Mrs. Hoffmann is unable to ascribe any motive for the action of her husband, but thinks that he may have been laboring under a temporary fit of insanity following a period of moodiness which she had observed on Thursday evening.

She said that he had returned home at about 9:30 o'clock on Thursday evening from a cattle buying trip and that he appeared to be morose, refusing to retire, although urged to do so. The wife and children later went to bed. Several times during the night the husband and father came to the room of his wife, kissed her fervently and bade her goodbye. She attempted to cheer him up and induce him to retire, but with no

By this time the mother realized that the entire family might be wiped out, and she ran to her room, where Viola, Olida and Leonard, aged 6, 4 and 3 years, respectively, were in bed. She threw herself over them in an effort to protect them just as the father entered.

When he approached she suddenly turned and grappled with him to secure possession of the revolver. In the scuffle the weapon was discharged, the bullet grazing her back and inflicting powder burns on her hand. But she secured the weapon, and Hoffmann then declared his intention of giving himself up to the marshal.

The murderer is 37 years of age, while Mrs. Hoffmann is 40. She said that while he often had spells of moroseness, he had never been ugly or given any trouble. Ernest Hoffmann, the brother is a widower and had been making his home with them.

The family lived on the second floor of a brick building, the ground floor of which was occupied by Hoffmann's butcher shop,

HOFFMANN A MURDERER

Louis Hoffmann, slayer of his son, Carl, was held for trial on a charge of murder by the coroner's jury last Monday. District Attorney W. F. Schanen said that should the father plead guilty he will be sentenced at the special term of circuit court, which is to be held in December. Should he enter a plea of not guilty, however, he will be held for trial at the March term, ticket is elected in Wisconsin by a plurality of from 25,000 to 40,000. The returns showed a large cut in the Republican vote of the state and the result will demonstrate the fact that the big Republican pluralities received by Gov. Davidson and his associates upon the state ticket can not be counted by Francis E. McGovern and those who go into office with him after Jan. 1.

The returns were exceedingly slow in coming in and from the first indicated a big slump in the Republican vote and considerable gains in the Democratic vote. These, however, were not sufficient to carry Wisconsin into the Democratic column.

Many precincts scattered throughout the state, when compared with the vote of two and four years ago, showed a valiant struggle on the part of the Democrats to increase their vote, but the percentage of gains, as well as the percentage of Republican losses, is insufficient to elect Schmitz or his fellow Democrats.

Although claims were made early in the evening that the Republicans had carried the state by practically the usual off year plurality, returns so far received show that the ticket is elected by a largely reduced vote. But few returns up to this hour have been received from the cities of the state where the vote shows the haviest cut on the ticket. Just what this cut will amount to in the total of the result can not be stated. Various estimates give the Republican ticket pluralities running from 25,000 to 40,000.

One of the remarkable features of the election is found in the remarkably strong showing made by Judge Levi H. Bancroft, candidate for attorney general, who, upon returns so far received, is elected, in spite of the independent candidacy of Charles H. Crownhart and the efforts of the Republican state central committee. The returns show that he ran well up with other candidates on the ticket and that Crownhart's candidacy was not received by the voters of the state with any degree of favor. The vote showed Crownhart out of the running very early in the evening, the only question being whether or not Bancroft would be able to beat Doherty, his Democratic opponent. While the result, upon the returns so far received, is still in doubt, sufficient reports have been received to indicate Bancroft's election by a vote considerably less than the balance of the state ticket. In many precincts Bancroft ran well up with the Republican ticket and his election can be claimed at this hour with reasonable certainty.

The vote received by Judge Bancroft, when compared with the vote cast for other state officers, shows that he was generally supported by Republicans, and whatever cut the state ticket sustained was largely duto the fact that Republicans resented the action of the Republican state central committee in forcing an independent candidacy.

Returns show the election of a majority in both branches of the next legislature sufficient to insure the return of Robert M. La Follette to the United States senate. The majority of the Republicans elected are pledged to vote for his return.

In many of the districts the Demo crats have made gains and heretofore safely Republican districts will be represented by Democrats. In Mil waukee the Social Democrats elect twelve assemblymen at lone senator, giving them a representation of fourteen members in the next legislature. The Democrats fail to elect a member from this city. The Republicans in Milwaukee will be represented in the next legislature by four assemblymen and three senators.

