

WAIT FOR THE Malleable Range EXHIBIT

We want you to visit the other range exhibits and listen carefully to all that is said. You will then be able to appreciate the superior qualities of "The Malleable" made in South Bend

NEXT WEEK IS OUR TREAT

Three minute biscuits and delicious hot coffee served by The Malleable Girl. A beautiful cook book and useful souvenir free. BEST OF ALL—The Malleable Man, who is a range expert, will show you his favorite range. You will know why it is impossible to make a better.

SEE HIM AT THE STORE OF
M. R. BOECKLER, CAMPBELLSPORT, WISCONSIN
ANY TIME FROM
SEPTEMBER 23rd to SEPTEMBER 28th.

WITH EACH RANGE purchased during this exhibit, you have a free choice of a complete set of high grade cooking ware; a fifty-nine piece handsomely decorated semi-porcelain dinner set or several other valuable and attractive premiums worth $7.50

Kewaskum Statesman.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 21, 1907.

CORRESPONDENCE.

ST. MICHAELS MITES.

Jake Bendle is traveling for a roofing company

Louis Seefeld of Milwaukee was a caller here Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Lenertz returned home from H. J. Lay's at Kewaskum last Monday.

Misses Tillie and Rose Wiskirchen of West Bend spent Sunday with relatives here.

Edward Girzetsky of Ishpeming, Mich., called on Peter Drickon and other old acquaintances here Thursday.

The following spent last week at Milwaukee: Adam Roden and wife, the Misses Marie M. Drickon, Emma Bremser and Susan Berres, Ignatz Schiller and John Bremser.

ST. KILIAN SHARPS.

Miss Mary Heisler spent this week with relatives at Aurora, Wis.

Miss Irma Knar of Stanley visited relatives and friends here this week.

John Barelbach and family of Le Roy visited with Rev. P. J. Burelbach here Sunday.

John Batzler & Company picked up a lot of ginseng and golden seal root last week.

Mesdames Amand Grab and Anton Miller left Saturday for a short visit in the Cream City.

John and Frank were out hunting one afternoon and succeeded in bringing home three empty shells.

Joseph Konopik and crew of masons are now busy plastering the new residence of Joseph Kern this week.

George Ruplinger will dispose of a lot of ducks at his place on Sunday, September 22.

Tillie and Josephine Bónesho from Campbellsport visited with the Joseph Emmer family last Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Peter Kreis and son Joseph and Fred Stearns of Fond du Lac called on friends and relatives here this week.

NEWFANE NEWS.

Rev. Gutekunst and wife are entertaining visitors from Hurley.

A number from here attended the county fair at West Bend Tuesday.

Joseph Dworschak and family spent Sunday with relatives at Random Lake.

Frank Backhaus sold his house and one acre of land to Henry Opperman for $1000.

Andrew Dworschak visited with his daughter at Milwaukee from Saturday to Monday.

Mrs. Herman Korten of West Bend spent last Sunday and Monday with Philip Schneberger.

Mrs. Philip Conrad and children of Elkhart spent a few days of this week with her father, August Ebert.

Edw. Köehn and Miss Emma Bartel were married here Wednesday at 11 a. m., Rev. Gutekunst officiating.

Miss Malinda Heberer and her friend from Plymouth are visiting ### relatives and friends around here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Keuhl of Clintonville, Mary and Rosie Braun of Milwaukee attended the funeral of Walter Braun last Monday.

The funeral of Walter Braun, who was killed in his father's mill last week Friday, was buried at 2 p. m. last Monday. The funeral was very largely attended.

NEW PROSPECT NOTES.

John Rinzel was to Kewaskum on business last Monday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Harrington last Wednesday, a girl.

William Bartel and wife attended the dance at Boltonville last Saturday evening.

L. B. Van Blarcom and family who resorted at Forest Lake all summer moved back to Fond du Lac last Thursday.

George Schmidt and family of Marion and Theodore Stearn and wife of Kewaskum visited at August Stearn's last Wednesday.

Miss Emma Bartel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bartel, and Edward Koehn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koehn, were united in marriage last Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Lutheran church at New Fane, Rev. Gutekunst performing the ceremony. Miss Emma Koehn attended the bride while the groom was attended by Albert Koehn. The bride was dressed in white and carried a bouquet of roses. The wedding was followed by a dinner at the home of the bride's parents at Forest Lake, with a large number of relatives and friends in attendance. The young couple will make their home on the farm of the groom's father near Dundee.

Work has again commenced on our roads.

Superintendent Bucklin inspected our schools on Thursday.

Mrs. William Brazelton of Scott was a guest of relatives here Friday.

The sluiceway which was undergoing repairs in the lower town has been completed.

Mrs. E. G. Woog and niece have returned from Milwaukee where they spent last week.

There was no school in the primary department on Tuesday on account of the county fair.

Mmes. M. Kenney of Milwaukee and J. Burgess spent Thursday with friends in the village.

Miss Drescher of Milwaukee and Pleasant Brazelton called in the village Sunday evening.

Mrs. Charles Stautz and son have returned from Waldo and Shebovgn where they visited relatives.

Miss Nichols of Batavia and Frank Schleider of Waldo called here Tuesday on their way to the fair.

Though the Woodmen's harvest dance was not largely attended those present had a delightful time.

After spending a week with his mother, Mrs. J. R. Smith, A. M. Danforth returned to his home at Little Cedar, Ia.

A large number of relatives were entertained at the E. Dettman home on Sunday, the occasion being the christening of their daughter.

ELMORE ETCHINGS.

Christ Guntly left for Milwaukee Monday to seek employment.

Reuben Petri of Auburn is repainting Mrs. Katie Petri's residence.

Martin Haessly and family visited with relatives at Kewaskum Sunday.

Mrs. Flora Fleischmann of Kewaskum visited a few days with friends here.

A. Struebing and wife visited Sunday at the home of Henry Brandt at Wayne.

The Misses Katherine and Ursula Straub spent Sunday with Miss Susan Schill.

Peter Lefebvre and wife spent from Saturday to Monday at Fond du Lac and Friendship.

Herman Leichtensteiger of Osceola visited with his uncle, Frank Mathieu, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Katherine Romens of Milwaukee is spending the week with Jacob Haessly and family.

Ulrich and Louisa Guntly and their mother spent a pleasant Sunday with Adam Jaeger and wife.

Mrs. Charlotte Hausmann and Miss Elizabeth Fleischmann were callers in our burg Friday.

Herman Kleich of Portland, Ore., arrived here Tuesday to visit a few weeks with relatives here.

Mesdames Gust Scholl and Frank Mathieu spent a pleasant Friday evening at the home of Mike Krueger.

Miss Veronica Lefebvre left Thursday for Friendship for a few weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. Nick Rohn.

Mrs. Mary Kleinschay and daughter, Mrs. Rev. Greather and son Herman left Sunday for Fond du Lac to visit with relatives there.

Adolph Leitza and wife spent a few days at the home of William Geidel while returning from their wedding trip to Milwaukee. The young couple will reside at Bonduel, Wis.

BEECHWOOD BEAMLETS.

John Hintz is having part of his house rebuilt.

Frank Nauman went to Adell last Wednesday on business.

D. Reven and wife are entertaining company from Mattoon, Wis.

Henry Kreutzinger and wife spent Sunday with A. W. Butzke and wife.

A large crowd from here attended the butcher picnic at Dundee last Sunday.

August Held had the misfortune of losing a valuable horse last Saturday evening.

Albion Heider and A. Detoneq of West Bend were guests at A. W. Butzke's Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Petznic and children of Cascade visited Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. A. Keinke.

