Station Agent Anthony P. Schaeffer, in receipt of a letter from Station Agent H. G. Price of the Soo Line, at Dale, Wisconsin, about one hundred miles north of Fond-du-Lac, stating that Leonard Day, hatless, coatless and penniless hiker and author of California, arrived at that place this week. The reason for Mr. Day not being able to get further on his trip, is due to the kind hospitality shown him at the various places he has stopped since leaving Kewaskum about a month ago.

NOTICE TO MOTHERS

Mothers should see that the whole family take a thoro, purifying system cleansing laxative this spring. NOW IS THE TIME. The family will be healthier, happier and get along better if the blood is given a thoro purifying, the stomach and bowels cleaned out, and the germs of winter accumulated in the system driven away. HOLLISTER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA—is one of the very best and surest spring medicines to take. Get it and see the difference in the whole family. Their color will be better, sleep better, and be well and happy. Especially good for women and children.—Edw. C. Miller.—Advertisement

LOCAL DEBATING TEAMS WORKING HARD

The question, "Resolved that the Allied debts to the United States, growing out of the world war, should be cancelled", will be debated upon at the Opera House on Friday, April 6th.

The High Schools of the three counties, Washington, Fond du Lac and Dodge have been working on this question for some time. The plan of the debates is this: Each school represented has an affirmative and a negative team. One of these teams will debate at a neighboring school. Our opponents are Campbellsport and Slinger. Two worthy and rivalrous opponent! Our negative team will debate at Slinger on April 6th. Our affirmative team will remain here to debate with Campbellsport.

Much time and work have made both our teams effective and efficient debaters, and we feel that we are not flattering ourselves when we say we are sure of one victory at least.

Each speaker is given 15 minutes for his arguments and 5 additional minutes will be given for the rebutted or refutation of the arguments.

We need the active support of the entire community and, having it you may be assured that we shall be able to give you something well worth your time. You are all vitally interested whether or not our country cancels our allied debts. Then come to hear snappy, "peppy" arguments for and against this question of paramount interest to all of us.

TO RE-OPEN MOVIE HOUSE

Charles Behnke, owner of the Campbellsport opera house, this morning bid in at a sheriff's sale on a moving picture outfit which was operated by other parties in the opera house. The sale was held to satisfy a note held by Behnke. The latter obtained the machine for $200. Behnke plans to re-open the building and conduct a moving picture theatre himself.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

No Set Time for Best Work

Thomas Carlyle had a room built in his house in Chelsea with double wall, so that he could not hear any of the noise from outside, and in this room he wrote "The French Revolution." Gaudier, on the other hand, could not think well unless he was in a newspaper office where there was lots of noise and racket going on. The human brain gets acused each day to a certain time for action and it works better and is more active at that time than any other time in the 24 hours.

GIRL ESCAPES FROM REFORMATORY

Marie Burns, a daring young flapper escaped from the Taycheedah Reformatory last Thursday morning, fleeing over the snow-covered roads, scantily clad with a quilt over her shoulders. She boarded a taxi and ordered to be driven to Waupun, but the car soon came to grief in a snowbank three miles south of Waupun. Then she attempted to telephone to a man at Marquette, Michigan, but the driver, becoming suspicious, left the car to telephone Chief of Police Grey. Fair Marie retaliated by running off, during his absence, with his fur coat and attempted to board a freight train. By this time Chief Grey had arrived on the scene and a game of hide and seek around the freight cars began, with the engineer, yanked by Miss Marie, assisting her. She was finally caught at Atwater. It is rumored that the engineer has lost his job.—Lomira Review.

Hartford Bank Absorbed

The first City Bank, undoubtedly one of the oldest banking institutions in the county, has been purchased by the First National bank of this city. The transfer of assets and liabilities to the ledger of the large bank are to take place as soon as they can be approved of by the federal banking department. This will probably be within a few days.—Hartford Times.

