WHAT STATE MUST DO TO KEEP TOURISTS

By F. A. Cannon
Secretary Wisconsin Lakes and Parks Association

A few years before his death, President Chas. R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin made a prediction which is becoming more and more significant every day. He discussed the fact that just as parks are an imperative necessity to large communities, so the state parks will become a necessity. At that time he said a large part of the area of Wisconsin was practically a free territory used by the people as they desired, but that in the future, when the state becomes more densely populated, state parks will become a necessity. At that time he said a large part of the area of Wisconsin was practically a free territory used by the people as they desired, but that in the future, when the state becomes more densely populated, state parks will become a necessity.

Recent developments make that statement almost prophetic. The beauty of Wisconsin is either being destroyed by the hand of man or fast falling into private ownership. This is especially true of our lake and forest lands. In lower Wisconsin the lake country is being rapidly encroached upon by the hand of man or fast falling into private ownership. This is especially true of our lake and forest lands. In lower Wisconsin the lake country is being rapidly encroached upon by the hand of man or fast falling into private ownership.

The state of Wisconsin is today in the same position as our large cities. The Illinois Central Railroad occupies the lake front in Chicago and the city of Chicago is now spending millions of dollars building a new lake front outside the Chicago and Northwestern national tracks. It must be remembered that on the inland lake new lake frontage cannot be built once lost it is practically lost forever.

There are many beauty spots in Wisconsin. Naturally the tendency of tourists is and will be to visit them to the lake and forest regions of the north. These beauty spots, however, will benefit all parts of the state. In the north, however, lake shore frontage is rapidly falling into the hands of private owners and the same "Private Property—Keep Off" sign is appearing.

The tremendous increase in the number of motor vehicles, there are 225,000 in Wisconsin, and 500,000 in Illinois, and the increased highways, are increasing the number of tourists by many thousands. This means that practically all the upper Wisconsin lake frontage will be private holdings and the general public will be barred. If we wish to have the tourist business we must act and conserve some of the beauty spots of the state, especially those in upper Wisconsin which will soon be lost to lakes and forest are what lure the tourists. We have no state park in the lake and forest region of Wisconsin, and it is our duty to create some because of historic interest, three of them are of beautiful geological formations, and one overlooks the blue waters of Lake Michigan.

The impetus and energy which led to organization of the Wisconsin Lakes and Parks Association were the facts cited above—to conserve Wisconsin's beauty spots before too late. Its first effort will be to put on a campaign to raise a fund to purchase the Northern Lakes Park on the boundary of Price and Sawyer counties to present to the state for park purposes. A bill making an appropriation for its purchase was passed by an overwhelming vote in the legislature and vetoed by the Governor. The virgin forest in the park is in danger of immediate destruction, as the ring of the woodman's axe is heard at its border, and the logging railroad has been laid into the park. It is a beautiful tract of 8,000 acres of old forest, with two lakes in the center miles of the Flambeau River. If not saved now, it will be lost.

If successful in this effort the movement will be pushed to secure other beauty spots, through a campaign of education, building up a sentiment which will result in the state adopting a constructive policy.

A beginning must be made. Because of the beauty of this spot, the immediate danger that it will be logged and that it has been given wide spread publicity throughout the state through the campaign made when the bill to purchase it was pending in the legislature, the beginning was made here. It is a movement that should appeal to everyone in Wisconsin. If we wish to get the tourist business we must provide the attractive spots for the tourists.

8000 TEACHERS SIGN FOR PENSION
Eight thousand Wisconsin school teachers are expected to be enrolled in the 1922 teachers retirement fund as provided for and changed by the last legislature. R. J. Loveland, executive secretary of the teachers project, who is in charge of the reorganization of the fund, announced today.

These 88,000 school teachers all of whom are under 25, Loveland estimated, and so are not eligible to and will not be affected by the provisions of the bill which inaugurated the fund. Payments by teachers into the fund in 1922 are expected to reach $500,000, and in 1923 after the fund is well under way, preparations are being made to handle around $1,000,000 from the teachers.

Ten thousand of the state's school-rooms are under 25, Loveland estimated, and so are not eligible to and will not be affected by the provisions of the bill which inaugurated the fund. Payments by teachers into the fund in 1922 are expected to reach $500,000, and in 1923 after the fund is well under way, preparations are being made to handle around $1,000,000 from the teachers.

