AFRAID OF PARALYSIS

A NERVOUS SUFFERER CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

The Medicine That Makes Rich, Red

Blood and Performs Wonders as a Tonic for the Nerves. Why are nervous people invariably pale people? The answer to that question explains why a remedy that acts on the blood can cure nervous troubles. It explains why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are also for nervous

It is because of the intimate relation between the red corpuscles in the blood and the health of the nerves. The nervous system receives its nourishment through the blood. Let the blood become thin, weak and colorless and the nerves are starved—the victim is started on the road that leads to nervous wreck. Nervous people are pale people—but the pallor comes first. Enrich the blood and the nerves are stimulated and toned and the nerves are stimulated and toned up to do their part of the work of the body. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make red blood and transform nervous, irritable, ailing people into strong, energetic, forceful men and women.

Mrs. Harriet E. Porter, of 20 Liberty avenue, South Medford, Mass., says:

"I had never been well from childhood and a few years are I begen to "I had never been well from child-hood and a few years ago I began to have dizzy spells. At such times I could not walk straight. I was afraid of paralysis and was on the verge of nervous prostration. Then neuralgia set in and affected the side of my face. The pains in my forehead were excruciating and my heart pained me so that my doctor feared neuralgia of the heart. my doctor feared neuralgia of the heart. I tried several different kinds of treatment but they did me no good.

"One day my son brought me some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I found that they strengthened my nerves. I took several boxes and felt better in every way. There were no more dizzy attacks, the neuralgia left me and I have been a well woman ever since."
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are invaluable in anæmia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fevers and in sick headaches, nervousness, neuralgia, and even partial paralysis and locomoter ataxia.

How Not to Do It. Illustrative of the importance of an accurate knowledge of those "little things" which go to assure success in a foreign market is the experience of an American company which a few years ago sent a consignment of 100,000 pair of shoes to London to be dumped on the British public regardless of price. Now it happens that "shoes," to the British mind, mean only what in Ameri-ca are known as "low shoes," American "high shoes" being known as "boots."
The British public wears "boots" in winter, and as this extremely enterprising American company advertised their stock as "shoes" in the winter, it is not to be wondered at that no one displayed any very great interest in the oppor-tunity to buy something which was not expenditure for advertising, the truth was made manifest, and in due time the "boots" were disposed of.—Derrick's British Report. Oldest Sailing Ship.

"The Blood is The Life." Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are enected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurely of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood. In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery "has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, It is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which pos-sesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery "as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

The Vogue in Engagement Rings

Nothing but a Diamond will do when you want an Engagement Ring. The time has gone by when any sort of a set ring was correct for an engagement ring. Now nothing but a diamond will do, and a pure color, perfect stone at that. The emblem of your love must be as pure, as spotles: and as perfect as you would have that love to be. ROMANS ADULTERATED WINE. Tricks of Trade Not Peculiar to the Weird Funeral Journeys-Worship

Present Generation. The Greeks and Romans had their roubles no less than we of today. Pliny tells us that the bakers of Rome used to mix with their dough a white earth that was soft to the touch and sweet to to mix with their dough a white earth that was soft to the touch and sweet to the taste, and so made bread that had the Boers against the British twenty the taste, and so made bread that had weight and good appearance, but no food value.

He also speaks of wine adulteration, and says that even the rich could not be sure that their beverages were pure. The famous wines of Falerno were adulterated in the cellars, and wines from Gaul were artificially colored by aloes and other drugs. In Athens wine adulteration was so common that special inspectors were appointed to detect and stop the practice.

One Canthare, a wine merchant, made were appointed to detect and stop the practice.

One Canthare, a wine merchant, made his mark on the page of history because of his skill in giving the flavors of old age and maturity to new wines, and in his time the phrase "artificial as Canthare" was the common expression for clever deceit. Throughout Europe from the eleventh century onward, food adulteration was very generally practiced by bakers, brewers, spicemongers and vintners.

So we see, says the Spatula, that the wine dealer who mixes alcohol, water, color, sugar and flavoring essences together and calls it genuine California wine is doing no new thing; that the modern baker who makes short weight loaves out of damaged grains is but walking in the footsteps his craft made on the streets of Rome 2000 years ago; that the druggist who sells impure chemicals, the spice grinder who mixes sawdust with his spices, the miller who grinds cornmeal with his flour, the brewer who sells unwholesome meat are not modern pests at all. Every one of them is but putting into present day practice the tricks that have bothered trade and cheated the consumer for 1000 years or more.

I did not have very much trouble because they threw bottles in the air and found I usually hit them and because I wore a bracelet given me by a local chief. But I once saved the life of a young Englishman whom I found defending himself against nine Zulus armed with assagias. Treasure Owner Thought Valueless.

There is a slab of black stone in the British museum which, if you could walk away with it, and establish your claim as the owner, you could sell any day for a quarter of a million, and find half a dozen money kings in England and America ready to buy it. There is nothing very striking about this stone; it might be a piece of black marble with some peculiar hieroglyphics upon it. But, it is just these hieroglyphics which make it so valuable, because they are the key to all the ancient writings of the Egyptians, and without this stone, called the Rosetta Stone, we should be unable to read the Egyptian writings which have been discovered from time to time.
