All Were to Sail Same Day.

All Were to Sail Same Day. "A statement was made that Stanford White, John J. Delany, corporation coun-sel, his daughter and a close business as-sociate of Mr. White, were booked to sail today on the La Provence. It is also reported that Harry K. Thaw and Mrs. Thaw were also to be passengers. Owing to the statements of Mr. and Mrs. Thaw against White, the fact that they were all to be passengers on the same boat puzzles the police." The district attorney's office completed the examination of the more important mitnesses so far discovered yesterday and immediately shifted its attention to the investigation of the relations exist-ing between Evelyn Nesbit and Stanford White prior to the girl's marriage, and Wrong Kind of License.

A story of a wedding that failed comes over from England. Bride and brideover from England. Bride and bride-groom were just off in the honeymoon cab when another cab came down the street, with its horse performing un-wonted prodigies of speed. From within the vehicle shouted and gesticulated the registerar's clerk. The bride grew pale, the bridegroom stiffened his shoulders. The clerk arrived. "Just caught you!" he gasped. "Hurry back to the office, will you?" Then he murmured in the bridegroom's ear, "My dear sir, I'm most slight mistake. My old guv'nor went and married you with a dog license."

tained. Buffalo, N. Y.--The Supreme Court has granted a permanent injunction with costs against Paul B. Hudson and others of New York City, restraining them from making or selling a foot powder which the court de-clares is an imitation and infringement on "Foot-Ease," now so largely advertised and world over the country. The owner of the trade-mark "Foot-Ease," is Allen S. Olmsted, of Le Roy, N. Y., and the decision in this suit upholds his trade-mark and renders all parties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease," adver-tising, in placing on the market the spurious and similar appearing preparation involved

Play Was a Success.

Nat Goodwin, in describing an unsuc-cessful play, said: "Why, one night, duroffice man was aroused from a nap in the middle of the first act by an odd sound. He yawned and looked out of the box, and there before him stood a little boy, weeping bitterly. 'What is the matter my little man?'

he asked The boy, holding up a check, said:

"I want my money back." "Why do you want your money back? asked the box office man in surprise. "Because, sobbed the boy, 'I'm atraid to sit up in the gallery all alone."— Philadelphia Bulletin.