SILVER WEDDING
Rev. and Mrs. H. Erber of Fillmore observed their silver wedding anniversary last Thursday, Jan. 5. A celebration in grand style was arranged by the ladies' aid society of St. Martin's congregation of Fillmore and the St. Paul's congregation of Waubesa, of which Rev. Erber is pastor. It was an event of rejoicing and thanksgiving, in which the two congregations joined. Both choirs sang beautiful songs, and the honored couple received many valuable presents.

Rev. Erber for many years has been pastor of both Evangelical congregations, and he and his wife have endeavored themselves to both, of which the celebration was the best and happiest proof.—West Bend News.

Rev. and Mrs. Erber are well known in this village and vicinity, having at one time been residents of Kewaskum during which time the Reverend was pastor of the Ev. Peace congregation. Their many friends here extend heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for continued health and happiness, so they may celebrate their golden wedding anniversary 25 years hence.

SHIP CATTLE TO CALIFORNIA
Two carloads, 41 head, of Washington county high grade Holsteins are on their way to California since Monday, having been purchased by C. K. Abbott of Burr Farms, Los Angeles, during his stay in the county since a shipment of cattle was made in December. This is the sixth carload of cattle to be shipped to the Burr Farms, the Washington county Holsteins are wanted in other states. The forty-one head of cattle purchased for this shipment amounted to more than $4,500.00, which brings the total of cattle shipped from the county during the past two years to more than $85,000. Since Nov. 1st, 1921, about $18,000 worth of cattle has been shipped from this county.

BIG FARMERS' MEETING JAN. 16

A meeting which promises to be very enjoyable and instructive for farmers of this vicinity is announced by the local Ford dealers, the Kewaskum Motor Company, for Monday, January 16th, at 1:30 p. m., at the Opera House. Three speakers who are known all over the state as authorities on Power Farming have been secured and interest in their talks will be increased by moving pictures on agricultural subjects. Some really remarkable pictures of the germination and growth of seeds will be shown.

To add spice to the occasion the Kewaskum Motor Company will give away absolutely free the following prizes to men and women attending the meeting:
Ladies' Prize—Vacuum Sweeper.
First Gents' Prize—30x3 1/2 non-skid tire.
Second Gents' Prize—1 pair of 20x 3 1/2 tires.

ALMA MATER WILSON FUND
The Woodrow Wilson Foundation fund of $1,000,000 or more, soon to be raised by free will offerings throughout the country, is not to be given to Woodrow Wilson, as some have mistakenly inferred. Mr. Wilson is to get no part of it.

The $1,000,000 or more, are to be invested in United States bonds and the income from that investment, which will amount to at least $50,000.00 a year, will be given to the individual who has rendered the most distinguished public service in promoting the welfare of the human race.

While it is a great honor conferred upon Mr. Wilson to have such a prize named after him, it means nothing to him in dollars and cents. This movement might be looked upon as sectional in the highest sense. The prize goes each year to reward "meritorious services to democracy, public welfare, liberal thought or peace through justice."

Another error that has arisen is that only those who give $100 or more are to be enrolled as donors. This is a mistake for every man, woman and child that gives anything at all to the fund will become a founder of the Wilson Prize. It is not confined to the well to do, but open to all who want to be a part of this great historic movement. A certificate will be issued to every donor showing that he has been enrolled as a founder of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. This certificate will be highly prized in many a household in the years to come for the Wilson Prize will arouse human interest annually as long as our nation endures.