The Republicans will organize the next legislature, electing the speaker of the assembly and subordinate officers. The contest for speaker will undoubtedly be between Assemblyman C. H. Ingram of Pepin county and John McConnell of La Crosse.

The Democrats have made a considerable gain in the membership of the lower house, returns being too incomplete to give the list of those elected with certainty.

Col. John J. Hannan said that the Republican state central committee had heard from 80 out of the 100 as sembly districts. In these Republicans had elected forty-five, the Democrats twenty-two and the Social Democrats twelve, with one doubtful. Of the twenty districts remaining, Col. Hannan said the Republicans would have fifteen and the Democrats The Republicans, he said, had elected fourteen senators, the Democrats two and the Social Democrats with one district in doubt. While reports are still meager, returns show that a number of former Republican counties have gone Democratic. This is notably so in the case of Kenosha county. A number of strong Republican counties show Rep., Algoma.

Milwaukee .- The Republican state | a surprising falling off in Republican

The prohibitionist vote of the state made but little showing in the returns. The Social Democratic vote in the state was largely increased over the vote of two years ago, the biggest increase being reported from the manufacturing centers. At 10 o'clock Mr. McGovern gave out the following statement: "The Democratic landslide which started in the east as a protest against reactionary control of the Republican party in those states did not reach Wisconsin. Here, instead, a splendid Republican victory was won in a square, clean fight for progressive principles. "The record of the Republican party during the last decade and the platform of this year, fearlessly taking an advance ground as it did, upon every public question, were the chief arguments in favor of our cause.

"The people have spoken. They want political and economic advancement along the lines pursued in this state during the last ten years and promised in the present Republican Bayfield. They must not be denied. A splendid opportunity is presented to the next administration. Wisconsin must continue to be the pioneer state in the great work which lies before us.

At present, with only about one-fifth of the returns in, it looks as though Bancroft would be elected, although I am not ready to concede this. The election lies between Bancroft and Doherty, with the chances favoring Bancroft.

When seen, A. J. Schmitz was still hopeful of the outcome of the election for the Democratic ticket. In every other county Democrats have made big gains over two years ago.

"For instance, in the counties of Rock, Walworth, Marathon, Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Democrats have gained on an average of from 30 to 33 per cent. If we can gain an average of 20 per ce t in all the counties throughout the state we will carry the state.

(TO BE CONTINUED.) Russian Wheat Production.

An enormous crop of wheat has been grown in Russia this year, placing that land for the first time at the head of wheat-growing countries. Its harvest of 783,000,000 bushels exceeds that of the United States by 26,000,000 bushels, and is greater than its own previous record by about 100,000,000 bushels. The development of wheat growing has been most rapid along the line of the Trans-Siberian railway. As the home consumption is small in proportion to population, this has made Russia one of the great sources of supply for the rest of the world. France consumes much of the wheat that it grows. The present price of wheat in the United States, when placed against the surplus product of Russia, makes it more difficult for this country to hold its place as an exporter of that cereal.

Dix Wins in New York. New York elected John A. Dix Democratic candidate for governor, over Henry L. Stimson, candidate of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, by about 68,000. Ohio re-elected Gov. Judson Harmon, Democrat, by a majority ranging between 40,000 and 60,000 votes. Two years ago Harmon was elected by 19.372.

New Jersey introduced Woodrow Wilson to national politics, until recently president of Princeton university, by electing him to the governorship by a plurality of 15,000 over Vivian M. Lewis, Republican. The previous Republican plurality was Massachusetts kept up with the times by electing Eugene N. Foss governor by 30,000 plurality, defeating Gov. Eben S. Draper, whose plurality two years ago was 8,000. The legislature remains safely Republican, however, which means that Henry Cabot Lodge will be returned to the United States senate.

Election Result in Brief. To sum up the elections briefly, the net result is: A national house of representatives overwhelmingly controlled by the Democrats for the first time in fifteen

An unrecognizable national senate from which notable standpatters have been eliminated and which promises to be dominated by Republican progressives and Democrats.

The Next Speaker.

