M'KINLEY HONORED BY EMPIRE STATE.

BEAUTIFUL MONUMENT AT BUF-FALO, GIFT OF NEW YORK, IS DEDICATED.

HUGHES MAKES ADDRESS.

Executive Pays Loving Tribute to Martyred President Who Fell at Hands of Assassin.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 5 .- [Special.]-The McKinley monument erected in this city by the state of New York was dedicated today. Prominent New Yorkers from all parts of the state attended the ceremonies and listened to Gov. Hughes was the principal speak-er. He spoke of McKinley's devotion to his duty, his wife and the American and recounted briefly his assassination by Czolgosz.

"The assassin's blow was aimed at American institutions represented in the head of the nation and McKinley fell because he was our President," said

Gov. Hughes. Have Faith in Selves. "The vitality of democracy may be measured by the generosity of its tributes to fidelity and its appreciation of honorable motive and public spirit. The people must have faith in themselves. Cynicism is a destroying canker and in proportion as we revere those who in the past have borne the burdens of the republic gratefully.

republic, gratefully recognize our in-debtedness to their service, and profit by the lessons of their experience, shall we prove our capacity to meet the de-mands and solve the problems of a later day," he declared. In our warm affection and our tender reference for those great spirits who in the providence of God have led us as a people we find the surest basis for our present trust. An ungrateful republic cannot endure.

"It is not my purpose," went on the governor, "in this brief exercise to attempt to recount the services of him in whose honor we meet. They are a part of the nation's history. Soldier, representative, governor, President—these were the stages of his distinguished career. Having fought gallantly in his youth, throughout the period of civil strife, to preserve the Union, it was his high privilege in his last years to preside over the destinies of the nation which, with a revived and intensified national consciousness, he assumed the enlarged consciousness, he assumed the enlarged and unexpected responsibilities which followed upon a war carried to notable victory under his leadership and sup-ported by the people in unselfish enthusi-asm for the cause of humanity.

McKinley and His Administration. "It was his happy lot to be chosen the chief executive of the nation after a contest which vindicated the sanity of the public judgment and established popular institutions. With restored credit the country under his administration, quietly recovering from the depression of trade, entered upon a period of extraordinary expansion and prosper-

"William McKinley sought patiently to learn the people's will and faithfully to execute it.

"It is a significant and gratifying characteristic of the American people that more than the particular benefit conferred by service they prize the virtues of character, which in the course of service are exemplified. ice are exemplified.

"Fidelity to friendship, the exquisite grace of a husband's devotion, the honor of manhood, the beauty of the forbearof manhood, the beauty of the forbearance of unwearied patience endeared William McKinley to the hearts of his fellow citizens, and in their memory eclipse the glories of an administration flattering to American pride.

"We may see but dimly into the future. We may be confused by the perplexities of our modern life, made the more difficult by the very riches of, our inheritance, but as we set our course by inheritance, but as we set our course by the pole star of truth and justice and conserve the ideals of character which our fathers have taught us to revere, we shall not fail."

we shall not fail."

The monument is in the form of an obelisk of white marble, 86 feet high, and is situated at Niagara square, the intersection of Niagara and Court streets and Delaware avenue.

The obelisk rests upon a pedestal 14 feet high, the base of which is 12 feet above the street level. above the street level.

The whole is surrounded by a promenade, embellished with ornate parapets and ballustrades and splashing fountains.

Inscription on Monument On four sides of the base of the column are the following inscriptions:

This Shaft Was Erected
BY THE STATE OF NEW YORK
TO Honor the Memory of
WILLIAM M'KINLEY,
Twenty-fifth President of the United States of America.

William McKinley was born at Niles, January 29, 1843, was enlisted in Twenty-third Ohlo volunteers. June 11, 1861, as private and mustered out July 26, 1865, as major by brevet for gal-lantry under fire.

William McKinley was elected to Congress as a representative of Ohlo in 1876, 1878, 1880, 1882, 1884, 1888; was elected governor of Ohlo in 1891 and 1893, and President of the United States in 1906 and 1900.

Turned Over to Gov. Hughes. The mounment was built under the S. H. Butler and George E. Matthews of Buffalo, John G. Milburn of New York, formerly of Buffalo, and at whose home President McKinley died, and E. A. Curtis of Fredonia. Today saw an and to the of the control of the end to their work when Chairman But-ler formally hands over to Gov. Hughes a work complete in every detail and of rare artistic beauty.

THE POET AND THE PRINTER.

The poet at his table sat,
And seewled with moody frown
To think his pals, both men and gals,
Were all away from town
At blue sea's side, for Whitsuntide,
While he was left behind,
By fate's hard law, and, minus straw,
At metric bricks to grind.

