OGDEN ARMOUR RETURNS,

Packer Terminates Vacation and Visits Chicago Stockyards.

NO DEMONSTRATION MADE.

Though Recognized, He Passes in Safety Through Big Crowds of Strikers and Their Pickets.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 25 .- J. Ogden Armour reappeared at the stockyards today, having suddenly returned from his vacation in the east. In proceeding to the packing center he drove through a throns of strikers and pickets who were resent fully falling back before an attack by the police. When Mr. Armour and a companion arrived at the Exchange avenue entrance to the yards fully 150 strikers tomorrow.

When President Edward Tilden of Libby, McNeil & Libby, arrived at his office today, he found a communication from the council committee inviting him to meet that body at 12 o'clock tomorrow. Mr. Filden has been one of the chief spokesmen for the packers. He hief spokesmen for the packers. He the packers had conferred.

Another Effort for Peace. In connection with the unexpected re-turn of J. Ogden Armour, reports of another effort to bring about peace, inde-pendent of the council's effort were circu-lated. Strike leaders called a meeting and unusual activity was manifested.

Fifty strike breakers at the plant of Nelson Morris & Co. went on strike to-day, because the company refused to discharge a special policeman whom the strike breakers said had beaten Frank Norice, one of their number. Last night Norice was arrested, but not before he had resisted an attempt to eject him from the strike breakers' lodgings at the yards, for smoking a pipe in barracks, contrary to rules, precautionary against and Refers to Irregular Bank Loans.

Security Company Refuses to Take Further Risk, Though No Deficit

Madison, Wis., Aug. 25 .- [Special.]-The office of state treasurer in Wiscon-

The letter states that a surety company has informed the governor that the money in the state treasury has been found intact, but that the additional bond desired cannot be furnished. The governor further states as reasons for the demand for an increased bond, that the treasurer has made personal loans from banks acting as state depositories, and that it is apparent that these banks made the loans, contrary to regular and approved banking methods, because of fear that should they not make the loans desired, the state treasurer would withdraw state money deposited in those banks.

The governor states in his letter that the fact that monies of the state are in-tact does not in any way meet the rea-sons for requiring additional bond. The Thinks Law Inadequate. "While there is no statute imposing a "While there is no statute imposing a penalty for such a transaction, the interests of the state are as greatly jeopardized by such conduct as in cases directly prohibited by statute, and provision should be made by the Legislature, now that necessity for the same is disclosed, for protection of the state's interest against such reprehensible and dangeragainst such representations and dangerous practices."

As it is customary among bonding companies not to go surety where another has declined, Mr. Kempf will have to look to friends for a personal bond, and it is said one of such magnitude cannot he reject. On the first disclosures of irregularities Treasurer Kempf made good his short-age of $3400 and immediately resigned

While showing some pictures of Mexican animals the other day, a lecturer, was humorously challenged by a member of his audience to explain his strongly expressed antipathy to the Mexican donkey, and his whole-hearted admiration of the Mexican horse. He explained that when the pedestrian or horseman met a Mexican donkey on a pass or path abutting on a sheer precipice of some 500 feet, the donkey always took the inside path and gave you the outside, with all its attendant risks. On the other hand, the Mexican horse invariably gave you the inside can horse invariably gave you the inside berth and took for himself the outer path.

AS EASY

Needs Only a Little Thinking. The food of childhood often decides whether one is to grow up well nourished and healthy or weak and sickly from improper food.

It's just as easy to be one as the other, provided we get a proper start. A wise physician like the Denver doctor who knew about food can accomplish wonders, provided the patient is willing to help and will eat only proper food.

Speaking of this case, the mother said her little four-year-old boy was suffering from a peculiar derangement of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and his feet became so swolllen he couldn't take a step. "We called a doctor, who said at once we must be very careful as to his diet, as improper food was the only cause of his sickness. Sugar, especially, he forbid.

"So the doctor made up a diet, and the principal food he prescribed was Grape Nuts, and the boy, who was very fond of sweet things, took the Grape-Nuts readily, without adding any sugar. (Doctor explained that the sweet in Grape-Nuts is not at all like cane or beet sugar, but is the natural sweet of the grains.)

"We saw big improvement inside a few days, and now Grape-Nuts are almost his only food, and he is once more a healthy, happy, rosy-cheeked youngster, with every prospect to grow up into a strong, healthy man." Name given by Postum Cereal Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The sweet in Grape-Nuts is the Nature-sweet known as Post Sugar, not digested in the liver like ordinary sugar, but predigested. Feed the youngsters a handful of Grape-Nuts when Nature demands sweet and prompts them to call for sugar.

OLD GUNS ON A MISSOURI FARM.

Obsolete Weapons Buried in Civil War Recovered.