C. W. Miller and wife, Misses Ida Drescher and Margaret Jokish spent Sunday afternoon at Forest Lake.

Charles and Hattie Koenig returned to their home in Milwaukee after spending a week with Mrs. C. Koch and family.

Miss Nettie Feigh returned to her home in Chicago Sunday after spending several months with Mrs. Charles Koch and family.

Mrs. Charles Petermann and the Misses Nettie Feigh and Hattie Koenig were pleasant callers at James Stokes' on Thursday evening.

The following attended the county fair at West Bend Tuesday: Julius Glander and wife, Paul Bremser, August Dubbin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petermann and daughter Adella, J. Horning and wife.

Our farmers are complaining of too much rain.

Threshing was finished up this week in this vicinity.

Jacob Kuebeck and wife spent Sunday with the latter's folks.

August Hose of Kohlsville called here Wednesday evening on business.

Frank Scheuster and daughter of Theresa visited here Sunday afternoon.

Nic. Kuechler and family of Alpen spent Sunday with the former's folks.

Arthur Martin visited his brother John and family at Kewaskum last Sunday.

Mrs. John Petri and children spent last Sunday at Campbellsport and Dundee.

William Hess and family Sundayed with his brother John and family at Allenton.

John Kuehl and wife of Theresa spent Sunday with the former's parents here.

Henry Guenther and family spent Sunday with his father-in-law at Kohlsville.

Albert Struebing and wife of Elmore spent last Sunday with the H. Brandt family.

August Woll and two daughters of St. Kilian were guests of the Eckel family Sunday.

Mike Ruland of Fillmore and Frank Tries of Boltonville spent Sunday with John Werner.

Henry Schmidt, wife and daughter spent Sunday with Fred Borchert and wife at Theresa.

Albert Hamm of Kohlsville called here on William Kippenhan on business last week Friday.

Mrs. Jacob Hawig and daughter spent the forepart of the week with friends at West Bend.

Rev. Gersbach from St. Anthony called on Philip Eckel and family last Wednesday afternoon.

Charles Miritz and family of Kewaskum were guests of C. C. Schaefer and family Sunday.

Charles F. Doms of West Bend called on his sister, Mrs. George Kibbel and family one day last week.

Herman and Anna Zumbach and Miss Minnie Woodlinger of Fillmore called on friends here Sunday.

If anyone is in need of a good rifle, gun or ammunition, call on Andrew Martin who has a good supply.

John Murphy and sister, Mrs. Robert McCullough, spent Sunday and Monday with their uncle and family at Adell.

The twin brothers, Adolph and Moritz R. Senheimer, and Eddie Gath of Kewaskum spent Tuesday afternoon here.

Mike Schmidt of Allenton was here Wednesday afternoon taking lessons in skating playing. He learned "all right all right."

Henry Bear and family of Granville, Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Klumb and daughter spent Sunday with Henry Martin and family.

A duck shoot will be held at Val Bachman's place, 1 1/2 mile southwest of here on Sunday, September 29th. All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Seibert and daughter of St. Anthony and Joseph Steiber and wife of Marathon City spent Saturday and Sunday with the Eckel family.

John Petri, Herman Polzien, William Kippenhan and John Schmidt enjoyed a good time at Charles Mertz's Sunday afternoon. They were entertained with some fine music and enjoyed an excellent fish lunch.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY, PROBATE.

Notice is hereby given that at the regular term of the county court, to be held in and for said county at the court house in the city of West Bend, in said county, on the first Tuesday of November, 1907, the following matter will be heard and considered: The application of John Oppenorth, administrator of the estate of Frank Metz, late of the town of Kewaskum, in said county of Washington, deceased, for the examination, adjustment and allowance of his final account as such administrator, and for the signing of the residue of the estate of said deceased to such other persons as are by law entitled thereto. Dated this 18th day of September, A. D. 1907. Reilly, Follenz & Reilly, P. O'MEARA, Attorneys for Estate. County Judge. [First publication Sept. 21, 1907.]

Why Take the Trouble to Kill and Stuff the Birds?

—Harper's Weekly.

The Next Time.

Friend—I sympathize most deeply with you on the loss of your wife, and I regret so much that I was not able to attend the funeral.

Widower—Don't mention it, my dear fellow. Come next time.—No Pour Rire.

Old Cutter.

Miss Brush—Is it true you said I was actually ugly?

Brush—I did.

Miss Brush—Well, I never thought you'd cut me like that.—Plek-Me-Up.

One of Them.

A foreign tourist who had received permission to visit one of our large asylums for the insane was surprised at the neatness, quietude and good order that prevailed within the institution. He asked if it was always like that, and the polite attendant who was showing him through the buildings said it was.

"We have what we call our violent wards, of course, but I presume you would not care to see these."

"I think not."

"It is just as well, perhaps. They are rather noisy, although, of course, we exercise the same care in providing for the welfare of the inmates that you see in this part of the institution. We also have a section where we keep the 'neurables.'"

"These inmates, then, are considered curable."

"Their cases are at least hopeful."

"I am greatly interested," said the visitor, "but I will not take up any more of your time. You have other duties to attend to, have you not?"

"Yes, sir. This is merely one of my recreations. In one of the rooms in the main building I am engaged during most of the time in pursuing what may be called my life work."

"Your life work? May I ask what that is?"

"Haven't you heard?" said the attendant, in a tone of bewilderment. "I am compiling an index to Webster's dictionary."—Youth's Companion.

For Shakespeare's Sake.

There is something remarkably attractive for an actress in the rolling cadences of the Bard of Avon, and I do not wonder that so many players dream of playing his work. I think it was in Los Angeles some years ago that a young actor who was then becoming popular decided that the time was ripe for him to do Hamlet. What his mental process was in arriving at this decision I have of course no means of knowing, but an apocryphal anecdote was told of him the morning after his first appearance as the melancholy Dane. It seems a friend approached him and said:

"How do you feel this morning?"

"I have failed to get my whole meaning into the character. I shall never play 'Hamlet again,' was the reply.

"Oh, but you must play the part once again," remonstrated the friend.

"And why?" asked the young actor despondently.

"Shakespeare turned over in his coffin last night. You will have to do it once again, for you can't leave the poor chap in that position," said the friend.

—Eleanor Tolson in Bohemian.

Wanted Permanent Employment.

Old Sam had been for several days patiently sitting on the bank of the Kappahannock river near the dam, holding his shotgun in his hand.

Finally he attracted the attention of a passerby, who asked, "Well, Uncle Sam, are you looking for something to do?"

"No, sah," answered Sam. "I've got 'n' paid fo' what I's doin'."

"Indeed?" answered the stranger.

"And what may that be?"

"Shootin' de muskrats dat an undermind' de dam," answered Sam.

"Well, there goes one now!" exclaimed the stranger excitedly. "Why don't you shoot?"

"S'pose I wants to lose my job, sah?" answered Sam complacently.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Racing at Ascot.

Racing at Ascot dates back a great number of years, and it is recorded that Queen Anne was the first royal personage to patronize the fixture, in 1711. The first and second Georges were not great patrons of the turf, but they bred race horses on a large scale in order to encourage their subjects, and George III. gave a plate of 100 guineas to be competed for. Ever since those times the great annual festival on the famous Berkshire heath has met with royal favor.

Louis Brandt, CARPENTER & CONTRACTOR.

Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

Fine Granite and Marble Monuments, WEST BEND MARBLE and GRANITE WORKS.

Cut Stone Building Material and Concrete Work.

