SAVED OTHERS, BUT DIES.

The commander-in-chief reifera views expressed in general orders re-garding a proper observance of Me-morial day, and said that as the result of his recommendations concerning the graves of Confederates buried on northern soil, he had received a number of this city to enlist in the United States ern soil, he had received a number of touching messages from mothers of the South whose sons are buried in north-ern soil, pouring out their appreciation of the spirit embodied in his order. These, he said, were too tender and sacred to be heralded publicly, but if he had received but one such communicareceived but one such communica-he would have felt amply justified for the recommendations he made. Reference also was made to his recom-mendation that the Sunday preceding Memorial day be duly observed as Me-morial Sunday in order that the growing custom in many places of regarding memorial day as a mere holiday for reames and amusements may be checked. band his small resources. Membership Increases.

The total membership of the Grand Army is declared in the report of Adjt. Gen. Tweedale to be 235,823, an increase of 3368 during the last six months. The losses by death for the year ended De-cember 31, 1905, were 9205 or 3.9 per losses by death for the year ended De-cember 31, 1905, were 9205 or 3.9 per erent of the total membership. In the preceding year the loss by death reached exactly the same percentage. He sug-gested that an increase in the per capita tax from 314 to 5 cents would increase revenues $3500 yearly, which is need-ful. In addition to T. A. Martin of Wash-ington, Col. C. W. Keeting of New Or-leans, died of the heat yesterday during the parade. Elijah Blasdell of Spring Valley, and Henry Huffcutt of Wau-paca, were among the Wisconsin men prostrated.
