NOTES DECREASE IN TIMBER CUTS

CENSUS BUREAU REPORTS LAKE STATES ARE RAPIDLY FALL-ING BEHIND.

HEAVY INROADS TOO MUCH

Difference in 1907 and 1906 Work in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota 12 Per Cent.

"PINE BARRENS" ARE GIVEN UP.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10 .-The lake states, one of the greatest forest regions that ever contributed to the lumbering activities of any country, are rapidly falling behind in timber production, according to a preliminary statement just issued by the bureau of the Big Decrease Noted.

Statistics concerning the annual out more than 2100 sawmill operators in bilt, and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota—the Jr., have been almost constantly within big three—show that the cut last year was only 5,500,000,000 feet of lumber, a big nile yet 12 per cent less than the big pile, yet 12 per cent. less than the cut of the preceding year.

Forests Growing Smaller.

The heavy inroads made in the exploitation of the timber resources of the large number of states on the Great Lakes have been too much for the great forests and the amount available for cutting is getting lower each year. Six University of the pain million acres in Michigan, known as "pine barrens," have been thrown on the delinquent tax list, although, under proper regulations, they might still be yielding lumber annually.

STEEL PRICES ARE CUT. Conference of Manufacturers Announces Reduced Schedule-Wages Will Not Be Affected.

NEW YORK, June 10 .- Announce ment was made last night by Judge Elbert H. Gray, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, that a general reduction in the prices of finished steel products had been agreed upon by representatives of the large steel interests after an all day conference. The reduction affects billets, steel bars, plates, structural iron, merchant pipe and wire nails. The conference was attended by the leading steel manufacturers of this country, including the heads of the various subsidiary companies of the United States Steel corporation and representa-tives of the large independent manufac-turers. After the decision to reduce the present prices on all finished steel products, with the exception of steel rails, it decided to cut the prices of iron It is not likely that wages will be

SENATOR FOELKER'S VOTE PASSES THE ANTI-BETTING BILL,

26 TO 25. BIG VICTORY FOR HUGHES.

Man Who Casts Deciding Ballot, Weakened from Operation, Travels Sixty Miles to Say "Aye."

GOVERNOR CALLS HIM A HERO

ALBANY, N. Y., June 11 .- A legislative battle which for dramatic interest and intensity of feeling on both sides rarely, if ever, has been equaled in this state, came to an end today, when the heroism of Senator Foelker of Brooklyn made it possible to place upon the statute books two bills, repealing the legal discrimination which for thirteen years has protected public gambling within race track enclosures while it was a fel ony elsewhere in this state. The vote on each of the bills was 26 to 25. The line-up was in general the same as that in the regular session, when the bills failed of passage by a tie vote, 25 o 25, but since then Senator Wallace of Niagara Falls has been elected to the seat then vacant by reason of the deatl of Senator Franchot, and his vote made the necessary twenty-six. Senator Foelker, who underwent an operation May 10 for appendicitis and whose condition for much of the intervening time was critical, came up from Staatsburg last evening, the journey of sixty miles being a severe tax upon his strength. He was somewhat stronger this morning and was taken to the Senate chamber just as the roll call on a dilatory motion was being taken.

Suffers from Weakness

He was plainly suffering from weakness and his response when his name was reached was scarcely audible. He -was encouraged by his fellow senators' sympathy and on both of the roll calls on the final passage of the bill voted with the majority. Afterwards his doctor said:

"Senator Foelker stood the ordeal as well as could be expected. He is extremely nervous. We have not decided when we shall return to Staatsburg." "Is Senator Foelker in a dangerous condition?" the doctor was asked. "No, he is not," the doctor replied.

Foelker Is Bewildered.

"How does Senator Foelker vote?"

asked the assistant clerk who was calling the roll. "No," replied the senator and sank back in his seat.

After Senator Foelker cast his vote infavor of the bill he was taken out of the chamber by his physician and Canon Chase. Every vote was then watched with intense interest, but the opposition appeared to have abandoned hope. Hughes Is Gratified.

Gov. Hugres said when informed of the passage of the bills: "I am deeply gratified at this result. It is a victory for law and order, the importance of which cannot be over-es timated."

Referring to Senator Foelker, who left his sick bed to cast his vote for the bills, the governor said: "The act of Senator Foelker in coming to the Senate in his weak condition WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.-A was most heroic and worthy of the same praise that we give to distinguished service on the battlefield."

Will Soon Sign Bills. The governor would not say when he would sign the bills, but left no doubt that no time would be lost after they Opposition Had Hopes.

Up to the very last moment the oppo sition to the bills entertained hope that the measures would fail. Rumors flew thick and fast that Foelker had collansed and that some other senator who formerly voted for the bills had been induced to "switch." There was even the report of an attempt in some desperate way to prevent Senator Foelker's presence at the critical moment. Every step of his progress from his house to his seat in the Senate chamber was guarded. Leaning upon the arms of his doctor and Assemblyman Surpless of the Kings county delegation, and guarded by Rev. Canon Chase of Brooklyn, who has hovered about him and hardly allowed him out of his sight since his arrival in Albany, he came up one of the back elevators in the capitol and made his way through waiting and most sympathetic crowds to a seat in the closely packed chamber, where the issue was in his

Blossoms of good will;
What she would do, love is dreaming;
What she can, ashamed of scheming,
Cramped and stinted still. Words are more than idle seeming:

FLYHOOD.

