CHRISTMAS SEAL PRIZEWINNERS STILL DOUBTFUL

Result Will Not be Known Until Jan. 14. Last Day for Local Managers--1909 Record is Broken.

Although the Christmas seal campaign of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association officially closed at midnight, December 23, Christmas day, it will be at least three weeks before any definite announcement as to winners of prizes offered for highest per capita sale in various competitions, can be made. A number of local campaign managers are still selling seals in order to get a tighter grip on prize opportunities. In a good many communities citizens are buying seals to clean up the supply ordered by the local manager and avoid making unsold returns.

All of these sales will count toward winning prizes, although made after the close of the campaign. The association set January 14th as an arbitrary date for the close of final returns, giving each manager ample time to make an accounting. For obvious reasons it will be impossible to prevent any sales up to that date.

Nearly 4,200,000 seals were consigned from the headquarters of the association in Milwaukee during the campaign. While not all of these were sold by Christmas day, it is certain that last year's record of 2,300,000 sales has been surpassed. There is much doubt, however, if Wisconsin did well enough to keep at the head of all states and purchases made before campaign managers report may be an important factor in determining this.

The sale was a magnificent one and exceeded the wildest hopes of all connected with the association. It is regarded as a grand tribute to the active workers in the crusade against consumption and an overwhelming majority vote in favor of carrying the work further. An ample fund has been accumulated and as soon as the details of the campaign are out of the way the work for 1911 will be mapped out and the crusade renewed with increased vigor.

OLD SETTLER PASSES AWAY

Henry Backhaus Sr., One of the Oldest Residents of This Village Dies.

HENRY BACKHAUS SR.
 Henry Backhaus Sr., aged 88 years one of the first settlers of this village passed away at his home last Sunday, Christmas, afternoon at 4:20, after a three days suffering with brights disease. Deceased was born in Phaebazien, Germany on December 29th, 1822. In the year 1847 he immigrated to this country settling at Milwaukee, where he lived a few years, then going to Watertown, Wis., and finally located at Kewaskum. Mr. Backhaus was the proprietor of the first store of this village, which was located on lower Main street next to the bridge. It is well known as the "Kewaskum Store". He conducted this business from the years 1852 to 1886. It was in this place that Mr. Backhaus got his start. When first arriving at Kewaskum he had to deal with many hardships, but his honest ways soon built up a large business. He was the oldest settler in this vicinity. Besides conducting store, he was interested in the Kewaskum Roller Mills, in which he took an active part up to the time of his death.

In the year 1853 he was joined in wedlock to Miss Caroline Hit, who predeceased him in death on March 8th, 1900. Their union was blessed with seven children, three of whom are still living, viz: Mrs. Emma Altenhofen and Henry Jr. of this village and Mrs. Wm. Stark of Anaheim, Cal. Besides his surviving children, he leaves one brother, thirteen grand children and two great grand children.

Mr. Backhaus was always in the prime of life up to the time of his death. He was an intelligent man and never allowed prejudice to take the place of better judgment. Deceased was of a quiet disposition and preferred a life at home among his family and friends to that of political life, in which he never sought an office.

Mr. Backhaus' whole conduct from first to last was a manifestation of heroism seldom witnessed. Naturally endowed with a strong will, backed by unusual energy, coupled with a fine intellect, a sunny disposition which made him a good citizen, and valuable from a business standpoint.

The funeral was held Thursday morning with services at the home. Rev. Mohme officiated. The remains were transported to Milwaukee on the noon train, where interment was held in the Forest Home cemetery.

The STATESMAN extends to the bereaved relatives its deepest heartfelt sympathy.

The Diamond King.

To lovers of clean, wholesome entertainments, this play will no doubt prove a great success. It is away from the average blood and thunder plays, too often played, and contains a beautiful story intermingled with bright comedy, and will especially please the ladies. Mr. Johnson pays a heavy royalty for each performance of this play, but he considers it small compared to the pleasing qualities of this excellent play. Johnson will carry a special scenery and his company will be larger and better than ever. Mr. Johnson is the same gentleman who appeared here sometime ago in Life for Life. He will introduce his own original specialty entitled the Banana Man. Mr. Johnson is an entertainer of great ability and his play the Diamond King will be greeted, no doubt, by a packed house.

Reserved seats on sale at Schlosser's Bakery. Don't forget the date, Sunday, Jan. 1st, at Groeschel's hall. Dance after the performance. Prices 15, 25 & 35cts.

Christ. Tischhauser Writes.

We are in receipt of a letter from one of our readers, Christ. Tischhauser of Madison, S. D., which is very interesting and reads as follows:

To the Statesman Readers:
 Friends scattered far away here with a very Prosperous New Year. At the present writing it does not look like New Year's time out west here, for this is another exception, the second one of the season. Last year winter began with the 1st of November and was bound to be boss all through till March, such a turn these Dakota folks had not experienced since 1882, when it had started in October. Half of last year's corn crop had to be husked this spring, now this year we had the driest fall for years, continually good weather, one inch of snow fell on the night of November 1st, since then none and the very nicest, mostly sunny weather. Stock still roam through the now husked corn stalk fields day and night. Only milk cows and working horses are sheltered. Everybody is wondering how long this kind of weather will last. Has our Dakota climate really changed in to a California one? Everybody seems to enjoy it, especially our automobilists. Just two more months and this writer will have to exchange his so dear little home in which he lived for six years, to the Iowa.

