Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. Sold for 1.00; all druggists."

In the Circuit court at Fond du Lac last Tuesday a continuance was asked of Judge Kirwan in the case of the Rev. Herman J. Hellstern, of Barton, against Archbishop Katzer, of Milwaukee, an affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff that he could not go to trial, owing to the severe illness of his attorney. The action was begun by the Rev. Mr. Hellstern to recover damages in the sum of $50,000. He alleges that the archbishop slandered him in a sermon at West Bend.

Work of weighing all the mail handled by the railroads in Wisconsin, as well as in Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri, was commenced one minute after midnight last Wednesday night. The weighing test will continue for at least thirty work days and the amount to be paid the railway companies will be based upon the results of this test. The test is to determine the schedule for a period of four years commencing July 1.

Two trains composed of eighty new thirty-six foot box cars direct from the shops passed through here Sunday. These cars are part of an order for 3,000 new box cars placed by the Chicago & North-Western railway last summer, which are being delivered as rapidly as possible, and most of which are being rushed north, where a great scarcity of cars exists, and where lumber and pulpwood is accumulating in piles along the tracks for miles for lack of sufficient rolling stock to transport it.

Andrew Lehn, a middle-aged man who has been living with his mother in the town of Polk, was in the city this morning to swear out warrants for a number of young men, who, he alleges, tarred his head and face in Benke's saloon at Cedar Creek last Saturday evening. Lehn certainly has the appearance of having had tar applied to him, for his hair is still tightly fastened to his head with tar, and great patches of tar adhere to his face in a number of places. His left eye is also badly discolored from a blow received from some one of the party who tarred him. He is at a loss to account for the treatment, and promises to make things interesting for the boys. He claims the following young men did the mischief: Leo Fries, Oscar Spaeth, Chas. Baer and A. Carius.—West Bend Pilot.

The bogus Roman Catholic priests who are said to have practiced swindling games among the Catholics of the state which we mentioned in last week's issue, are behind the bars at Sheboygan. One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." All druggists.

Mrs. Emma Weingartner (nee Morgenroth) passed away in death on February 16th after an illness of eleven days. Deceased was born March 24, 1868, and spent the greater portion of her life here. On November 8, 1894, she was married to Charles Weingartner, of the town of Scott, Sheboygan county. After their marriage they resided on the Weingartner farm up to about a year ago when they moved to this village. She leaves a husband and two daughters, Lorena aged seven and Clara aged five, to mourn her loss.

Besides these are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgenroth; three sisters, Mrs. L. W. Juergens, of Fredonia; Mrs. August Schnurr, of Kewaskum, and Mrs. H. Klessig, of this place; and three brothers, Drs. Ed. and H., of Berlin, and Charley, of the Milwaukee Dental college. The funeral was held from the Congregational church, where a large concourse of people assembled to pay their last tribute of respect. The Rev. Noyes, of West Bend, performed the last sad rites. Mrs. Weingartner was a highly respected lady and the bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Mary Callahan passed away in death at her home in this village at 1 p. m. on Saturday, February 21st, after a week's illness with pneumonia. Deceased, who was born in County Louth, Ireland, immigrated to this country in 1840, settling in Genesee, N. Y. In 1841 she was married to Thomas Callahan, who preceded her in death in 1862, while serving his country as a soldier in the war of the Rebellion. Since 1846 Mrs. Callahan has resided in this state, having moved here with her husband in that year. Their happy union was blessed with nine children, of whom but three survive her, viz: John, of our village, Stephen, of Wabasha, Minn., and Mary, (Mrs. Lussenden) of Colby, Wis. Two of her children, Eugene and Thomas, also served as soldiers during the great Civil War. Deceased is also survived by several grand-children and by two great-grand-children. In the death of Mrs. Callahan another of the few remaining old settlers of Washington county has passed away. She was a most dutiful wife, a most loving mother, a kind neighbor and a true friend whose memory will be ever fondly cherished by all who had the good fortune of making her acquaintance, for "Grandma Callahan," as she was familiarly called by the little ones of the village was a favorite among young and old. Much shall we miss the old familiar footsteps and the cherry wood and smile so freely bestowed upon all about her. Ever forgetful of self, her chief happiness consisted in promoting the happiness of others, while the least kindness shown to her was always most gratefully remembered. In the cemetery where she loved to wander around the graves of her loved ones, her remains have now found a last resting place, and we extend our deepest sympathy to the survivors, particularly to her children and grand-children to all of whom she was most devotedly attached. On Tuesday of last week at 10 a. m. occurred the funeral services at St. John's church of which she was always a faithful member. The beautiful casket containing the remains was covered with flowers and tastefully draped with a wreath of myrtle, and was borne to the cemetery by her grandsons who acted as pall-bearers. A fitting and well-deserved tribute of respect was paid to her memory by Rev. Father Muenzer who officiated at the last sad rites. May she rest in peace.

CARD OF THANKS. We, the undersigned, hereby extend our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted us during the illness, death and burial of our beloved mother and grandmother.

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonic Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.

Kodol Nature's Tonic.

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 8 1/2 bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size. ALL DRUGGISTS.

THE DFDOR'S BLACKDRAUGHT THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Theodor's Black-Draught has saved doctors' bills for more than sixty years. For the common family ailments, such as constipation, indigestion, hard colics, bowel complaints, chills and fever, biliousness, headaches and other like complaints no other medicine is necessary. It invigorates and regulates the liver, assists digestion, stimulates the action of the kidneys, purifies the blood, and purges the bowels of foul accumulations. It cures liver complaint, indigestion, sour stomach, dizziness, chills, rheumatic pains, side-ache, back-ache, kidney troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, biliousness, piles, hard colics and head-ache. Every druggist has Theodor's Black-Draught in 25 cent packages and in mammoth size for $1.00. Never accept a substitute. Insist on having the original made by the Chattanooga Medicine Company.
