Verona and the Viscount

By the Author of "An Indian Princess," "His Natural Bent," "The Penance of Penance," etc.

"It is all settled then, Verona?" "All settled!" echoed Verona. "I'm glad of it. I've come to think that it never would be but that has not been my fault, you know, my dear. I've had so many claims upon me."

"I don't like you being here alone. I never have liked it, or thought it safe any time," she said. "For Hannah no protection. But to be entirely by yourself is worse. You are three miles from Hesslerige Hall, and nearly five from the city."

"What a woman!" she said, "and she is so young! It is not only a waste of time but it is a waste of money. I would have thought you would have known that." Verona smiled.

"I shall tell the mother of course, Verona," she said. "Of course!" she echoed. "She'll be awfully pleased to hear that it's all settled. She has been looking forward to it; you're a tremendous favorite."

"Do you?" she said, "I suppose she is pretty. Halstead asked: 'She's a bright little thing too; always laughing and singing—she makes the place lively. When will you come over, Verona? The mother is sure to want to know, as she can't come to you.'"

THE IOWA WINS.

In a public contest held Nov. 17, 1908, at the Creamery of the Door County Creamery Co., on Cedar St., Sturgeon Bay, Wis., the Iowa Separator won a decisive victory over the DeLaval Separator. Wulf & Co., Messrs. Evans and Alexander, two DeLaval experts, conducted and directed the skimming operations of the DeLaval Separator.

OUR CHALLENGE.

We stand ready to test the "IOWA" Separator against any other make of separator and will deposit in the Bank of Campbellsport ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any other separator company's FIFTY that the Iowa will skim closer on the average runs at temperatures of 50, 60, 70, 80 and 90 degrees, and a cream of not less than 25 to 50 per cent than any other separator, all machines to be run exactly as printed instruction book sent out with such machine. Furthermore, if five machines enter the contest we will contribute towards St. Matthews Church, Campbellsport, one hundred dollars if two out of the five do not leave an average of five times as much butterfat in the skim milk as the Iowa. Tests to be made by a competent person or submitted to the Dairy School at Madison. We to use in these tests No. 2 or 3 Iowa Separators, this being the size in general use by our farmers. There are no wulf tricks in this challenge, and we have deposited Fifty Dollars in the bank as a forfeit if we refuse to enter the contest.

I will give any farmer $25 who will bring this contest about, no machine in the world barred. This is no bluff, try us and find out. We skim with any machine in the world—50 or 100 pounds.

Signed,
Michael Degenhardt,
Campbellsport, Wis.

Mr. Degenhardt is the agent for the Iowa in Fond du Lac, Dodge and Sheboygan counties and by purchasing separators in our local store he is able to quote prices exceedingly low and which appeal to the farmers. These cream separators can be seen at his headquarters in Campbellsport or Mr. Degenhardt will be pleased to call on a prospective buyer. Write today to Mr. Degenhardt if you are interested.

KEWASKUM WINS THE FIRST GAME.
Last Sunday at Parnell the locals scored their first victory of the season in a pitcher's battle between Doyle and Held of Parnell. Doyle allowed only three hits and struck out twenty-four men while Held allowed six hits and struck out sixteen men. Doyle's strikeouts being a record breaker. The locals were the first to score, Koch in the fourth inning getting a two-base hit and coming across the rubber on Rosenheimer's single. Parnell tied the score in their half of the fifth when H Brooks got a double and in trying to steal third Schaefer heaved the ball over Koch's head letting him score. From this time up to the eighth inning the score stood 1 to 1, when Held weakened and our boys secured two hits. With the help of a wild throw they secured three more runs, winning the game. Parnell made a hard effort to score in their last half of the ninth but were only successful in getting three men on bases. The game was exciting from start to finish and looked as though a few extra innings would have to be played. Following is the score by innings:
Kewaskum.....0 0 1 0 0 2 0-4
Parnell.....0 0 0 1 0 0 0-1
Earned runs—Kewaskum 2; 1st-base hit—Koch 2; Henning, Holbeck's sacrifice hit—Rosenheimer 2; struck out—by Doyle 24; by Held, 16; base on balls—off Held 1.
NOTES OF THE GAME.
The features of the game were the pitching of both pitchers and the batting of Koch for the locals. Doyle struck out fifteen men in the first five innings. Rosenheimer robbed Holbeck of a hit in the seventh by getting under a difficult fly. Schaefer caught without a mishap. Held was there with the engine. It was an easy day for all players except catcher and pitcher. Koch had his batting clothes on, getting two doubles out of four times up.
In a one-sided game of base ball Sunday on the local grounds the Juniors defeated the Juniors from the county seat by a score of 13 to 30. Habek and Altenhofen did the battery work for the local Juniors while Johnson and Ziegler were the battery for the visitors.
Drinks Paris Green.
Mrs. John Werner Jr. of the town of Wayne committed suicide Monday afternoon by swallowing a dose of paris green. Mr. Werner had been at Alton on business and upon returning home at about 2 P. M., found his wife in bed deathly sick. Medical aid was summoned as soon as possible but before the doctor arrived she had passed away. No reason can be attributed for committing the deed excepting that she had been in poor health for some time and it is thought that despondency led her to the act. Deceased, whose maiden name was Clara Ruhlman, was born near Newburg, Ozaukee county, on September 3, 1882. She was married to Mr. Werner on June 11, 1907, their union being blessed with one child, a girl, now seven months old, who survives besides her sorrow stricken husband. The funeral was held last Friday at 10 A. M., with interment in St. Bridget's cemetery.
Old Bachelor Found Dead.
Henry Bresemann, aged about 74 years, living alone on the Henry Schmidt farm, in the town of Wayne, was found dead in his bed last Friday afternoon. Neighbors not having seen Mr. Bresemann for several days suspected something had happened to him, so Henry Schmidt and Jacob Koebel began investigation. Upon reaching the house they found the doors locked but noticed through a window that he was lying on the bed. Forcing their way into the house they found him dead. A physician was summoned and at a post mortem examination found that death was probably caused by a hemorrhage of the brain and that he had been dead four or five days before being found. Mr. Bresemann was an old bachelor and had lived a hermit-like life. The funeral was held last Saturday afternoon at Wayne.
Eggs Must Be Clean.
The country merchants are complaining that they are not able to get the highest market price for eggs for the reason that many of the eggs brought to the market by farmers are not clean. The dealers in the cities will not accept dirty eggs and consequently depreciates the value of them. Farmers should see to it that eggs are clean before being brought to the market, thereby enabling the merchant to pay the best price for the product.

