Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

TRY TO BE HAPPY

WHEN all the world seems to be conspiring against you, though in reality it is not giving you a fleeting thought, try to be happy.

vast arch overhead, in the drifting white clouds, in the swaying of trees and in the whisperings of the winds—all bearing a message of cheer and encouragement.

How often do you raise your eyes to the smiling blue, or pause to think of the bliss beyond, waiting for those who shall overcome?

How often, instead of packing away your troubles, which no amount of grieving can change, do you turn to the great outdoors for consolation, seeking you at every turn of the road.

All the king's horses and all the king's men cannot bring you happiness if you, of yourself, refuse to go out with open arms to meet it and press it to your breast.

More words can never trace out happiness, nor make its meaning clear except to those who put forth a hand in God's name, and embrace it in faith as their own.

SOMETIMES a palmist or a student of palmistry is called upon to read the hand of a person who enters the room with his fists tightly clenched, the elbows bent and the arms carried in what one authority calls "how-legged" fashion.

THE MAN WHO OWES NO MAN I'll ask no odds of my man, No favor from a friend; Alone I'll work, alone I'll plan, Alone attain the end.

THE FRIENDLY PATH DON'T frighten a child. The future of every city, state and nation in the world depends on the children of today.

WHY DOES A BARBER POLE HAVE STRIPES? IN THE old days the barber used to be the surgeon, or blood-letter, as well as the shaver and cutter of hair.

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY A FOUND cake is a favorite with everyone, but it makes quite a large cake for a small family.

GINGER BREAD Take one cupful of New Orleans molasses, one-half cupful of melted lard, one cupful of brown sugar, one egg, one tablespoonful of ginger, three cupfuls of flour and one teaspoonful of soda added to one cupful of boiling water, added the very last.

CORNFLAKE MACAROONS Take one cupful each of cornflakes, coconut and sugar, two well-beaten eggs, two tablespoonfuls of flour, salt to taste, one teaspoonful of vanilla. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a baking sheet. This makes twenty-five cakes.

CREAM OF SPINACH SOUP Take one pint of chicken broth, one-half peck of spinach well washed and cooked and put through sieve. Add the broth and one quart of milk. Two one must be careful and diplomatic in reading the hand and telling one's conclusions therefrom. Many of us have met the Irish Heep type, who sees in the offer in a sort of washing motion. Here also one must be careful, for slyness, astuteness, and even hypocrisy and untruthfulness are seen.

The proud, stately person carries the left hand hanging at the side with the fingers held together, but loosely. Often the right arm is bent at the elbow, with the palm held upward and the fingers closing loosely over it.

Direct Action. Parson—Poor Mrs. Anderson! It is a hard blow for you to be made a widow, but still there is a comforter for you.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB I gave some burglars all my pay Who held me up the other day—I wouldn't stoop to argue if they think it's nice to act that way.

THE WAVES

To the waves said old Mother Ocean, "My children, why are you so rough?" Said they, "Mother Ocean, we're really polite."

"Have a Fine Time."

stay so quiet and dream away many a sunny day. "Oh, yes," said Mother Ocean, "there are different kinds of things which you like besides playing."

"When you are rough you are really lovely, my children, and that can be said of very few people. "Oh, yes, if creatures can be lovely when they are rough it is all right to be rough, but so few can. That is where the Waves are so smart, so smart."

"And, too, it makes you strong to play with the Storm family. I must always have strong children. "One cannot think of a weak, sick ocean and feeble waves. "Of course, when you're resting it is one thing, but when you are playing with the Storm family you want to be able to play well, too."

"I wouldn't want to hear people say that the poor waves couldn't play with the Storm family any more because they were too weak and wretched. "I wouldn't want that said at all, so when I tell you that I wish to ask you why you are so rough, I do not ask it because I mind it, but because I love your beautiful strength, my Wave children. "Yes, I admire your wonderful, glorious, perfect strength, and your great, great, great beauty. "We are so glad, Mother Ocean. And now you see how our strength is giving a party and every Wave is invited. "Good," said Mother Ocean, "I shall roar with delight and laughter too. "Have a fine time, my children, have a fine time."

All About Ruth. "This morning," said the teacher of an early Sunday school class, "the subject is Ruth, the gleaner. Who can tell me about Ruth? "A small boy raised his hand. "Well, Willie," said the teacher, "and Willie piped out in a shrill little voice, "He cleaned up sixty home runs this season."

Prayer Not Needed. Little Robert's father had been away for several days. Every night the little fellow added a special appeal in his behalf to his prayers. "Bless papa and take care of him while he is away," he added one night as usual. When he suddenly raised his head and listened, "Never mind about him now, Lord," he concluded; "I hear him downstairs."

Sensible Moon. We were out riding one moonlight night, and it soon became cloudy and started to rain. Marlon asked where the moon had gone. I tried to explain that the clouds had come between the moon and us, but she wasn't satisfied with that and offered her own explanation.

PLAYER FORCED TO PROTEST London Ladies So Annoyed Pianist That He Was Compelled to Voice His Grievance.

London has been amused by the publication of the notice that Mr. Poushnoff, the Russian pianist now playing there, has had to paste on his front door, begging people in general, and the ladies in particular, to leave him alone. "Mr. Poushnoff," the notice runs, "begs politely to inform these ladies who derive pleasure from calling uninvited on well-known musicians that he has no social qualifications whatever, and that except for his pianistic art he is the most uninteresting of men. He will be extremely grateful if he is allowed to live the peaceful life of a bachelor hermit. It seems that he is besieged by people—mostly young ladies—who not only want autographs, but want him to play for them. Every public man who has been pestered in this way will applaud Mr. Poushnoff for his reply: "If you want to hear me play, my recitals are always open to you."

Prompted Prevarication. A little fellow scored neatly on his mother the other day. "I hope, dear," she said, "you were a nice little boy while you were at Mr. Brown's and didn't tell any stories." "Only the one you put me up to," said her young hopeful.

Giant Ox. An ox of gigantic proportions was exhibited last April at the Royal Sydney show, in Australia. It was a seven-year-old, and stood 6 feet 4 inches high. It had a girth of 14 feet, 6 inches, and weighed 3,700 pounds. It came from New Zealand, and had arrived some days before the opening of the show.—Popular Mechanics.

Will your "Good Morning" last all day? Easy to start from the breakfast table with zest and enthusiasm, but how easy is it to keep on? Does ambition stall, or lag, as the day develops?

The afternoon "slump" is a factor to be counted upon, in business or social life. Usually, there's a reason. Nerves whipped by tea or coffee won't keep on running, and they won't stand constant whipping.

Many a man or woman who has wished the afternoon would be as bright as the morning has simply been wishing that the nerves wouldn't have to pay the natural penalty for being whipped with the caffeine drug.

Postum gives a breakfast cup of comfort and cheer, without any penalties afterward. There's no "letting down" from Postum—no midday drowsiness to make up for midnight wakefulness; no headaches; no nervous indigestion; no increase of blood pressure.

Think it over. There's full satisfaction in Postum—a cup of comfort for anybody (the children included), any time.

You can get Postum from your grocer or your waiter today, and probably you'll begin to have better tomorrows, as so many thousands have had, who have made the change from coffee to Postum.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.
