Sir Jasper's Secretary.

"My good girl, please pull the blinds down; you know I can't bear the sun shining in my face..." "Is that letter, Sir Jasper?" "Yes, that's better. Ah! Miss Granger, you think me a crusty old curmudgeon, I dare say; but wait till you are 80, and perhaps you will be the same..."

THE LATE E. D. COE.

Sir Jasper's library. She had had a trying morning, and from time to time she passed her hand across her forehead with an air of weariness. For two hours she sat just where she was while the indefatigable old gentleman had watched her go through drawer after drawer, labeling and drawing packets and papers with a fussy precision which nearly drove her mad...

COMMANDER E. D. COE DIES AT WHITEWATER

was at noon sent by Capt. Madgeburg to the residence of Joseph H. Bredel, 122 North Bell street, has been placed in strict quarantine and it is feared that the entire family may die from diphtheria. This morning while funeral services were being held over the bodies of Ella and Pauline Bredel, aged 12 and 5 years respectively, two little boys were seriously ill in another room. All of the children have been exposed. Ella Bredel died Friday night and Pauline died early Sunday morning. The double funeral was held this morning. Both bodies were buried in the same grave in Calvary cemetery...

FOND DU LAC NEWS.

SENT TO NORTHERN HOSPITAL. FOND DU LAC, Wis., May 1, 1909.—Paul Schoenick, who has been serving a jail sentence, has been committed to the Northern hospital. LEFT ESTATE TO WIDOW. Prof. John F. Buerger, who died recently, left an estate valued at $25,000 to his widow. His personal property amounts to $20,000. E. A. ALEXANDER MISSING. Details of the disappearance of Alexander, who completes a photograph gallery on South Main street, are conducting a search for him in Milwaukee and Chicago. The last time he was seen was at the Northern depot on April 19, when he boarded a Milwaukee train. Since that time nothing has been heard of him and he is believed to have met with foul play. MRS. HORN ASKS DIVORCE. A. R. Horn, manager of the Palmer house and president of the common council and board of education, has been made the defendant in a divorce action instituted by his wife. No information as to the nature of the allegations made by the plaintiff is obtainable. At a hearing before Court Commissioner H. E. Sweet this week Mr. Horn was ordered to pay temporary alimony and suit money to his wife. The case will probably be tried at the May term of circuit court. The law firm of Ecks & Hughes represents Mrs. Horn and Attorney J. I. Thompson appears for the defendant. PREPARING FOR VETERANS. S. D. Boreham is preparing the program for the annual state convention of the United Spanish War Veterans to be held here in July. The only veteran who has announced himself as a candidate for state commander this year is Dr. John S. Foot of Ripon, but it is expected that there will be other candidates. The plan of having the contest transferred to the office of junior vice commander will be considered again this year. It is proposed to elect a junior vice commander who will promote each year until he becomes state commander. WHOLE FAMILY EXPOSED. FOND DU LAC, Wis., May 3.—[Special.]—The residence of Joseph H. Bredel, 122 North Bell street, has been placed in strict quarantine and it is feared that the entire family may die from diphtheria. This morning while funeral services were being held over the bodies of Ella and Pauline Bredel, aged 12 and 5 years respectively, two little boys were seriously ill in another room. All of the children have been exposed. Ella Bredel died Friday night and Pauline died early Sunday morning. The double funeral was held this morning. Both bodies were buried in the same grave in Calvary cemetery. FAIR SUPERINTENDENTS. E. W. Phelps, secretary of the agricultural superintendents for the county fair, has appointed the following superintendents for the county fair: Privileges, G. M. Brigger; gates, Frank Palmer; lamartine, speed, G. W. Dougherty; forage, T. J. Kelly; marsh, Sheriff W. J. Seever; horses, E. Worthing; Oakland; cattle, C. E. Underwood; Oakland; swine, J. P. Bonzel; Eden; sheep, H. Whittaker; Byron; J. P. Gleason; Ripon; hogs, Mrs. S. Simmons; Oak Center; pantry stores, Mrs. D. B. Foster; women's work, Mrs. Henry Boyle; fine arts, Miss Jessie Neesh; machinery, A. C. Dallman; manufacturers, F. P. King; educational, E. P. Crain; merchants' exhibits, A. C. Egelhoff. WOMAN MAY SAY GUILTY. FOND DU LAC, Wis., May 4.—[Special.]—Mrs. Robert Remus, who is alleged to have tried to assist her son-in-law, Joe La Fore, to break jail, will probably plead guilty. District Attorney Chadbourne said this morning that he understood the woman intended to enter a plea. Mrs. Remus was arrested some time ago. Shortly after her arrest La Fore broke jail and is still at large. GRASSE IS DISCHARGED. W. F. Grasse, who was arraigned in circuit court yesterday for contempt of court because he married within a year after being divorced, was discharged. Other proceedings pending against him were also dismissed. It is understood that in case the action had been carried to the supreme court it would have been dismissed. KILLS GIRL AND SELF. Indiana Man Gives Victim Carbolic Acid in Whisky and Then Takes Swallow Himself. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 5.—Arthur Stitt and Miss Lesta Stroud were found dying in a buggy in Central avenue early today. Stitt, it is believed, had given the girl carbolic acid with whisky and then taken a dose of the poison himself. Both died a short time after they were found. The tragedy is believed to have been the result of a quarrel between the man and the girl. SHAH GRANTS REFORM. TEHERAN, May 5.—A proclamation granting a constitution to Persia has been signed and issued by the Shah. BIG MAJORITY FOR DAHLMAN. Omaha Democrat Re-elected Mayor with Margin of 3000. OMAHA, Neb., May 5.—The "cowboy mayor," James C. Dahlman, will occupy the Omaha executive chair for another three years, as he defeated his Republican opponent, John Breen, by more than 3000. LINCOLN, Neb., May 5.—Lincoln by a majority estimated at about 400, voted to abolish saloons for the next municipal election. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 5.—Spencer county voted "wet" and Clay and Madison counties voted "dry" Tuesday. The counties which voted dry had previously driven out saloons by referendum. The vote was 2203 for majority of 2203 and Pulaski 400. Fifty-three counties have voted dry and five wet under the local option law. Prof. Cole Goes to Columbia. MADISON, Wis., May 5.—[Special.]—Prof. R. G. Cole, director of the musical department of the University of Wisconsin, will give courses in the summer school at Columbia university this year. Salt in Tropical Waters. The water of the tropical oceans contains more salt than that of other latitudes.

