PRISONER TELLS AN EXPER-IENCE.

Fond du Lac, Wis., June 18.-[Special.] A gentleman who through hard luck has been assigned a refuge beneath the hospitable roof of the county jaii, tob A reporter a strange story Sunday of a Huckleberry Finn-like experience which he had had a few years ago in Missouri. "I was traveling with a show troupe," he said, "when the company busted up and we were stranded. A friend of mine and myself set together and between up and we were stranded. A friend of mine and myself got together and between us we scraped up a few dollars, enough to carry us to a nearby village. Mere at my friend's suggestion we worked a clever game. We found a small job office and had a few hundred hand bills printed saying "He's Coming." These were scattered about the village and the people began to get interested. A few days later we had some more bills printed, saying we had some more bills printed, sayin "He's Here—At the Town Hall Tonight. People got curious. The admission was 25 cents and that night we took in $43 at the door. There was a little stage with a piece of calico as a curtain and we gave a fellow a quarter to pull up the curtain at exactly ten minutés after 8. When the time came the fellow pulled up the curtain and all the people saw was a placard 'He's Gone.' And he was sone. We ducked out the back door and were never seen in that village again."

Meeting Arranged by Anarchists is Broken Up-Employes of Mills are Heavily Armed.

Paterson, N. J., June 19-Mayor Hinchcliffe took personal command of the police of this city today. He was much displeased that the meeting of strikers Tuesday night was not broken up. It was at this meeting that speeches were made, which, it is believed, led to the disorders of yesterday. The mayor went to police headquarters today and had all the men of the reserve lined up in front of h.m. Then he said to them: "Men, if your clubs prove useless, you know what to do. State Secretary Anderson and City Sec retary Willis, the Latter's Wife to Accompany Him.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 18, 1902. -The world's conference of the Young Men's Christian Association, to be held at Christiana, Norway, August 20 to 24, will be attended by F. E. Anderson, state secretary for Wisconsin, and C. B. Willis, general secretary of the Milwaukee association. Mrs. Willis will accompany the general secretary and they will remain abroad about two months. The party will leave New York on the steamer Minnetonka, on July 26. They will spend several days in London and will then proceed by boat to Norway from Hull. Mr. Anderson will visit his old home at Ryd, Sweden, after the conference.

Charles Puehler, formerly secretary of the Kaukauna association, has been appointed assistant state secretary and will have charge of Mr. Anderson's work during his absence.

There has been no formal request of members of the Y. M. C. A. here to aid the movement to establish a farm in Colorado, where young men who go to the Centennial state in search of health can be cared for at moderate expense. The project seems to be an Eastern one.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

Three Well Known Professors are Given the Title of Doctor of Laws. Madison, Wis., June 18 .- At the meetng of the board of regents held here yesterday afternoon the honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon William W. Campbell of the Lick observatory, William Relese of the Shaw gardens at St. Louis and Minton Warren, professor of Latin at Harvard university. Prof. Thelese was formerly connected with the Wisconsin university, but resigned to accept his present position.

The afternoon yesterday was devoted to class day exercises. Frank W. Bucklin, the president of the class, delivered the address of welcome. Paul Binzel of Milwaukee delivered the ivy oration while Paul Foster delivered the farewell speech. Miss Anna Gapen followed with a soprano solo. Miss Mary B. Swain of Milwaukee and John F. Powers of Mayhew gave the class history. Miss Nora B. McCue of Madison and Dwight E. Beebe of Paginary be diligated.

Beebe of Racine, who delivered the class prophecy.

The farewell address to the underclass-men was given by Sanford P. Starks of Madison and the response on behalf of the juniors was made by Miss Julia M. Anderson of Racine. Philip L. Spooner sang a tenor solo and the class statistics were given by William H. Parer of Eagle. John C. Miller of Marinette, the class orator, chose as the subject of his oration "The Patriot-Martyr of the American Revolution."

In the evening the senior class presented its play "Because She Loved Him So" at the Fuller Opera house.

It is utterly impossible at this distance forecast what the national gathering cted. The anthracite delegates will go into the convention with 142,000 delegates will have approximately delegates will have approximately 25,000 behind them for a strike, and in Michigan, where the union has been having trouble, the delegates also will be instructed for a national suspension. Central Pennsylvania will contribute a certain number of delegates, who will want "Why, my dear girl," he said, "why didn't you use the hand grenades and stop the fire as soon as it started? Then the whole part of the house wouldn't have been soaked."

