EXCURSIONISTS IN TRAIN CRASH: 2 DEAD IN DEBRIS

NORTH-WESTERN PASSENGER WITH DARLINGTON FAIR VISITORS IS WRECKED.

WAY TO MILWAUKEE.

Engineer and Fireman Still Buried in Twisted Mass and All Others Are Badly/Shaken Up.

MANY THRILLING ESCAPES.

PLATTEVILLE, Wis., Aug. 27-[Special.]—Hundreds of passengers on ing at 10:45 o'clock after lingering since a northbound North-Western train had July 20, when he was stricken with hema narrow escape from death this morn- orrhage of the brain. At no time had ing when the train met a work train in a head-on collision at Millbridge, a small | hopes of recovery and the end was not station near Galena. The dead are:

THOMAS, ENGINEER. GALLAGHER, FIREMAN. INJURED IN HOSPITAL.

The engineer and fireman on the work train are now in a hospital at Galena. At a late hour it was reported that the mail agent and several passengers were eriously injured. The train was due in Milwaukee at 3:50 this afternoon.

TRAINMEN ARE DEAD. The engineer and fireman on the pas-senger engine, were instantly killed. They were buried under the wreck of their engine, and at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon their bodies had not yet been found, it is not probable that they will be recognizable when the wreck is cleared.

TWO OTHERS HURT. Both the engineer and fireman on the work train were badly injured, surgeons finding it necessary to amputate the former's leg in order to save his life. It is not known whether or not they will recover. Both are suffering severely from the shock.

EXPLANATION OF WRECK. It is stated by officials of the road here that the passenger train left Mill-bridge three minutes ahead of time and met the work train on a curve while going at a fast rate of speed. The work train engineer, it is stated, had instructions to take a siding at Millbridge to pass the passenger there. pass the passenger there.

The passenger train was loaded with excursionists on their way to Darlington/to attend the fair there.

BOTH ENGINES WRECKED. Both engines were completely wrecked. The baggage car on the passenger train was badly smashed up, but the occu-pants escaped injury.

Every one of the passengers received on the track and no serious injuries have A rumor reached the city after the wreck that seventeen passengers were hurt, but this proved unfounded. This afternoon a force of men was engaged in removing the debris and clearing the track for traffic, but the bodies of the dead had not been found.

FOREST FIRES RAGING.

Two Rivers Reports Serious Blaze in Timber Tracts on Lake Michigan Shore.

TWO RIVERS, Wis., Aug. 27.-[Special.] - Owing to the exceedingly dry state of the surrounding country, several forest fires have been raging in the forests to the northeast of this city, on the shores of Lake Michigan. There is still considerable wood land in that direction and forest fires once started are exceedingly difficult to check. A number of crews have been sent out, and succeeded in checking the fire to a certain extent by back firing and other means, but unless rain soon comes it is feared that the damage by fire will be considerable. It is not known just how the fires started, but it is believed to have been caused by careless berry pickers.

NATURE AND A WOMAN'S WORK

Nature and a woman's work combined have produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known.

In the good old-fashioned days of cure disease and mitigate suffering.

The Indians on our Western Plains to-day can produce roots and herbs for every ailment, and cure diseases that baffle the most skilled physicians who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the field Lydia E. Pinkham more than thirty years ago gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills, more potent and effica-cious than any combination of drugs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills. Mrs. Bertha Muff, of 515 N.C. St.,

Louisiana, Mo., writes: "Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my troubles public.

"For twelve years I had been suffering with the worst forms of female ills. During that time I had eleven different physicians without help. No tongue can tell what I suffered, and at times I could hardly walk. About two years ago I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice. I followed it, and can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice re-stored health and strength. It is worth mountains of gold to suffering

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Muff, it will do for other suffering women.

Some of the diplomats under consideration for this post are Count Von Goetzen, the Prussian minister at Hamburg, Herr Von Reichenau, the German minister to Von Reichenau, the German minister to Brazil, and Dr. Baron Mumm von Schwarzenstein, the ambassador to Japan. An American diplomatist in conversation with Emperor William in January of this year, said something complimentary of Count Von Goetzen. "I am glad to hear you say this," replied the Emperor, because Count Von Goetzen will be the next embassador to Word. Mistress—You seemed to be enjoying yourself last evening, Bridget. MRS. GARDNER MAY REPAY ALL. Denies Intent at Fraud and Says Chicago Friend Erred Innocently.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 24.—Henry W. Swift, counsel for Mrs. John L. Gardner, declares that if it is found impossi ble to compel the government to refund the $70,000 paid in duties and fines on the art objects brought into this country by Mrs. Wily Rockwell Crane Chad bourne of Chicago as "household effects," Mrs. Gardner will repay the amount. It is still the contention of Mrs. Gard-ner that, although the articles are her property and had been loaned to Mrs. Chadbourne for her use in her London home, they were brought to the United States without her knowledge and with out intent on her part to defraud the government. If any wrong was done it was by Mrs. Chadbourné, and she did it innocently, is the position of Mrs. Gardner. However, she will not permit her Chicago friend to suffer if she can
