SUBS. RB. RS. IN ARREARS.
The postmaster general has issued the following order, which went into effect on January 1. It applies to all newspapers which circulate through the mails:

A reasonable time will be allowed publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions, but unless subscriptions are expressly renewed after the term for which they are paid, within the following periods:

Dailies, within three months;
Weeklies, within one year;
they shall be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed on account thereof shall not be accepted for mailing at the second-class postage rate of one cent a pound, but may be mailed at the transient second-class postal rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed.

This order means that subscribers to the STATESMAN who are in arrears for one year or more must renew or pay up their subscriptions at once in order to enable us to continue sending their papers through the mails.

Our readers will find the date of expiration of their paper and by referring to this they can readily see when their subscription expires. If it has expired send us your renewal at your first opportunity so that we can continue to send the STATESMAN to you.

Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

The conductor passing from the heated inside of a trolley car to the icy temperature of the platform—the canvasser spending an hour or so in a heated building and then walking against a biting wind—know the difficulty of avoiding cold.

Scott's Emulsion strengthens the body so that it can better withstand the danger of cold from changes of temperature.

It will help you to avoid taking cold.

VIRGINIA MERCHANT RID OF A VERY BIG GRAVEL STONE.

Another Remarkable Cure of Serious Kidney Trouble. C. L. Wood, a prominent merchant of Petersburg, Norfolk Co., Va., was suffering some months ago with frequent attacks of hard pain in the back, kidneys and bladder and the kidneys were found to be irregularly scanty or profuse. Medical treatment failed to cure him. "At last," says Mr. Wood, "I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and before one box was gone I went through four days of intense pain, finally passing a stone one-half by five-sixteenths of an inch in diameter. I haven't had a sign of kidney trouble since."

Sold by all dealers, 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Lord Randolph at the Bank Door. Sir Edward Hamilton, who stepped from the treasury on Saturday, speaking of the chancellor of the exchequer under whom he has served, said that Lord Randolph Churchill "was often very nervous when he came to the bank door, and I think he was afraid of saying something which would reveal his ignorance."—London Chronicle.

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Chloroform, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed, as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine Syrup of Figs and Chloroform, manufactured by CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. ONLY SOLD BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS. One size only, regular price 50¢ per bottle.

CHAPTER VIII. AND LAST.

"Freda, do you think he will certainly come by this train?" "Nest, that is six times you have asked me that question. I certainly think he will, but there is a possibility that he may be delayed. I have made the same answer half a dozen times. Why are you so dreadfully anxious?"

FOUR FROZEN TO RAILROAD TRACK.

Here is a fox hunting story from Forest county, N. D., on November 16. Freda Vilder, while walking down the track of Clough's railroad, below the Heaver Meadows, noticed a fox on the track. His front feet were on the rails as if in the act of crossing. Mr. De Vilder shot, but the fox remained as first noticed. Upon a closer inquiry it was found that the fox had crossed the rails just under the wheels of a train which had just passed. Mr. De Vilder brought the fox to the house, and it was found to be a female. It was very fat, and its body was so stiff that it could hardly be moved. It was found to be a female. QUESTER MODE OF TRAVEL I SAW IN ALL MEXICO.

The queerest mode of travel I saw in all Mexico was that adopted by a woman who was on her way to the doctor seated complacently in a chair borne upon the back of a man. Some Mexican women are afraid even of the male cabs, while they look upon the rapidly spinning trolley with such trembling of knees, they can not be persuaded to get out upon it. Unable to pay coach hire, they employ the human carrier at a few cents for each trip.—The Travel Magazine.
