He was a noted gambler, he drank freely, and his "Your grace told me to remind you of moral character was about as bad as it could be. He was, however, immensely rich, and for this reason alone he was received everywhere, and he might have married practically where he chose. refused him with scorn.

All London knew of Lord Duncan's passion for the "ice maiden," for he made no secret of it, and already it had been the subject of speculation as to the result the announcement of her engagement would have on him.

Detective Smythe eyed him interestedfrom his seat in the embrasure of the rindow. Half-hidden there, he could see scented effusions from him, and, with a sigb of relief, ran his letter-knife along and listen at his case. There was no one else in the room. "You've seen it, of course," remarked

St. Petersburg, July 21 .- 6:45 p. m The suggestion is made that if Great Britain persists in raising the issue of the status of the Russian volunteer fleet cruisers now in the Red sea, Russia will offer to refer the case to the arbitration tribunal at The Hague. When the Smolensk and St. Petersburg reached Suez on their way out they received from the Russian consul the admiralty's instructions commissioning them as war instructions commissioning them as war ships. The idea that Great Britain might meet the question of conversion by authorizing British merchantmen to hoist the naval flag is ridiculed in official circles, where full confidence seems to exist that the incident will be speedily and satisfactarilla distract.

In the case of the German steamer Prinz Heinrich, where mails were seized by the Smolensk, Russia has not yet re-plied to Germany, but as the vessel was not seized and her mails, except two bags addressed to Nagasaki, were restored, the no trouble is anticipated in its adjust-ment, although a final adjudication is ex-pected to determine the exact rights of Russia in the matter.

Russia Will Yield.

All St. Petersburg is talking today of nothing except the possibility of compli-cations with Great Britain. At the emcations with Great Britain. At the embassies and legations intense activity reigns. In diplomatic circles, however, the sentiment is almost unanimous that Russia will yield. There is reason to believe that France has strongly advised her ally to adopt this course and Lord Lansdowne, Ambassador Benckendorff and M. Cambon, the French ambassador to Great Britain are consulting on the subject in London with the view to adjustment of the incident as quickly as possible.

London, July 21.—The Asociated Press learns the Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador, at a conference with Foreign Secretary Lansdowne yesterday afternoon, made what may be considered to be a preliminary reply to the British protest against the seizure of the steamer Malacca. He assured the foreign secretary that his government had no intention of infringing on the rights of Great Britain or any neutral power, and that if a mistake had been made in the seizure of the Malacca unquestionably the steamer will immediately be restored and damages. er will immediately be restored and dam-

The ambassador pointed out that it was unreasonable to suppose that the Malacca had been seized without the commander of the St. Petersburg having good grounds to believe that she had contraband of board. Unless this suspicion is effectually disproved the matter will have to go before a prize court. In the meantime, Russia will make full investigation.

"It took me four years to get a college education, and in four weeks a college education, and in four weeks I'll have a beard. I made $10 a week on the strength of the education, and got promoted the first week on the strength of the beard."—New York Sun.

Willie's Sympathy.

The new clergyman was invited to dine with the family the other Sunday, and 8-year-old Willie, of course, made himself conspicuous during his stay. He seemed to be deeply impressed with the minister, and never let his eyes stray from him. He manifested as much in-terest as his elders in what was said, but regarded the minister with a somewhat sorrowful expression, which was altogether uncalled for, as he was of a jovial disposition and greatly amused his hearers. As the minister was about to leave Willie parents with an amused smile.

"Why, I heard papa say to mamma that you was a mighty poor preacher," was Willie's startled declaration.—Wm.

The Improved Straw Ride.

The young folks up in the Berkshires and in the Massachusetts college towns of Northampton, Amherst and Holyoke have invented a new diversion this summer which they call the construction ride. It is a combination of the old-fashioned straw ride of their grandparents and the modern trolley trip. Instead of taking an ordinary electric passenger car, they charter a flat car, used ordinarily in construction work, with a trolley pole sticking up in the middle like a mast, spread it thick with straw, pile in the boys and the girls, and then go off for a ten-mile whiz over the hills and back.—New York Sun. have invented a new diversion this sun

Oddest Bed Quilt.

After ten years' incessant labor, Mrs. Lizzie Hoffman of Anthony has finished what is probably the oddest bedquilt in the world. It is a patch quilt made of 14,000 pieces of silk of all kinds and colors, and every piece of silk came from a different bride's hat. During ten years Mrs. Hoffman has been collecting these

A BACK LICK.

Settled the Case With Her. Many great discoveries have been made by accident and things better than gold mines have been found in this way, for example when even the accidental discovery that coffee is the real cause of one's sickness proves of most tremendous value because it lo-cates the cause and the person has then a chance to get well. "For over 25 years," says a Missouri woman, "I suffered untold agonles in my stomach and even the best physicians disagreed as to the cause without giving me any permanent help, different ones saying it was gastritis, indigestion, neuralgia, etc., so I dragged along from year to year, always half sick, until finally I gave up all hopes of ever being well again. "When taking dinner with a friend one day she said she had a new drink which turned out to be Postum and I liked it so well I told her I thought I would stop coffee for awhile and use it, which I did.

"So for three months we had Postum

vinced it was coffee that caused those spells, but even then I wouldn't believe it until one day we got out of Postum and as we lived two miles from town I thought to use the coffee we had in the house. "The result of a week's use of coffee again was that I had another terrible spell of agony and distress, proving that it was the coffee and nothing else. That settled it and I said good-bye to Coffee forever and since then Postum alone has been our hot mealtime drink. "My friends all say I am looking worlds better and my complexion is much improved. All the other members of our family have been benefited, too, Miss Alice M. Smith, of Minneapolis. Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering may be quickly and permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day when visiting a friend I run across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, - she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change. I use it occasionally now when I am exceptionally tired or worn out."—MISS ALICE M. SMITH, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., Chairman Executive Committee Minneapolis Study Club.

Beauty and strength in women vanish early in life because of monthly pain or some menstrual irregularity. Many suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women preserve roundness of form and freshness of face because it makes their entire female organism healthy. It carries women safely through the various natural crises and is the safeguard of woman's health.

The truth about this great medicine is told in the letters from men published in this paper constantly. Mrs. C. Kleinschrodt, Morrison, Ill., says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I have suffered ever since I was thirteen years of age with my menses. They were irregular and very painful. I doctored a great deal but received no benefit. "A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which did, and after taking a few bottles of it, I found great relief.

"Menstruation is now regular and without pain. I am enjoying better health than I have that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will positively help all sick women?

All women are constituted alike, rich and poor. high and low, - all suffer from the same organic troubles. Surely, no one can wish to remain weak and sickly, discouraged with life and without hope for the future, when proof is so unmistakable that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure monthly suffering — all womb and ovarian troubles, and all the ill
