"With six other unmarried Norwegian newcomers, I went thirteen miles from Chicago to work on a canal, twenty feet deep. The weather was hot and sultry and fever hovered over the marsh. Planks were laid zigzag into the canal, and we wheeled the earth out on them in barrows. None of us had used barrows before. Man after man fell sick with fever. I held out the longest—about two weeks. All we got was fever, from which one died.

It is a well known fact that the bends between Danes in America and in Denmark become more and more solid and secure. Representatives of Danish commerce and industrial enterprises have thoroughly realized the advantage of becoming more futtimately connected with America, as have also actors, authors and newspaper men. To Strengthen Relations.

We, the undersigned, have come together in Racine, Wis., to organize an association, with a scope large enough for every American as well as the spiritual connection between Deemark and America. We do not intend to make money on this undertaking, which is to be conducted along the strictest rules. The time for such a society is ripe. The Danish manufacturers send their goods to our world's fairs, sell but a small part of it, and are forgotten until the next exposition. As yet no Danish business firm has established branch houses in America. In agricultural respect Denmark is recognized as being a leader in the world's market, and those men who are agricultural experts at home, are authorities in their lines. Such men can be induced to come over here, deliver lectures and gain schools in some respects are superior to the Danish. We can make America as well as Denmark profit by inducing Danish school authorities to visit our schools.

Our association can arrange conducted excursions to Denmark.

As yet no Danish dramatic company composed of first class actors and actresses, have visited our shores, chiefly because a guarantee fund was lacking.

Our association is in possession of this guarantee fund and can arrange for a tour of lectures, singers, actors, etc., in such a way that no time is wasted, and all necessary expenses fully covered.

Favored by Secretary Wilson.

It is understood that Secretary Wilson of the United States department of agriculture already has displayed ardent interest in the enterprise.

It is also said that during the preliminary arrangements prominent business men, scholars, authors, etc., in Denmark is Greeted by Friends.

Response of Envoy.

Witte, who seemed deeply moved by the sincerity of the welcome, advanced a few steps and delivered his reply. He said:

"I was so little prepared for this kind of reception that I must ask your pardon for the incoherence of my words. I have performed my duty well because I have performed my duty well because I have strictly obeyed his majesty's instructions, because the world is weary of this bloody war, because all classes of American society, from President Roosevelt down, were in sympathy with my and your cause, because I was true to my country and her and our interests."

high speed the cars could not be brought to a standstill and the locomotive crashed into the vehicle.

The wagon was demolished and Mr. Carr thrown down an embankment. When he was picked up by the crew the top of the skull was found cut off and the cavity denuded of brains. The scalp was hanging to the right side of the head by a thin piece of skin. One eye was missing and the chest crushed in. There was also fractures of the collar bone, left jaw, right forearm and lar bone, left jaw, right forearm and hand, left arm and forearm, and a com-pound fracture of both thighs and left The remains were brought to the The body was mangled so that it was impossible to identify it at that time. A wallet was discovered in his pocket containing a certificate of deposit on the Fond du Lac National bank and the check made out to Mr. Carr. This finally enabled the authorities after inquiry to tell who the dead man was. Later in the evening William Carr, a brother.

Long Be the Greatest of All. There are now in the world nine cities of more than one million inhabitants each. Three of these-namely, New York, Chicago and Philadelphia-are cities of that new world which was only dreamed of 500 years ago and was undreamed of when Thebes, Babylon and Nineveh vaunted themselves as important centers of civilization. No other nation than the United States has more of these big towns, the others being London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Canton and Tokio.

The new state census will probably show a population in New York city of close upon 4,000,000 inhabitants. The unrevised figure is 3,987,696. This is a gain of over 100,000 a year since 1900, when the first enumeration after the convenience.

CHRONIC ERYSIPELAS Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills,

Although Whole Body was Affected. Erysipelas or St. Anthony's fire is a most uncomfortable disease on account of the burning, the pain and the disfigurement; it is also a very grave disorder, attended always by the danger of involving vital organs in its spread.

The case which follows will be read with great interest by all sufferers as it affected the whole body, and refused to yield to the remedies prescribed by the physician employed. Mrs. Ida A. Col-bath, who was the victim of the attack, residing at No. 19 Winter street, New-buryport, Mass., says: "In June of 1903 I was taken ill with what at first appeared to be a fever. I sent for a physician who pronounced my disease chronic erysipelas and said it would be a long time before I got well. "Inflammation began on my face and spread all over my body. My eyes were swollen and seemed bulging out of their sockets. I was in a terrible plight and suffered the most intense pain through-out my body. The doctor said my case was a very severe one. his treatment, however, the inflammation did not diminish and the pains which shot through my body increased in severity. METHODS OF CHINESE DOCTORS. Prescriptions of Many Ingredients-

Treatment by Massage. Chinese physicians of much repute ever visit afoot, but must be carried to the patient on a horse, mule or jack, or in a carriage. At the patient's residence the doctor first rests awhile, and in the eantime is served with liquors and con-ctions and often with a formal meal.

light massage does not work a cure or give relief (in pains of the stomach, for instance), the doctor will kneel on the stomach and rub and knead with his knees and hands the painful part, and this he will keep up until the patient is relieved (or says he is.)

Another of his remedies is acu-puncture, or plunging a needle into various parts of the body—a treatment that is said to be very effectual in many complants, and is highly regarded.—Reynolds' Newspaper.