Northwest of North Dakota so I have And would say to our South Dakota people Put the motto above your door, Don't sell the Homestead, Or let good enough alone, As South Dakota is good enough At least the Eastern Half. So let me close with a few more verses Referring to the former ones. Those verses sprung up, Deep in my heart, Nothing but grim Death, From each other will part, No matter how far, Or wherever I roam, I often repeat them, And think of Dear Old Home. Loving friends they do linger Waiting till I last do come Asking one then the other, Has he his battles soon won. To win out our battles With a Blessed peaceful end Is only then accomplished, With Jesus as our Friend. So stand up for Jesus His banner do uphold Do not tarry or linger Forward fresh and bold, And if you get weary Do not lose your grit Say your prayers regular That's the way to fight with. Fight against all sins And do it with a will Uphold Jesus' Banner And he will help you still. Let's be Jesus' Banner Bearer All through this worthy toil Sweet rest or Soul in Heaven And for Body in Our Soil. Let this be New Year's greeting To you dear Friends all Time is going so fleetly Soon will come our call. So brother do get ready Soon the bugle will sound So you are in the ranks Of those for Heaven bound. Only a short way yet across And we meet besides our graves So let's battle to be boss. And not be always Sin's slave. Let's struggle to reach the goal So we can have a peaceful end We must strive to save our soul And Jesus must be our Friend. We dare not risk time longer To be uncertain till last Let's cling to Jesus our Saviour Let him be studdier and our mast. With Him we sail through all tempest If we only have and keep full faith So do not linger or longer wait We must enter a pearly gate. Angels sweet voices, singing, ringing Thou dar'st not longer tarry or stay Everlasting love you are winning Oh come this way, come this way. Come this way, come this way Here is Life, Joy and Peace Come this way, come this way And your sorrows all will cease.

Mail Pouch Destroyed.

Last Thursday evening a mail pouch containing a number of X-mas presents, letters and etc., for people of Campbellsport was badly cut up by the cars of passenger train No. 216 which is due at Campsport at about 6 P. M. This train is a mail train and does not stop at Campbellsport. In some manner by throwing off the pouch, the same became entangled with one of the trucks. The destroyed pouch was carried almost to this station. It was picked up the next morning by the local section crew who turned it over to the local station agent. After being examined by Postmaster Koch it was sent to Campbellsport.

Condemned Cattle.

A couple of weeks ago some 25 head of cattle belonging to different farmers in the town of Burnett were condemned. The cattle were tested by one of the state inspectors and found to be afflicted with tuberculosis. They were taken to Burnett Junction, where they were appraised and shipped to the city for slaughter. A few weeks previous one farmer had his entire herd of fifteen cattle condemned.—The Hartford Times.

MRS. THERESA WEISS
 Mrs. Theresa Weiss, nee Ramsthal, aged 69 years, 9 months and 24 days, passed away at her home in the town of Kewaskum 2 miles south of this village, after an illness of four weeks.
 Deceased was born March 1, 1841, in Saxony, Coburg, Goth, Germany. When a girl of only nine years, she immigrated to this country with her parents, settling at Mequon, from where they went to Fillmore, living on a farm north of that village until in July 1862, when she was married to Edward Weiss, after which they moved unto the old homestead, where she spent the remainder of her life.

Their union was blessed with seven children, four of whom are still living and whose names are: Henry, Pauline, Hugo and Edwin, all living on the homestead. Her husband predeceased her in death a number of years ago.
 Mrs. Weiss was one of the early settlers of the town of Kewaskum. She was a lady who was respected by all who knew her. She was a very kind and devoted wife and mother. Her death is a great shock to the surviving family.

SOARS 11,474 FEET

AVIATOR HOXSEY BREAKS WORLD'S ALTITUDE MARK AT LOS ANGELES.

ACCOMPLISHES FEAT IN GALE

Daring Airman Thrills Enormous Crowd in His Descent From Clouds—Is Benumbed by Cold—Wins a Prize of $3,000.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Arch Hoxsey of the Wright team of aviators Monday broke the world's record for altitude here when he attained a height of 11,474 feet and accomplished the feat in a 30-mile gale that wrecked Latham's monoplane and kept cautious aviators to the ground.

Seventy-seven thousand enthusiastic spectators gathered at Dominguez field witnessed the record-breaking flight of the southern California aviator, and when Hoxsey landed safely, almost in front of the grand stand, his barograph was removed from the machine and examined and the announcement made that he had broken the altitude record of 10,499 feet established by M. Legagneux at Pau, France, on December 10, pandemonium broke loose among the spectators and a mad rush was made for the field to congratulate him.

Hoxsey's feat is without parallel in the history of aviation. He went into the air a few minutes before one o'clock and quickly began his upward flight. In a short time he was beyond the view of the spectators. He was gone so long that the officials at the field became alarmed and began making inquiries and requesting the near-by towns and beach resorts to be on the lookout for the aviator.

Shortly before three o'clock a spectator in the grand stand discerned a speck in the air, and it was several minutes before the majority of the throng could distinguish the speck.

Slowly descending, Hoxsey made several complete circles with his machine pointed downward, before he became plainly visible to the naked eye. While on the side of the field opposite the grand stand he made a sensational glide of 1,000 feet. The multitude watching him thought he had lost control of his machine and held its breath, but when within about 500 feet from the ground, the aviator turned his planes upward and shot into the air again. He turned his machine completely around at the pylon to the right of the grand stand, descended and stiffly climbed from the machine.

The cold air in the upper ether had so benumbed him that he could scarcely bend his knees.

INDORSES ENGINEERS' REPORT

Taft Favors Reclamation Projects Calling for Expenditure of $20,000,000.

Washington.—The letter of President Taft to the secretary of the interior commenting on the report of the engineer officers appointed to pass on uncompleted government reclamation projects was made public Monday. The letter consists chiefly of a summary of the reclamation projects which the government's expert engineers have considered feasible and worthy of the expenditure of $20,000,000. President Taft covers the subject fully, in the main endorsing the reports of the engineers.

When congress reconvenes it is the intention of the chief executive to transmit the report, with a message.

FEAR REVOLT IN HONDURAS

Secretary Meyer Orders Gunboat Yorktown to Amapala Storm Center of Rebellion.

Washington.—Fearing the outbreak of another revolution in Honduras, Secretary Meyer Monday ordered the gunboat Yorktown, stationed at Corinto, Nicaragua, to proceed to Amapala, Honduras.

The orders to the commander of the Yorktown was to "observe and report upon the conditions existing on the west coast of Honduras."

Amapala has for months been a storm-center. It was the stronghold of General Valadarez, who is opposed to the government and who was ousted as governor by President Davilla.

