CITY IS ABOUT TO FALL.

U. S. Government Learns That Port Arthur's End is Near.

JAPS GET MORE FORTS.

The Situation in Beleaguered City is Critical and Surrender Expected at Any Moment.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Consul General Fowler today called the consular department from Chefoo that the situation at Port Arthur is rapidly changing and that the outer forts have fallen into the possession of the Japanese.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—As a result of the dispatches received from Lieut. Gen. Stoesel, the Japanese express entire confidence that Port Arthur will be able to hold out until the arrival of the Japanese second Pacific squadron.

Gen. Stoesel's Report. Gen. Stoesel in his dispatches to Emperor Nicholas reports the repulse of a Japanese attack October 26 on the north front of Port Arthur. The Russian losses were 400 killed or wounded.

Gen. Kuratovich reports that in an ambulance November 15, near Sincinpu, thirty-two Japanese dragons were killed or wounded.

Japs Attack Vigorously. The text of Gen. Stoesel's dispatches of October 28, is as follows: We have the honor to report to your majesty that the Japanese, October 25, opened a vigorous attack on our fortifications on the north side, but our heavy artillery and our Russian reserves and the assault was repulsed.

Gen. Sakharoff, formerly governor of Port Arthur, died of typhus fever. It is difficult to single out individuals for special mention among the heroic defenders.

Fighting at Port Arthur. Fighting at Port Arthur has taken place nightly since the Japanese began their general assault, on October 25, according to St. Petersburg, a pilot, who was a passenger on the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rastoropy.

The Japanese trenches on the Kipling are, as close to the Russian as the Kerkman trenches on the north side. The sharpshooters of both sides occupying the pits converse with each other and frequently exchange cigarettes.

Japs Sink Steamers. All the railroad steamers belonging to the Russians, except the steamer formerly named, have been sunk by the Japanese.

The hospital ship Angara, formerly a transport, has been sunk in shallow water. The patients are still on board the ship and are comfortable.

Port Arthur Short of Everything. The opinion is expected that the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rastoropy carried to Chefoo extended dispatches, according to St. Petersburg, the situation at Port Arthur, the condition of the Russian troops, the shortage of food and ammunition, referring the question of further resistance to the Russian government.

The nature of the Russian fire indicates a necessity of certain kinds of ammunition. It is said that the Russian commanders are divided on the question of further defense. If this is true, it fits the theory that the Rastoropy carried dispatches passing the question to the czar.

Japs Enter Chefoo. Three Japanese torpedo boats, which entered the harbor of Chefoo, were destroyed by the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rastoropy. The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rastoropy was here, according to St. Petersburg, and repaired this afternoon. The Japanese consul sent a cutter out to meet them and informed them that the Russian commanders had decided that the Rastoropy had been sunk.

The Japanese torpedo boats were seen in the harbor of Chefoo. The Japanese consul sent a cutter out to meet them and informed them that the Russian commanders had decided that the Rastoropy had been sunk.

NOT IN A DEADLOCK.

RUSSIA HAS NO IDEA OF RECALLING AMBASSADOR.

SLIGHT HITCH IN ENGLI-Russian Agreement—New Evidence at the Hand Inquiry.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The facts do not warrant the sensational report that Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador on account of the present hitch in the Anglo-Russian North sea convention (as intimated by the London Daily Telegraph this morning in a dispatch from St. Petersburg).

Russia has taken exception to the language of the English text of the article relating to fixing the blame and has proposed some modifications, but there is no evidence yet that a deadlock has been reached. The similarity is undoubtedly exercising influence upon the foreign office in the matter.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The Associated Press says that there is no justification whatever for the sensational deductions made in the London Daily Telegraph's dispatch from St. Petersburg. Russia has accepted in principle the subject of agreement between the two powers.

Gen. Stoesel's Report. Gen. Stoesel in his dispatches to Emperor Nicholas reports the repulse of a Japanese attack October 26 on the north front of Port Arthur. The Russian losses were 400 killed or wounded.

The man was slacking, but not in time. There was not room for the coach to pass the wagon, and seeing that a collision was inevitable, Hazard made up his mind in an instant how to act.

The wagon stood the shock of the collision, and the next instant the chestnuts were under the next, struggling wildly.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Dantforth of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE. Women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Dr. Lydia E. Pinkham for advice as soon as any distressing symptoms appear. It is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

DO YOU COUGH? DON'T DELAY! KEMP'S BALSAM. The sight of birds is extraordinary and the simple fact that the eye of a hawk or a pigeon is larger than that of man, gives us some idea of what their powers of sight must be, and of how much more keenly they see than we.

How About Your Spare Time? You can earn from $5 to $15 per week in selling Meadows' Nasal Cream, McCall's Stomach Powders, Meadows Tea and Meadows' Headache Powders.

Training a Child in the Use of Money. Training in responsibility and judgment in the use of money is within the grasp of every family, even the poorest. I have never seen children so poor as to have spending money. To be given the responsibility for the spending, saving and giving away of this money, in increasing amounts, according to the age of the child, is one of the most educative experiences.

A Watch Variation. As to the sympathetic varieties of watches, a correspondent writes: "I discovered some years ago that it was the most accurate watch I had ever owned."