Knitted Apparel in Favor;
New Styles in Spring Suits

SEVERAL things have conspired during the past few months to promote the use of knitted dresses and knitted outerwear. In all northern latitudes there has been an awakening to the charms of real winter sports, and they have proved so alluring that quite a number of winter tourists take their way toward the northern lights instead of toward the southern straits. These winter sports demand the sturdy and warmest kinds of clothes and hence the boost for knitted sports wear. An attractive knitted two-piece dress for almost any kind of sports wear, ap-was about to be totally neglected and almost forgotten, eclipsed by the dresser three-piece, costume suit. But now it emerges (having fortified itself with new style-points in its decorative features), and invites comparisons. Whoever is looking for something new in suits, is going to find it, for the quest will reveal novel embellishments, new adjustment of skirts and new colors in fabrics.

At the left of the two suits pictured, a model is shown in twill cloth which will arrest attention for several reasons. One of these is its short pears in the illustration. One-piece frocks of exactly similar appearance are among its rivals. This model is of tan yarn knitted in a close stitch and barred with a narrow plaid stripe in brown. The skirt is plain and the jacket semi-fitted with high collar, cuffs and band down the left side of brown angora. There are various color combinations in knitted dresses; those in white or beige or light tan with crossbars or stripes in green, blue or orange, appeal to the sportswomen in the warmer climates, while darker tan, jacket with three-quarter length, flaring sleeves, in lieu of a regulation coat. This gives prominence to the bodice of bright, printed silk with long peasant sleeves, finished by a band of the twill at the wrist. The collar on the jacket is a new treatment of this feature and is simply a puff of the twill. Ties of moire ribbon provide a unique way of fastening the jacket, which is finished at the bottom with a band of the material headed by a piping.

brown and high colors find the snow a fine background. But knitted frocks are no longer confined to sport clothes—what with new knitted laces in wool, knitted yard goods in silk, silk fiber and mixtures of these with wool or mohair, smart afternoon costumes are making their appearance among things knitted. Much attention is given to new color effects in the chameleon and moire effects many colors are combined. Even dance frocks are shown knitted in a loose stitch with drop stitch stripes and metal threads knitted in. It looked for a while as if our old friend, the two-piece tailored suit, shirting and there is a narrow belt in moire, with small metallic slides. A plainer suit of homespun at the right is very smart and springlike with box coat, having surplice front and revers. It utilizes the fashionable side-fastening and adopts a summer-fur collar. A suit of this type always finds an army of admirers, having simplicity and distinction to recommend it to women who appreciate the pre-eminent value of these qualities.

Painted Velvets.
Painted velvets are shown for evening wear and made into charming negligees for the house. Usually the velvets are delicate in tone and the colors applied are of the soft, pastel shades. Large flower patterns are most popular.

Small Frocks.
One of the new models which is simplicity itself, yet does not lack for style, is a small frock of pink georgette. The skirt is wide and flaring and boasts innumerable inch-wide ruffles from the yoke to the hem. Tiny ruffled sleeves fill the round armholes and add narrow ribbon rosettes to give them that grown-up modish note now seen on the debutante's frock.

White Linen Again.
Lingerie in pure white linen is today preferred to silks and colors. But the linen is not as plain with the lace of cobweb texture. Or it is covered with fine flounces, made still finer by open-work lozenges and squares.

EVERYDAY DISHES

Oatmeal bread when well made is a most wholesome food for every member of the family.

Oatmeal Bread.
—Boil enough potatoes to make two cupsful when mashed and save the water in which they were cooked, adding enough water to make one quart. Pour this over the potatoes, add two tablespoonfuls of shortening, one tablespoonful of sugar and one of salt. Put over the heat and when boiling add two cupsful of rolled oats; let boil five minutes then remove and cool. When lukewarm add one and one-half yeast cakes dissolved in one-quarter of a cupful of warm milk, add a teaspoonful of soda and two quarts of flour. Mix in the bread mixer until smooth, or knead by hand as usual. Let it rise over night and in the morning mold into three loaves. Bake one and one-quarter hours in a moderate oven.