Billy Papke Loses on Foul.

Sydney, N. S. W.—Dave Smith, middleweight champion of Australia, Monday scored a decisive victory over Billy Papke, the claimant to the middleweight championship of the world. The fight was given to Smith in the tenth round on a foul. Smith had a lead over Papke in every round, but it was conceded that Papke did not appear to be up to his regular form.

Laporte, Ind.—Governor Marshall announced four paroles for prisoners in the state penitentiary Friday. To the state and the country at large more interesting is the fact that she refused to exercise clemency in the case of William E. The efforts made on behalf of the prisoner as well as the protests of those who opposed pardon have attracted the attention of the country for months.

PEOPLE IN TWO PROVINCES STARVING FROM FAMINE.

Foreign Missionary Board Cables to New York Appealing for $1,000,000 to Aid.

Shanghai, Dec. 27.—From the latest reports received from the provinces of Kiang-Su and An-Hui three million people are slowly starving through famine.

Foreign missionaries are exerting every effort to relieve the misery of the poor, but the fight so far has been a losing one. The combined population of the two provinces is 37,650,549.

The international board of foreign missionaries in Shanghai made an appeal for $1,000,000 to aid the stricken people. This appeal has been cabled to New York for publication in the Christian Herald and other church papers. The Red Cross society also will raise funds.

TAKEN AS MURDER SUSPECT

Henry W. Morris, Arrested for Slaying Woman, Is Threatened With Lynching at Aurora, Ill.

Aurora, Ill.—Henry W. Morris, for whom search has been made on suspicion that he was the assailant of Mrs. Stella Dumas, who was shot and killed in Montgomery, Ill., was arrested in the attic of his home in Plano Friday and brought here.

Morris admits he killed Mrs. Dumas but claims he shot her in self-defense. He wrested the gun from her and then shot her, he says. To prove his contention he showed a bullet wound on the side of his head and a bullet hole in the rim of his hat which he claims were made by Mrs. Dumas when she shot at him. He would give no account of himself since the murder of Mrs. Dumas. He was hungry and careworn and made no resistance.

Morris attempted to commit suicide on the way from the jail to the hospital by taking a tablet supposed to be poison. The effects of the drug was said to be apparent when he reached the hospital and antidotes were administered.

A crowd of 500 men gathered in front of the city hall when it was learned that Morris had been caught. Threats of lynching were heard and the police to escape the mob took their captive direct to St. Charles hospital in an automobile.

Washington.—Capt. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, after months of persistent refusal on the ground of interference with contracts with publishers, has promised to furnish congress with the proofs upon which he relies to support his claim of attainment of the north pole.

The assurance has been communicated indirectly to some of his advocates at the capitol in connection with the bill to reward him with a rear admiralship on the staff in recognition of his arctic achievements.

Philadelphia.—A foreigner giving his name as John Karnego, walked up to a policeman Friday near the scene of Wednesday night's fire, in which 14 lives were lost, and, pointing to a picture of the burned building in a newspaper, told the policeman that he had set fire to the place. Karnego said he had formerly been employed at the leather factory and had been discharged. Three weeks ago he applied for reinstatement, but was refused.

Fear Aviator Is Lost.

London, England.—No news has come of the fate of Cecil S. Grace, the American-born aviator who disappeared in the fog Thursday while attempting a return flight from Calais, France, to Dover. It is feared that he fell into the North sea. A fleet of motor cars was out to search the east coast of England, while warships scattered along the shores of the North sea swept the waters with wireless inquiry concerning the airman.

MAKING IT HOT FOR THE BATH TUB TRUST

MOB KILLS SLAYER

OSCAR CHITWOOD WHO KILLED ARKANSAS SHERIFF SHOT TO DEATH.

IS TAKEN FROM DEPUTIES

Masked Men Take Prisoner Away From Officers in Heart of City of Hot Springs and Riddle His Body With Bullets.

Hot Springs, Ark.—Oscar Chitwood, a mountaineer, was killed by a mob in the heart of this city.

Chitwood was awaiting trial for the murder, recently, of Jake Hout, sheriff, in Hot Springs. As deputy sheriffs were attempting to spirit Chitwood from the county jail to the city prison officers and prisoner were attacked by 30 masked men who riddled Chitwood's body with bullets.

Chitwood was taken out of the rear door of the jail, and when two blocks away the mob overpowered the deputies and seized the prisoner. The masked men had prepared to hang Chitwood, but the sight of him prompted a speedier means. About one hundred shots were fired. A change of venue had recently been granted Chitwood. He was to have been taken to Benton, Ark., for trial.

It is supposed that all the members of the mob were friends of the murdered sheriff. It was evident that the men who put Chitwood to death had laid their plans carefully and had learned from some source that Chitwood was to be transferred secretly from one prison to another at an hour when few people were in the streets.

None of the deputies was injured and the attack was made so suddenly and unexpectedly that there was no chance for resistance on the part of the deputies who had Chitwood in charge. After killing Chitwood the masked men dispersed and not even the leader, if there was a leader, is known.

Hout was killed in a street fight here last August, when Oscar Chitwood and his brother, George Chitwood, emerged from a saloon and began shooting up the town.

In a pitched battle between the desperadoes and Hout and several citizens, George Chitwood was wounded and he died later. Oscar Chitwood was narrowly saved from lynching at that time and was confined in the penitentiary for safe-keeping.

When Papa Hears It He Urges Only Son to Grab Girl Quick.

The only son had just announced to the family his engagement. "What, that girl!" remarked his mother. "Why, she squints."

"She has absolutely no style," commented his sister.

"Red-headed, isn't she?" asked auntie.

"I'm afraid she's flighty," was grandma's opinion.

"She hasn't any money," said uncle. "And she doesn't look strong," chimed in the first cousin.

"She's stuck up, in my opinion," asseverated the second cousin.

"She's extravagant," was the opinion given by the third cousin.

"Well, she's got one redeeming feature, at any rate," remarked the only son, thoughtfully.

