PROVISIONS IN MESSAGE.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—The annual message of President Roosevelt to Congress was read in the Senate and House of Representatives today. The document in full is as follows:
To the Senate and House of Representatives: We still continue in a period of unbounded prosperity. The property is not the creature of law, but undoubtedly the laws under which we work have been instrumental in creating the conditions which made it possible, and by wise legislation it would be easy to maintain and improve it. There will undoubtedly be periods of depression. The way will be to meet the tide with legislation. This nation is seated on a continent flanked by two great seas, and it is the duty of the nation to be among the nations of the old world by the energy, boldness, and love of adventure found in their own veins. Such a nation, so placed, will surely meet success in the future.
As a people we have played a large part in the world, and we are bent upon making our part of it a permanent one. In particular, the events of the last four years have shown that we are not content with our place, but we cannot afford to be content with it. We cannot afford to be content with it, for we cannot afford to be content with it, for we cannot afford to be content with it.

Violent and Radical Tariff Changes Not Desirable.
Stability of economic policy must always be the prime objective of this country. This stability should be maintained. The country has acquired in the past the protective tariff principle. It is a principle which has been the basis of our prosperity. It is a principle which has been the basis of our prosperity. It is a principle which has been the basis of our prosperity.

High Average of Citizenship.
No country has ever occupied a higher position in the world than this. It is due to the present position. This well-being is due to the present position. This well-being is due to the present position. This well-being is due to the present position.

Reciprocal Treaties Preferred.
One way in which the adjustment of our relations with other nations can be made is by the negotiation of reciprocal treaties. It is greatly to be desired that such treaties be negotiated. It is greatly to be desired that such treaties be negotiated. It is greatly to be desired that such treaties be negotiated.

THE QUESTION OF TRUSTS.
Corporations Must be Handled So as to Subserve the Public Good.
In my message to the present Congress, I first session I discussed at length the question of the regulation of trusts. It is a question which has become of increasing importance. It is a question which has become of increasing importance. It is a question which has become of increasing importance.

THE HAGUE ARBITRATION.
Its Attitude Conspicuously Upon the United States in the Matter of Both Countries.
As civilization grows, wars become less and less the normal condition of foreign relations. It is the duty of the United States to support the Hague Convention. It is the duty of the United States to support the Hague Convention. It is the duty of the United States to support the Hague Convention.

Display of Statesmanship.
The System of Maneuvering Should be Diligently Prosecuted.
The army has been reduced to the minimum allowed by law. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

CABLE TO THE PHILIPPINES.

The Matter of Granting a Permission to any One Outside the Philippines to During the Fall of 1901 a communication was addressed to the secretary of state, asking whether permission would be granted to the Philippine Islands to be represented by a citizen of the United States. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

NAVAL MANEUVERS.
Appropriation for Improving Marksmanship is Asked.
For the first time in our history naval maneuvers were held in the United States. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

More Men for Ships.
Each individual unit of our navy should be the most efficient of its kind. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

FORO RICAN GOVERNMENT.
It Stands as the Best Ruled Insular Possession.
Of Porto Rico it is only necessary to say that it is the best ruled insular possession. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

END OF WAR IN PHILIPPINES.
Peace and Amnesty Promulgated Throughout the Islands.
On July 4, 1902, the 120th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, peace was proclaimed throughout the Philippine Islands. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

FAVORABLE CONSIDERATION OF CONGRESS IS COMMENDED.
I commend to the favorable consideration of the Congress the Hawaiian claims. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance. It is a matter of great importance.

CANAL ACROSS ISTHMUS.
One of the Greatest Engineering Feats of the Twentieth Century.

Kewaskum Statesman.

Communications should be accompanied by the name of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of good faith on the part of the author. Write only upon one side of paper; and, in giving names and dates, be careful to make them plain and distinct. Advertising copy should reach us not later than Wednesday in order to insure its insertion in the issue of the current week.

SATURDAY, DEC. 6, 1902.

ST. MICHAELS MITEs.
Mrs. P. Dricken visited a few days at Milwaukee last week.

Catherine Habek has been staying with the Daniel Scheid family since Tuesday.

Ignatz Schiller is spending a few days with relatives and friends at Milwaukee.

Adam Roden held a stone hauling bee Wednesday; he intends erecting a new barn.

Miss L. Schiller is spending a week with H. Schmidt and family in the town of Barton.

