In a case before a Philadelphia court in which a popular address had to appear as a witness, the judge hesitated about asking the lady, as he was in duty bound to do, what was her age. Evidently he considered that such a question, put to such a witness, would be a direct incitement to perjury.
"The way in which he got out of the difficulty was ingenious, although decidedly irregular. He asked, before she had sworn, "How old are you, madam?" After a little hesitation the lady owned to being 29 years of age.
"And now that you have told the court your age," continued the gallant judge, "you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth!"

A Remarkable Case.
One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." All druggists.

A story is going the rounds about a party of young people who were having a sleigh ride in a bobsled at Topeka. "Say, Jennie," whispered one of the girls to a companion, "I wish you would introduce me to the man sitting in my lap." It reminds the Kansas City Journal of the best story ever written in depicting the utter abandon of seasickness. A seasick woman and a seasick man were in chairs side by side on the deck of a steamer. The man had his head in the woman's lap and the woman sat with her hands hanging down, the picture of dejection. The steward came along and inquired solicitously: "Can't I do something for you or your husband, madam?" "Oh," moaned the woman, "he ain't my husband. I don't know who he is."

The Stomach is the Man.
A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cleanses, purifies, sweetens and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. All druggists.

Asthma

Van Vechten and daughter Elizabeth, who are spending the winter at San Diego, Cal., sent us the following interesting item about the delightful climate and points of interest of San Diego: "San Diego, California, situated on San Diego Bay, the first harbor in the United States from Honolulu and the Philippines, is the best harbor on the Pacific Ocean from the Mexican line to the Columbia river in Oregon. The climate is perfect. Roses and other flowers are in bloom the year through. All kinds of vegetables are growing in the gardens at all times of the year. Potatoes, peas, lettuce, etc., are growing, and lemon and apricot trees are in bloom; also bananas. Oats and barley are now about three feet high. The rains have set in which insures good crops. The rain acts as a great fertilizer of the soil. As soon as the rains commence the wild flowers and grass spring up and within a short time the mesas and hills are in bloom. There are more wild flowers here than in any other section of the United States. One of the interesting points to visit is Colorado Beach where the largest hotel in the world is built on the Pacific beach, close to the surf. The court and grounds at the hotel are one blaze of flowers of all kinds; also palms of different varieties."

Miss Ida M. Snyder, Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. "If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctor's prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for. "In consulting with my druggist he advised McEire's Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me." Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui. WINE OF CARDUI.