"What's that?" chorused the charitable band.

"She hasn't a relative on earth."

Papa had not yet spoken, but now he did.

"Grab her, my boy, grab her," he said.

The district attorney says the orders include no bar to sacramental liquors.

STATE IS VICTOR IN INDIAN LAND CASE

SPECIAL AGENT CONVINCES FEDERAL AUTHORITIES OF WISCONSIN CLAIMS.

CUTTING OF TIMBER STOPPED

Test Suits Are Pending to Determine Ownership of the 16,000 Acres in Dispute—May Not Suspend Logging.

Madison.—B. J. Castle, executive agent for Wisconsin at Washington, has succeeded in convincing the commissioner of Indian affairs that it will be the part of wisdom for the federal government not to cut timber on lands claimed by the state of Wisconsin. In response to Mr. Castle's protest the Indian office has issued instructions that no timber shall be cut within the Menominee Indian reservation on lands patented to Wisconsin. These lands embrace about 16,000 acres and on them is growing some of the finest timber in the northwest.

Soon after the holidays Mr. Castle will appear before the house committee on Indian affairs on behalf of Representative Esch's bill for the appointment of a commission of three appraisers of a commission of three appraisers respecting the ownership of swamp and school lands within Indian reservations.

Test suits are now pending in the circuit court at Ashland to determine the ownership of certain lands of this character. The Indian office has advised Mr. Castle that inasmuch as there are on the lands in dispute within the Menominee reservation mature logging and dead trees which should be logged to prevent loss, the government will be glad to make an agreement whereby logging operations may be conducted, the proceeds to be placed in escrow pending the determination of the ownership of the land.

ASK ONE-SIXTH MILL TAX

Normal School Regents Plan New Buildings and Additions for Institutions.

Madison.—The state board of normal school regents will ask the legislature for a law providing a one-sixth of a mill tax for the state normal schools and the appropriation of $200,000 a year for five years for new buildings and additions to present buildings.

This was the effect of a resolution adopted at a session of the board in Milwaukee.

"The action of the board with respect to additions asked for by some schools, the new normal to be erected at Eau Claire and new buildings asked for at several points, will depend entirely upon the action of the legislature with respect to the resolution passed by our board," said C. H. Crownhart, the Superior regent.

"We will go before the legislative committee this winter and endeavor to secure the passage of the one-sixth mill tax to give the normal schools a fixed income as was done with the university some years ago. If we obtain that and the specific appropriation asked for we will then consider the needs of the different schools in expending the money obtained."

The various normal schools put in their requests for appropriations, the Oshkosh normal asking for an addition and remodeling; the River Falls school for an addition; the Milwaukee school for a model school; the Platteville school for a dormitory; the Superior and Stevens Point schools for new wings, etc., the total amount asked for being $510,000, as follows:

Model school at Milwaukee	normal	$100,000
Remodeling building at Oshkosh	Available 1911	$85,000
Available 1913	$5,000	170,000
New wing Superior normal	50,000
New wing Stevens Point normal	50,000
Dormitory, Platteville	50,000
Improvement of grounds and buildings at La Crosse	40,000
Addition to River Falls normal	50,000

FARMER HELD AS SLAYER

John Klitz Charged With Killing John Shannon at Jefferson in Dispute Over Hogs.

Jefferson.—The unconscious body of John Shannon, a well known stock buyer for the Charles Stoppenbach Packing company, his skull crushed in two places and his neck broken, was found in a barn here following a quarrel between Shannon and John Klitz, a well-to-do farmer of the town of Farmington, this county. An attempt was made to move the injured man to his home, but he died before the house could be reached.

Klitz, placed under arrest and charged with being responsible for the tragedy, admitted quarreling with the dead man but declared he had used only his fists and disclaimed all responsibility for the injuries found on the body.

The two men, it is said, had been drinking together at a local saloon, and while there became involved in an altercation over the purchase of some hogs. Showing signs of becoming violent they were both ordered from the place by the proprietor and went out together.

Some time later Klitz returned alone. "I have fixed him," he is said to have declared, and with that statement again left the saloon and went home.

Shortly after friends of Shannon, becoming alarmed, commenced a search, finally finding Shannon unconscious and fatally hurt. The arrest of Klitz followed.

The dead man was about 40 years old and leaves a large family.

ANSWER TO TRACY CLAIM

Frear Alleges Supervisor of Oil Inspectors Rented Offices for His Private Business.

Madison.—Secretary of State Frear in circuit court replied to the writ of mandamus issued upon the petition of Edward L. Tracy, state supervisor of inspector of illuminating oils, who seeks payment of $600, which he claims to have spent for office rent in the Pabst building, Milwaukee.

He alleges that Tracy rented the offices for the purpose of conducting his private business and that the lease runs to him and not to the state. He further claims that there is sufficient room in the capitol, or other buildings leased by the state in Madison, but that Tracy has never made application for office rooms.

Appeals for Condemnation.

Manitowoc.—The city council has voted to appeal to the state rate commission for immediate condemnation of the plant of the Manitowoc Waterworks company for city purchase. The action comes as a climax to a fight of more than six years.

The water company, during the Socialist administration, offered its plant for $235,000, the city at that time being able to acquire the property by paying only $35,000 in cash and assuming the $200,000 bonded indebtedness, but the proposition was rejected.

The plant has been appraised by the state railroad rate commission for physical valuation at $233,000, but it is anticipated that the city will pay a considerably larger price, owing to the fact that more than $200,000 in improvements have been made in the past three years and that the company will argue for a going value.

The city expects to be in possession of the plant by July 1.

Horse Dies of Grief.

Cable.—Grief killed a horse belonging to Clark Burnett. He had a span of fine horses which he had raised from colts. One of the pair received a broken leg and was shot. Its mate refused to take food from that time, and apparently determined to die of starvation. After three weeks of an unsuccessful attempt to induce the horse to take nourishment Mr. Burnett turned the horse into the pasture. It ran no sooner left the barn door than it ran straight for a quarter of a mile to the place where its mate was buried and fell dead. An examination showed that an artery near the heart was burst.