P. W. HARRIS, JOHN HOMRIG, Press. & Mgr. Sec'y & Treas.

Dr. H. C. Secríst

The Specialist, 4712 Calumet Avenue, Chicago.

Can be Consulted FREE

Methods from Hospitals of Berlin, Germany and Paris, France. German and French spoken.

THE HOTEL SCHLEGEL, West Bend MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th.

NO PAY UNLESS CURED. ALL MEDICINES FURNISHED

This is the Doctor's 10th Year in Washington County REFERENCES ON REQUEST.

DR. H. DRIESSEL Physician and Surgeon

Located in the A. F. Beckhaus residence on Main and West streets. KEWASKUM, WIS.

L. B. ENDLICH, Carpet Weaver.

KEWASKUM, WIS.

GEORGE H. SCHMIDT

PROPRIETOR OF BOOK AND MUSIC STORE.

DEALER IN Religious Goods, Communion Goods for First Communicants, Birthday and Souvenir Postals, Books, Stationery and Office Supplies, Fishing Tackle, Cut Flowers and Sheet Music.

KEWASKUM, WISCONSIN.

Brittingham & Hixon LUMBER COMPANY

DEALERS IN Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Sash and Doors, Goal and Wood.

Don't cover your barn with a mortgage. Use Paroid Roofing the unexcelled permanent roofing for buildings of all kinds. Economical, durable and easy to apply. Any one can put it on and it stays where you put it. Complete roofing kit with each roll. Our book, "Building Economy," tells all about inexpensive buildings. It's free to you.

ESTIMATES CHEERFULLY GIVEN

P. M. SCHLAEFER, MANAGER.

CAMPBELLSPORT, WISCONSIN

JOS. EBERLE

PROPRIETOR OF THE NORTH SIDE PARK

This is one of the prettiest parks in the state and is an ideal place for picnics, excursions, etc. It has a new 50x80 Dance Hall.

Farmers Hotel

BOARD BY THE DAY OR WEEK, GOOD STABLE ROOM.

DEALER IN Wines, Liquors, Cigars, Etc. KEWASKUM, WIS.

We never ask you to pay in advance

The mail order house says—send us the money and we will send you the goods.

We say—choose THEN pay. We offer you the opportunity of examining to your heart's content and then please yourself about accepting or otherwise.

Don't you think this is a far safer and more natural way to shop than to pay in advance for something you have never even seen?

We think it is, and if you will give us a chance we will demonstrate it to you.

J. P. SCHLAEFER Campbellsport, - Wisconsin

Dr. H. C. Secríst

The Specialist, 4712 Calumet Avenue, Chicago.

Can be Consulted FREE

Methods from Hospitals of Berlin, Germany and Paris, France. German and French spoken.

THE HOTEL SCHLEGEL, West Bend MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th.

NO PAY UNLESS CURED. ALL MEDICINES FURNISHED

This is the Doctor's 10th Year in Washington County REFERENCES ON REQUEST.

DR. H. DRIESSEL Physician and Surgeon

Located in the A. F. Beckhaus residence on Main and West streets. KEW

C. & N. W. RAILWAY TIME TABLE. Table with columns for destinations (Kewaskum, Campbellport, etc.) and times.

LACONICAL LOCALS.

Stock Fair next Wednesday. Apple pickers for sale at Nic. Remel's. Elmer Jacobitz of Ridgefield is at home on a visit. H. J. Lay and wife visited at Milwaukee Sunday. Grand ball at North Side Park Hall tonight (Saturday). With this issue the STATESMAN begins its thirteenth year. Conrad Bier and family spent Sunday with relatives here. Rev. Erber attended a mission fest at Sussex, Wis., Sunday. H. W. Wittenberg of Dundee was in the village on business Tuesday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boms last week Friday, a baby girl. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruml last Wednesday, a baby girl. William Krahn of Milwaukee spent the forepart of the week at home. Miss Jennie Hoenig is spending a few weeks with relatives at Milwaukee. N. J. Mertes and daughter Clara visited at West Bend last Monday evening. A large number from here attended the butcher picnic at Dundee last Sunday. H. E. Henry sold his automobile last Tuesday to a Milwaukee party for $400. Mrs. Fred Stork of West Bend called on relatives and friends here Monday. John Strobel visited with his children at Milwaukee from Saturday to Monday. Don't fail to see the ball game tomorrow (Sunday) between the fats and leans. Mrs. Herman Marks visited relatives at Milwaukee for a few days his week. A. A. Perschbacher and family were guests of Fred Belger and family Sunday. Miss Emma Treutel of Wausau visited for some time with the Sommers family. Miss Iva Wright attended the dance at Campbellsport last Wednesday evening. George Brandt and wife drove to Theresa yesterday to call on friends and relatives. John Thoenes of Milwaukee is employed as clerk in A. G. Koch's general store. Hugo Klumb commenced teaching the public school at Germantown last Monday. Mrs. Carl Fleischmann and Miss Ella Guth of Lomira visited relatives here Monday. About one hundred and fifty from here took in the county fair at West end this week. Louis Klumb and family were guests of Thomas Coulter and family Wayne Sunday. Edw. C. Miller is attending a photographers' convention at Milwaukee this week. C. J. Suckow of Milwaukee purchased the Young America mill property last Monday. Joseph Strachota put down a cement floor in A. G. Koch's potato warehouse this week. Miss Emma Riemschneider of Milwaukee is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Greve this week. John Miller, who was employed the creamery here, left for Randolph, Wis., Saturday. H. E. Henry and wife and L. P. Senheimer and wife called on friends West Bend Sunday. Attorney W. G. Hamilton of Chicago called on his classmate, L. P. Senheimer, yesterday. Miss Martha Gritter returned Milwaukee Tuesday after a week's visit here with her folks. Mrs. George C. Parker of Kenosha is visiting with friends and relatives here since Thursday. Miss Lauretta Schmit and Alvin Ekhaus left for Waukesha Monday attend Carroll College. Editor H. B. Kaempfer of the West Bend Pilot paid a flying visit our village Wednesday. Mrs. John Marx and Miss Lena tools returned home Tuesday from week's visit at Heloit, Wis. Mrs. M. Birk returned home last Friday after spending two weeks with relatives at Winona, Minn. When you are invited to "have nothing," you will make no mistake if you say "West Bend beer." I. A. Christensen and wife of Milwaukee are spending the week here with Ferdinand Schurr and family. Herman Eickstedt and wife and John Brunner attended the funeral of a relative at Milwaukee yesterday.

