PROF. TURNEAURE NAMED.

Chosen for University Position Left Vacant by Dean Johnson.

NEW LAW INSTRUCTOR

E. A. Gilmore of Boston Selected to Fill Vacancy Caused by Resignation of Prof. Bruce.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 17.—[Special.]—At the quarterly meeting of the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin, held yesterday afternoon, Frederick E. Turneaure, professor of bridge and sanitary engineering at the university and formerly city engineer of Madison, was selected to succeed Dean J. H. Johnson, who was killed in a runaway accident at Pier Grove, Mich., in June.

Prof. Turneaure was chosen at the suggestion of the regents, and the university engineering department is pleased to have a permanent choice for the position which was not for another year. An increase in the salary of Prof. Turneaure in his position.

Resolutions were adopted on the death of Dean Johnson, referring to the esteem in which he was held by educators, students and regents.

The question of electing a president of the university to succeed the late Dr. Charles K. Adams did not come up in the board meeting. When first discussed, the matter was informally discussed by some of the regents, but it was understood that no one has been suggested yet who is acceptable to the entire board.

Neighbors Discover the Blaze, Hurry to the Scene and Awakened the Members.

Redsburg, Wis., Sept. 17.—[Special.]—The residence of Henry Meyer, a prosperous farmer, residing a few miles north of this city, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning, and the loss was estimated at $10,000.

It was then discovered that the occupants were still asleep in the building. The fire started in the kitchen, and spread to the living room, and then to the bedrooms.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

CHAPTER II. A MARTYR? Monica maintained the same extraordinary attitude. Early in the morning she was told that two gentlemen were waiting to see her.

"Who are they?" she asked in the un-moved way that had already puzzled the policeman. "One is the gentleman that came with you yesterday, Miss—Mrs. Essington; and the other gentleman is a lawyer, Mr. Gray."

"I do not wish to see anyone," she said. "You'll want someone to defend you," said the policeman persuasively. "You'd better see what I can do for you."

"I'm afraid I can do nothing," said the lawyer, "if the young lady declines to be defended."
