

NOVELTIES IN BLOUSES; HATS FOR LATE SUMMER

ALTHOUGH crepe de chine leads the latest procession of materials used for making new fall blouses, it has some ambitious and attractive rivals in other exquisite fabrics.

One of the Novel New Blouses.

One of them appears in the group pictured here. It is made of white duvetyne with upturned brim faced with black satin and embroidered with white angora yarn.

Group of Late Summer Hats.

Into a cuff and the ample wing sleeve, fastening at the waist, are well represented. Many necks are collarless and finished with a border design in embroidery.

Bank Handkerchiefs. Bank handkerchiefs are most interesting to look at, even though they are a trifle fantastic for ordinary use.

The KITCHEN CABINET

I love the smell of apples when they're getting a streaky red, and I love the smell that crinkles from an old-time posy bed.

SOME GOOD EATS.

Some day when it is hard to decide what to have for a meal try frying a few bananas in bacon fat and serving them with crisp slices of curried bacon.

Cherry Sherbet.—Take a cupful of cherry Juice left from a can of cherries, add the Juice of half a lemon, a cupful of sugar and a pint of thin cream. Freeze as usual.

Brook Trout Baked in Cream.—When the fisherman gets tired, if ever, of fried or boiled trout, butter a baking dish and lay a well dressed trout in it.

Peach Pie.—Make a pastry shell and when cold fill with thinly sliced peaches mixed with sugar. Cover with whipped cream to which sugar and almond flavoring has been added.

Kimmel Torte.—Put one-half pound each of dates and walnuts and a quarter of a pound of figs through the meat chopper, add three tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs, the yolks of six eggs beaten stiffly and folded in, in one-half cupful of sugar.

A delicious sauce to use for fillings for cakes or sauce for various dishes may be prepared in peach season and if kept in a cool place will be good long into the winter.

Truly wise you are not, unless your wisdom be constantly changing from your childhood to your death.—Mae-terline.

SOME BEST RECIPES

For an inexpensive cake that is easy to prepare and delicious in flavor the following is recommended:

Spanish Bun.—Soften two-thirds of a cupful of butter, add two cupfuls of sugar, one cupful of sour milk, four well-beaten eggs, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of cloves, two of cinnamon, with one cupful of chopped raisins.

Chicken Pie.—Cook the chicken as usual, steaming with an onion or a clove of garlic. Lay the chicken, well-seasoned, in the dish, removing the onion or garlic, cover with the broth and place the small baking powder biscuits closely together over the top.

Roll Jelly Cake.—This is a cake when well made everybody asks for: Take three eggs, beat very light; add one cupful of sugar, a pinch of salt and two tablespoonfuls of cold water.

Peach Marmalade.—Roll twelve pounds of peaches until reduced to a pulp, adding a small amount of water, then put them through a sieve and add a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit.

Calves Hearts en Casserole.—Fry an onion with a little salt pork fat, roll four calves' hearts in seasoned flour and brown them all over, turning until well browned.

Pea Scuffie.—Cook a pint of peas until soft, put them through a sieve, add two tablespoonfuls of butter and one pint of milk into which three beaten yolks have been stirred.