I. B. Rowell & Co's world's best plows for sale by H. W. Schurr, Kewaskum, Wis. Mrs. Herman Korten of West Bend called on friends here Monday while on her way home from a visit at New Fane. Edward Girzefsky of Ishpeming, Mich., spent Thursday here visiting friends. August Wagner and other old time friends. Ed. Smith and Miss Rose Witzig of Marshfield arrived here Tuesday for a visit with the latter's parents, S. E. Witzig and wife. Miss Emma Leins of West Bend assisted Principal Cavanaugh in our public school this week during the absence of Miss Apin. Mrs. Frank Krueger and children of Campbellsport spent a few days the latter part of last week with August Kurnow and family. Charles Bass and family, August Buss and wife, John Kohn and wife and Mrs. William Stagy Sr. visited with relatives at Cascade Sunday. Nic. Mayer rented his shoe shop to Fred Schuler of Milwaukee last Tuesday. Mr. Schuler will take possession of the business next Monday. NOTICE—On account of the dance at the North Side Park tonight (Saturday) a bus will be run from the city hall to the park during the night. The malting process at the West Bend brewery is second to none and there is no more healthful beer brewed. Let us send you a trial case of Lithia beer. Art. Mason, who returned home from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Iowa, has been confined to his home with a bad cold since his return. The L. Rosenheimer Malt & Grain Company resumed operation at their plant this week after being shut down for a few weeks to make necessary repairs. Felix Witzig of Black River Falls, Wis., spent a few days of last week here with his cousin, S. E. Witzig, whom he has not seen for the past thirty years. The Misses Barbara Kahut and Anna Chada of Milwaukee arrived here Tuesday for a visit with their uncle, Peter Wagner and family at St. Bridget's. The Misses Emma and Clara Knobloch and brother Freddie returned home to Milwaukee after a two weeks' visit here with the John Groeschel family. At a meeting of the fourth class postmasters of Wisconsin held in Milwaukee last week, William H. Froehlich of Jackson was elected president of the association. Frank Quandt received the sad news from Milwaukee yesterday of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. an. Mrs. Quandt went to Milwaukee today to attend the funeral. FOUND—A light brown bull calf, 3 or 4 months old, came to my place on September 15th; owner can have same by calling at my place.—Martin Fleischmann, R. R. 31, Campbellsport, Wis. Lawrence Haessly made a settlement with the Royal Insurance Company through the local agent, L. D. Guth, for the loss he had by fire some time ago. Mr. Haessly received $261. Frank Kohn of New Fane will hold a grand harvest ball in his hall on Saturday evening, September 28. Music by the Gibson Harp Orchestra of Appleton. Owing to the advance in iron, steel and smithing material and increase in the wages for labor, many of the blacksmiths in this vicinity have raised the price of horseshoeing and repair work. NOTICE—Is hereby given that no one is allowed to gather nuts on the premises owned by the undersigned, anyone caught will be prosecuted according to law.—Signed, F. W. Rantburn, F. Kemp. John Muehleis & Co. sold their furniture business here last Saturday to Herman Meilahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meilahn. We wish the new proprietor success. Mr. Meilahn took possession of the business on Tuesday. The following were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Geidel Sunday: Jacob Becker and family, August Kurnow and family, Fred Baumgartner and wife, Charles Geidel and family, John Guth and family and Frank Quandt and family. FOR SALE—A doll rack, in first-class condition, with good canvas tent and fifteen double-faced 12 inch dolls. The whole outfit is complete with dolls, traveling trunk, etc. A bargain. For further particulars call on or write to Don Harbeck, Kewaskum. CLOSING-OUT SALE—In order to make room for my new stock of stoves and ranges which will arrive shortly I will close out what stoves I have on hand at greatly reduced prices. Call and examine my stock if you are in need of a good range or heating stove.—H. W. Rantburn. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Johannes Jr. celebrated their wooden wedding last Saturday with a number of relatives and friends in attendance. The following from Milwaukee who attended were: Jacob Johannes and wife, William Thill and wife, Frank Korbel, Miss Lizzie Johannes and Mrs. Charles Mansch. On Wednesday evening, September 18th, Mrs. C. Dahike gave a supper in honor of her daughter Adela's 60th birthday to a number of her friends. Those present were the Misses Minnie Bilgo, Edna Guth, Jennie Schneider, Veronica Zwasschka, Cora and Vivian Colvin. All had a pleasant time together and departed wishing Miss Adela many happy returns of the day.

DUNDEE DOINGS. Charles Jandrey was a Milwaukee visitor last week. Miss Mary Kilcoyne of the Soldiers' Home spent this week at her home here. She returns to her work today. William Knickel and wife and their guest, Mrs. Gage from Michigan, spent the week at the Knickel-Loeb cottage here. Miss Amelia Koehn of Chicago arrived last Saturday for a visit among relatives and friends and to attend her brother's wedding. Dan Calvy was married to Miss Rose Skelton in Mitchell last Wednesday. They will reside with his mother here in the village. Mr. Calvy has spent most of his life here and is a steady, industrious young man; while his bride is an accomplished pianist and music teacher of Mitchell. We join their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous life. Sunday being a fine day, the butchers' picnic attracted a large crowd. Not only were about all the people from the immediate neighborhood present, but Kewaskum, Campbellsport, Plymouth, Cascade and Beechwood were represented by a goodly number of people. The Campbellsport brass band furnished music during the day and the Calvy-Poole orchestra played for the dance which followed the picnic. Another wedding which occurred on Wednesday was that of Edward Koehn, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koehn, to Miss Emma Bartelt of Forest Lake. Mr. Koehn and his bride are both popular young people of the vicinity who have a host of friends to wish them a happy journey through life. They will be at home to their friends in a short time at the Albert Koehn farm which Edward has rented from his father. Bricken-Berger Wedding. Edward J. Dricken of St. Michaels and Miss Helena Berger of West Bend were married in Holy Angel's (Catholic) church at West Bend Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. J. Stupfel. The bride was attended by Miss Marie Dricken, and the groom by George Berger. After the ceremony the young couple and a few of their nearest relatives repaired to the home of the bride's parents and there passed a few hours very pleasantly. At noon the young couple left on a two-weeks' wedding trip to visit relatives at Milwaukee, Berlin, Marshfield and Wausau. Upon their return they will make their home at Twenty-seventh street and North Avenue, Milwaukee. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dricken of St. Michaels. He is a carpenter by trade and has for some time been employed at Milwaukee. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Berger of West Bend. We extend the young couple hearty congratulations and best wishes. Lady Gets Big Fortune. Miss Lydia Paeschke of Milwaukee, divorced wife of Paul Rosenthal of West Bend, has been left $400,000 by a person she has never seen, a Mexican named Manda. A gentleman named C. E. Jones left for Mexico the latter part of May taking with him a photograph of Miss Paeschke, given to him by a friend. This photograph Jones showed Manda and the latter is said to have remarked that "he could learn to love that girl." Later the Mexican wrote Miss Paeschke, but as the woman could not read the letter, it having been written in Mexican, she threw it away and thought nothing further about it. Monday she received a letter from attorneys in Mexico telling her that she had been left the money by Mr. Manda, who died recently. Miss Paeschke married Paul Rosenthal three years ago, but the union was not a happy one and on August 27th last she obtained a divorce. Notice. We wish to call the attention of the farmers to the fact that we are the agents for the NEW JOHNSON CORN BINDER with non-packer. This machine is without question the best on the market now. The binder is strong and durable, has no side draft, no neck weight and breaks off 85 per cent less cobs. Call on us and see sample machine before buying any other. KLEINLIANS & BOEDEL, Elmore, Wis. To Our Patrons. We wish to hereby announce that we have sold our furniture and undertaking business to Mr. Herman Meilahn, who is now in charge of the business. We also wish to thank our many friends for the liberal patronage given us in the past and hope you will continue your dealings with our successor who is a young man worthy of success. JOHN MUEHLEIS & CO. It is announced that a portion of the Lower Brule Indian Reservation, containing 56,500 acres of farming and grazing lands, will be thrown open to homestead settlement by the United States Government. The registration will take place at the U. S. Land Office at Pierre October 7th to 12th. Entries will be made from October 20th to December 20th. The lands have been appraised by a commission and it is understood that they will be disposed of under the Homestead laws at a cost of from $1.25 to $2.50 per acre, one-fifth of which to be paid at time of entry and balance in one, two, three and four years. The lands are in a short distance of the line of the Chicago & North-Western, east of Pierre, the state capital. Special low rate for homesteaders' tickets are on sale to Pierre and return.

