Flint, Mich., June 8.—James McConnell, June 8.—James McConnell, 32 years of age, and living near Flint, made an unsuccessful attempt to kill Vice President Fairbanks yesterday afternoon after the vice president had finished an address to an immense crowd at the celebration of the city's golden jubilee and the laying of the corner stone of the new federal building here.

McConnell forced his way through the crowd up to the speaker's side, but as he

BOY DROWNED IN DEEP HOLE.

A Million Dollars For a New Stomach Is His Offer-Riches Cannot Always Buy Health

Woes of the Wealthy Worse than Poverty

When you are inclined to envy the rich, remember that John D. Rockefeller, multi-millionaire, one of the very wealthiest men the world has ever known, has troubles for which all his wealth compared to the remember of the r wealth cannot compensate. Mr. Rocke-feller has a diseased stomach that the doctors pronounce incurable. Instead of being permitted to enjoy life to its full, to eat what he likes without dis-tress, to partake of tempting viands and the delicious dainties of the epicure and the gourmet, Mr. Rockefeller is obliged to subsist on a diet of tepid milk and lime water, such as you would feed to a colicky baby. Is it much wonder that he offers a million dollars of his many millions for a new stomach that shall perform its duties without distress and danger?

If Mr. Rockefeller would spend fifty cents for Camp's Curative Remedy, he might secure the relief he seeks, promptly and permanently. But the price is too small in the millionaire's eyes. He would spend a million, but would hesitate to spend half a dollar. Thus the price of wealth, in his case, is perpetual suffering, while those of us possessed of less money and greater perspicacity profit by the truth and take the road to health that thousands have traveled before us.

There is no question about the efficacy of Camp's Curative Remedy in all cases of stomach and digestive disorders. It is guaranteed to cure, and in any case of failure to do so the purchaser's money will be promptly refunded. All druggists sell it, giving you your choice of powder or tablet form at the low prices of 25 and 50 cents. Under such liberal terms and at such a small price, the man, woman or child who continues to suffer with any illness of the stomach has only himself to blame. I. ROSENHEIMER, DRUGGIST, Kewaskum, Wis.

A Railway Man's Predicament.

Recently Joseph Ollier, an engine-fitter employed by the Northwestern Railway company at Crewe, had a strange and trying experience. In repairing a locomotive he had occasion to get inside the water tank, the inlet of which is exceedingly small. He got in with little difficulty, but could not get out. The efforts of other workmen to extricte him were unavailing. Ollier became exhausted, and lay in the tank unconscious. A number of mechanics had to be summoned, and the engine was taken to pieces be Haugen met the party at Knapp. File to Hall Home. File to Hall Home.

Mr. Hall's residence is but a short distance from the depot at Knapp, neating at the base of a hill. The party gathered in silence at the station and without any special order or precedence mingled with the people from the neighborhood who had gathered at the depot and slowly wended their way through the field and across the creek to the Hall home. Here the front yard and porch and several of the rooms were filled with waiting people.

Governor Speaks to Mourners.

On the Life of A. R. Hall.

All over this state today, in the homes throughout a sister state, by many throughout this Union to whose attention the work of Mr. Hall in public had been attracted, there are sad hearts and bowed heads today. We are gathered here to pay a last tribute to a great man whose life has been so simple, so modest, whose demeanor has been so humble that many of us perhaps have not been truly conscious of the greatness of his character. But into the history of this state and into the lives of its people there has come a new significance and a new meaning, higher standards, better thoughts, better living, great devotion to the public interests than would have been known except for the life of Mr. Hall.

He would have no friend of his say one word in exaggeration of his work and his life, but I do not feel that it would be within my power to draw too strongly, to utter too emphatically enconlums upon his life and public service. He was a man of splendid courage. He feared nothing except to do wrong. On the Life of A. R. Hall.

Lightning Rods for the Pyramids. The Nile valley in Egypt has experienced remarkable climatic changes since the completion by the British of the great Assonan irrigation system, and there have been electrical storms of a character hitherto unknown to the country, during one of which the Khephsen pyramid, as was cabled weeks ago, was struck by lightning, an occurrence that pyramid, as was cabled weeks ago, was struck by lightning, an occurrence that has never before been recorded.

Aside from its meteorological importance, the event is of particular interest to Philadelphians, as it may result in the complete equipping of the pyramids with lightning rods made in this city. Inquiries are now being made by J. C. Hendrique, who is semi-officially attached to the Egyptian's service, about the price and construction of lightning rods turned out by local markufacturers.

sclously in his life did a wrong. He may have made mistakes—who has not? He never took an advantage, he never worked in the dark.

A life like his does not terminate with death. It lives on and on through the generations. In the higher ideals which has established in this state, in the better regard for public rights which he has made plain as a public duty for all men, he has so impressed himself upon the day and hour of his time that his life should live and go on in the perfected life of the friends who knew him and have been made better by his presence.

Good Work Lives Always.

The governor then quoted from Walt Whitman a few verses descriptive of the mysteries of death and of life and found comfort in the thought that life has not been interrupted, but that the great character of the man lying dead close by is still working out the purposes of a higher and better life. masticate my food properly. "The result was that I found myself, a few years ago, afflicted with ailments of the stomach, and kidneys, which interfered seriously with my business. "At last I took the advice of friends and began to eat Grape-Nuts instead of the heavy meats, etc., that had constituted my former diet. "I found that I was at once benefited by the change, that I was soon relieved from the heart-burn and the indigestion that used to follow my meals, that the pains in my back from my kidney affection had ceased, showing that those organs had been healed, and that my nerves, which used to be unsteady, and my brain, which was slow and lethargic from a heavy diet of meats and greasy foods, had, not in a moment, but gradually, and none the less surely, been restored to normal efficiency. Now every nerve is steady and my brain and thinking faculties are quicker and more acute than for years past. "After my old style breakfasts I used to suffer during the forenoon from a feeling of weakness which hindered me seriously in my work, but since I have begun to use Grape-Nuts food I can work till dinner time with all ease and comfort." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