Bran Cakes.—To one cupful of flour add one and one-half teaspoonfuls of soda and sift. Stir in two cupfuls of bran, three tablespoonfuls of molasses, one and one-half cupfuls of sour milk, one-fourth of a cupful of shortening and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt. Stir until well mixed and bake in well-greased gem pans three-quarters of an hour.

Baked Cheese Sandwiches.—Stir a little finely-grated or chopped American cheese into a rich white sauce. Cut bread into rounds and butter, spread with the white sauce heaping it on in the center. Place the bread in a hot oven to toast. Ham may be used in place of the cheese if so desired.

If one is fond of Chinese cookery there are many dishes which are simple and easy to prepare. The following is a variation of chop suey:

Take a half pound of round steak, cut in half-inch cubes and fry in a little fat, add one cupful of dried celery, season well and water and cook until the celery is tender, season with a teaspoonful of soy sauce. This is found in most markets and is not expensive. Serve hot with hot boiled rice.

When a world of men could not prevail with all their ordery, yet had a woman's kindness overruled.—Henry the Sixth.

MORE GOOD THINGS

A faintly dish to serve for a company luncheon is the following:

Sweetbread with Orange Sauce.—Soak a pair of sweetbreads in cold water for twenty minutes; put over the heat in plenty of cold water, heat very gradually to boiling point, then simmer for twenty minutes, drain and let stand in cold water until cold. Remove the inedible portions, but keep the sweetbreads unbroken. Set on a rack in a dripping pan, sprinkle with salt and pepper, pour over the juice of an orange and bake twenty minutes. Serve with Orange Sauce.—Cut the peel of an orange into shreds and cover with boiling water, cook five minutes and drain. To the blanched peel add one-half cupful of beef juice, three-fourths of a cupful of brown sauce, the juice of two oranges and one lemon, one-fourth of a teaspoonful each of cayenne and salt; stir until smooth and hot.

Candy.—Take two cupfuls of brown sugar, one-half cupful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of molasses, one cupful of condensed milk, two cupfuls of chopped nuts, one cupful of coconut, and an eighth of a teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Dissolve the sugar, milk, butter and cream of tartar. Stir and boil until brittle when tested in cold water. Add nuts, coconut and any desired flavoring. Pour into a buttered tin.

Lemon Honey Cakes.—Bring to the boiling point one and one-half cupfuls of honey, skim carefully, add four tablespoonfuls of butter and cool. Stir in two cupfuls of sifted pastry flour and set in a cool place over night. When ready to bake add the grated rind of one lemon, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one-half cupful of chopped almonds and one-half cupful of soda dissolved in a little warm water. Bake in small muffin pans. When cold ice with lemon icing.

Prunes Stuffed With Dried Apricots.—Take two cupfuls of large soft prunes. Soak for one hour in warm water and dry. With a sharp knife remove the stones and fill with apricot. Take two cupfuls of dried apricots which have been washed, put through a meat chopper. Form into the natural shape of the prunes. Mix powdered sugar and coconut together and roll the prunes in them. Spread on a platter to dry.

a Bad Back?

DOES your back ache day after day with a dull, unceasing throb? Are you worn out, and discouraged—ready to "give up"? Then why not look to your kidneys. Chances are a cold or a chill has weakened your kidneys? Poisons have accumulated that well kidneys would filter off. It is a little wonder, then, you have constant backache, headaches, dizzy spells, annoying bladder irregularities, and sharp rheumatic twinges—that you feel nervous, "blue" and irritable. Don't wait for serious kidney trouble. Get back your health while you can. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Grateful Folks:

Mrs. A. Everhart, Maple Ave., Clinton, Wis., says: "Often I was so lame I didn't feel like moving. I think my trouble started from a severe cold that settled in my back. My back ached and was so weak I could hardly bend over. I had dizzy spells, too. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of the attack. Since then I have used Doan's whenever my kidneys have been out of order and they have always relieved me."