DEATH OF HY. KLUMB SR. "SKINNY" O'CONNOR MOBBED BY CROWD

Again it becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of another well known and highly respected citizen of this community, when the grim reaper, death, called away from the family circle Henry Klumb Sr., of the town of Barton, aged 65 years, after a short illness with an attack of appendicitis, last week Friday evening, January 6, 1922. Mr. Klumb was born November 21, 1856 in the town of Barton, where he resided all his life. On May 11, 1883, he was married to Miss Louise Rosenthal. This union was blessed with six children, five of whom survive and whose names are: Hugo of Rochester, Wis., Amanda (Mrs. Emil Proeber), Edwin, Alvin and Claudia (Mrs. Edward Proeber), all of the town of Barton. One daughter, Alma, died in infancy. In 1895 his first wife passed away in death, and in February 11, 1896, he entered his second marriage to Mrs. Wilhelmina Fick. Eight children were born of this union. One son died in infancy. The living are: Louise (Mrs. Oscar Fick) of the town of Addison, and John, Anna and Margaret of the town of Barton. Besides his wife and eight children, five sisters, Mrs. Jacob Proeber, five sons, Mrs. John H. Martin of Kewaskum, Mrs. Charles Wickelmaier of Milwaukee, Mrs. Werner of West Bend, and Mrs. Christopher Kieppman of Kewaskum, he was also the father of three sons and six grand children.

Mr. Klumb was a pioneer citizen of the town of Barton, where he was known as a leader in his community. He toiled hard to clear the land on which he resided and which he developed into one of the best farms in that community. He was a man of honest integrity, a devoted husband and father bringing up a large family in a most creditable manner. His death will be greatly felt by those nearest to him. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon with services in the St. Peters Lutheran church in the town of Addison, Wis. Interment was made in the congregation's cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Fred Baumgartner, Wm. Prost, Peter Kirchner, Otto Donn, Ernst Rosenthal and John Kuehl. The casket was borne to the church by the largest ever held at the St. Peter's church. Many attending from Jackson, Cedar Creek, Cedar Lake, West Bend, Hartford, Allenton, Kohlsville, Wayne, Barton and Kewaskum.

RAID "CRAP" GAME
Chief of Police Beckmann and two Milwaukee detectives raided a "crap" game in progress at one of the local saloons last Saturday night. One of the detectives was playing in the game, unknown to some of our local dice shooters, who even persuaded him to shoot for higher stakes. Twelve were arrested in the raid and their cases will be heard by Justice Blank. Chief of Police Beckmann informs The News that he was somewhat disappointed in the raid because the men sought for, Milwaukee men, who the chief says, have been "banking" the game, were not at the rendezvous on Saturday night.—Cedarburg News.

ALUMINUMS WIN AND LOSE GREAT PROGRESS IN ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Before a large and excited crowd of fans, the Kewaskum Aluminum basketball team defeated the Regner Drugs of West Bend last Sunday afternoon by a score of 9 to 19. The game was close from the start to within the last few minutes of play when the locals came back strong and caged a group of baskets that cinched the game. The West Bend players showed a noticeable improvement in their method of playing; over their preceding games, and surely did give the locals a run for their money. The visitors were the first to score when Kugler made a field goal, and shortly thereafter shortly afterwards by Jack Tessa, who was the first to score for the locals. Spatz Miller soon followed with another basket which was tied shortly afterwards by Peters. Frankenburg of the Regner Drugs made a long shot, giving the visitors a lead until close to the last half when Spatz Miller tied the score 6 to 6, at the end of the half.

At the close of this half, it could be plainly seen that the West Bend five had been doing some hard practice, while the locals were off color, being far from playing their usual stellar game. The second half started with a rush, the locals staged a strong come back and held the visitors down to three points. The locals started the second half with two field goals, after which the Aluminum started to show some class and were successful in getting a number of field goals giving them a safe lead, until the final whistle blew.

On Wednesday evening the locals journeyed to Beaver Dam to play the American Legion team of that place, meeting with an overwhelming defeat of 8 to 25. The first half ended 4 to 20 in favor of Beaver Dam. The locals were at a loss in this half to stop their opponents from scoring, as they seemed to get field goals from any angle of the ball. An exciting drive out of bounds game which the locals are not used to made it difficult for them to break up the visitors team work. In the second half the locals fared better, holding their opponents down to five points. From reports made by the locals the locals should have won the game by a wide margin, but lack of being able to make field goals, lost the game for them. Time and again the Aluminum shot for the basket but all chances of scoring were lost by not shooting accurately.

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon, the Aluminum go to Slinger to back up with the strong team of that place. The Slinger aggregation is a strong outfit, holding the county championship for a number of years, and this year are out to prove their ability as county champions by trying to defeat our boys. The local are determined to win, and will try their utmost to get the trick that will spell victory for them. A large number of fans from this village and community are planning to accompany them and help cheer and spur them on to victory.

On Sunday, Jan. 22 the locals will play the Hartford Service Battery team a return game on the local floor.