CAMPBELLSPORT. Ed. Quinn was a West Bend caller Tuesday. Arthur Vohs spent last Tuesday at West Bend. Rev. B. July was at Milwaukee last week Friday. Miss Bertha Smith spent Sunday at Beechwood. William Martin was a West Bend visitor Tuesday. James Bannon was a Fond du Lac visitor Tuesday. Joseph Schreck of Milwaukee called here Wednesday. A. J. Guepe and wife were at Milwaukee on Sunday. John Blum made a business trip to Milwaukee Monday. I. P. Schlaeter was at West Bend on business Monday. The Rev. J. D. Cole was a Fond du Lac visitor on Tuesday. Mrs. Fleischmann of Kewaskum was a caller here Monday. F. J. Barber of Oshkosh was here on business last Thursday. Ole Anderson of Lomira called on old acquaintances here Sunday. O. G. Hendricks and son Ray were Fond du Lac visitors Thursday. Edw. C. Miller of Kewaskum was in the village on business Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Sackett and family spent Sunday at Beechwood. Joseph Schmidt of Kewaskum called on H. A. Wrucke on business Monday. Miss B. Rauch returned home Sunday from a two weeks' visit at Chicago. Gus. Roll and wife of Mayville visited at E. F. Roethke's the present week. Miss I. Ertz returned home Tuesday from a two weeks' visit at Milwaukee. L. J. Hustling and J. F. Naughton made a business trip to Greenbush Tuesday. Deputy Sheriff Leo Hustling made a trip to Dotyville on business last Tuesday. Mrs. William Warden and Miss Tillie Rauch visited at West Bend on Monday. David Wenzel, breakman on the C. & N. W. R'y, spent Sunday here with his family. Miss Alma Martin returned home Tuesday from a two weeks' visit at Milwaukee. F. X. Strobel and wife returned on Tuesday after visiting relatives at Milwaukee. Miss Vina Wrucke of Horicon visited relatives here from Saturday to Wednesday. Elaine Loeb has again resumed her studies at Wayland University at Beaver Dam. Miss Helen Docter of Milwaukee visited her grandmother, Mrs. M. Guepe, Monday. Byron Glass celebrated his birthday last Wednesday by giving his friends a supper. We handle a fine line of school supplies. Call and see for yourself.—E. F. Martin & Co. Mrs. Winifred Doyle has returned from a four weeks' visit with relatives in Minnesota. Rev. C. M. Zenk has returned from a three days' trip through the southern part of the state. The Campbellsport Cornet Band furnished music for the butcher picnic at Dundee Sunday. Attorney H. M. Fellenz of Fond du Lac spent from Saturday to Monday here visiting his mother. Mrs. Anderson returned to her home in Marinette Tuesday after visiting here for the past few months. Mrs. Henry Schimmelpennig returned Monday after visiting relatives at Milwaukee several weeks. Miss Lena Zuehlke and Ed. Lindenlaub of Milwaukee visited friends here and vicinity Saturday and Sunday. Herman Klaetich of Portland, Ore., arrived here Tuesday to join his wife in a visit with relatives and friends. The Auburn graded school will open next Monday, September 23rd. All pupils should be present the first day. The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. E. F. Martin last week Thursday. Rev. C. M. Zenk spent from Saturday to Monday at Reeseville to attend a mission fest of the German Reformed church. William Coon and wife went to Appleton Tuesday to attend the funeral of a nephew, Elmer Coon, which took place Wednesday. The marriage of Miss Emma Butzke of the town of Auburn to Mr. Ot. Hin of Forest will take place next Wednesday, September 25th. William Knickel spent Saturday and Sunday at Appleton to visit his daughter, Miss Myrtle, who is attending Lawrence University. Ray H. Stricks, Oscar Guenther, Wayland Helmer and Eldon Romaine left on Tuesday for Waukesha where they will attend Carroll College. Mrs. O. S. Raymond and daughter Miss Mary returned to their home in Neillsville last Saturday after a week's visit with Mrs. Robert Raymond. The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will hold a sale and supper

Have you a Check Book? Every progressive business man has a Bank Account and pays his bills with Checks. If this is a good way for the business man to do, don't you think it would be a good thing for you? We know you would like it after you got started and suggest that you open a checking account today with the BANK OF KEWASKUM, Capital $15,000. Kewaskum, Wisconsin. on September 24th, from 5:30 to 8 p. m., at the Good Templars' Hall. The Campbellsport-Kewaskum base ball team played ball with West Bend at the Washington County Fair last Tuesday and were defeated by a score of 7 to 5. William Waage and wife and Henry Brockhaus of Hustiford visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brockhaus, last Wednesday and Thursday. Julius Baterson, a former resident of the town of Eden, died in Clark county last Saturday while there on a visit. The remains were brought here Tuesday for burial. Justice G. F. Mecnk was called to New Fane last week Friday to hold an inquest, but on his arrival he found it unnecessary to hold one though an accident had occurred resulting in the death of the 11-year-old son of George Braun. Herman Brockhaus and sister Miss Hilda returned home Wednesday after visiting with relatives and friends at Marion and Shawano. They also attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Ella Bowers to William Zetlow which took place last Thursday, September 12th. KOHLVILLE CORRESPONDENCE. R. B. Hatch was a Fond du Lac visitor last Sunday. Fred Metzner is the proud owner of a brand new buggy. Albert Hamm and family spent Sunday with his parents at Mayville. Owing to the disagreeable weather but few from this vicinity attended the county fair. The shop warming at August Hose's last Saturday was well attended and enjoyed by all who participated. Mrs. August Bormann and Henry Burock and family of Milwaukee spent the forepart of the week with relatives here. William Pfeiffer will hold a grand harvest ball Saturday, September 21, to which everybody is cordially invited to attend. The Hartford band will furnish the music. Frank Zihlsdorf and family and C. K. Kuhlmann of Wausau, Mrs. Philip Feh of Sturgeon Bay and Mrs. Philip Iliin of West Bend were visit rs here with the Iliin families last week. LOCAL MARKET REPORT. Barley..... 75¢-87¢ Wheat..... 94¢-95¢ Red winter..... 90¢-95¢ Rye, No. 1..... 75¢-80¢ Oats..... 45¢ Butter..... 20¢-22¢ Eggs..... 19¢ Unwashed wool..... 27¢-29¢ Potatoes, new..... 38¢-40¢ Beans..... 1.30¢-1.50¢ Hay..... 7.00¢-10.00¢ Honey..... 10¢ Apples..... 6¢ Red Clover seed, per 100 lbs..... 10.00¢-12.00¢ White "..... 8.00¢-10.00¢ Alfalfa "..... 8.00¢-12.00¢ Hickory nuts..... 1.20¢-1.50¢ LIVE POULTRY. Spring Chickens..... 11¢ Geese..... 12¢ Ducks..... 9¢ DAIRY MARKET. ELGIN, Ill., Sept. 16.—Butter was firm at 27½¢ on the board of trade here today. Output for the week, 72,000 pounds. FOND DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 16.—Dairy board sales today were 10 tons 12 5/8¢; 42 do 13¢; 30 double dairies, 13 1/2¢; 391 singles, 14 1/2¢. Market active. SHERBOYGAN, Wis., Sept. 18.—On the call board here today thirty-seven factories offered 3,017 boxes of cheese. All sold as follows: 1,200 boxes dairies, 14 1/2¢; 20 boxes dairies, 14 1/2¢; 625 boxes longhorns, 14 1/2¢; 50 boxes longhorns, 14 1/2¢; 27 boxes square prints, 14 1/2¢. PLYMOUTH, Wis., Sept. 17.—On the call board here today twenty-three factories offered 2,284 boxes of cheese, all sold as follows: 1,200 boxes dairies, 14 1/2¢; 180 boxes twins, 14 1/2¢; 148 boxes square prints, 14 1/2¢; 288 boxes longhorns, 14 1/2¢; 21 boxes horns, 14 1/2¢; 131 boxes Young Americas, 14¢.

