

KEWASKUM HIGH SCHOOL COLUMN

The electrical demonstration presented by the School of Engineering of Milwaukee at the High School Auditorium on Wednesday evening, was well attended. All who saw the demonstration were keenly impressed with the advances of electrical science.

WINS FIFTH STRAIGHT GAME

The High School baseball team won its fifth consecutive game when it defeated Grafton on Tuesday afternoon by a 7 to 2 score. Marx, pitching for Kewaskum, struck out fifteen Grafton batters and allowed only five hits which were well scattered throughout the seven innings of play. Nine of the local batters struck out and six hits were gathered from the opposing moundman.

On Thursday the team played Lomira for another Tri-County game. Plans are about complete for a Tri-County baseball tournament to be held on the local diamond on Saturday, May 21st.

The members of the Senior class have received their commencement invitations. The printing was done by the local printers.

The Junior class was not in the least bit superstitious when it chose Friday, May 13th, as the date of the big annual social event of the year, the Junior Prom. The Juniors have been very busy making final preparations to insure its success. The gym has been decorated in blue and yellow crepe paper. The trimmings are tiered from a roof-like structure in the center of the gym. The dancing will be to the strains of the well-known Jack Cameron's orchestra. Sylvester Muck-erheide is the prom chairman and the latest rumors are that he has chosen Ella Windorf as his prom queen. They will lead the grand march at 11:00 o'clock. The Kewaskum High School gym is the place, the Junior Prom is the event, Jack Cameron will furnish the music, and Friday, the 13th, is the date.

NO TUBERCULOSIS AMONG STUDENTS AT KEWASKUM

No tuberculosis was found among the high school students examined at the free chest clinic conducted by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association at Kewaskum on April 29, according to a summary of findings issued today.

Among adults examined, however, three were placed in the tuberculosis classification. One was an active case of lung tuberculosis and two were classified as suspicious, having some symptoms and clinic findings indicating that tuberculosis might possibly be present.

Sanatorium care was recommended in one instance. Two cases of heart disease were recorded. Other findings included: Decayed or neglected teeth, 10; infected tonsils, 18; nose and throat conditions, 12; enlarged adenoids, 1; simple goitre, 3; child goitre, 4; acute bronchitis, 2; bronchiectasis, 2; children at least 10% underweight, 14; adults malnourished, 1.

Only 11 of the 56 persons examined were found to be in apparently normal health. Thirty-three were referred to their own family doctors.

Two persons had pulmonary infections of a non-tuberculous type. Eight had had contact with tuberculosis persons. Twenty-three had not been vaccinated against smallpox.

The clinic was conducted by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, under the auspices of the Washington County Board. It was arranged by Miss Ruby McKenzie, R. N., County Nurse.

WINS FIRST PLACE

Miss Mary Farrell of North Fond du Lac High School last Friday evening participated in the Wisconsin High School Forensic association tournament held at Madison and was awarded first place in the extemporaneous reading event and second place in the declamatory contest. Miss Farrell was the winner in both these events in the Tri-County and District forensic contests. In the Tri-County contest, declamatory event, Miss Ruth Heppie of this village, captured second place. For her good work, Miss Farrell received two medals and a school banner. The tournament was held in co-sponsorship with the future farmers of America, a high school group which conducted a public speaking contest throughout the state.

GRAND PRIZE CARD PARTY

The ladies of the Holy Trinity congregation will hold another of their most enjoyable prize card parties at the Holy Trinity school hall on Monday evening, May 16th. The usual games will be played. A cash door prize will be given. A delicious lunch will be served. Admission 35 cents. A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

MANY DEATHS THE PAST WEEK

MRS. LISETTE MUELLER

Mrs. Lisette Mueller, (nee Claus), of 535 Seventh Ave., West Bend, passed away at the St. Joseph's hospital in Milwaukee on Friday, May 6th. She died while on the operating table to have a limb amputated, which had been effected by diabetes gangrene, suffering from that disease since last fall.

Mrs. Mueller was born August 12, 1866, at Silver Creek, reaching the age of 65 years, 7 months, 24 days. On October 5, 1886, she was united in marriage to Gustav Mueller at Boltonville. Soon after their marriage they went to farming in the town of Farmington. In 1919 they moved to West Bend. Her husband preceded her in death in the year 1928. Twelve children were born to them. Those living are: Bertha (Mrs. Alvin Wangerin), Milwaukee; William and Clarence, West Bend; Walter, Wolf Point, Mont.; Eleanore (Mrs. John Merrill), St. Louis, Mo.; Irene (Mrs. Ed. Dayton), Chicago; Edna and Claude at home; and Claudine (Mrs. Gilbert Wright) of West Bend. She also leaves ten grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Rose Stevens, of Aurora, Ill.; and four brothers, Adolph Claus of this village, Oscar Claus of Mattoon, James and Morris Claus of Random Lake.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon with services in the Ev. Reformed church at West Bend, conducted by the Rev. C. Ruppert. Interment was made in the Boltonville cemetery.

MRS. HERMAN STERN

Mrs. Herman Stern (nee Anna Degner), age 67 years, after suffering with a tumor for about a year, passed away at her home in the town of Farmington Friday morning, May 6th.