O. F. Zick, retired farmer, Church St., Clinton, Wis., says: "I caught a cold and it settled across my kidneys. The pains in my back and loins were terrible and I didn't feel like doing my work. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of the trouble and strengthened my back and kidneys. I am glad to endorse this medicine for the benefit I derived from its use and hope others who suffer from kidney trouble will try them. I have often recommended Doan's to others."

DESERVING OF HIGH HONORS

Doctor Wagner of the Darmstadt (Germany) Experiment Station Has Done Much for Agriculture.

Fifty years ago Dr. Paul Wagner became director of the experiment station at Darmstadt, which had just been founded, and has since won for this institution a world renown, through his investigations on plant foods. Doctor Wagner certainly deserves to receive great commendation for having, with the help of his own method of pot experiments, substantially extended, and firmly established the foundation for the use of commercial fertilizers.

He was the first to recognize and correctly estimate the fertilizing effect of the Thomas phosphate or basic slag.

By a steady improvement in the methods of fertilizer experiments in the field, he succeeded in making of these field experiments a practical means of exact investigation.

Doctor Wagner, furthermore, has clearly shown the results of his investigations in the vegetable house, in the practical field and in the laboratory, either in articles which are easily understood, or in inspiring lectures; and in this way he has contributed in an enormous degree toward the proper use of commercial fertilizers in agriculture.

Here in the United States many of Doctor Wagner's articles are known, having been translated or summarized by numerous writers, to the great advantage of American agriculture.

Betrayed by Pores.
Pores are more important than finger prints to the crime investigator. The science of "poroscopy" is now called in when Bertillon methods fail. The new science, discovered by Dr. Edmond Locard in 1912, has taken eleven years to develop to perfection. The shape of the pores, not easily recognizable in the case of finger prints obtained by printers' ink, on account of the roughness of these records is found to be very varied when colorless prints or those revealed by a method employed by Dr. Locard are examined.

"Not very well, boss. The fact is, Mandy and me we've done palleted." "Palleted?" exclaimed the farmer. "Why, you were just married. You know, Sam, you can't leave Mandy. She's your wife and you took her for better or worse."

Newage, Mich.—"Some years ago I was troubled with dizziness, palpitation, loss of appetite and sore and painful stomach. I tried the best physicians I could hear of, and also several patent medicines, but nothing did me any good. Some physicians said it was my heart; some said it was my stomach; while others said it was my nerves. I got so bad I could not work very steadily, when a friend came to see me and insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I was discouraged, but tried it anyway, and after taking the second bottle I felt much better. I then bought six bottles and I believe the 'Discovery' saved my life. Circulation in the civil service is not always the result of the system.

A few weeks ago an official in one department made an inquiry about a certain case to a subordinate official in another section who allowed the matter to slide.

Last week the first official addressed a complaint to the subordinate's superior and the superior passed on the minute to the subordinate with the query, "Has nothing been done?"

The minute was returned marked "Yes" and was sent back to the subordinate with a laconic "What?" "Nothing," was the subordinate's comment on the minute.

Maybe Flying Too High.
Desiring a position as kindergarten teacher, a pretty young miss went to a member of the school board in her city and told him of her modest ambition. He listened to the request in a fatherly way and no doubt considered that it was up to him to put a few general questions. So he asked: "What are your views on transcendentalism?"

The girl hesitated for a while and then faltered: "Maybe I hadn't better try as high as kindergarten work."

GARDEN TEACHES A LESSON

The garden furnishes a profitable occupation for their spare time, and from it the youngsters learn a good deal about the growth of plants. Could Hardly Eat or Sleep Because of Chronic Indigestion—Now Praises Tanlac.