L. ROSENHEIMER, FLOUR MIDDINGS BRAN FARM MACHINERY AND MACHINE REPAIRS. FENCE WIRE, Rock Bottom Reductions, STAPLES, Summer Dress Goods, WIRE NAILS. We are closing out all at extraordinarily low prices regardless of cost, in order to make room for our large supply of winter goods. TAKE ADVANTAGE of these reductions as long as the goods last. The stock is getting small as the prices are attractive. Kewaskum, Wisconsin

Pick Brothers & Co., WEST BEND, WISCONSIN. Decidedly the Store for Men. Our New Fall Styles for Men and Young Men ARE MAKING A HIT. They have struck the boy's just right for the snappy style and splendid fitting qualities of the suits we are showing for Fall and the modest prices we ask for them, make a combination that cannot be beat. You cannot help but find your choice among the line we are showing. We believe it is by odds the largest stock of good clothing shown in this city. Men's Suits. Blue Serge, 16 ounce all wool sack style, latest cut, $16.00. 12.50 Boys' Suits. Latest cut checked suits, $3.50 suits at 2.90 New Ties. We have just received a large assortment of the latest colors in 4-in-hand ties direct from New York's largest manufacturers. 25 and 50c values. $5.00 value combination suits, 2 pair pants, 4.50

School Clothing. of the Better Kind. We are now better able than ever to supply you with clothes of unusual merit at a saving of at least 20 per cent to you. Good black chevrot, 2 piece suit..... 2.50 Fancy grey cassimere suit, jacket and pants..... 3.50 Fine fancy cassimere suit, Knickerbocker pants..... 4.50 Xtra stout boys' suit, with 2 pr. pants, nice dark patterns..... 4.50 Fine worsted suits, up to..... 5.50 Two Special Lots. LOT ONE—Consisting of odd lots of suits that sold for 4.50 to 5.00. 3.69 LOT TWO—Consisting of odd lots of suits that sold for 3.50 to 4.00. 2.69 Don't forget our School Shoes of the better kind for girls and boys. All above suits run up to size 16. Boerner Bros.' Mercantile Co., WEST BEND, WISCONSIN.

We pay 3 per cent for time deposits. CITIZENS STATE BANK, KEWASKUM, WISCONSIN.

Funeral Next Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their little boy of 6, on leaving a party they had been to, thought they would go the nearest way home, which led across some fields. When nearly home they had to cross a ditch, which, their surprise and horror, was flooded. They consulted each other as to whether they should wade through it or return and go the other way (which meant a five-mile walk). They finally decided to wade through it. Mr. J. took the little boy's hand and Mr. J. his wife's arm and started crossing. They gradually found it deeper and deeper, until at last it was up to their armpits. When Mr. J. exclaimed: "There is little Willie?" "He's here," said Mrs. J.; "I've got him by the hand!"—Jugend.

These Roof Gardens.
His eyes were red and his head ached. "George," she said, gently, as she poured his coffee, "don't you forgive me for a lie that I told you last night?" "A lie?" he muttered. "Yes," she said, "as you stated out, don't you remember my saying to you, 'You'd be home early, dear?' Well, it wasn't true."

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
KIDNEY PILLS
GAVE WHISKY FOR FARE
Will Now Sue the New York Central for Injuries Received on the Ride.

A COUSIN FROM AMERICA.

By the Author of "Cara Deena's Silence," "Lover and Kinsman," "A Missing Bridegroom," etc., etc.

CHAPTER X.—(Continued.)

"Then—then it was you—at the window!" she gasped.

"It was I at the window," he replied, "and I am taking it that you can scarcely expect me to refrain from following up the clue that I obtained in the avenue last week! I kept a sharp look-out on Elinor's movements. This visit to London struck me as singularly ill-timed in the circumstances, and in my father's present critical condition I thought it better to follow her myself than to set a detective to watch her. You see, I am taking it that you are fully aware of the identity and circumstances of the fellow you are sheltering under your roof. I gathered as much from your attitude this evening when I was watching you at the window—my all seemed quiet in sympathy with each other."

Mechanically Sage jerked the reins and the pony responded, walking at a slow jog-trot through the darkness.

Lucian Miles kept pace with the cart, his hand still grasped the rail, and his eyes scanned about on a level with his ear.

"I've been making inquiries in the village," he said, "and I find you are supposed to be a cousin of the man in the cottage. Since when have you claimed relationship with our family, Miss Havant, may I ask?"

"I was once going to do it," Sage scarcely recognized her own tones—she was deaf to the mocking taunt and the covert insolence in her companion's manner.

"Do!" he repeated, with a laugh. "Why, nothing—until tomorrow. I've netted my bird, you see; there's no danger of its escaping me now in its present condition. I have wired to Norman to come down by the first train tomorrow, with the warrant for his arrest, and I shall be able to take him as comfortable as possible at the Bernasted Arms—unless you will extend your hospitality to me, Miss Havant, in which case I could kill two birds with one stone. I could keep my eye on my prisoner, and spend an evening with an uncommonly pretty girl. By Jove, I wonder what Elinor would say if she could see me!"

"I wonder," Sage repeated softly.

The pony carriage had turned from the high road into the lane; she could see the lights of the village, and the gleaming behind the protecting network of trees. A sudden overmastering rage swept over her, and her fingers tightened on the whip.

"I wonder," she murmured again. Then, with a swift unexpected movement, she raised the whip and brought it down with all the strength she possessed on the head and shoulders of the man who was walking at her side.

"Take that, you coward!" she cried. Her voice rang through the darkness, and the man started, his head falling back. But in an instant he had recovered himself, and with a rage, he laid the cart and caught the girl by the arms.

"By heavens, you shall pay for this!" he snarled.

The reins fell from Sage's fingers, and the pony came to a prompt standstill. She struggled in vain to escape; her cap, held her securely with one hand, and she was unable to get her hand to the latch of the door, which he held close to her wild, terrified face.

"Now, what do you think you do?" he asked, bringing his own harsh-fisted countenance close to her own. "Hit that fallen off, and I'll have a real seat across his cheek."

Even as she spoke, the girl's lips a figure loomed out of the gloom, and Sage gave a wild cry.

"Jim! Oh, Jim—help me!" she screamed.

The lamp crashed to the ground, there was a muttered exclamation, and Jim, springing forward, cannoned heavily against a flying figure which covered the ground with a rapidity that was almost incredible. He turned on the impulse of the moment to pursue it, but Sage called him back.

"Don't go! Don't leave me! Oh, Jim, I am so frightened!" she cried.

"Sage! Driving alone at this hour!" Great Sage! Don't cry—don't cry, my dear! I'm right here, and you're all right. I've surveyed his cousin in helpless astonishment. She looked so white and helpless as she sat cowering in the cart that he had to restrain himself. "There, there, it's all right now," he said.

His support and the mere sound of his voice were very comforting. Sage leant back, and recovered her senses. She was conscious of a hand on her forehead, and she looked down at her, with the uncertain light of the lantern, with a face that grew momentarily more determined and more stern.

"Sage, what does this mean? What are you doing here?" he demanded.

She glanced up at him helplessly and showed her head. "I can't—I tell you," she faltered.

"Jim set his teeth."