Charged With Series of Burglaries.

Kendall.—The proprietor of a saloon and boarding house at Union Center, with his wife and two men, transients, were arrested at Union Center and taken to jail at Mauston to await examination in connection with a series of burglaries in this neighborhood. A. H. Assmus, a general dealer here, went to Union Center and picked out a quantity of furs stolen from his store the night of Nov. 2. Goods of all kinds were found secreted in almost every part of the building taken from stores here, at La Valle and elsewhere.

CLOSE GOTHAM BANK

INSTITUTION IN HANDS OF AUTHORITIES "FOR BENEFIT OF DEPOSITORS."

IRREGULARITIES CHARGED

Northern Bank of New York Has Nine Branches and Aggregate Deposits of $6,912,582—Director Is Committed to Asylum.

New York.—The Northern bank of New York, with deposits in its nine branches of $6,912,582, has been closed by O. H. Cheaney, state superintendent of banks "for the benefit of the depositors," because of "certain conditions" and "certain irregular transactions."

Joseph G. Robin, chairman of the executive committee of the bank and a shareholder and director in many other corporations, is in a private sanitarium at Central Valley, N. Y., to which he was committed by Justice Amend of the State Supreme court. James H. Gifford of counsel for the bank and one of its directors, stated that Robin's case had been diagnosed as acute mania and that Robin had tried to kill himself in his apartments.

Mr. Gifford and another director visited him at his apartments here in an effort to obtain collateral.

"After the irregularities had been discovered," says Mr. Gifford, "another director and myself went to the apartments of Mr. Robin. He was in great agony from kidney trouble and it was plain to be seen that he was out of his mind. We could not get a connected statement from him. It was plain that he did not realize the seriousness of our mission. His mental condition was awful. He was suffering from mania and I understand that, after being examined by alienists, he was sent to a private sanitarium."

LOCK NEGRO IN BANK SAFE

West Virginia Officers Thwart Mob Seeking to Lynch Prisoner—Troops Called Out.

Weston, W. Va.—William Furby, a negro, for hours was between two fires—death at the hands of a mob or suffocation in the iron vault of the express office at the local railway station. Outside the little building a crowd of several hundred persons waited from afternoon until late into the night, demanding the life of the prisoner for alleged assaults upon and an attempt to murder Miss Flora Anglin, daughter of a prominent farmer.

While the mob waited a large squad of special deputies and the sheriffs guarded the express office and kept the negro locked in the large express safe, where he had little air to breathe. For hours the crowd waited, but for want of a leader it failed to move with sufficient force to dislodge the deputies and take possession of the express room. They stormed the place several times, breaking all the windows and forcing open the doors, but were unable to gain access to the safe.

An order was issued calling the state militia to the scene on special trains.

Martin and eight other public officials of this city were arrested on indictments by the Lake county grand jury. White, president of the board of public safety; Street Commissioner Patrick Finerty, and Police Capts. John Mulcahey and Gastav Newman. With the exception of the mayor and Finerty, all are charged with attempts to incite riots or unlawfully to enter election booths, in addition to conspiracy to commit a felony.

WHERE INDIANS PROGRESS

Making Considerable Success as Farmers on Reservation in South Dakota.

The Indians on the Sisseton reservation in the northwestern portion of South Dakota are making rapid progress in civilization. This is borne out by the statements of Major S. A. Allen, the reservation agent, who says that while fully 75 per cent of the reservation Indians are full bloods 65 per cent of them have become agriculturists and have proved themselves thrifty and fairly successful as farmers.

There are about 2,000 redskins on the reservation, which is 80 miles long and 40 miles wide. Of this amount of land the Indians have been allotted about 400,000 acres, while the remainder is now in the hands of the whites.

From this land the Indians this year raised approximately 100,000 bushels of wheat, 78,000 bushels of oats, 40,000 bushels of corn and 4,000 bushels of flax. Their fair, held during three days of October, will compare favorably with any white man's country fair in South Dakota. Included in the exhibits were ninety exhibits of small grain, forty of corn and a large number of vegetables. In addition fine showings were made of cattle, horses, hogs, sheep, chickens and other products of the farm.

There are thirteen churches on the reservation, the Episcopal, Presbyterian and Catholic denominations predominating. During the last two years 125 good farmhouses have been built. The Indians are in the main virtuous, self-respecting and show a remarkable affinity for civilization, the only drawback to their advancement, according to Major Allen, being their fondness for liquor, which is sometimes supplied them by bootleggers despite the most strenuous efforts of the government to keep the liquor dispensers out of reach of the Indians.—Aberdeen correspondence Omaha Bee.

"I know him."

"I'll bet he's smashed 20 cigars for me—some o' thim clear Havannys—but I'll get even with him now."

"How will ye do it?"

"I'll tell ye. Jim always hits me over the vest pocket where I carry me cigars. He'll hit me there just once more. There's no cigars in me vest pocket this mornin'. Instead of it there's a stick of dynamite, d'ye mind?"

The Uses of Adversity.

Still another advantage of being in moderate circumstances, such as an editor's for instance, is that you can always assist the processes of thought by absent-mindedly cutting the fringe off your cuffs.

Just as Guilty.

PRAYER IS WITHOUT RESULT

Boy's Patience Is Exhausted After Frequent Petitions to Throne of Grace.

A young man who is prominent in church work in Philadelphia tells this about his nephew:

Harold is the youngster's name, and next door lives another boy by the name of Dewey. They are each seven years old, and like most children of their age are disposed to get into mischief as often as possible. Several days ago they found a man's coat lying on the front pavement while the owner was fixing a gas main. From the pockets of the coat the two boys abstracted several tickets, and when Harold's mother found it out she made him return the tickets and explained the sin which he had committed, warning him to pray that he be forgiven that night. He obeyed, and while on his knees added a prayer for Dewey as well.