HEPPE PIRATES WIN
The Heppie Pirates nosed out of a 7 to 16 victory over Boltonville at the local Opera House on Thursday evening. The game was a thriller from start to finish, but the Pirates lay hard to gain a lead, but to no avail as both teams were evenly matched. The first half ended a tie 10 to 10. In the second half the Boltonville five was first to score, the score however, was immediately tied by the locals. This half was a nip and tuck reposition all the way through. The Boltonville team is a fast aggregation and in a short time ought to be able to stack up against some of the strongest teams of this vicinity.

U. S. VETERANS' BUREAU UN-DETECTING CLEAN-UP DRIVE IN HOSPITALS
Chicago, Jan. 10—By order of the Director of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau a Hospital Clean-up Drive is being instituted in every district of the Bureau throughout the entire country. This drive is to find and remove from the same lines as the general Clean-up campaign which is now drawing to a close. Representatives of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau will go into every hospital and institution in this District (Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin), for the purpose of assisting the ex-service men in those hospitals to file new compensation claims and to secure adjudication of claims previously filed.

By means of this drive, it is hoped to clear up two kinds of compensation claims of disabled ex-service men; first to assist the men who have not already filed claims to do so and to secure speedy adjudication of same. Second to clean up all compensation claims of hospitalized ex-service men not receiving temporary total awards since date of hospitalization and claims on which award is withheld for a period of time. There is then set aside $158,000 for the Bureau of the state highway department. Settling aside $750,000 for State trunk highway maintenance would leave a balance June 30th, 1922 of $29,000. This amount would be used to meet half the federal aid allotted to Wisconsin and an equal amount in the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1923. By this arrangement the federal fund could be met in a two year period instead of one and a somewhat modified program carried on.

During this special hospital campaign the Bureau will endeavor to bring every hospital case currently up to date.

All ex-service men now in hospitals and in institutions and relatives or friends of these men are urged to see to it that claims falling under the above specifications are filed by men or for the men. Every hospital and institution in which there are ex-service men is being notified in advance of the date of the representative of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau.

"PEACE DOLLAR" AWAITED HERE
Up to the present time "Harding peace dollar", as it has been officially designated, has not appeared at any of the local banks. However, shipment will doubtless be made soon.

The dollar is about 1-32 of an inch thicker than the old silver dollars, but of the same diameter. The eagle, instead of having its wings spread, is sitting peacefully on the top of a mound marked "peace". The head of the goddess of liberty is on the reverse side with the inscription "Liberty". "In God We Trust" and the figures "1921" below the head.

The broken sword on the original design, has been omitted as authorities declared this was symbolical of a defeat.

BLANCHE BLAIR

THAT Tangle is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the cases of the three children shown in this picture.

Little Blanche Blair, of Providence, R. I., age 13, gained 10 pounds; Regina McCabe, at right, age 9, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; Little Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine, robust health. The statements made by their parents are as follows:

Mr. A. M. Blair, residing at 20 Atwood street, Providence, R. I., said: "We are just so happy over the change Tangle has made in our little girl that we can't do or say enough to show our appreciation. She had lost nearly 20 pounds in weight and looked so frail and weak that her mother and I were both almost worried sick over her condition. Since taking Tangle, she has already gained 10 pounds, her color is better than it ever has been, and she looks and acts like a different girl."

REGINA MCCABE and RICHARD LEARY, JR.

Mrs. Catherine McCabe, 414 Dickerson Ave., Scranton, Pa., said: "The 'ta' left my little Regina in such a bad condition that I have no idea she would be with me now if it hadn't been for Tangle. It is a mystery to me how she lived on the little she was eating and, as so lifeless she never even cared to play with the dolls and toys she got at Christmas. Since taking Tangle she is as hardy and well as any child could be and has gained 15 pounds in weight. I will always praise Tangle for restoring our little girl's health."

Richard Leary, 2342 Palethorpe St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Tangle saved my little boy's life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised to have seen him drop off at any time. He had stomach trouble and many a time the gas pressed up into his chest, until his heart palpitated so I thought sure he couldn't breathe but a few more gasps. But Tangle gave him back to us so strong and well and we will praise it to our dying day."