The great barrier to be overcome in the camp again for a national suspension is the yearly wage scale agreement that many of the soft coal miners have with the companies. These agreements are looked upon as contracts, and a large percentage of contracts, and a large percentage of miners in the West are rather averse to breaking them. The principal bone of contention in the anthracite region is for and the hawk had no alternative but to take him on the ground, which he speedily atempted to do.

But on the ground the partridge was far more agile than he, running this way and that with great speed. The hawk would jump awkwardly up and dart after the sendding partridge who ed on the other side, and commenced running harder than before.

Seek to Keep Up Fiction. On the other hand, it must be pointed out that if his majesty's illness was merely diplomatic the officials certainly took a great deal of trouble in keeping up the fiction. Sir Francis Laking, physician in ordinary to the King, was summoned by telegraph to Aldershot, his prescriptions were hurriedly filled and everything about the King's apartments indicated the genuine nature of his illness.

Furthermore, King Edward's journey from Aldershot to Windsor in his motor car and his subsequent drive yesterday in Windsor park do not seem to indicate any fear of a further attack upon his On the other hand, it must be pointed

MISS TAYLOR IS DEFENDED BY SENATOR

Carmack Demands that Former Wisconsin Woman be Reinstated in War Washington, D. C., June 18 .- In the Senate this morning a resolution offered several days ago by Mr. Carmack, directing that the civil service commission to inquire into the discharge from the war department of Miss Rebecca T. Taylor, department of Miss Rebecca T. Taylor, formerly of Wisconsin (for the publication of articles in newspapers criticising the President), was called up and Mr. Carmack addressed the Senate in support of the resolution. He maintained that the requirements of the civil service law had been flagrantly violated in this case, inasmuch as the said Miss Taylor has had no charges preferred against has had no charges preferred against her nor had she been afforded opportunity to make answer to any charges. He maintained that a letter inquiring wheth er Miss Taylor was the author of a cer tain newspaper article and her admission that she had writen the article did no constitute a charge against her within the meaning of the civil service law. He intimated that she was discharged "because she took the wrong side of the Philippine question from the administration's point of view.

John A. Smith of Milwaukee can sympathize with rheumatic sufferers, because he was himself tortured by this disease for years. He made a thorough study of his own case and of the causes of the disease, following this with the experimental use of remedies suggested by the of his own case and of the causes of the disease, following this with the experimental use of remedies suggested by the knowledge thus gained. Ultimately he found a combination of herbs which completely rid his system of every trace of rheumatism, and, though years have elapsed, he is still perfectly free from any symptom of the old ailment. Neighbors and friends to whom Mr. Smith gave the remedy were cured with equal thoroughness and permanence and "Gloria Tonic," as Mr. Smith named the discovery, began to be in demand. Since that time many thousands have by its that time many thousands have by its use been relieved of the terrible afflic-tion of rheumatism. Mr. Smith has 75,-000 sample packages of this remedy which he desires to distribute, free of charge, among rheumatic sufferers. He therefore authorizes the announcement that any reader of this paper may ob-tain a free trial package of "Gloria Tonic" by addressing John A. Smith, No. 80 Germania building, Milwaukee, Wis.

VALUE OF STEAMSHIPS. of Yesterday.

The sum of £1,523,000, for which the directors of the North German Lloyd are arranging policies of insurance on their new steamer, the Kaiser Wilhelm II., when she is ready for sea, not only indi-cates that she will be the most valuable merchant steamer afloat, but it affords a good measure of the rapidity with which the value of the largest merchant steam-ers has increased in recent years. Half Plot to Assassinate the British Ruler of the Cunard line as it was might be valued at £936,760, and in those days that fleet consisted of nine steamers, the finest of their kind then in existence, and London, June 18.—General report, which is supported in the evening newswhole value put upon the fifteen vessels of what was then regarded as about the finest fleet of merchant steamers in the world.—Pearson's Weekly.

Designed by Edwin Reynolds, America's Greatest Engineer. West Allis will be a city of over 30,000 inhabitants, or larger than any other Wisconsin city, except Milwaukee. This will be the size of West Allis within a year and will form the nucleus of a city of 75,000 to 100,000

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

The assured future of West Allis as a great industrial center means that real estate values will increase rapidly. Indeed land in this new city affords the safest and most profitable investment that is open today. This is no mere booming of a suburban tract of land. The shops built here are those of solid and established companies, forced by increasing business to find more roomy sites than could be had within the city limits of Milyandes. West allies to the companies, Milwaukee. West Allis lots have a substantial value and every one of the new buildings now going up means bey in the pocket of the early investor. The price of lots will beyond doubt double in a short time.