The next night Harold's mother was in the next room when he said his prayers, and she heard him ask God to forgive Dewey for stealing a piece of cake. On the following evening he again was moved to ask forgiveness for his friend, this time for stealing three pieces of candy. Apparently his patience was exhausted, for the next evening his mother was in the adjoining room when he offered his evening prayer, and this is what she heard:

"Gosh darn it, God, I have done the best I could for Dewey. I guess you will have to watch him yourself."—Philadelphia Record.

HIRAM CARPENTER'S WONDERFUL CURE OF PSORIASIS.

"I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s, psoriasis, and others leprosy, commencing on my scalp; and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. — treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; feet badly swollen; toe-nails came off; finger-nails dead and hard as a bone; hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. O my God! how I did suffer.

"My sister wouldn't give up, said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was applied to one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got Cuticura Resolvent, Ointment and Soap. I commenced by taking Cuticura Resolvent three times a day after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. Hiram E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. Y."

The above remarkable testimonial was written January 19, 1880, and is republished because of the permanency of the cure. Under date of April 22, 1910, Mr. Carpenter wrote from his present home, 610 Walnut St. So., Lansing, Mich.: "I have never suffered a return of the psoriasis and although many years have passed I have not forgotten the terrible suffering I endured before using the Cuticura Remedies."

MONEY DID IT.

"Since Boozen inherited a million I suppose he's a worse drunkard than ever."

"Oh! no. He's a dipsomaniac."

FIRE KILLS 34

LIVES WIPE OUT WHILE FIGHTING FLAMES IN CHICAGO STOCKYARDS.

CHIEF HORAN AMONG DEAD

RESCUERS FACE FEARFUL ODDS TO RECOVER BODIES OF COMRADES.

Tornado of Flame Sweeps Morris Plant, Leaving Death and Ruin in Its Wake—Explosion of Ammonia Traps Firemen, Burying Them Under Tons of Wreckage—Loss Heavy.

Chicago.—Fire Chief James Horan and 30 members of his fire-fighting force were killed while engaged in an onslaught against a tornado of flame that swept into rubbish the new beef-house of the packing plant of Morris & Co., at the Union stockyards.

News Spread; Great Crowd.
The news spread over Chicago like wildfire that the fire chief had been killed surrounded by a squad of his heroes, who perished with him. Messages of sympathy and concern flew over the telephone and telegraph wires.

The biggest crowd that ever was known to collect in the stockyards at one time witnessed the struggles of the firemen after daybreak and the spreading of the news of the fire and its fatalities.

Watchman Discovers Fire.
A watchman who was making his rounds through the structure discovered the fire. He saw flames in what is known as the hide storeroom in the basement. He at once telephoned an alarm and fled from the building. The flames spread rapidly and with the arrival of the first companies of firemen a general alarm was sounded which brought over 15 companies of firemen to the scene.

Fire broke out at 4 a. m. and a spectacular battle with the flames ensued until, at 5 a. m., a terrific explosion of ammonia in the beef cold storage section of the building sent a heavy canopy crashing down on a squad of firemen who were directing their operations from a loading platform.

Send Many Calls for Help.
The fatalities all occurred in one place on the loading platform. When the blaze first was discovered and an alarm turned in the first of the fire department forces to arrive on the scene sent in a 4-11 call for help. Following this came special call after special call, until fifty streams of water were trained on the blaze.

A stubborn fight occurred between the flames and the firemen. The fire spread to many parts of the building despite the efforts of the men who sought to check it.

Sharp Blast, Then Death.
The fight had continued for an hour when the crash came. Away up in the roof of the structure, near a point directly over the loading platform on which stood Fire Chief Horan, Lieutenant Fitzgerald and nearly a score of others, there was a sudden, sharp, loud report like the instantaneous rending of a high-pressure boiler.

Portions of the masonry of the building fell away like a child's house of toy building blocks. A large part of this fell on the canopy over the loading platform, tearing the latter away and bearing it to the platform itself, which was crushed like an eggshell, with its human freight of fire-fighting men.

There were scores of firemen standing on the outskirts of where the bricks fell. Many of these were injured, some of them painfully.

Chief's Body Recovered.
Fire Chief Horan's body was recovered after repeated efforts to move the smoldering debris under which he was buried and removed to the home of his brother, Daniel J. Horan, Sixty-first street and Prairie avenue.

The flames spread so rapidly that the firemen were powerless to save the plant. The entire stockyards district was threatened.

The fire was the most disastrous that the department has had to contend with since the Iroquois fire and the holocaust at the Seventy-first street crib.

News of the fire and explosion spread rapidly through the stockyards district and friends and relatives of the firemen gathered around the building, imploring the fire fighters for news of their friends. Policemen from a number of neighboring stations were taxed to keep them from running into the burning building.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Dec. 22.—Fire destroyed the cornmeal mill and package department of the Great Western Cereal company's plant. The loss is $50,000.

One From the Cashier.
The harmless customer leaned across the cigar counter and smiled engagingly at the new cashier. As he handed across the amount his dinner check called for he ventured a bit of aimless converse, for he was of that sort.

"Funny," said he, "how easy it is to spend money."

"Well," snapped the cashier as she fed his fare to the register, "if money was intended for you to hold on to the mint would be turning out coins with aadles on 'em."

Had Money in Lumps.
Charles H. Rosenberg of Bavaria had lumps on his shoulders, elbows, and hips when he arrived here from Hamburg on the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. In fact, there was a series of smaller lumps along his spine, much like a mountain range, as it is presented on a bas-relief map.

The lumps were about the size of good Oregon apples, and as Rosenberg passed before the immigration doctor for observation, the doctor said softly to himself, "See that lump." Then he asked Mr. Rosenberg to step aside.

"You seem like a healthy man," said the doctor, "but I cannot pass you until I know the origin of those lumps on your body." "Ah, it is not a sickness," laughed the man from Bavaria. "Those swellings is money."

Taking off his coat he broke open a sample lump and showed that it contained $500 in American bank notes. He informed the doctor that he was going to purchase an apple orchard in Oregon.

He was admitted to the country.—New York Tribune.

Why He Laughed.
Miss Mattie belonged to the old south, and she was entertaining a guest of distinction.

