The police found an axe covered with blood and wrapped in some old clothing in the cellar of the Arbogast home today. Indications pointed to the apparent fact that hurried efforts had been made to hide the axe. The police are now convinced that the dead butcher's head was crushed with that implement.

No motive for the crime has yet been shown. Mr. Arbogast is reported to have been worth about $200,000 and conducted a well paying meat business.

started in pots in sand and grown indoors until June, when they should be planted out in well drained, warm, light soil. A rich soil and frequent waterings with liquid manure will produce excellent results. In the fall all the leaves except the central ones should be cut back to within two inches of the crown. Let it remain in this condition for a few days to ripen and then take up and store in any cold frost-proof place.

These plants have a variety of uses besides ornament. In the Pacific tropics they are made into a drink. The starchy roots are edible and in Japan are used much like our potatoes. The young leaves are also edible when boiled.

Special Attention to the Wool Growers.

The alarming increase in the use isal or binder twine by the farmers throughout the fleece wool states has determined us to take a stand against its further use by notifying all our deman, who will be at C. K'unke's one buyers and people who are in the habit of buying and consigning their wool to us. The loose fibre from the twine cannot be eliminated from the wool in manufacturing and some of our very best customers say that they Saturd y evening and report a fine time. any delivery that we may make o fleece wools. We therefore are notifying all cur agents, and others, that under no account must they accept wools so tied as no discount on the price can make the wool satisfactory. Along this line we wish to call your attention t) the excessive use of twine Two moderate sized strings each way are enough for any fleece and this year we have had fleeces tied with a very he vy, coarse twine, which is nothing les than a rope, which of course adds to the BOOK AND MUSIC STORE weight of the fleece, and this is one the reasons why manufacturers are u ing foreign wools more and more prefernce to our domestic fleeces. The use of binder twine is simply careless-John Hess and family of Kohlsville ness on the part of the grower, and the called on William Hess and family use of an unnecessary amount of twine is an abuse which has crept into the

A Well Armed Monarch.

The best armed monarch in Europe to-day is the new Czar Ferdinand of Bul-garia. His bedroom is filled with weap-ons which are not there for any ornamen-tal purpose, but for use. The sinister collection includes, guns, revolvers, dag-gers, and there and there on chairs are cudgels and knuckle-dusters. A small and wicked looking revolver, with all its chambers loaded, lies at the head of his chambers loaded, lies at the head of his bed. Though he takes all these precautions, Ferdinand is a courageous man, but he suffers at night from a constant dread of assassination. Builders seldom seems to consider it worth while to ventilate roofs. On a hot day the roof has an ovenlike temperature that must necessarily be re-tained for a time, and gradually dimin-ished throughout the night by a process of radiation. After a hot autumn day a person goes to bed in a room just un-der the roof, the temperature being 70 degrees Fahrenheit, with the bed-clothing arranged accordingly; four 70 degrees Fahrenheit, with the bed-clothing arranged accordingly, four hours later the temperature has dropped to 45 degrees Fahrenheit. THE WORD BACHELOR. Started in the Middle Ages and Became a Repreach.

The oft recurring suggestion that bachelors should be taxed, says the Cleve-land Plain Dealer, recalls the fact, particularly interesting to Americans, that the word bachelor means originally "cowboy," a youth who looked after the cow, from the low Latin, bacca, and through the classical Latin, vacca. In course of time the term was given in scorn to voluntarily unwedded men by The word was taken over by the universities in the middle ages, and the degree of bachelor was not supposed to be given to any man who had entered into the state of matrimony. The word "fellow" has had a somewhat similar fate, as far as the ladies and the unifate, as far as the ladies and the universities are concerned. The universities of Oxford and Cambridge, to name but two, grant fellowships worth from $1500 to $3000 per annum at the various colleges to unmarried honor graduates of high distinction. If a fellow should enter into matrimony he loses or forfeits his fellowship.

As the "fellows" were generally men of apparent opulence, or at least com-

When an acquaintanceship was formed between a "fellow" and a mar-riage blo lady things, usually went very riageable lady things usually went very delightfully until the fair schemer discovered the academic status of the man. Then the expression, "Pooh, he is a fellow!" came very naturally to her lips.