"You shall tell me—tomorrow," he said. "I won't bother you now; you've had a hard night, and you're all right. I'll be back in half an hour, and you'll have a quarter of a minute in advance of the first pigeon. Three other bees beat the gate before the second pigeon. The bees were also slightly handicapped, having been rolled in flour before starting for purposes of identification."—The Reader.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

The Admiralty have ordered that at least ten per cent. of the boys and youths in nautical training should be instructed to work to the calls of the pipe, and a prize will be given each half year to the boy who performs his duty as is considered most proficient in the art of piping.—Westminster Gazette.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

FIRE CHIEFS, MAYORS AND TOWNSHIP CLERKS

Must, Under Penalty, Report Fires to the Fire Marshal.

Common Fire Causes.
The success of the fire marshal depends largely upon immediate report from fire chiefs of every fire in which there are circumstances which furnish ground for suspicion that it was started intentionally.

The fireman on breaking into a burning building may get an odor of kerosene; or may see that the fire started in two places; or may find beds or stoves or stoves; or may learn that the owner stood by making a great effort to save the furniture; or that the insurance of the house or its contents was more than its value; or if it be a store burning they may learn that the owner was in financial straits. In some cities the chief makes a double post card, the one to the owner of the building, and the other to a sister or daughter who may be the head of the family having minor children depending upon her for support. A sister, daughter or mother are also entitled to make entry for any members of the family who are permitted entry into a homestead. The only fee required is $10 for each entry. A great saving in railway expenses is thus made. Read what Mr. Gerts has to say:

Battleford, Sask., Aug. 4, 1907.
Dear Sir: Thinking a letter from us Northwest settlers might interest you, I write a few lines to let you know we are progressing finely and well pleased with our new home.

When I think of the many hard-working, industrious men East with families who are struggling for a living and doing the strenuous, laying up practically nothing for old age, and the thousands of acres of land here yet to be plowed and cultivated, capable of raising fifty to eighty bushels of oats, thirty to forty bushels of wheat, it certainly seems a pity the two cannot be brought together. But I will repeat, this country is only for the industrious and thrifty; also I might add it requires some capital to start with here.

A man should have at least a team of three good horses; better to have mares, so as to have some colts coming along each year. It is best to bring them with him, as good work horses are high. He should be able to purchase plow, disc and drag, harrow, drill, roller, mower and hay rake. Of course several taking up claims or buying land near together can divide up the purchasing of the above machinery and exchange work. This plan will work well for a few years or until crops will warrant each individual to purchase a full outfit here.

We have 400 acres of good farm land as lies in the famous Cut Knife district. Every foot can be plowed. Last year our oats run sixty bushels per acre. I sold them for 50 cents per bushel on the place.

The indications are for a good crop of wheat, and the weather is very promising, owing to the late spring. Last winter was the coldest known in this country by the oldest settlers (some who have been here thirty-five years), but with a comfortable house and plenty of fire-wood, which we hauled four miles, we passed the winter quite pleasantly. The air is clear and bright, and of the days I can't count from my window. I am surprised to find the thermometer registering 40 degrees below zero. Though we never keep fire at night, we had nothing freeze in our cellar.

Our stock and chickens wintered fine. I had a yearling heifer, who would hold her own in any "fat show." She has never had a drop of milk since she was four months old and has never had a mouthful of grain.

A gentleman who saw her made the remark that heifer had eaten her. He is of the opinion that she had contracted from handling the faeces and breathing the air in which they are contained, and getting on their feet. The doctor also expresses the opinion that some other animal had made outbreaks of tropical enteric disease that have taken place in Paris several times from infection from the faeces of the manure of the city.

The most thorough and efficient process of cleansing would be disinfection by formalin. This would do harm to the rugs and it is an absolutely certain method of killing bacteria. He thinks that it would be generally adopted as a disinfectant for the importation of eastern fables into any occidental country.

Balloon Business Is Good.
A visit to the balloon factory of Mr. Stevens the other day was rather surprising. No less than 400 balloons were found, either completed or in course of construction. One of 30,000 cubic feet capacity is for the United States government.

J. C. McCoy, one of the representatives of America in the Gordon Bennett race, is having one constructed of 30,000 cubic feet. Another of 60,000 cubic feet goes to Mr. Baxter in Florida. Still another goes to Mr. Johnson of Nebraska, South Africa.

Elmer Van Ranken of Johnson, N. Y., is having an airship built which will contain 9500 cubic feet of hydrogen. Two captive balloons have gone to an engineering couple of young men at Norfolk, who are operating in a park of their own just outside the Jamestown reservation. The other purchaser is Oscar Hendler, James H. Hare, Joseph Gail and William Thaller.—American Magazine of Aeronautics.

Ants Are Long Lived.
Ants are really very long lived, considering their minuteness. They have two queens under observation for ten years and one of Sir John Lubbock's ants gets lived into his fifteenth year. Ants are very tenacious of life. A severe injury. Following loss of the entire abdomen they sometimes live two weeks, and in one case a headless ant, carefully decapitated by antiseptic surgery, lived fifty-one days. The ant after being submerged eight days in distilled water came to life upon being dried, so that they are practically proof against drowning. They can live long periods without food, in one case the fact lasted nearly six months.—Dunbar News-Tribune.

To Mend Hot Water Bags.
A hot water bag will oftentimes suddenly spring a leak which most needed. A piece of adhesive plaster placed over the break will stop the leak immediately and will stay in place for quite a while. It can easily be renewed and proves a most satisfactory first aid to an injured rubber article.—Circle.

The ancient city of Lyons, the third city in France, with a population of 600,000, will have a railway to the world's silk industry. No fewer than 40,000 people are engaged in the raising and rearing of silkworms, and children are employed in the factories.

On the wall in a barber shop in a Carleton street, London, a sign which reads: "These wanting baths, take none. Ten cents extra will be charged for a hot water bath in the partition. Don't get too enthusiastic."

China and Japan produce 12,500 tons of silk annually, but about 60 per cent of this is retained for home use.

At the tobacco exhibition in London some women made cigarettes at the rate of 120 in 30 minutes.

The Austrian government gives her aged a pension of nearly $2.50 a week.

WHAT FATHER AND HARRY ACCOMPLISHED.

An Illinois Man Writes Regarding His Success in Western Canada—Change in Homestead Regulations Make Entry Easily Accomplished.

"Nothing succeeds like success," is an old and true saying, having many applications in Western Canada. The following letter is an illustration. The writer, Mr. Gerts, left Chicago a short time ago and the success he has achieved may well be gained by anyone having pluck and energy by locating on the free homestead lands in Western Canada. His success is because of the change in the Canadian Land Regulations concerning homesteads, which makes it possible for any member of a family to make entry for any other member of the family entitled to a homestead. For instance, a man may now make entry before the local agent for his father or mother, or brother, or sister, or for his son or daughter, or a sister or daughter who may be the head of the family having minor children depending upon her for support. A sister, daughter or mother are also entitled to make entry for any members of the family who are permitted entry into a homestead. The only fee required is $10 for each entry. A great saving in railway expenses is thus made. Read what Mr. Gerts has to say:

Battleford, Sask., Aug. 4, 1907.
Dear Sir: Thinking a letter from us Northwest settlers might interest you, I write a few lines to let you know we are progressing finely and well pleased with our new home.

When I think of the many hard-working, industrious men East with families who are struggling for a living and doing the strenuous, laying up practically nothing for old age, and the thousands of acres of land here yet to be plowed and cultivated, capable of raising fifty to eighty bushels of oats, thirty to forty bushels of wheat, it certainly seems a pity the two cannot be brought together. But I will repeat, this country is only for the industrious and thrifty; also I might add it requires some capital to start with here.