On the morning following his arrival she told Tillie, the little colored maid, to take a pitcher of fresh water to Mr. Firman's room, and to say that Miss Mattie sent him compliments, and that if he wanted a bath, the bathroom was at his service.

When Tillie returned she said: "I tol' him, Miss Mattie, en' he laughed fit to bus' himself."

"Why did he laugh, Tillie?"

"I dunno."

"What did you tell him?"

"Jus' what you tol' me to."

"Tillie, tell me exactly what you said."

"I banged de doah, and I said, 'Mr. Firman, Miss Mattie sends you her lub, and she says, 'Now you can get up and wash yo'self.'—Lippincott's Magazine.

Where He Was Queer.
The negro, on occasions, displays a fine discrimination in the choice of words.

"Who's the best white-washer in town?" inquired the new resident.

"Ale Hall am a bo'nd a'tist with a whitewash brush, sah," answered the colored patriarch eloquently.

"Well, tell him to come and whitewash my chicken house tomorrow."

Uncle Jacob shook his head dubiously.

"Ah don' believe, sah, ah'd engage Ale Hall to whitewash a chicken house, sah."

"Why, didn't you say he was a good whitewasher?"

"Yes, sah, a powerful good whitewasher, sah; but mighty queer about a chicken house, sah, mighty queer!" —Mack's National Monthly.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND.
If you'll make up your mind to be contented with your lot And with the optimists agree That trouble's soon forgot, You'll be surprised to find, I guess, Despite misfortune's darts, What constant springs of happiness Lie hid in human hearts; What sunny gleams and golden dreams The passing years unfold, How soft and warm the loveliest beams When you are growing old.

The League of Politeness.
The League of Politeness has been formed in Berlin. It aims at inculcating better manners among the people of Berlin. It was founded upon the initiative of Fraulein Cecile Meyer, who was inspired by an existing organization in Rome. In deference to the parent organization the Berlin league has chosen the Italian motto, "Pro gentilezza." This will be emblazoned upon an attractive little medal worn where Germans are accustomed to wear the insignia of orders. The idea is that a glance at the "talisman" will annihilate any inclination to indulge in bad temper or discourteous language. "Any polite person" is eligible for membership.

Those who recall Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard" will remember that the per'ful spot where "the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep" is identified with St. Giles', Stoke Poges, Buckinghamshire. A "Weekly" printed some criticisms of the claims made for our foods. It evidently did not fancy our reply printed in various newspapers, and brought suit for libel. At the trial some interesting facts came out.

Some of the chemical and medical experts differed widely.

The following facts, however, were quite clearly established:

Analysis of brain by an unquestionable authority, Geoghegan, shows of Mineral Salts, Phosphoric Acid and Potash combined (Phosphate of Potash), 2.91 per cent of the total, 5.33 of all Mineral Salts.

This is over one-half.

Beauvais, another authority, shows "Phosphoric Acid combined" and Potash 73.44 per cent from a total of 101.07.

Considerable more than one-half of Phosphate of Potash.

Analysis of Grape-Nuts shows: Potassium and Phosphorus, (which join and make Phosphate of Potash), is considerable more than one-half of all the mineral salts in the food.

Dr. Geo. W. "Gosh! But the colored race is a-comin' to the front fast!" whispered innocent Uncle Hiram, at the vaudeville show, as the black-face comedian was boisterously applauded.

Lo, the Rich Indian.
The per capita wealth of the Indian is approximately $2,130, that for other Americans is only a little more than $1,300. The lands owned by the Indians are rich in oil, timber and other natural resources of all kinds. Some of the best timber land in the United States is owned by Indians.

The value of their agricultural lands runs up in the millions. The ranges which they possess support about 600,000 sheep and cattle, owned by lessees, bringing in a revenue of more than $272,000 to the various tribes besides providing feed for more than 1,500,000 head of horses, cattle, sheep and goats belonging to the Indians themselves. Practically the only asphalt deposits in the United States are on Indian lands.—Red Man.

"Slip me a brace of cackles!" ordered the chesty-looking man with a bored air, as he perched on the first stool in the luncheon room.

"A what?" asked the waitress, as she placed a glass of water before him.

"Adam and Eve flat on their backs! A pair of sunnysiders!" said the young man in an exasperated tone.

"You got me, kid," returned the waitress. "Watcha want?"

"Eggs up," said the young man. "E-g-g-s," the kind that come before the hen or after, I never knew which."

"Why didn't you say so in the first place?" asked the waitress. "You'd a had 'em by this time."

"Well, of all things—" said the young man.

"I knew what he was drivin' at all the time," began the waitress as the young man departed. "But he's one of them fellers that thinks they can get by with anything. He don't know that they're using plain English now in restaurants."

Of course, there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve fluid, but Potassium Phosphate is the chief factor, and has the power within itself to attract, by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life."

Further on he says: "The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form, exactly as nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies—this is the only law of cure."

The natural conclusion is that if Phosphate of Potash is the needed mineral element in brain and you use food which does not contain it, you have brain lag because its daily loss is not supplied.

On the contrary, if you eat food known to be rich in this element, you place before the life forces that which nature demands for brain-building.

In the trial a sneer was uttered because Mr. Post announced that he had made years of research in this country and some clinics of Europe, regarding the effect of the mind on digestion of food.

But we must be patient with those who sneer at facts they know nothing about.

Mind does not work well on a brain that is broken down by lack of nourishment.

A peaceful and evenly poised mind is necessary to good digestion.

Worry, anxiety, fear, hate, &c., &c., directly interfere with or stop the flow of Pyloric, the digestive juice of the mouth, and also interfere with the flow of the digestive juices of stomach and pancreas.

Therefore, the mental state of the individual has much to do (more than suspected) with digestion.

Economy.
The late former Governor Allen D. Candler of Georgia was famous in the south for his quaint humor.

"Governor Candler," said a Gainesville man, "once abandoned cigars for a pipe at the beginning of the year. He stuck to his resolve till the year's end. Then he was heard to say: 'By actual calculation, I have saved by smoking a pipe instead of cigars this year $208. But where is it?'"