W. N. Hatcher, 110 Lucile Ave., Greenville, S. C., is still another who has realized the wonderful merits of Tanlac. Mr. Hatcher has been a member of the Greenville Police department for thirty years and is one of the most efficient and popular officers on the force.

"I know many others, besides myself, Tanlac has helped and I am glad to speak out for it. I had suffered from indigestion and constipation for something like fifteen years, I had about reached the point where I could neither eat nor sleep, for every time I ate it hurt me and the misery kept me awake at night, I had lost energy and strength until when my day's work was over I would feel completely played out."

"I now eat anything I want, always have a fine appetite, and have gained eight pounds. I am certainly thankful to be able to enjoy a good meal once more and not suffer afterwards. I am just like a new man and Tanlac gets all the credit."

HOW TURTLES FIND THE SEA

Explanation, According to Harvard Scientists, in Their Tendency to Travel Down Hill.

Why loggerhead turtles readily find their way to the sea soon after hatching, has been discovered by George H. Parker of the zoological department of Harvard university.

The most important reason for this behavior of the turtles is their tendency to go down hill, Mr. Parker believes. They also show an inclination to move toward regions in which the horizon is clear and unobstructed by large masses. And blue areas seem to attract them more than other colors.

WAS THE FIRST AERIALIST

Flying Squirrel May Be Said to Have Been Forerunner of Parachute and Machine.

No, we are not referring to birds. We mean that shy creature, the flying squirrel. He was the first aerialist and was the forerunner of the parachute and the flying machine, asserts a writer in Our Dumb Animals. It is probable that he taught early experimenters as much about flying as did birds. Do you know any other four-footed animal that flies? This squirrel is by nature a fly-by-night, as he does most of his flying after dark, although he will fly in the daytime if occasion arises.

Office Worker Helped

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier for three and a half years, and they have improved my health wonderfully. My mother also has taken the Vegetable Compound and we recommend it to our friends. I am working in an office now and can always do my work as I do not have the troubles I had at first. I read of your Vegetable Compound in the newspaper and you may use my letter in that way if you wish to do so."

Pains and Headache

Webster, Mass.—"I was all run-down, had a bad complexion, and suffered with pains and headache, and was dizzy at times and felt weak. I worked in a mill and my girl chum told me about your wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am feeling much better since taking it."—MARY PLAZA, 13 West Street, Webster, Mass.

Let the Sunshine in! Are you fagged and foggy when you wake up in the morning? There's a Reason. Coffee and tea are known to affect many people that way. Often, these beverages cause nervousness, sleeplessness and severe headache. "There's a Reason." Postum, made from wheat roasted just like coffee, is a delightful mealtime beverage free from any element of harm. Try it instead of coffee or tea, and let the sunshine in. Postum FOR HEALTH "There's a Reason" Instant Postum (in tin) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

SECRETS OF HEALTH

Headaches are in the majority of cases, caused from eye strain. Normal eyes use 15 per cent of the vital energy generated by the human system—Strained eyes must use more. Daily they rob some other vital organ of its share—but not without protest—for headaches and "symptoms" are but nature's warning of abuse. LOOK WELL TO YOUR EYES.

WILL KEWASKUM HAVE A BALL TEAM

Whether or not Kewaskum will be represented by a base ball team the coming season, depends entirely upon the citizens of this village. The meeting last Tuesday evening in the City Hall was well attended. It was learned at this meeting, that with two exceptions a pitcher and catcher, Kewaskum has enough material to pick from which to build up a good team. But in order to go ahead with the organizing of a team, new uniforms and other material necessary for a ball team will have to be purchased, as will also the diamond have to be skinned. This, of course, means a considerable expense, to the team from the start, the amount of which would be too much for nine or eleven men to be expected to pay out of their own pocketbooks. A committee of three has therefore been appointed, who will take up a subscription within the next two weeks, which will also be intended to see how the citizens of the village feel in organizing a base ball team, for if enough money is subscribed, to give the boys a start, a team will then be organized. If you are approached by the committee, remember, that a liberal donation will assure a team the coming season, which you know is left to your discrimination.