E. J. Dricken returned home from the Cream City Monday where he had been working at the carpenter trade since last spring.

The funeral of M. Schiltz took place Monday at the local church with Rev. Muenzer officiating, and interment in the adjoining cemetery. He leaves, beside his wife, five children to mourn his demise. May he rest in peace.

Mr. and Mrs. Mat. Fellenz returned from Cadott and Cecil, Wis., where they have been spending their honeymoon. They will make their home on the groom's farm, three miles north of St. Michaels. We wish them a happy and successful wedded life.

ASHFORD ACTIONS.
Anton Zwick made a business trip to Lomira Tuesday.

Rev. M. Schmidt and uncle Jacob, attended the Le Roy Kirmess last Monday.

Mary Fleischmann called on the Misses Aggie Hall and Annie Thelen Monday.

Aggie Straub left for Minnesota to visit with her uncle, Rev. Jos. Straub, for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ino. Theisen, of Campbellsport, called on the J. W. Maul family Sunday.

Mrs. Peter Berg left last Thursday to stay with relatives at St. Kilian during the winter.

Andrew Fleischmann and wife spent Thanksgiving with their son, Arthur and family, at Fond du Lac.

Lena Zehern is quite seriously ill with erysipelas. Aggie, her sister, also had a relapse of her recent illness.

Bert Thalen made a business trip to Kewaskum Wednesday, where he had some repairs made on his traction engine at the Remmel machine shop.

John Hitzler had quite a lively runaway here last Monday while hauling wood home from Jos. Serwe's place. On the way home the team became frightened and tipped over the load. The horses ran a short ways when they struck a wire fence and received slight injuries.

Quite a number of neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maul assembled at their home last Sunday evening to celebrate the occasion of Mr. Maul's 45th birthday anniversary, and everyone present had a very delightful time. An elegant supper was served at 11 p. m., after which all departed for their respective homes wishing Mr. Maul many more such happy occasions.

Special Notice.
Hereafter you will find me at my place of business every Sunday morning until after the holidays.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

NEWSPAPER OBITUARY.
Michael Schiltz, whose death we announced in our last week's issue, was born in Guirist, Province of Luxembourg, Belgium, on March 18, 1822. He emigrated to America when he was 23 years of age, and married Miss Magdalena Dornbach on July 18, 1848. They lived at Holy Cross up to 1878 and then moved to the town of Scott, where he lived continuously up to the time of his death. Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Schiltz celebrated their golden wedding. Their union was blessed with fourteen children of which eight are living, they are: Mrs. Katie Losse, Mrs. Francis Maeder, Mrs. Anna Jacques, of Chicago; Carl Schiltz, of Scott; Peter, of Auburn; John, of New Fane; Mrs. Susan Appeler, of Scott; Mrs. Mary Lecher, of Port Washington. There are also fifty-three grand-children and twenty-five great-grand-children. The funeral took place at 10 a. m. last Monday, with interment in the St. Michaels cemetery; Rev. Muenzer officiating. Those who attended the funeral from abroad were: Mrs. Martin Jacques, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Maeder, K. and Jos. Weinandy, of Chicago; John Thomas and Mrs. Mary Lecher, of Port Washington. The bereaved relatives have our sympathies.

Tortoise Climbs for Grapes.
Tortoise are known to be able to live for a long time without food. It was also believed hitherto that they were rigid teetotalers. This belief, however, has been rudely dispelled by the discovery that they are very fond of grapes.

The proprietor of a vineyard in Algiers had noticed for some time serious depredations going on in his plantation. The watchman had been engaged reported that mysterious noises were heard in the place at night, and consequently refused to stop any longer on the spot. But the master determined to inquire into the matter for himself, and, much to his surprise, he found a large number of tortoises climbing up the vines with an alertness of which tortoises are ordinarily thought to be incapable, and making the most of the good things which the gods had provided for them.

Johnny's Composition.
"Children," said the children, while instructing the class in composition, "you should not attempt any flights of fancy, but simply be yourselves and write what is in you. Do not imitate any other persons writings or draw inspiration from outside sources."

As a result of this advice Johnny Wise turned in the following composition:

"We should not attempt any flights of fancy, but rite what is in us. In me there is my stummick, lungs, hart liver, two apples, one piece of pie, one stick of lemon candy and my dinner."

A Cold Wave.
The forecast of sudden changes in the weather across midland and north and a heavy cough may invade the sanctity of health in your own home. Cautious people have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure always at hand.