BOERNER'S THE BOYS' STORE

This is the only store in town selling XTRAGOOD clothes for boys.

Plenty of clothes last half as long—plenty look half as good. But none can compare with these.

One can always pick out every boy on the street who wears an XTRAGOOD suit. There's something distinctive about him.

XTRAGOOD clothes are made by Ederheimer-Stein—the exclusive tailors to young people.

XTRAGOOD suits contain 4 more cloth than the common. Boys don't soon outgrow them.

All XTRAGOOD trousers are lined. That doubles their wear.

Yet XTRAGOOD clothes cost no more than the common. You may as well have them. You are wronging yourself if you don't.

This store is the home of XTRAGOOD and Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes.

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living right. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

Famous Golf Match.
The projected golf match between two well known amateurs and a leading member of the London stock exchange for a stake of 5000 recalls the famous foursome in which the Duke of York, afterwards James I., took a prominent part on the 13th of August, 1621. It was really an international contest, in which the duke, who was patron of the game, had the honor of starting the Duke of Devonshire. The duke and the duke's partner had a heavy victory, thanks largely to the aid of a caddy who, it is said, was a native of the Duke of Devonshire's estate. The Duke of Devonshire's partner was a Scotchman, and he was a goodly house in the Canongate, in which the Duke of Devonshire's partner was to be placed bearing the Patersons arms with the motto "Fare and Sure," a tribute to the cotter. The Duke of Devonshire's partner, we understand, survives today.—Westminster Gazette.

SKIN TROUBLES CURED.
Two Little Girls Had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches—Cuticura Succeeded with Success.
"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather, when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it came cold the eczema started again and also in her hands where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches. At the same time her arms were so sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician, but the child grew worse all the time. Her sister's arms were also affected. I began using the Cuticura Remedies, and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Difficult Advice.
Charles G. Gates, the well known financier, was discussing at the Calumet club in Chicago the $8500 building that he had recently bought.
"Can one make money by breeding such valuable dogs?"
"Perhaps one can," said Mr. Gates. "I've done so, though, would be as difficult as to follow Mrs. Rayce's advice."
Mrs. Rayce, you know, was talking to another young woman at a tea.
"How much better off a man would be," said the other young woman, "if he would only take his wife's advice."
"Quite true, my dear," said Mrs. Rayce. "I've advised my George time and time again not to bet on horses that don't win, but he will do it."

WOMAN'S TRAVELS IN PERSIA.

Ten Days' Ride at Hard Gallop on a Gun Carriage.

In times of peril in Persia the medical missions have proved to be the best. In Persia not only for Europeans but also for the Persians themselves. Dr. Emmeline Stuart, niece of the veteran Bishop Stuart, had a remarkable story to tell of her own experiences when preparing to leave the country.

The only seat available through the disturbed country from Isfahan to Teheran was offered to her by the military authorities, and she accepted it, to find that it entailed traveling on a gun carriage harnessed six in line and that for ten days on the road were effected at a hard gallop, while the shelter of the carriage formed her canopy of shade.

Dr. Stuart testified to the unfailing courtesy and kindness of the officers to whom she was attached, and to the absolute safety of the mission during this period of unrest. She got the best of the safest places in the city. In fact the members of the family in Persia had started to it as an asylum.—Fall Mail Gazette.

Answer This Question

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

We challenge the world to show any other remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the famous woman's remedy for woman's ills. Unless it is a very good medicine and the claims made for it are honest, such a record would have been impossible—fraud or misrepresentation would long ago have been detected and the business gone into oblivion. Read this unsolicited letter:

Melbourne, Iowa:—"I suffered for many years with female troubles, inflammation, and bearing-down pains, so that I was unable to do my work.
"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and I am so thankful for the great good it has done me. I feel that I am a living advertisement for this medicine as I have influenced so many of my friends to use it, and I can testify that it restored me to health."
—Mrs. Clara Waterman, R. D. 1, Melbourne, Iowa.

When a woman like Mrs. Waterman is generous enough to write such a letter as the above for publication, she should at least be given credit for a sincere desire to help other suffering women. For we assure you there is no other reason why she should court such publicity.
We say it in all sincerity and friendship—try this medicine.
