ON VERGE OF BANKRUPTCY

THAT'S WHY CZAR USES ALL MEANS TO CREATE IMPRESSION THAT REVOLT IS OVER.

FOREIGNERS ALARMED.

Finance Minister Bombarded With Requests to Mend Matters and Cash is Being Refused.

PARIS, July 26.—[Bulletin].—The Russian government says The Times learning that the opposition is talking about plans for a provisional government, has ordered the military to disperse all meetings of Democrats, members of Parliament and similar bodies.

CAR FACES BANKRUPTCY.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 26.—The government is using every means at its disposal to create the impression both at home and abroad that the crisis has been successfully passed.

The government's sudden access of optimism is in reality traceable to the continuation over the past few days of securities at home and abroad.

The second installment of the big loan promised prior to the assembling of the Parliament is due August 1, and the outlook in Russia has frightened the holders into refusing to pay any further cash.

The situation has evidently caused quite as much alarm among the financiers who underwrite the loan abroad as it has at the treasury here.

German bankers are being urged by the necessity of supporting the loan by telegrams from French, English and German bankers.

Terror in the Caucasus. In consequence of terrorism the administration of the Caucasus of the Caucasus has been completely paralyzed.

For the last forty-eight hours the central committee of the Social Democrats, Social Revolutionaries, Peasants' league, railway men and telegraphers' unions and the military committee have been conferring with the government.

When Poisoned by Ivy. It is no very uncommon thing to see boys around town with both hands enveloped in rags. In nine cases out of ten it is from poison ivy. This plant acts differently on individuals. Some people can handle the leaves with impunity. Others who come in contact with the leaves are poisoned, and still others who even happen near the plant are as seriously affected as are those who innocently handle the vine.

According to what an old timer tells there is but one speedy remedy for this painful affliction, and that remedy grows right at one's door. It is the lantana. And the recipe is simple. Pick the leaves and place them in a kettle. Pour boiling water over the leaves, but do not cook them. Let the water cool enough to use, and then use liberally. Bathe the parts and swathe and bandage with very wet cloths.

Our informant related a very interesting case in point. He said that some years ago the hired man in his family was poisoned with the ivy and his body became a mass of sores. A doctor was consulted who gave him the lantana recipe. It was applied and in a few days the man was able to change his clothing, which he had not for a week's time was able to resume his labor. The remedy is well worthy a trial.

Making a Revenue-Cutter Officer—His Day When a Cadet.

The recent address of Secretary Shaw to the graduates of the school of instruction of the revenue cutter service called attention anew to a very useful institution of whose existence many people have been ignorant.

The future revenue officer receives a year during his cadetship, which covers three years, $10 per month being deducted in order that he may, upon his graduation, have in his pocket a sufficient sum to equip himself with the regulation dress of a third lieutenant.

CHAPTER III.

The girls' minds were at ease with respect to Keith Vandeleur, that morning they were banished from the Kensington mansion, and found themselves steaming away from London by railway.

"What shall we do?" sighed Gertrude. "Be patient," Ella returned quietly. "Everything comes to those who wait."

"No, perhaps you're thinking of getting married, and so are taking lessons in housekeeping."

BOLT KILLS FIVE PERSONS

LIGHTNING WORKS DEADLY HAVOC AMONG FANS IN MANITOWOC GRANDSTAND.

MANY ARE INJURED. When Frantic Mothers Search for Boys Under Terrific Storm.

MANITOWOC, Wis., July 23.—[Special.]—Five persons are dead and a score or more are injured, many of them severely, as a result of a bolt of lightning striking the grand stand of Athletic park just before a ball game at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Dead and Injured. The dead are: SKUIRA, ALBERT D., aged 17, son of Charles Skuira; WOLLETT, IRVING, aged 17, son of Charles Wollett; HANDL, WALTER, aged 17, son of Albert Handl; KLANK, ANTON, aged 13, son of Mrs. T. Klank; BRUNSTON, WILLIAM, aged 14, an orphan.

The Injured. Theodore Burnmaster, aged 17; burned about the legs, rendered insensible by shock. Frank Boehm, aged 18; burned about the legs, rendered unconscious. Walter Boehm, aged 15, his brother; slightly burned about the legs and stomach. Lester Reuther, aged 15; slightly burned; slight head injury. Skuira, who was killed. Walter Sadowsky, aged 15; burned by the shock.

While the fans and opposing teams were huddled under shelter there was a terrific crash. At the same instant a bolt of lightning ripped its way through the roof of the stand and followed a wire over the roof to the gate, where it cut several other buildings.

Crash after crash followed the fatal bolt. Many hurried from the field to the grandstand, and many others remained to assist in caring for the injured. The alarm was immediately given, and many of the injured and helpless were trampled upon.

Among the injured it was found that four of the Plymouth team had been knocked down and suffered from shock. Harry Kono seemed to be paralyzed completely about his limbs and was unable to get up. So serious was the condition of Theodore Burnmaster, that doctors fear he will not survive the shock.

CHANCE TO MAKE A FORTUNE.

Find a Way of Making Fats Skiddoo at Your Behest.

The inventor who will devise an efficient method of dissolving fog or of contracting its effect will reap a great fortune.

It is said that a week of the fog so common in London, especially in the latter part of December, costs the railway companies there $1,000,000 and the latter $200,000 a day, while the loss to merchants is beyond calculation.

It is estimated that in consequence of fog atmosphere the people of the British capital are put to an unnecessary expense of from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 annually, and in winter enjoy sunshine only one-fourth of the time to which they are entitled.
