A regular old-time blizzard swept over the state Tuesday night and Wednesday, greatly hampering traffic delaying trains and causing the suspension of bus line service on Wednesday and part of Thursday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Casper, Bay Casper and Walter Reichman of Milwaukee, spent Sunday with the S. N. Casper and Reichman families. The latter are making an indefinite stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Casper.

The prize winners at the weekly Schafkopf tournament held at Louis Heisler's place on Tuesday evening were: First—Walter Schneider; second—Chas. Hafeman; third—Henry Kamthun and fourth—Norbert Becker. Consolation—Marvin Schaefer.
—Albert Hron, sons Eloy and Lloyd, Traugott Stenske, Ernst Claus, Anthony Fellenz and William Heim, members of the West Bend Moose Banquet, were at Milwaukee Sunday where they took part in the community program over the Milwaukee Journal Station WTMJ.

—Mrs. Norton Koerhle entertained a number of friends at her home last Thursday evening at Bridge. Honors were awarded as follows: First—Mrs. Leo Brauchle; second—Mrs. Arthur W. Koch; third—Miss Corinne Schaefer and fourth—Mrs. Fred Buss. Dainty refreshments were served after the games by the hostess.

—J. Burt Johnson, a well-known showman, was brought before Justice of the Peace Aussem at Thiensville last Monday on a charge of having practiced medicine without a license. The offense is alleged to have been committed at Thiensville, according to a newspaper appearing in last week's issue of the Port Washington Pilot. The complaining witness is Wallace A. Drew, examiner for the state medical society.

The following were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Eberle Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. John Guenther of here, Mrs. Barba a Hosp and Vinola Guenther, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Widder and family, Mrs. Susan Widder and daughter Louise, of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guenther and Henry Strupp of Wayne, Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Guenther and family of Campbellsport and Mrs. Elizabeth Schaefer of here. The occasion being Grandma Guenther's 74th birthday anniversary.

—The much talked of spring being just around the corner, received quite a setback when citizens awoke Sunday morning to see one of the worst blizzards of the season and the ground covered with about six inches of snow. The snow fell continued until in the afternoon when it commenced to get colder. While spring was officially announced on Friday, March 21st, and while practically all of our song birds have already arrived, and the frost nearly all of the ground, we believe, though we are no weather prophets, that we are due for a late cool spring. It might be well to give just a reminder at this time to feed the birds, for the cold weather alone may be hardship enough to kill them.

GIVES HIGH PRAISE TO STATESMAN

Alfonse A. Wiesner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Wiesner of the town of Ashford, who is a sailor on the U. S. S. Idaho writes from San Pedro, Calif. giving high praise to the Statesman, and tells of how much he appreciates reading same. The letter reads as follows:

Kewaskum Statesman,
Dear Sir:—
Just a few lines to let you know how much I appreciate your paper. When we were on our winter cruise in the Panama I didn't hear anything about my town as there was no mail here, when we arrived at Panama you can imagine how I waited for the mail when we finally got back to San Pedro, there were five papers here and maybe you think I didn't read every bit of news. Well you bet, I'm reading yours.

Am enclosing a clipping from the Statesman magazine, entitled "Just a Letter" that just about describes the men of the U. S. N. Some people seem to have an idea all sailors are like that but that's not true as the clipping will show.

Well have interesting summer here. We are in Navy yards now for the next six weeks where we give the ship a complete overhauling. When we leave the yards we will visit Seattle and San Francisco and then take the R. O. T. C. on a cruise to Honolulu and return to operate between Seattle, Prince and San Pedro until the rest of the fleet returns from the East Coast.

Well will have to close now with best wishes.
Yours sincerely,
Alfonse A. Wiesner,
U. S. S. Idaho.

Unmeasured Winds
The strongest winds are those of tornadoes and have never been measured. Plausible estimates based on the effects of these storms run up to 400 or 500 miles an hour in some cases. The strongest winds ever measured instrumentally blew at the summit of Mount Washington, N. H., January 11, 1878. The indicated velocity was 181 miles an hour, but certain necessary corrections reduce this to about 140 miles an hour.