W. D. Short, who lives near Rutledge, has recently dug up on his farm sixty-four old muskets which have been buried since the spring of 1863. The farm where Mr. Short lives was once owned by his father in the time of the Civil war, and the story of the guns is an interesting one.

Col. Glover, with a force of Union soldiers, had camped near the Short homestead and was preparing supper when a troop of Coufederate cavalry dashed upon them and captured the company. Col. Glover's soldiers were equipped with "fuse" guns, an army musket superseded throughout the army by more modern weapons long before the war closed. The Confederate troopers took the guns, but, finding they had no ammunition for the old style weapons left them on the farm of Mr. Short.

The possession of so formidable a display of arms at that period, when even a squirrel rifle was on the prohibited list, very much alarmed Mr. Short and his family, and that night a trench was dug, the guns piled in and covered over. There the weapons have rested until one day last week, when W. D. Short by actually interesting news feature. HYBRID BERRY A NOVELTY. Large Fruit Shaped Like a Blackberry Has Raspberry Flavor.

A very remarkable new berry is on hibition in the office of Mrs. Ma Shute. It is a cross between a blackber-ry and a raspberry and possesses many emitted. While the fruit has the flavor of a raspberry it has the lavor of a raspberry it has the size and shape of a blackberry. It is 31/4 inches in circumference. It is of a beautiful wine color, darker than that of a raspberry. It is the second year's growth and the first veer's beautiful.

the second year's grown and the hist year's bearing.

The root was obtained from J. C. Mc-Pherson, Cambria, Cal. The berry is called the Logan, as propagated by Mr. Logan of Santa Rosa, Cal. The berry is a poor one for shipment and can only be used for quick consumption.—Denvei Post

Sunday Bear Hunt in North Carolina. Some of the citizens of the Ashland section had a novel experience in killing a big black bear Sunday. He was discovered passing across the bottoms of the Bushnell plantation about noon by Alfred Jones, a colored tenant on the place, who notified all the farmers in the neighborhood. A number of men came with their dogs and their guns and proceeded to Jocate the beast.

Jocate the beast.

The dogs soon struck the track and several of the hunters got within close range at 2 o'clock. Five or six loads were fired into him before he had apparently noticed any onslaught. Firing continued for several hours with slight were fired into him before he had apparently noticed any onslaught. Firing continued for several hours with slight effect, and several fierce fights between the dogs and the bear occurred, but he apparently made no effort to attack any of the huntsmen. Late in the afternoon, after considerable dodging in a thick swamp, he climbed a large tree. Several shots were fired at him from below, and he went out on a limb which was so small it broke under his weight.

When he fell to the ground Ed Harrill was at very close range and got a good aim at a point just below the heart which ended the conflict. Mr. Summers, who sent for his wagon, carried the bear to the nearest scales and found that he weighed 267 pounds.—Charlotte Observer.

A Term Hated of Men.

Whether it has been altogether the fault of theologians or not, the hatred of theological terms, and particularly of the unhappy word "sin," is always very evident in the lay free lance. Sometimes it is even amusingly evident. Men who would detest wrongdoing as much as, or more than, any of us, and who would hitterly reproach themselves if they had deliberately yielded to the seductions of their lower natures, had injured others, or had damaged some good cause they had at heart, will yet burst out with tempersome irritation against the notion of "worrying about their sins."

It is to them as is a red flag to a bull. Call a man's sins by any other name, and the best clerical and lay minds are perfectly as one in their detestation or them. They quite equally repudiate what they consider to be "wrong" or "bad," or "cruel," or "blackguardly," or "caddish," or in any way contemptible and unworthy of their highest ideals.— Whether it has been alt

Passing out at an end of the government building one sees the Government Fisheries edifice, which is devoted exclusively to the display and exploitation of the United States Fish Commission's enterprises and the exhibition of food fishes and shellfish. Specimens of fishes from river and sea, lake and brook, from far and near, are displayed here, swimming in huge tanks which are supplies with fresh or salt water to suit the habits of the species which they contain. Hatching apparatus of various kinds is on exhibition.

Large Grazing Project in Minnesota.

Stockmen and capitalists, mostly from Chicago, are forming a company for the purpose of buying and utilizing for cattle grazing purposes the great stretches of to be found in this section of the state, and as it has been stripped of all marketable timber it is now practically value-less to the lumber companies and others who own it. All of these tracts are thickly covered with wild grass, while in many places where logging was carried on more extensively timothy and clover are found in abundance, making the finest grazing lands to be found. Should the deal go through it is the intention of the promoters to bring the cattle in from other states each spring and place them on the grazing grounds in charge of cowboys, who will look after them until fall, when the stock will be shipped out and sold.—St. Paul (Minn.) of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can to-day thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I when I was thirty-live years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of my troubles.

"My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incur-able. She took your Vegetable Com-pound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her hus-band's delight was blessed with a baby. band's delight was blessed with a baby.