ANXIOUS.

One day small Elmer observed five funerals pass the house. After the last one had passed he said, "Mamma, if we don't hurry up and die heaven will be so crowded we can't get in." Exchange. Considerate. "The most considerate wife I ever heard of," said the philosopher, "was a woman who used to die all her letters a week or so ahead to allow her husband time to post them." A Hazy Term Defined. Miss Fondart—Jack, what do they mean when they speak of a first water diamond? Jack—One that—um—er— one fresh from the mine—never been soaked, you know.

OPINION OF AN ACTRESS.

Miss Ellen Terry at a reception once talked about the innumerable women who ask her to help them get on the stage. "The fact is," she said, "every woman under thirty believes she is an actress. And every actress," she added, "believes she is under thirty."

In Memory of the Late Miss Clara Kluth.
Lach mich geh'n, lass mich geh'n,
Das ich immer denn soll'n.
Meine Seele ist voll Verlangen,
Bin auf's Beste im Stande,
Und vor seinem Thron zu stoeh'n.
Sonne Licht, Sonne Licht,
Sonne, die durch Wolken bricht!
O wann werd' ich dahin kommen,
Das ich einst mit allen Frommen
Schaun' dein heiliges Angesicht.
Ach wie schon, ach wie schon
Ist der Engel Leibesart!
Haett ich Flugel, haett ich Fluegel,
Flueg ich neter Berg und Huesel
Heute noch nach Zion's Hoeh'n.
Wie wird's sein, wie wird's sein,
Wenn ich dich in's Sel'm ein.
In die Stadt der gold'nen Gassen!
Herr, mein Gott, ich kann's nicht fassen.
Was die wird fuer' Wonne sein!
Wie ist deine Frucht so suess!
Unter deinen Lebensbaumen
Wird uns sein als ob wir traenen!
Heut uns Herr, in's Paradies!

CARD OF THANKS.

THE IOWA COMPANY EXPLAINS.
Replying to the charges made by the De Laval people that we refused to enter the Iowa separator in a skimming contest last week, we wish to say that we had a man here to make the test but he was unexpectedly called away by the serious illness of his wife at Sturgeon Bay and consequently could not be present at the time specified. However we are willing to enter the Iowa against any separator in the world and will gladly enter the contest with the De Laval people as soon as our man is able to come. The De Laval people have never beaten the Iowa in a contest yet and we are not afraid of the result in Campbellsport if we are given a fair deal. When we are given a contest we want it before some honest and far minded farmer who knows a good separator when he sees it and who is not afraid to say so.

OBITUARY.
George Melchoir Endlich, whose death we mentioned in our last issue, was born Sept. 28, 1832, at Niedersalen, Hessen daun stad, Germany. He emigrated with his parents to America in 1843, residing at Richfield for a time. In 1848 they moved to the town of Wayne, residing on the present William Brockmann farm. On June 1, 1857, he was married to Miss Katherina Jung, settling on a farm 1 1/2 miles southwest of Kohlsville, removing in 1884 to the town of Addison where he resided until his death. Their union was blessed with three children, two sons and one daughter, of whom one son and the daughter preceded him in death. Besides his son Andrew, who resides on the homestead, he leaves his aged wife, one brother, one sister and six grandchildren to mourn his demise. Deceased had always been in the best of health until the 20th ult., when he was taken sick with bronchitis which resulted in death. His remains were laid to rest in the St. John's cemetery last Saturday, Rev. Frank performing the last sad rites. Peace to his ashes. Among those from afar who attended the funeral we noticed the following: Mrs. Mary Baum and Louis Endlich of Beaver Dam, Peter Jung of Hartford, Mrs. Katherina Endlich and son William of Kewaskum.

BOERNER'S
THE BOYS' STORE
This is the only store in town selling XTRAGOOD clothes for boys.
Plenty of clothes last half as long—plenty look half as good. But none can compare with these.
One can always pick out every boy on the street who wears an XTRAGOOD suit. There's something distinctive about him.
XTRAGOOD clothes are made by Ederheimer-Stein—the exclusive tailors to young people.
XTRAGOOD suits contain 1/3 more cloth than the common. Boys don't soon outgrow them.
All XTRAGOOD trousers are lined. That doubles their wear.
Yet XTRAGOOD clothes cost no more than the common. You may as well have them. You are wronging yourself if you don't.
This store is the home of XTRAGOOD and Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes.