Insect with the argus eyes, Foxiest of all such guys, It's high time that you get wise. You whose skill defies the screen Sneaking in the cracks between, We're now next that you're not clean. Standing with those septic feet On our bread and on our meat, Making 'em not fit to eat. Whirling in your dizzy dance O'er the baidhead's broad expanse Just wait till we get a chance! Have you not while at your lunch Somewhat of a passing hunch Wε shall give to you a punch? Oh, you thing of many swears, Butting in, 'most everywheres, Something's coming unawares, Like the knell of some dire doom; If you don't avoid the room You will sure go up the flume. Gather then what loot you may

Hog consignments at Milwaukee were good as a Thursday run, there being close to 2000 porkers offered, with a range of prices fully a dime higher than yesterday's strong finishing prices. Good hogs went to buyers at 5.65, and sales were reported as being numerous around this figure. Quality of stock today was good. The bulk of sales were made from 5.40 to 5.55.

CATTLE — Steady; butchers' steers, good to choice, 5.25.66.25; medium to good, 4.25.65, 5.25; common to fair, 3.00.63.75; cows, good to choice, 3.50.64.50; fair to good, 2.75.63.25; canners, 1.50.62.00; cutter, 2.25.2.2.60; bulls, good to choice, 3.75.64.25; bologna bulls, common to fair, 3.00.63.75. Milkers and springers, choice heavy, 35.00.45.00; common unsalable.

Cattle prices were at a steady range, with receipts numbering about 200 head. Calves are rapidly coming to last year's spring and summer quotations, best kinds with today's stronger market were sold at 6.25 top. A general all-around stronger feeling was in evidence today, and the 700 head receipted here were disposed of at a fast cilp. Sheep were steady with receipts amounting to about 100 head.

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter. Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I can truly say that Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick vomen to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

I here inclose you a clipping telling of Oldfield's mile in 51, made at Lakeside, San Diego, Cal., and as the meet was refereed by W. C. Temple of Pittsburg, the well known donor of the Temple cup and at one time chairman of the racing board of the A. A. A., his word for its accuracy would be all that would be necessary to stamp it. all that would be necessary to stamp it as genuine. As Oldfield, however, held the record for 53, he never claimed the lower mark. The manufacturers of au-tomobiles have often claimed that there was more advertising in the mile record than all the rest of the marks up to fifty miles. One manufacturer went as far as to offer Oldfield a large sum of money to pilot his car for that record, and to

While this record was flashed throughout the creature in the neighborhood would fort to Sir Norman to feel that the country, it was never claimed by Oldfield to the racing board, so that the table as inclosed would stand. It is true that there are other records for fast miles, one of which is credited to Christy's car. They would not be offlcial, as they were either intermediate miles, or they were either intermediate miles, or they were run at unsanctioned meets. The rules for records are very rigid, and if there has ever been incompetency in the racing board of the A. A. A. it has never been shown when it came to a matter of accepting records, as many of them have been thrown out. The marks established by Oldfield at New York, Denver and Los Angeles were witnessed by at least one member of the board of the association, and the rules were complied with in each inrules were complied with in each in-

Phew! Salts

Why take sickening salts or repulsive castor oil? "Goes through you like a dose of salts" means violence, grips, gripes, gases, soreness, irritation, and leaves your stomach and bowels weak and burnt out. Might just as well take concentrated lye. Then there's castor oil, disgusting, nauseating truck that your stomach refuses unless you disguise the taste. Fool your own stomach, eh? Don't ever believe that anything offensive to your taste or smell is going to do you real good. Nature makes certain things repulsive, so you will not take them. Force yourself to nauseous doses, and you ruin your digestion, weaken your bowels, destroy your health.

It appears that young Erasmus was on his way to the Messina mine and had outspanned his donkey team when his Kaffir boy came running to tell him that three lions were tackling the donkeys. Erasmus seized his gun and ran hard in direction indicated. On his arrival the direction indicated. On his arrival at the spot he found the lions lying around one of the donkeys. He fired and killed a big lioness.

The other two jumped up but he was ready and shot another (younger) lioness. The young lion which was left ran behind some brushwood. Ersemus first Longchamp Landmark Again Useful After a Rest of Two Centuries. Few of the throngs of Americans who go to Paris fail to visit the Bois de Boulogne; so thousands of Americans know the Longchamp wildmill, especially those who go to the Grand Prix or any of the other races at Longchamp. A few days ago Parisians walking or driving in the Bois were surprised to see the wings of this old thirteenth century mill turning in the breeze that swept the ngchamp sward. It is two centuries are the mill ceased to grind grain, and while it has been continued as one of the picturesque and admired objects of this beautiful landscape it has not been re-garded as a machine of utility. The mill, however, has been equipped with four pumps, and now when the wind serves these pumps increase the water supply which furnishes the great eascade of the Bois de Boulogne. So this steresting monument in a beautifur eretch of parkland not only adds to the icturesqueness of the Longchamp end of the Bois, but serves a practical use in en hancing the charm of a neighboring spot in the great park.

No Railroad There. There is but one county without railad connection in the state of Colorado. Heretofore it has been considered quite a distinction out there to be outside the railroad belt, and Grand, Rio Blanco, Baca and Routt counties were in the list of exclusives; but one after the other ha been annexed, so to speak, to the outside world. Routt being the latest, until now little Baca county, away down in the southeast corner of the state, is left to enjoy the honor all by itself. In 1868 there wasn't a foot of railroad track in the then territory.