JUDGE SPEEDS UP WORK IN COURT

Judge Davison is speeding up work in circuit court to the extent that by the end of this week the calendar will be practically disposed of with the exception of a few cases. Cases remaining over from the spring term will be noted for trial at the special June term or the fall term in October. Of the nine cases appearing on the criminal calendar, disposition of all but two had been made when court reconvened last Monday morning. The case of state vs. J. H. Schorenberg, for fraud, was dismissed. Another criminal case, in which Edmund Hedger is charged with bastardy, is expected to be settled.

Several cases, in which a jury brought in damage awards as the result of automobile collisions, were tried during the past week. In the case of Louis Kannenberg vs. Frank Kiesow and L. R. Pierce, the plaintiff was awarded $75.49. The case of Sarah LaSalle vs. E. Myron Odgers, which was an action to recover damages for an automobile accident which occurred two miles south of West Bend, went on trial last Thursday. Jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, although they allowed the defendant $405.89 for damage to his car. Plaintiff was awarded more than $1200.

The case of John Zibolski vs. Arthur Steiner was won by the plaintiff, who was awarded $237 by the jury. Cases settled out of court were the following: John J. Lehn, et ux vs. Louis Riesch, Dr. J. E. Raichert vs. George Keshithas, Edward Schaefer vs. Theo. Holbeck et al, Edwin Rippey vs. Julius Nes, John A. Wolf vs. Schauer's Fast Freight, Inc., Henry Nehm vs. Paul Hennerlau, E. P. Bartlett & Co. vs. Plek Mfg. Co., Hilda Rick and Ferdinand Rick by John Rick, their guardian ad litem, vs. Arthur Spaeth, Augusta Rick vs. Arthur Spaeth, John Rick vs. Arthur Spaeth. A charge of venue to Fond du Lac county was granted in the case of Paul Schorenberg vs. John Kofel.

Only one case was tried on Monday the action being brought by Elmer E. Beach against John P. Gehl. The case was brought on account of a lease on property at Chicago held by Gehl and of which Beach was the owner. The case was decided in favor of the defendant.

The following cases went over the term: George H. Hummert vs. Joseph Katz, Adele Hummert vs. Joseph Katz Waterloo Canning Co. vs. Gehl Bros. Mfg. Co., Louis Riesch vs. Selma Degnitz et al.

The case of Anton Theisen vs. Hy. Miller, Jr., was dismissed. In the case of E. L. Lepinski vs. B. H. Schomovitz, jury awarded plaintiff $62.50. The case was the aftermath of an auto collision. Jury cases noted for trial this week are the following: March—Hiron Bros. Company, Inc. vs. West Bend Construction Co. et al; J. P. Doyle vs. Charles Hagner.

March 27—A. Guetz vs. J. Schultz, John Karmell vs. Edward Laue and Oswald Jaeger Baking Co., M. J. Fitzgerald, a sole trader doing business under the firm name and style of M. Fitzgerald Co. vs. Wm. G. Schmidt, Edward G. Kissinger vs. Gerhardt Wendt, Ben F. Zinke vs. Wm. Buch, Jr., and Cedarburg Box Mfg. Co. et al. March 28—Wm. Brée vs. Victor Fandl, Robert D. Keveney vs. Arthur Callieri, Andrew Heindl vs. John Korweli.—West Bend Pilot.

"Ghost" Only Rabbit
People of the county of Bossman, Scotland, were recently thrown into a panic by the sudden appearance at the side of the backboard of what they took to be a dancing apparition in white. They ran home in a panic at the appearance of either a ghost or an angel. Parents investigated and found that a very large white hare had gotten into the window and had been seen to jump from the backboard.

What Did Referee Say?
A few years ago a woman well known in her vicinity took boxing lessons and challenged the feminine world. One day she met a hostile female who knew nothing about boxing but seized the lady boxer's hair and held on until she cried, "Enough!" —Washington Star.

Sleep-Walking
Sleep-walking is said to be prevented by wearing gloves fastened firmly at the wrists. Many tests are believed to have proved the efficacy of that remedy.

Fighter, Not a Winner
An old letter written by Daniel Boone furnishes this specimen of original spelling: "I hope you will write me by the bearer, Mr. goe, how you can on with my horse—I hear the Indians have killed some people near Limestone."
