Ex-Senator Carmack, Killed in Street Duel.

BRYAN KEEPS UP WAR FOR REFORM.

IN THE COMMONER, HE DECLARES HOLDING OFFICE IS NOT ONLY WAY TO SERVE.

PARTY ACCOMPLISHES MUCH.

Believes There Must Be a Party to Represent Protests of People Against "Wrong in Government."

JIVES FRIENDS ENCOURAGEMENT.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 12.—Bidding his followers not to despair, but press on in the fight, W. J. Bryan declares he takes comfort in the result of the election, and is not cast down.

He says the Democrats out of office have done more than the Republicans in office during the last twelve years, and that is some satisfaction.

The forthcoming issue of his "Commoner" is a daily paper that has been published by Carmack since his retirement from office.

FOND DU LAC NEWS.

WILL TRY NEW SYSTEM.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Nov. 9.—[Special.]—Within the next two weeks local signers will adopt the thumb-mark for signatures to documents where the party making the statement is unable to write.

The new system forges and counterfeiting will be guarded against. The government recently adopted the new system and since that time it has been taken up by banks throughout the country.

Such a mark! "What a pity you have never had one!" he cried joyfully. "At least I whipped the offender. Now don't you think we had better consider tea?"

The meal was as great a success as lunch.

"By-the-by, why wasn't McClure bitten on the nose?" asked Jasper, turning suddenly on his neighbor.

"Diana looked up from her cake-cutting. "He went off while I was deciding whether it was proper to invite a person to whom I had not been introduced."

"No loss," pronounced Dick of the party. "There is no reckoning on him. One moment he is a death's-head at the party, and the next he is a laughing stock for several years."

It was 6 o'clock when Diana laid them all back up the baskets.

"The sun is already setting," she said. "And you must be going home."

"It has been a delightful day," said Capt. Jasper heartily, and he told her she was a very nice girl.

"I am so glad," she said, and she looked at him with a smile.

Preventive of Seasickness. To prevent seasickness red spectacles are sometimes worn. Red spectacles are selected because this color is said to have a stimulating effect on the nervous system. Red quickens circulation, and, according to some authorities, seasickness is caused by imperfect circulation.

Contrary. "There's no pleasin' a woman," remarked Mr. Jimpon, "when she's foot-in cantankerous. Says I to my wife the other night, when I seen that she was sore at things in gin'ral and me in particular, says I: 'My dear, you're prettier 'n you was when I first knew you.' Ah' says she: 'That's right, throw it up to me that I useter be a homely gal!'"

FALSHOOD'S DECEPTION. Shakespeare: Oh, what a goodly outside falsehood hath.

Nothing would disappoint us so much

As to have you disappointed. Nothing would please us so much as to have you mention to us the slightest cause for dissatisfaction.

Our aim is to have what we sell as near as possible to perfection. To have the price that we charge not a cent higher than it ought to be, and still not so low that quality must be sacrificed.

To have our treatment of customers courteous.

And to do everything else that will tend to form a "I will come again" resolve in the mind of every buyer.

We have been busy doing this for a long time now, and want you to participate in the benefits.