Uncle Joe Cannon was returned to congress by his usual majority, but there is no possibility of his again ruling over the destinies of the lower house. In place of Uncle Joe Champ Clark of Missouri will be the most conspicuous candidate for speaker of the next congress, and Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama will figure for the chairmanship of the committee on ways and means. Both were re-elected. Both are members of the ways not only close personal friends, but Underwood is Clark's principal lieutenant in the minority of the present congress.

The loss of seats in the United States senate by the Republicans to the Democrats includes that of one progressive, Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, and such standpatters as over B. F. Carroll, incumbent, by a Chauncey M. Depew of New York and John Kean of New Jersey. The election assures an unrecognized national senate, from which nowhich will be dominated by Republicans, progressives and Democrats.

How great has been the defeat suffered by the Republican party in con- state. uection with the house of representatives will be understood when it is recalled that the present Republican majority in that chamber is 43.

This majority ceased to be of any value to the house organization following the insurrection led by such progressives as Congressmen Murdock and Madison of Kansas, Hayes of California, Cooper of Wisconsin, and others.

Not content with replacing Republicans by Democrats, the people of Wisconsin sent Victor Berger, Socialist, to Washington.

Democratic Gains.

The Democrats gained from the Republicans seats in congress in eight states. In New York seven Republican seats were taken by the Democrats.

In New Jersey the slaughter was terrific. In Maryland, Massachusetts, North Carolina each the Republicans lost two seats. In Illinois they lost at least four, and losses were sustained also in Oklahoma, Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa and Ohio. There were two Republican gains from the Democrats, one in New York and one in Pennsylvania.

It Is Dix in New York. New York .- The Democrats elected John A. Dix governor of New York by a plurality of about 68,000 votes. New York city gave Dix 299,078; Stimson, 194,618, and Hopper, 39,630.

Stimson's upstate plurality was only 36,696. Early in the evening he sent a telegram of congratulation to his victorious rival.

T. F. Conway, for lieutenant governor, was swept into office only slightly behind Dix. The entire Democratic state ticket was elected, and the legislature will be Democratic on joint ballot. This means that a Democrat will be the successor of Chauncey M. Depew in the United States senate. The Democrats have made a gain of ten members in the congressional delegation from this state.

According to the latest figures obtainable the legislature will stand

Senate-Republican, 22; Democrats,

Assembly-Republicans, 70; Democrats, 80.

Among the notable defeats of rep resentatives in congress were Her bert Parsons in the Thirteenth, J. Sloat Fassett in the Thirty-third, and W. W. Cocks in the First. All are particular friends of Roosevelt, and Cocks represents the colonel's home district. Martin W. Littleton, who defeated Cocks, had to overcome a normal Republican plurality of about 6,000. Mr. Littleton's wife assisted Jr., defeated W. S. Bennet, the Republican incumbent in the Seventeenth district. Representative Hamilton Fish gave ground to Richard E. Connell, a Democrat.

Iowa has eleven congressional districts. I. S. Pepper, the young Democratic candidate in the Second district, walked away with the election, carrying every county over his opponent, Charles Grilk. It was in behalf of the latter that Colonel Roosevelt recently made an address at Davenport.

S. F. Prouty, the progressive Republican candidate of the Seventh district, who wrested the nomination from the veteran "standpatter," Captain Hull, seems to have landed the position so often sought unsuccess fully before.

Walter I. Smith, a member of the Cannon rules committee, and who is credited with speakership aspirations, was elected in the Ninth district, but candidate, ran far behind. his majority was cut to 500 from the 2,500 he expected.

Governor Harmon has carried with him two Democratic congressional candidates in districts that have heretofore elected Republicans.

Ohio will send ten and possibly twelve Democrats to congress out of the twenty-one in the delegation, instead of eight, as at present.

Tennessee Goes Republican. Nashville, Tenn .- The Republicans have elected B. W. Hooper governor by a plurality of 15,000 over R. L.

Eight Democratic congressmen and two Republicans have been elected. The legislature remains Democratic.