Moslem Traditions.
Ramadan is the month exalted by Moslems above all others. In that month the Koran—according to Moslem tradition—was brought down by Gabriel from heaven and delivered to men in small sections. In that month, Mohammed was accustomed to retire from Mecca to the cave of Hira, for prayer and meditation. In that month Abraham, Moses and other prophets received their divine revelations. In that month the "doors of heaven are always open, the passages to hell are shut, and the devils are chained." So run the traditions.—The Christian Herald.

A Medical Compromise.
"You had two doctors in consultation last night, didn't you?"

"Yes."

"What did they say?"

"Well, one recommended one thing and the other recommended something else."

"A deadlock, eh?"

"No, they finally told me to mix 'em!"

Hard on the Mare.
Twice, as the bus slowly wended its way up the steep Cumberland Gap, the door at the rear opened and slammed. At first those inside paid little heed; but the third time demanded to know why they should be disturbed in this fashion.

"Whist," cautioned the driver, "don't spake so loud; she'll overhear us."

"Who?"

"The mare. Spake low! Shure, O'm deavin' th' crature. Every time she 'ears th' door close, she thinks won' o' yez is gettin' down ter walk up th' hill, an' that sort o' raises her sperrits."—Success Magazine.

How She Learned.
The mother of a family of three small children was discussing their comparative precocity with a friend.

"John was very slow at everything," she said, referring to her oldest. "Tom was a little better, and Edith, the baby, is the smartest of all. She picks up everything quick as can be."

Master John, who had been listening, now contributed his share of the conversation.

"Humph!" he exclaimed. "I know why her learns so quick. It's 'cause her has us and we didn't have us."

Exaggeration.
On her arrival in New York Mme. Sara Bernhardt, replying to a compliment on her youthful appearance, said: "The secret of my youth? It is the good God—and then, you know, I work all the time. But I am a great-grandmother," she continued, thoughtfully, "so how can these many compliments be true? I am afraid my friends are exaggerating."

Mme. Bernhardt's laugh, spontaneous as a girl's, prompted a chorus of "No, no!"

"Yes," said the actress, "unconscious exaggeration, like the French nurse on the boulevard. Our boulevards are much more crowded than your streets, you know, and, although we have numerous accidents, things aren't quite as bad as the nurse suggested."

"Her little charge, a boy of six, begged her to stop a while in a crowd, surrounding an automobile accident. 'Please wait,' the little boy said, 'Want to see the man who was run over.' 'No; hurry,' his nurse answered. 'There will be plenty more to see further on.'"

A Retraction.
"You shouldn't have called that man a pig," said the conciliatory man.

"That's right," replied the vindictive person. "There is no sense in implying that he's worth 40 cents a pound to anybody."

Blissful Ignorance.
"Were you nervous when you proposed to your wife?" asked the sentimental person.

"No," replied Mr. Meekton; "but if I could have foreseen the next ten years I would have been."

Economy in Art.
"Of course," said Mr. Sirius Barker, "I want my daughter to have some sort of an artistic education. I think I'll have her study singing."

"Why not art or literature?"

"Art spoils canvas and paint and literature wastes reams of paper. Singing merely produces a temporary disturbance of the atmosphere."

Home Thought.
"It must have been frightful," said Mrs. Bossim to her husband, who was in the earthquake. "Tell me what was your first thought when you awakened in your room at the hotel and heard the alarm?"

"My first thought was of you," answered Mr. Bossim.

"How noble!"

"Yes. First thing I knew, a vase off the mantel caught me on the ear; then a chair whirled in my direction, and when I jumped to the middle of the room four or five books and a framed picture struck me all at once."

Even after saying that, he affected to wonder what made her so angry for the remainder of the evening.—Mack's National Monthly.

New Process of Staining Glass.
The art of coloring glass has been lost and refound, jealously guarded and maliciously stolen so many times in the history of civilization that it seems almost impossible to say anything new on glass staining. Yet a process has been discovered for making the stained glass used in windows which is a departure from anything known at the present time. What the Venetians and the Phoenicians knew of it we cannot tell.

The glass first receives its design in mineral colors and the whole is then fired in a heat so intense that the coloring matter and the glass are indissolubly fused. The most attractive feature of this method is that the surface acquires a peculiar pebbled character in the heat, so that when the glass is in place the lights are delightfully soft and mellow.

In making a large window in many shades each panel is separately moulded and bent and the sections are assembled in a metal frame.

Our Voices.
I think our conversational soprano, as sometimes overheard in the cars, arising from a group of young persons who have taken the train at one of our great industrial centers, for instance, young persons of the female sex, we will say, who have bustled in full dressed, engaged in loud, strident speech, and who, after free discussion, have fixed on two or more double seats, which having secured, they proceeded to eat apples and hand round daguerotypes—I say, I think the conversational soprano, heard under these circumstances, would not be among the allurements the old enemy would put in requisition were he getting up a new temptation of St. Anthony.

There are sweet voices among us, we all know, and voices not musical, it may be, to those who hear them for the first time, yet sweeter to us than any we shall hear until we listen to some warbling angel in the overture to that eternity of blissful harmonies we hope to enjoy. But why should I tell lies? If my friends love me, it is because I try to tell the truth. I never heard but two voices in my life that frightened me by their sweetness.—Holmes.

What About Brain Food?

This Question Came Up in the Recent Trial for Libel.

This trial has demonstrated:

That Brain is made of Phosphate of Potash
as the principal Mineral Salt, added to albumen and water.

That Grape-Nuts contains that element as more than one-half of all its mineral salts.

A healthy brain is important, if one would "do things" in this world.

A man who sneers at "Mind" sneers at the best and least understood part of himself. That part which some folks believe links us to the Infinite.

Mind asks for a healthy brain upon which to act, and Nature has defined a way to make a healthy brain and renew it day by day as it is used up from work of the previous day.

Nature's way to rebuild is by the use of food which supplies the things required.