A "land tax" to shift the burden of government partially to "unearned increment" may solve part of the taxation problems before the Wisconsin legislature.
The Griestad bill to levy a surtax of one percent of all "land values" valued at more than $10,000 will be given a hearing by the assembly committee on taxation Thursday.
This bill is aimed directly at exempting the small producing farmer and making the big land-owner pay for land held for speculative or rental purposes.
The "land value" which generally constitutes one-half of the value of the soil, would be taxed. The other half the "fertility value" would be exempted. All improvements also would be exempted.
So the average farmer with a $25,000 farm home would be practically exempted, and those between $25,000 and $75,000 would pay small amounts as their one per cent tax.

CARE AND PREVENTION OF MEASLES

In as much as measles is spread by those sick with it before the eruption appears, in order that its restriction shall be most complete, it is important that the early symptoms be generally known. The early symptoms of measles are those of a catarrhal cold. These include a watery discharge from the nose and eyes, together with some hoarseness and a cough. In mild cases these symptoms may be so slight as to be almost overlooked, it is therefore advisable, especially in time of an epidemic, that any child who does not appear to be quite well and has some fever, should be separated from others until the absence or presence of measles is determined. Any mother who sends her child to school or permits it to play with other children at this time helps to spread the disease. In beginning there is very little fever. In short time the skin becomes hot, the tongue covered by furry coating, and the mouth and throat are very red. On the fourth day red spots begin to appear on the forehead and face and soon spread downward over the entire body. These spots collect into groups and form red blotches.
As soon as the child shows the first signs of the disease send for your doctor at once. When no physician is employed it becomes the duty of the household to report to the health officer. Put the child to bed in an airy, darkened room. Give it only light food. Keep its bowels freely open. Keep the child in bed for two days after its temperature has become normal. Be sure to keep the eyes, ears, mouth and nostrils perfectly clean.
Complications such as bronchopneumonia, middle ear disease, weakness of the eyes, kidney trouble, and even tuberculosis may ensue. The after effects are often much more serious than the disease itself. Although most people believe that measles is less dangerous than scarlet fever, yet as many children die from measles as do from scarlet fever. Statistics show that it is especially dangerous before the third year of life. Measles is a dangerous disease. No child need have it.

BIG BASKET BALL GAME HERE SUNDAY EVENING

In what probably will be the biggest game of basket ball played at the Kewaskum Opera House in years, will be staged on Sunday evening, March 18, when the speedy Regner Drugs team of West Bend will clash with the crack Tobbin-Sutton team of Milwaukee. The game has a bearing on the amateur championship of the southern part of the state. Hartford and Kewaskum were the places suggested to play the game, Kewaskum being looked upon as the most suitable place to play, the game will be staged here, after agreements had been reached by the managers of the two teams to play the game on a neutral floor.
The Suttons will come with the same line-up that held the West Benders to a low score at the beginning of the season, it being one of the best games played at West Bend in years. The Milwaukee team will lineup with such amateur stars as Regan, McCormick, Stemper and the well known Dunn Brothers. The Regner Drugs will be headed by the famous chief Sherwood, Carlise Indian. The Drugs are a snappy and fast team playing the short pass game to perfection, and will lineup with Peters and Klassen, forwards; Spatz Miller, center; Kugler and Chief Sherwood, guards. This game will be a hard fought game. The contest will start promptly at 8:50 o'clock. All lovers of a good basket ball game be on deck. Admission Adults 40 cents, children 25 cents including war tax.

TROUT SEASON OPENS MAY 1st.

The trout season opens this year on May 1st as it has done in the past. Although for the last year there has been agitation to change the opening date to April 15, no action has been taken by the state assembly to do so.