The effect of Tangle on the delicate stomachs of the young is one of the strongest evidences of its wholesomeness as well as its unusual merit. Although a powerful reconstructive, Tangle contains no harmful ingredients, minerals or opiates which are so often found in other medicines. Being composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science it is purely vegetable and can be taken by the most delicate children, and does not upset or injure the weakest or most delicate stomach.

There is a Tangle agent in every town.—Advertisement.

Living Room Important.
A living room of all rooms in the home is the most important, and one writer says: "Furnishing a living room is like starting out on a voyage of discovery." This room should be furnished with thought for the need and comfort of each individual member of the family. Give to the master of the household a comfortable freside chair, a table beside that chair on which he can place a paper, magazine, book or any other things that he may wish there; give him his own reading lamp and a comfortable stool in front of his chair.

No Scarcity.
"All the world's a stage."
"Yes, there's no scarcity of monologue artists."
"Wise is the woman with dark hair who does not make light of it."
It doesn't always pay to be good, and it never pays to be bad.

Monkey in a Muff.
A monkey was used by a clever woman thief to commit a series of thefts from jewelers' shops in Paris. The creature was so tiny that she carried it in a big muff. Then while its mistress was standing at such distance from the counter as disarmed suspicion, the monkey would thrust out a long, spider-like arm and snatch and conceal a ring or brooch. It was a sharp detective, hidden in a gallery above and watching with the aid of reflecting mirrors, who at last detected the trick.

Little Elsie—You may come if you wish, but I don't think it's polite to listen while I'm talking to someone else.
Laziness is the one thing that knocks all the conceit out of pride.

Pretty Things That are made at Home

THE pretty vogue for artificial flowers, as decorations for the home, seems to have come to stay. The shops are showing them in many varieties and often remarkably true to life made by those who have become expert in manufacturing millinery flowers. These same blossoms, varnished and stiffened with clear shellac, have the appearance of conventional "china" flowers, and they are immensely admired. But neither of these varieties exceeds in beauty those made at home of crepe paper—especially the well-loved garden flowers—as roses, poppies, hollyhocks, cosmos, chrysanthemums, that turn out most successfully in crepe paper. They are used just as natural flowers are, in vases or baskets. Sometimes these receptacles are made at home also, of paper rope. Two sprays of hollyhocks and a cluster of cosmos blossoms have been selected for illustration because they are startlingly life-like.

It is an old established custom to use baskets or plates of artificial fruits as a finishing touch to the furnishings of the dining or living room, and marvelous reproductions of them are offered in the stores. They are usually somewhat expensive imports. A few of these fruits can be made at home also, of such everyday, commonplace materials as cotton and sealing wax.

These fruits have cotton balls as foundation attached to short pieces of wire for stems. The cotton is covered with wax, heated to the point where it will run, and shaped by turning and modeling with the fingers while it cools. Several colors may be blended together in this way. After the fruit is shaped and cooled, it is heated again—not to the melting point, but enough to give it a glossy finish, and cooled by dipping it in cold water.

Tuxedos and Slip-Overs.

Either paper or millinery foliage is used with both fruit and flowers and wire is wound with green paper for the stems.
Roses, carnations, cosmos and chrysanthemums are made of crepe paper with such fidelity to the natural flowers that it is hard to distinguish between them at a little distance. The paper roses and carnations are sometimes scented with the perfume of these blossoms, adding something to the pleasure they give. Making them is fascinating work and they are so inexpensive that every house may be brightened by them. Fruits are a little more difficult for the amateurs, but they are lasting and will repay the experiment and the small investment in wire, paper, sealing wax and cotton.

Marshmallow Tarts.
Arrange marshmallows on thin round, unsweetened wafers, allowing one marshmallow for each wafer. With a sharp-pointed knife make two deep cuts at right angles across each marshmallow, and drop in one-fourth teaspoonful of butter. Arrange wafers in a dripping pan and heat in a moderate oven until marshmallows puff and spread, almost covering the wafers. Just before removing from the oven, press a candied cherry into the center of each cavity. Dispose on a dainty plate covered with a lace paper dolly. Serve with tea, cocoa or chocolate.

Crepe Gilette.
Among the new weaves in sheer fabrics is crepe gilette, which is said to combine the durability of georgette with desirable crepe quality of crepe chiffon. The colors are exquisite and are shown in a large range. The popular fuchsia tones are much in evidence. The poppy red is decidedly attractive.