A man should have at least a team of three good horses; better to have mares, so as to have some colts coming along each year. It is best to bring them with him, as good work horses are high. He should be able to purchase plow, disc and drag, harrow, drill, roller, mower and hay rake. Of course several taking up claims or buying land near together can divide up the purchasing of the above machinery and exchange work. This plan will work well for a few years or until crops will warrant each individual to purchase a full outfit here.

We have 400 acres of good farm land as lies in the famous Cut Knife district. Every foot can be plowed. Last year our oats run sixty bushels per acre. I sold them for 50 cents per bushel on the place.

The indications are for a good crop of wheat, and the weather is very promising, owing to the late spring. Last winter was the coldest known in this country by the oldest settlers (some who have been here thirty-five years), but with a comfortable house and plenty of fire-wood, which we hauled four miles, we passed the winter quite pleasantly. The air is clear and bright, and of the days I can't count from my window. I am surprised to find the thermometer registering 40 degrees below zero. Though we never keep fire at night, we had nothing freeze in our cellar.

Our stock and chickens wintered fine. I had a yearling heifer, who would hold her own in any "fat show." She has never had a drop of milk since she was four months old and has never had a mouthful of grain.

A gentleman who saw her made the remark that heifer had eaten her. He is of the opinion that she had contracted from handling the faeces and breathing the air in which they are contained, and getting on their feet. The doctor also expresses the opinion that some other animal had made outbreaks of tropical enteric disease that have taken place in Paris several times from infection from the faeces of the manure of the city.

The most thorough and efficient process of cleansing would be disinfection by formalin. This would do harm to the rugs and it is an absolutely certain method of killing bacteria. He thinks that it would be generally adopted as a disinfectant for the importation of eastern fables into any occidental country.

Balloon Business Is Good.
A visit to the balloon factory of Mr. Stevens the other day was rather surprising. No less than 400 balloons were found, either completed or in course of construction. One of 30,000 cubic feet capacity is for the United States government.

J. C. McCoy, one of the representatives of America in the Gordon Bennett race, is having one constructed of 30,000 cubic feet. Another of 60,000 cubic feet goes to Mr. Baxter in Florida. Still another goes to Mr. Johnson of Nebraska, South Africa.

Elmer Van Ranken of Johnson, N. Y., is having an airship built which will contain 9500 cubic feet of hydrogen. Two captive balloons have gone to an engineering couple of young men at Norfolk, who are operating in a park of their own just outside the Jamestown reservation. The other purchaser is Oscar Hendler, James H. Hare, Joseph Gail and William Thaller.—American Magazine of Aeronautics.

Ants Are Long Lived.
Ants are really very long lived, considering their minuteness. They have two queens under observation for ten years and one of Sir John Lubbock's ants gets lived into his fifteenth year. Ants are very tenacious of life. A severe injury. Following loss of the entire abdomen they sometimes live two weeks, and in one case a headless ant, carefully decapitated by antiseptic surgery, lived fifty-one days. The ant after being submerged eight days in distilled water came to life upon being dried, so that they are practically proof against drowning. They can live long periods without food, in one case the fact lasted nearly six months.—Dunbar News-Tribune.

To Mend Hot Water Bags.
A hot water bag will oftentimes suddenly spring a leak which most needed. A piece of adhesive plaster placed over the break will stop the leak immediately and will stay in place for quite a while. It can easily be renewed and proves a most satisfactory first aid to an injured rubber article.—Circle.

The ancient city of Lyons, the third city in France, with a population of 600,000, will have a railway to the world's silk industry. No fewer than 40,000 people are engaged in the raising and rearing of silkworms, and children are employed in the factories.

On the wall in a barber shop in a Carleton street, London, a sign which reads: "These wanting baths, take none. Ten cents extra will be charged for a hot water bath in the partition. Don't get too enthusiastic."

China and Japan produce 12,500 tons of silk annually, but about 60 per cent of this is retained for home use.

At the tobacco exhibition in London some women made cigarettes at the rate of 120 in 30 minutes.

The Austrian government gives her aged a pension of nearly $2.50 a week.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES

BEST IN THE WORLD
$25,000 Reward (that no other manufacturer can give)

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people than any other shoe is because of the superior quality of the material and the superior workmanship of the shoe. The shoe is made of the best material and the workmanship is of the highest quality. The shoe is made in the United States and is guaranteed to give you the most comfortable and durable shoe you can wear.

One of 2000 Acres Started by a Manufacturing Concern.

Secretary James Wilson of the department of agriculture in a recent address stated that the United States had 2000 acres of land in the hands of manufacturing concerns. This land was purchased by the government for the purpose of settling the landless and was to be sold to the highest bidder.

For years the department has been distributing land to the landless and thousands of trees are now growing throughout the south and in the Pacific coast states. Two years ago serious efforts were made to develop the manufacture of camphor from these trees.

The experience of Capt. John L. Ely, of Co. E, 17th Ohio, now living at 500 East 20th Street, New York City, is a case in point. He has been in the army for 20 years and has seen the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering from the effects of the disease known as "soldier's foot." He has seen the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering from the effects of the disease known as "soldier's foot." He has seen the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering from the effects of the disease known as "soldier's foot."

HERITAGE OF CIVIL WAR.
Thousands of Soldiers Contracted "Soldier's Foot" While in the Service.

The experience of Capt. John L. Ely, of Co. E, 17th Ohio, now living at 500 East 20th Street, New York City, is a case in point. He has been in the army for 20 years and has seen the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering from the effects of the disease known as "soldier's foot." He has seen the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering from the effects of the disease known as "soldier's foot." He has seen the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering from the effects of the disease known as "soldier's foot."

MEN ADMIRE

A pretty face, a good figure, but sooner or later learn that the healthy, happy, contented woman is most of all to be admired.

Women plagued with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, backache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations, cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, however, is not the fault of the woman, but of the nervous system, which is affected by the use of the organ of the female. It is the only medicine in the country that has received such unqualified endorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as has

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Runtzler
"For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Chancing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of Female Complaints, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and is invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to freely communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is prompt and always helpful.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet in diameter, and is probably the largest oak in Texas. It has been growing for centuries and has been a landmark to the people of this section. It is now a relic of the old navy and is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

Nebraska Parrots Disappeared.
Only a few naturalists and early Territorial settlers know of the parrots which were numerous in Nebraska. They were seen in the Nebraska Territory, but disappeared very suddenly after the first settlement in that region. The Nebraska parrot was a species of parrot (Cyanocitta stelleri) that had been introduced into the territory by the military. It was a beautiful bird, with a blue head and yellow plumage, so striking in appearance that it immediately attracted the attention of the early hunter. Beside this the birds gathered in large flocks and were so exceedingly tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed. Add to this that the birds were tame and simple that the whole flock was easily killed.

Boatswain's Pipe Retained.
At least one relic of the old navy is to be preserved. Thanks to Lord Charles Beresford the boatswain's pipe, which of late years has been considered more ornamental than useful, is to be retained and the calls which for centuries have brought men to the performance of their duties will continue to be heard on our wharves.

FOUND OUT.
A Trained Nurse Made Discovery.
No one is in better position to know the uses of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Historic Texas Oak.
When Gen. Zachariah Taylor came to Texas on his way to Mexico during the Mexican war, he landed at Rockport on the coast of Texas. He then marched his forces up to where Fulton now stands and halted there for a few days. It was on this spot that Taylor's army halted. Taylor camped beneath the shady boughs of an oak tree which was then a young tree. This oak is over eight feet