Gen. Bryant served twelve years as indge of Dane county, being first elected in 1866. He was state senator in 1857-76 and member of the Assembly, 1899-1900. In 1878 he became secretary of the state agricultural society and served for five years. For six years, during the terms of Govs. Ludington and Smith, he was quartermaster general and it is from this that he derived his title of general. He was a delegate to many state and other political conventions and member of the astimated steadfast to Gen. Grant to the end. At the state convention in 1890 he placed in nomination W. D.
