the sick list. N. J. Klotz was a pleasant caller here during the week. Wm. Stagy, of Kewaskum, called in the village Saturday. Jacob Mayer, of Kewaskum, was a caller here Wednesday.

—The annual meeting of the young ladies' society was held last Sunday and the following new officers were elected: Lizzie Wiskircher, Annie Schneider and Ida Schiller. Hon. Philip Schneider, who has resided in the County for over fifty years, died at his home near St. Michaels last Monday morning, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases, ending with dropsy.

—The Standard Oil Company's agent, of Fond du Lac, called here on business Saturday. Henry Degenhardt, of Marion, spent a few days here with his brother "Mike." John Remmel and John Wenzel Jr. drove to St. Kilian on business last Monday.

—The infant child of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Weld died last Wednesday and was interred in the Union cemetery on Thursday. John Knickel moved his household goods down here this week. He is now stopping with his son-in-law, Al. Jewson.

—Mrs. H. Close, of Ellsworth, Wis., who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Stanton and Mrs. Schoolecraft, returned home. The Campbellsport Percheron Horse Company held their first quarterly meeting at the Campbellsport Hotel last Wednesday.

—The young ladies' and young men's societies of the St. Matthew's church will give another social card party in the parish school hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 23rd. Six prizes are to be competed for and the games to be played will be euchre and schachkopf. A fine lunch will be served. At the annual meeting of the Campbellsport Mutual Fire Insurance Co. held last Monday, all the old officers were re-elected excepting director C. R. VandeZande, in whose place Jno. Wenzel Sr., was elected. The company added Outagamie County to their territory which gives them eight counties to work in now.

—What would you think of your grocery man if he sold you sand for sugar? What do you think of a druggist who offers you a substitute for the Madison Medicine Co's Rocky Mountain Tea. Miller & Son.

ST. MICHAELS MITES.

Miss Maggie Berres is now working at West Bend. The Misses Ida Schiller and Marie Dricken were the guests of Mrs. B. Wiskircher last Sunday. Miss Annie Herriges is visiting with her brother, Dr. Phil. Herriges and family, at Kiel, Wis., since the 6th inst.

—The annual meeting of the St. Michaels' congregation, held on the 6th, Jos. Fellenz and Peter Dricken were chosen as new officers. The deceased was born in Rhenish Prussia, on Nov. 30th, 1829. He came to America in company with his step-father, John Theusch, in 1846, coming direct to Washington County where they located on Government land in the town of Farmington. Mr. Schneider was married to Miss Helen Keller in 1853, who only lived eleven months after the marriage. In November, 1855, he married Susan Thull, who died four years later, leaving four children; Catherine, Margaret, Joseph and Nicholas. Mr. Schneider married Christine Mevring on July 23, 1864. Eight children were born of this marriage; Henry, John, Gertrude, Frank, Philip, Mary, Mathias and Jacob.

—Mr. Schneider was elected Assessor for the town of Farmington for the years 1856, 1859, 1860, 1861 and 1862. In 1864, he was elected Town Clerk. During the County Commissioner system, he was elected one of the Commissioners, and served two years. In 1866, he was elected a member of the Assembly for the Third District of Washington County, and was re-elected in 1874-75. He was elected Chairman of the town of Farmington in 1867, and re-elected each year to 1877. He was elected to the State Senate from Washington County, and served in that body during the sessions of 1876-77. The funeral took place at St. Michaels, at 10 a. m. last Wednesday.

—John Kinzel harvested his season's supply of ice this week. Ralph Romaine held a wood sawing bee last Wednesday. Mrs. Frank Koepke is visiting her daughter at Milwaukee. Fred Heider has finished digging a well for L. Fargerston at Sand Lake. Aug. Falk bought a horse of L. Rosenheimer at Kewaskum last week. John Murray attended the Forester's meeting at Fond du Lac last Tuesday.

—Peter Thomes, of Milwaukee, is visiting his son-in-law, J. Kinzel and family, this week. Mr. Campbell, of Milwaukee, called on our general merchant, W. J. Romaine, on Thursday. Miss Pearl Romaine is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bell during Mrs. Bell's illness. Don't forget to attend the farmer's institute at Rintel's hall next Wednesday and Thursday, January 21-22. Fred Heider moved his well digging outfit to Dundee last week Thursday where he will dig a well for Julius Deliege.

—Albert Glasnap has moved his family and household goods into the Owen Cummings residence near Dundee. He intends to operate his new saw-mill on the premises there this winter. All arrangements for the farmer's institute to be held here next Wednesday and Thursday are completed. The institute will be an interesting one and no one should fail to attend. On the evening of the first day, an entertainment will be given by local talent and after the close of the institute on Wednesday there will be a dance on the evening.

—Let us speak of a man as we find him. And censure only what we can see. Remembering 'hat no one can be perfect Unless he uses Rocky Mountain Tea. Miller & Son.

HEADQUARTERS FOR Fur Coats.

Our store is beyond a question headquarters for Fur Coats. We not only show the largest assortment in the county, but can safely say that the assortment shown here is as large as that of any two stores combined. The sewing and finishing of each garment is done with such care as to give good service. All pockets and buttons are stayed with an extra piece of leather which prevents them from ripping; coats also have large leather arm shields.

...JOHN GOETTER & CO... WEST BEND, WISCONSIN.

A VISIT TO The Department Store AT WEST BEND

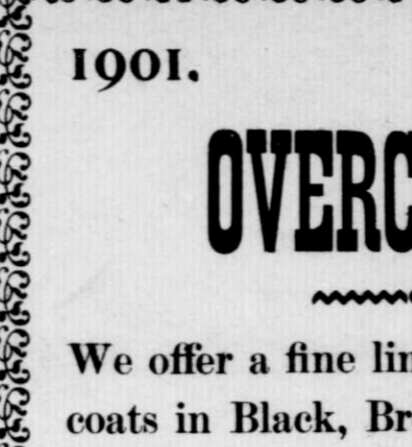

Will convince any one that it is permanently the place where anything needed in the household can be purchased at the lowest possible price. We extend an especial invitation to call for the purpose of satisfying themselves of the truth of the above statement. Our large store—40x112 feet—is now stocked with a complete line of everything needed by the farmer, the laborer and the professional man, and the way our goods are moving, seems to show that our efforts to supply the public with desirable goods at low prices, are duly appreciated.

We carry an immense stock of clothing and can satisfy the most fastidious customer in this line. A new consignment of Fur Coats has just been added to our clothing department, and have been marked at prices to make them sell more quickly. We are also making a considerable reduction in the price of our Ladies' Jackets and Capes, with a view of closing out our present supply.