The Democratic counties in middle and west Tennessee, which nearly all went for the independent judicial ticket in August, went back into the Democratic column, but the majorities were not large enough to overcome the heavy Republican vote in east

St. Paul, Minn.-Minnesota Republicans elected a complete state ticket and eight Republicans and one Democrat will be sent to congress. Congressman Hammond, Democrat, apparently has been re-elected by a reduced majority. This leaves the party complexion of the Minnesota delegation unchanged.

The Democrats and Independents made slight gains in the legislature. One of the notable victories of the Democrats was the capturing of the Fifth congressional district in Philadelphia, which two years ago gave W. W. Foulkerod a majority of 13,268. The Socialists elected their first

lature of La Follette Republicans were elected in Wisconsin, the Democrats conceding McGovern a plurality of 50,000 over A. J. Schmitz, Democratic nominee. The Republican vote shows a falling off of about 15 per cent. Eight Republican congressmen have been elected and one Democrat in the Sixth district. The Fifth district, in which Henry F. Cochems, who nomthe last Republican national convention, gave a plurality for Victor L. Berger, Social Democrat. The contest in the Fourth district between Gaylord, Socialist, and his Republican opponent is so close that only the official returns will indicate the winner. ### DIETZ FREED: JAILED AGAIN ON OLD CASE

Defender of Cameron Dam Is Accused of Attack Upon Man in 1904 When Released.

Hayword, Wis.-Circuit Judge Wickham at Eau Claire approved a Chicago company's bond of $40,000 for John F. Dietz and Messrs. Zabel and Schulz, head of the Deitz defense committee, brought it here.

The bond was approved and recordnotified that for a time at least he was again a free man. His wife and Clarence were overjoyed and quickly bringing his overcoat, Clarence assisted his father to put it on and stepped out on the porch of the jail where he proceeded to inhale a few whiffs of the November air.

During this time he was smiling, chatting happily with the people around the jail porch. However, his period of freedom was very short. Barely had the overcoat been placed on him, when Sheriff Madden said: "Come here, John." Deitz complied and a warrant for the alleged attempted shooting of Patrick McGin on May 8, 1904, was read to him, and once more the famous Cameron Dam defender was placed behind the bars.

BEHIND WOULD BE OF MORE VALUE

Father O'Leary's Facetious Rejoinder to John Philpot Curran an Example of Real Wit.

One day the famous John Philpot Curran, who was also very partial to the said corned mutton, did me the honor to meet him. To enjoy the society of such men was an intellectual treat. They were great friends and seemed to have a mutual respect for each other's talent, and, as it may easly be imagined, O'Leary versus Curran was no bad match.

One day after dinner Curran said to him: "Reverend father, I wish you were St. Peter."

"And why, counselor, would you wish that I were St. Peter?" asked O'Leary. "Because, reverend father, in that case," said Curran, "you would have the keys of heaven, and you could let "By my honor and conscience, coun-

AN INTOLERABLE ITCHING

"Just about two years ago, some form of humor appeared on my scalp. The beginning was a slight itching but it grew steadily worse until, when I combed my hair, the scalp became raw and the ends of the comb-teeth would be wet with blood. Most of the time there was an intolerable itching. in a painful, burning way, very much as a bad, raw burn, if deep, will itch and smart when first beginning to torture. My hair was long and tangled terribly because of the blood and scabs. This continued growing worse and over half my hair fell out. I was in despair, really afraid of becoming totally bald.

"Sometimes the pain was so great that, when partially awake, I would scratch the worst places so that my finger-tips would be bloody. I could not sleep well and, after being asleep a short time, that awful stinging pain -would commence and then I would wake up nearly wild with the torture. A neighbor said it must be salt rheum. Having used Cuticura Soap merely as a toilet soap before, I now decided to order a set of the Cuticura Remedies -Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills. I used them according to directions for perhaps six weeks, then left off, as the disease seemed to be eradicated, but toward spring, eighteen months ago, there was a slight return of the scalp humor. I commenced the Cuticura treatment at once, so had very little trouble. On my scalp I used about one half a cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment in all. The first time I took six or seven bottles of Cuticura Pills and the last time three bottles-neither an expensive or tedious treatment. Since then I have had no scalp trouble of any kind. Standing up, with my hair unbound, it comes to my knees and had it not been for Cuticura I should doubtless be
