On the anniversary of the death of Bismarck a collection of anecdotes pertaining to the Iron Chancellor appeared in Stuttgart, among which are these: After Emperor William I. had returned Bismarck's resignation with the word "Never" written boldly across it, Bismarck spoke again of his failing strength to the Emperor. "I am much older than you," said William, "and am still strong enough to ride," "Yes, your majesty," said Bismarck. "the rider usually outlasts the horse." After the peace of 1871, Bismarck went to Frankfort-on-the-Main. When he entered the hotel, where he had often been a guest, the head porter said: "I hardly knew your highness in civilian's clothes." "You are just like the French people," answered Bismarck, "they never know us until we put on our uniform."—London Mail. Pumps and Lightning Rods. Little Sister Was Grateful.

"Did they indict you for murder?" was asked.

"Oh, no," said the man. "I shot right there on the spot." "Well, but sometimes they indict a man for murder even if he did shoot a man right there on the spot," said the Frankfort man.

"No," replied the mountain visitor.

"I shot him right there on the spot." "I shot him right there on the spot. I did not lay behind a log and shoot him." —Frankfort News.

THE IOWA WINS

County Creamery Co., on Cedar St., Sturgeon Bay, Wis., the Iowa Separator won a decisive victory over the DeLaval Separator. Wulf & Co., Messrs. Evans and Alexander, two DeLaval experts, conducted and directed the skimming operations of the DeLaval Separator.

OUR CHALLENGE.

We stand ready to test the "IOWA" Separator against any other make of separator and will deposit in the Bank of Campbellsport ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any other separator company's FIFTY that the Iowa will skim closer on the average runs at temperatures of 50, 60, 70, 80 and 90 degrees, and a cream of not less than 25 to 50 per cent than any other separator, all machines to be run exactly as printed instruction book sent out with such machine. Furthermore, if five machines enter the contest we will contribute towards St. Matthews Church-Campbellsport, one hundred dollars if two out of the five do not leave an average of five times as much butterfat in the skim milk as the Iowa, tests to be made by a competent person or submitted to the Dairy School at Madison. We to use in these tests No. 2 or 3 Iowa Separators, this being the size in general use by our farmers. There are no Wulf tricks in this challenge, and we have deposited Fifty Dollars in the bank as a forfeit if we refuse to enter the contest.

I will give any farmer $25 who will bring this contest about, no machine in the world barred. This is no bluff, try us and find out.

Michael Degenhardt, Campbellsport, Wis.

Mr. Degenhardt is the agent for the Iowa in Fond du Lac county and by purchasing separators in car load lots he is able to quote prices exceedingly low and which appeal to the farmers. These cream separators can be seen at his headquarters in Campbellsport or Mr. Degenhardt will be pleased to call on a prospective buyer. Write today to Mr. Degenhardt if vou are interested.

Among the purchasers of the last few days are the following: Anthony Bowers, Wm. Kitter, Campbellsport; Wm. Gibbons, Eden; John O'Brien, Osceola; Edward Graham, Osceola; A. Scheuerman, Ashford; Poole Bros., Armstrong; Charles Peterson, Patrick Fitzgerald, Wm. Berg, Charles H. Schwartz, C. D. Klautz, John Blackman, John M. A GOOD SHOWING ANO SALES

About a year ago, I published in this paper, the names of people who purchased pianos of me during the year 1907, so I have concluded to give the names of persons who did similarly during the year 1908. The sales mentioned are for new upright instruments and do not include a number of second-hand instruments or organs. In connection herewith I desire to again impress upon the public the fact that I buy my pianos direct from the manufacturers and having no local house to maintain, no partner or agents, doing my own delivering and collecting, I am enabled to sell any grade or style of piano at a price below other dealers. The purchasers or members of families in the list given below are doing more to increase my sales than any agent could do, because they tell their friends that I have given them a square deal in every particular.

Up to the present time I have sold about 200 pianos in Wisconsin, which sales have been consummated without a word of reflection against other dealers or other makes of pianos, and my main argument is to sell the instruments on their merits. I am satisfied that this procedure is the only true and successful one to follow. The names and addresses of persons, whom I sold instruments during the year VAL. PETERS, are as follows:

Fred Hagenon	Beaver Dan
H. Peatty	Black River Fall
Bertha Froevert
Owen Fenlon	Waysid

> MADISON, Wis., March 4 .- [Special.]-Scores of protests came into the Assembly this morning. Former Secretary of State Walter L. Houser sent a letter to the Legislature rehearsing nu merous efforts he has made to have former insurance commissioners prosecuted for retaining fees. "I therefore respectfully request the Legislature, or either branch thereof. that you direct your attorney general t institute an action or actions against Emil Giljohann as principal, Rudolph E. Giljohann and C. H. "And particularly the valuation fee and fees for the examination of insurance and surety companies, and retained by said parties in violation of the stat-ite or in the event that you do not so direct the attorney general, to cause such actions to be instituted, that you grant me the use of the name of the state for the purpose of prosecuting

One peculiar phase of the Houser matter lies in the contention that S. M. Sturdevant, former attorney general may be claimed to be liable for a large sum due the state as fees paid insurance mmissioners who served more than ten ars ago.

Houser recites the fact that whe Sturdevant was attorney general, he (Houser), as secretary of state, demanded that the attorney general sue all forner insurance commissioners for fee due the state. Sturdevant did not bring the suits as requested. Now Mr. Houser is said to make the claim that he car hold Sturdevant liable for the sums of money which might have been collected at that time, but which cannot now be ollected because of the limitations

He is said to point to the fact that He is said to point to the fact that Sturdevant as attorney general gave bond for $10,000, and that this bond still is in force. He intimates, in conclusion, that if the court's findings are satisfactory, he will bring suit against Sturdevant's bondsmen to make good the sums which might have been collected if Sturdevant had brought suit when demanded to do so, but which cannot be collected now because the claims are more than six years old. nore than six years old.

KAISER'S LADY DRAGON. Guards the Imperial Court Against Feminine Undesirables. There is at Kaiser Wilhelm's Berlin palace an Oberhofmeisterin, a lady who has been described as a court chamber-lain in petticoats, who has to make per-sonal acquaintance with every lady before she attends a court.

A ball at the Berlin court is an affair of much ceremony, but, curious to say, there are no cloak rooms in the palace and all wraps have to be left in their owners' carriages.

The imperial couple do not dance, but they watch with interest the pirouetting they watch with interest the pirouetting of their subjects in the waltz, and they delight in the graceful minuet dancing for which there has been a furore in Berlin these two seasons past.

The courts in Berlin are conducted with even more state than in England, says the Gentlewoman. The ladies wear no trains, it is true, to their court frocks, but it is expected of them to spend lavishly on their clothes, to don magnificent jewels and never by any chance to wear black, and black, by the way, is also disallowed in St. Petersburg. At a Berlin they have an odd way of separating married women and girls, Wives and daughters are marshalled off to separate rooms before the fun of the fair begins.