MOTHER! OPEN CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Your little one will love the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" even if constipated, bilious, irritable, feverish, or full of cold. A teaspoonful never fails to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the sour bile, and undigested food out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

Now the "Hydro-Glider."
A new "hydro-glider" just completed on the west coast is described in Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is said to provide all the thrill and speed of a hydroplane gliding over the surface of the ocean. In fact, it amounts practically to a flying boat without wings, and is driven over the surface of the water by an air-propeller motor at a speed of sixty miles an hour.

Utilizing a Calumny.
"Your enemies are now saying that you eat with your knife and use bad grammar."
"Don't contradict 'em," cautioned Senator Sorghum. "Out our way a great many people do the same thing, and the effect will be to convince 'em that I am not trying to act stylish or pose as a highbrow."

Ois Friend Now.
"Still following up that chorus girl's divorce suits?"
"Yes, I've read so much that they no longer seem like the scandals of a perfect stranger."

You are entitled to the benefit of the doubt. Why not take advantage of it?
The law is very careful in protecting the rights of a prisoner charged with a crime.
How about the Law of Common Sense and the man who has committed an error only? Isn't this a good place to use the benefit of the doubt, too?
Take your own case: If you don't know for sure whether tea or coffee is harming you, you do know that many are harmed by the drug element in tea and coffee, and that headaches, nervousness, or high blood pressure are symptoms which often tell that the drug, caffeine, is giving the nervous system too much jolt.
Probably you know, too, that some people can't drink a cup of tea or coffee at bed-time, and sleep well that night.
Where many have been harmed by tea and coffee, and you may be harmed, isn't it well to put the benefit of the doubt on your side before doubt becomes an unpleasant certainty?
There's charm without harm in Postum—a pure cereal beverage, rich in flavor, fully satisfying; the favorite table drink of thousands.
Suppose you try giving yourself this benefit today, and keep up the test for ten days; then judge the results. See if you don't feel better and work better. You can get Postum wherever good food and drink are sold or served.
Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Goodyear Tires Really Cost Less

In our business, giving the customer his money's worth is largely a matter of selecting the right merchandise to sell.

That is why we sell Goodyear Tires, Tubes and Tire Saver Accessories.

In the end, it costs you less to buy a fine product in a modern, perfectly-equipped shop than to buy unknown goods from so-called "bargain houses." Our Service After Sale is best for you, and because it is best for you, it is best for us. We run our business on that basis.

A Visit to Your Old Home Town

Don't you wish you could make one? But, of course, you haven't the time. It's a fast world! And it's a long, expensive trip. Perhaps, some day!

But just as often as not, "some day" never comes. And you have to be content with just sending your memory back on a sky-larking trip among the ghosts of yesterday.

However, those "ghosts" are very much alive, chances are, and are doing a lot of interesting things you'd like to know about. True, you may be getting letters regularly from mother or father, or sister or brother—but they seldom, if ever, mention good old Tom, Dick or Harry. What of them? Somebody knows!

You bet somebody knows! That "somebody" is the KEWASKUM STATESMAN, your Home Town Paper. Why, it's got stories about Tom, Dick and Harry today. You ought to keep in touch with them—and you can! It's easy—

Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Kewaskum Statesman

Farmers Should Advertise

Again let us remind you rural readers that the STATESMAN is the logical paper in which to place your advertising. And more especially at this season of the year is this statement more logical.

We'll all admit that there isn't a reader of the STATESMAN who does not have something you want to dispose of. We'll also admit that there isn't a single reader but wants something some other reader has to dispose of, and when you put the two together, we have found that what one wants to sell the other is ready to buy, so all that is necessary is to write or phone to this office, tell us what you want to buy or sell, and we'll do the business for you.

And speaking of expense—well, that's so small that you don't notice you have spent any money; so for almost nothing, you dispose of what you do not need and have made some one happy by giving them the opportunity of getting what they wanted at a price that was very satisfactory.

It's just another case of cooperation, mixed with a little power of suggestion, and several families are made happy. And if you aren't well enough versed in the line of advertising that you feel you could write a satisfactory ad, let us help you. If we undertook to do your work, we'd ask you to help because we know we couldn't do it, so the feeling will be only mutual.
