GEN. QUENTIN BANDERA, FAMOUS NEGRO WHO HANDED INSURGENTS, FALLS IN BATTLE.

TRY TO SLAY GOVERNOR.

HAVANA, Aug. 23.—It is increasingly evident that the backbone of the insurrection in the western part of the province of Havana has been broken.

HAVANA, Aug. 23.—The insurgent forces commanded by Pina Guerra have captured San Juan de Martinez, the terminus of the Western railway, and have occupied the town and railway station.

There was no bloodshed at the occupation of San Juan de Martinez, according to the report of the rebels. The small force of rural guards which held the town fled at the approach of the insurgents.

Guards to Engage Insurgents.
HAVANA, Aug. 23.—A force of rural guards and volunteers has left Cienfuegos, province of Santa Clara, to engage 300 insurgents who have left Las Lajas under the command of Col. Guzman, mayor of that town.

Leader of Rebels Is Killed.
HAVANA, Aug. 23.—Gen. Quintin Bandera, chief executive of Havana province, who recently headed an insurgent band and began operating as a general in the morning in an encounter with rural guards.

In Early Morning Battle.
The fight with Bandera's band occurred at 3 o'clock this morning. A force of 100 mounted rural guards, which had for several days surrounded the insurgent force commanded by Bandera, finally succeeded after a long and hard fight in capturing and pitched his camp for the night. In addition to Bandera, two of his followers were killed, but none was captured.

It was announced August 20 that Gen. Quintin Bandera, who greatly distinguished himself in the Cuban war for independence, had left Arroyo Arenas, twelve miles west of Havana, with about twenty hundred men, and was believed to be augmented later by a force armed with guns and ammunition which set out from Havana the next day it was reported that Bandera had been wounded in the head in a skirmish.

Called Republic Ungrateful.
Bandera was about 60 years old. He took part in the ten years war, as well as in the Cuban revolution. He was well known in every province of Cuba, and had great influence with the colored people. He was a great orator and was in the habit of gathering crowds of negroes to hear him and making speeches to them on the subject of the revolution. On one occasion he went to the Senate chamber and delivered a violent speech criticizing the government for not giving him an office. Soon afterwards he was appointed director of the House of Representatives. The position which Bandera aspired to was that of chief of state.

May End Revolution.
The body of Gen. Bandera lies in the morgue at Havana today, flanked by two rows of negroes who are being frantically gashed by the long heavy machetes of the rural guards who ended their career in Havana. Bandera was buried in a great crowd, mostly negro friends of Bandera, are watching the funeral with interest. The funeral will be the most important event in Havana since the death of Bandera.

Try to Murder Governor.
An attempt was made last evening to assassinate Gov. Emilio Nunez, governor of the province of Havana. A man had a revolver leveled at the governor as he was entering his home. Another man was passing by at the time and would have fired on the governor, but he was stopped by a man who drew a revolver and threatened to shoot the man who was leveling the revolver at the governor. The man who was leveling the revolver at the governor was arrested and is being held in custody.

RECOVERS FROM QUAKE.
EVERYBODY IN VALPARAISO IS PUT TO WORK TO HELP CLEAN UP WRECKED CITY.

NO PLACE FOR DEAD.
Authorities Have Trouble in Disposing of Corpses—Shocks More Severe Than at Frisco.

VALPARAISO, Chile, Aug. 23.—Some of the business houses here reopened today for the first time since the earthquake.

Telephone and telegraph communication with Santiago has been re-established, but the lines are used almost exclusively by the government officials.

City Under Martial Law.
The city is still under martial law. Traffic ceases at 6 o'clock in the evening, and everybody is compelled to take some part in the work of restoring normal conditions.

As a first installment the government has appropriated $4,000,000 for the relief of the destitute. The custom house and the post office were destroyed, and by rail has been resumed. The postal service also is in operation.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered by the authorities is the interment of the bodies recovered from the ruins, as all the cemeteries were destroyed, and the various temporary morgue heaps of coffins have accumulated, awaiting the designation of their place of burial.

The work of recovering the bodies is being pushed to the utmost in order to avoid an epidemic, in fear of which many families are leaving the city.

President-elect Pedro Montt arrived here on Tuesday and conferred with the authorities. He said it was necessary to restore communications with the utmost celerity and give free passage on steamers in order to reduce the excessive population of Valparaiso and prevent famine.

Another fire breaks out.
Tuesday night a new fire was started. Firemen blew up buildings and tried to demolish them. Walls that were considered dangerous also were blown up. The fire was extinguished in the suburb of Vina del Mar, some 200,000 people form a colossal camp.

Some twenty robbers and two or three incendiaries have been shot and their bodies exposed bearing the words "for a robber."

It is reported that the seismograph at the observatory marked more intensity for Valparaiso than for San Francisco. Survivors of the earthquake say that during the night they were unable to stand erect without support.

To Rebuild Valparaiso.
A movement is on foot to organize a company to facilitate the work of reconstruction. The plan is to construct the new buildings of light materials and to carry out the streets and sidewalks with a uniform width of twenty meters.

When the house of President-elect Montt collapsed his bedstead fell from the balcony into the street and bandits who were passing, cut off her ears and hands and carried them away. The general was taken in a dying state on board the Chilean warship O'Higgins. Among the dead at Valparaiso are Pedro Pablo Kuczynski, the famous capitalist and politician.

Peru Faces a Famine.
LIMA, Peru, Aug. 23.—Considerable distress is being felt in Peru, as no food supplies are coming from that Republic to Peru and the country is fast becoming a famine. The government is doing all it can to relieve the suffering of the people.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—Fining of employes as a means of enforcing discipline in the postal service, a system that has been in operation for many years, is being abandoned by Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock. He has reached the conclusion that the system is not justified.

Under Mr. Hitchcock's new plan, which will be used as a basis for all increases and reductions in salary, employes will be given to understand that when they become generally careless and inefficient, a reduction in salary will follow.

Two arrests were made yesterday and government officers are searching for three other persons for whom warrants have been sworn out before Judge Humphrey of the United States circuit court.

Two concerns, operated by the same people, the Talabasco-Chiapas Trading and the La-Mecha Mills company, the latter a subsidiary company of the former, with headquarters at Chicago, Ill., were raided by Postoffice Inspector Ketchum and Deputy United States Marshal Middleton.

The chief addresses of the two concerns, I. H. Miller, president and treasurer respectively of the concerns, the directors of the Talabasco-Chiapas Trading company, and the La-Mecha Mills company, were arrested today and taken to the Federal building at Chicago for hearing August 24.
