When Grand Duke Alexis Hunted Buffalo "Every time I see mention of the name of the commander-in-chief of the Russian forces in the east, I think of the Grand Duke Alexis, in whose behalf the Grand Duke Alexis, in whose behalf I organized one of the greatest buffalo hunts ever known." said Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Biil). "This was back in 1872, and the young nobleman had been received everywhere with most distinguished hospitality. He had expressed a desire to participate in a hunt on the plains, and Gen. Sheridan ordered me to go ahead and arrange for one. Buffalo were still thick on the Kansas and Nebraska prairies, and for three weeks we chased them with great success. Alexis was then a youngster, a strapping big fellow, good humored, and every inch a sportsman. He killed about a dozen himself, and at the end of the hunt declared he had experienced the most enjoyable outing of his life.

The Most Common Disease. Yorktown, Ark., Feb. 29th.—Leland Williamson, M. D., a successful and clever local physician, says: "There is scarcely another form of disease a physician is called upon so Cften to treat as Kidney Disease. I invariably prescribe Dodd's Kidney Pills and am not disappointed in their effect, for they are always reliable. I could mention many cases in which I have used this medicine with splendid suc-

"Age 31, greatly emaciated, some fever, great pain and pressure over region of Kidneys, urine filled with pus or corruption and very foul smelling and passed some blood. Directed to drink a great deal of water, gave brisk purgative and Dodd's Kidney Pills. The pills were continued regularly for three weeks, especially if patient felt any pain in region of Kidneys. Cured completely and patient p formed his duties as farm laborer in four weeks.' A fakir with a brand new graft is working in Oklahoma. He strikes a town and locates the best attended church town and locates the best attended church services, and as soon as the pastor has pronounced the benediction he falls over in a fit. This enlists the sympathy of the people. On the inside of his coat is pinned his name and the home of his relatives, with the injunction that if he should die in one of these fits the people should have his body sent home. He finally recovers and pulls the leg of the congregation for money to get back home on. It takes about 20. He nearly always gets that amount each Sunday. ways gets that amount each Sunday. Then he pulls out for the next town to have another fit for the next Sunday.— Kansas City Journal.

The last course was served, the dinner came to an end, the servants left the room; Emerald looked down the table Paul Beringer had declared to my daughtowards the Duchess of Doon, and was about to give the signal for retiring, when the duke laid his hand upon hers, and gently checked her.

Three Years' Journey of Journalists.

There arrived in the city recently from the Argentine Republic two travelers dressed in khaki suits who bore a somewhat jaded and travel stained appearince. The names of the couple are Otto Sperber and his wife, Mrs. Adele Gaberel de Sperber, and they have made the trip from Buenos Ayres to this city in three years and four months, having left the Argentine capital on October 4, 1901. About one-third of the distance was made on mule back, one-third in canoes and other frail water craft, but the severest part had to be tramped on the couple with some prominent Berlin newspapers and Mrs. Sperber witing for a Paris journal, Paris being her native city. In 1896 the couple went to Buenos Ayres, where Mrs. Sperber resided continuously until they started for the north. Mr. and Mrs. Sperber tell of many hardships, hunger and constant dufficulty in getting food; of fording streams and crossing rivers; bitter cold splits and heavy rainstorms. But as both remarked, with animation, they managed to retain their health through all.—Mexican Herald.