The papers he perused to see
If aught there was to write on;
As blank were they as hunting day
When hounds no fox can light on.
They're filled with stuff that's dull enot
(The usual Whitsun padding)
To make men sleep and angels weep
And their insides feel bad in.

While sat our bard, his forehead scarred
With many a furrowed wrinkle,
In 's ear there rang, with strident clang,
The telephone's tink-tinkle.
"Art there?" "I am—the printer!" "D—n!"
"We're waiting for your copy"—
So now you spy the reason why
These lines read rather sloppy.

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless evan to the most delicate women as children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz.—pure triplereined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing aliments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Dis" covery "is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

Might Have Been Worse

A young woman settlement worker who is well known in Boston's social circles has now learned, like the more experienced district visitors, to take "black eyes" as a matter of course when visiting among the poor women. The other day she observed that one of her proteges had a "black eye" that far surpassed any that she had seen before, and guessing its source she wished to be sympathetic and said kindly after speaking of the woman's eye: "Never mind, Mrs. Mc—, everything will be all right. Your troubles might be worse," "Sure, it might be worse," answered the woman, philosophically. "I might be like yourself. Miss. the woman, philosophically. FEET OUT. She Had Curious Habits.

When a person has to keep the feet out from under cover during the coldest nights in winter because of the heat and prickly sensation, it is time that coffee, which causes the trouble, be left off. There is no end to the nervous conditions that coffee will produce. It shows in one way in one person and in another way in another. In this case the lady lived in S. Dak. She "I have had to lie awake half the night with my feet and limbs out of the bed on the coldest nights, and felt afraid to sleep for fear of catching cold. I had been troubled for years with twitching and jerking of the lower limbs, and for most of the time 1 have been unable to go to church or to lectures because of that awful feeling that I must keep on the move.

"When it was brought to my attention that coffee caused so many nervous diseases, I concluded to drop coffee and take Postum Food Coffee to see if my trouble was caused by coffee drinking. "I only drank one cup of coffee for breakfast but that was enough to do the business for me. When I quit it my troubles disappeared in an almost miraculous way. Now I have no more of the jerking and twitching and can sleep with any amount of bedding over me and sleep all night, in sound, peace-

BIG BRIDGE COLLAPSES.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 2.-[Special.]-With a rumbling sound that could be heard for many blocks the North Brooke street bridge, which spans the east branch of the river, collapsed Sunday afternoon. The middle pair of piles had become rotten, and the strain caused by laying concrete flooring on the structure a month ago, caused the bridge to fall.

ACTIONS ARE APPEALED.

Bennard Sheridan and Thomas G. Sullivan, former sheriffs of the county and who are charged with having obtained money illegally from the county, have taken an appeal to the supreme court on the decision recently rendered by Judge Fowler. The court in its decision overruled the demurrers filed by the former officials, who contended that they were barred from prosecution according to the statute of limitations, and that the complaints did not state a cause for action. The demurrers filed by the bondsmen of the former sheriffs were sustained by Judge Fowler.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth.

Notewhat Mrs. James Chester, of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It has cured almost a new forms of Female Compolains. Description Sense.

It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

This distinction more probably belongs to the famous pearl necklace of the Countess Henckel, a lady well known in London and Paris society, the value of which is said to be £50,000. It is really composed of three necklaces, each of historic interest. One was the property of the ex-Queen of Naples, sister of erty of the ex-Queen of Napies, sister of the late Austrian Empress; the second, once the property of a Spanish grandee, is known to fame as the "necklace of the Virgin of Atocha;" while the third was once owned by the Empress Eugenie. Not long ago a necklace composed of 412 pearle in eight rows, the property of the late Duchess of Montrose, was sold for f11 820.

The Empress Frederick of Germany is said to have possessed a necklace of thirty-two pearls worth at least £40,000; while Lady Ilehester's necklace of black pears is value at about £25,000.—West-

Capt. Ramon Jesus Gracia of the sloop immediately tacked ship and viewed the monster from a distance until satisfied that whatever it was it was dead and therefore not dangerous. Then he drew near and found that it was a gigantle mero, whose head had been crushed by the steamship Zulia. He took it in tow and on arrival at San Carlos hauled it up on the beach. It was found to measure 26 feet in length, with a circumference of 14 feet and probably weighing 1200 weight. A temporary market was at once established and the fish sold at 20 cents, Venezuelan, per slice, netting a profit for Capt. Ramon Jesus of about $40, American.

Some idea can be formed of the size of the fish from the fact that the whole.