Deceased was born in the town of Kewaskum on July 19, 1865, and when a young lady of twenty, was married to Herman Stern of New Prospect, on November 17, 1885, making their home in the town of Farmington. Besides her husband she leaves seven children, namely: Charles of Fredonia, Julius on the homestead, Edward of St. Michaels, John of the town of Farmington, Mrs. Peter Kolber of West Farmington and Mrs. Arnold Ramthun of Milwaukee. She is also survived by nine grandchildren, three brothers, Henry Degner, town of Kewaskum; August Degner, town of Farmington; William Degner, Wheaton, N. D.; and one sister, Miss Amelia Degner of the town of Kewaskum.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, May 10th, with services in the Reformed church at Fillmore, conducted by Rev. Paul Olm. Burial was made in the congregation's cemetery.

MRS. ALBERTINA HOWARD

Mrs. Albertina Howard, age 84, pioneer resident from near Campbellsport, died Saturday, May 7th, at the home of her son Henry, one mile north of Campbellsport.

Deceased was born November 9, 1847, in Germany, and came to America when a young lady of twenty-three. On October 4, 1872, she married William Howard of Theresa. After their marriage they resided in Dodge county for a few years and then went to farming in the town of Ashford. Her husband preceded her in death on September 9, 1900. After his death Mrs. Howard remained on the farm for a few years, then went to live with her children.

The following children survive, namely: Mrs. Elizabeth Robson of Mott, N. D.; Mrs. William Pasco of Norway, Michigan; Mrs. Fred Scribner of Portland, Oregon; Carl of Fond du Lac; William, Alfred and Henry of Campbellsport. She also leaves 17 grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Minnie Koschik of Fond du Lac.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence and at 2 o'clock from the M. E. church at Campbellsport, conducted by Revs. Mr. Mieland and E. L. Hilland. Burial was made in the Union cemetery at Campbellsport.

MISS MARGARET SCHICK

Miss Margaret Schick, age 88, a former resident of Fond du Lac county, died on Saturday, May 7th, at the Mercy hospital, Tiffin, Ohio.

Deceased is a sister of Mrs. Martha Campbell and Mrs. John Remmel of Campbellsport, and Mrs. Elizabeth McGellan of Appleton. A solemn requiem mass was said at St. Peter's Catholic church, Upper Sandusky, Ohio, on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, after which the body was brought to Campbellsport and taken to the Campbell home. The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 9:30 in the St. Matthews church, Campbellsport, conducted by Rev. J. Bertram. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

(Continued on Last Page)

It Looks Bad for the Bear

By Albert T. Reid

BASE BALL HERE SUNDAY

TAILOR SHOP FOR KEWASKUM

B. Becker of Milwaukee will, on Monday, May 16th, open a ladies' and gents' tailoring shop in the store building of Fred Bleck on Main street, east of the railroad tracks. Mr. Becker comes to this village highly recommended as a tailor and is well experienced in all kinds of work. Kewaskum needs a tailor, and all those who have been having their work done out of town, should give Mr. Becker a trial. Mr. Becker is a married man, and if he secures the patronage of the local people he will immediately have his family make their future home in the village. Read Mr. Becker's advertisement on local news page.

FARMERS NEED BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

A recent press dispatch from Rensselaerville, New York, recounts the loss of a hundred year-old home, which, with its treasured furnishings, was destroyed by fire. It happens that the loss of irreplaceable articles was unusually heavy in this case. Similar fires occur almost daily in rural sections of the country, and in addition to the property, many lives are lost. Perhaps your property might be destroyed by fire next. Such losses are becoming daily more incalculable. This happens because of lack of fire prevention measures of the farmers, but now that the representatives of the farmers and village people are promoting more and better fire protection to prevent catastrophes, every farmer should readily pledge himself to the cause. Good roads radiate in every direction from the village, and this coupled with the good telephone service should curb the fire menace among the farmers in this community. A committee has been appointed to solicit all farmers to pledge themselves $15.00 towards a membership of the community fire protection, which amount is to be used towards the purchase of modern standard fire apparatus, and which amount entitles the farm member to free fire protection during the life of this apparatus. The attitude of the farmers should be 100 per cent in favor of the promotion. Give this your consideration, each year farm fires claim a toll of 3,500 lives and cause $100,000,000 property damage. Sign the pledge card willingly when presented to you.

PLAY AT ST. MICHAELS A GRAND SUCCESS

Large crowds greeted the St. Michael's players on both evenings, Sunday and Tuesday, May 8th and 10th, when the curtain opened and the Dramatic Club produced the three-act comedy-drama "Oak Farm." Each actor, well chosen and directed for the respective role, carried his or her role through without fault. Both audiences sat in rapt attention throughout the play on both evenings, following each actor and scene with thought and when the climax came, both houses brought forth loud applause, which proved that the play "Oak Farm" was well taken. The St. Michael's Dramatic Club wishes to thank all who supported the success of the play in every way, both by their attendance and assistance.

REVISES DAMAGE VERDICT

Judge H. M. Fellenz of Fond du Lac on Wednesday revised his findings as to personal damages sustained by Mrs. Elizabeth Struebung of Elmore, in an automobile accident last January. The revision was made after listening to arguments upon a motion filed by the plaintiff's counsel that the damages were inadequate. The Judge granted an increase in allowance from $200 to $350. Counsel for A. J. Conroy, the defendant, filed a notice of appeal.

BREAKS ARM AT ELBOW

Mrs. John Marx on Monday morning fell down a small flight of stairs to the basement and fractured her arm at the elbow. Mrs. Marx went to the basement to do her weekly washing, when she slipped on one of the steps lost her balance, and forcibly struck the cement floor of the basement with her arm. She was alone at the time of the accident, and after a few minutes of suffering was able to telephone for aid. She now has her arm in a cast, which will mean about six weeks before she will be able to use same to do her household duties.

A single pound of honey represents the life work of 300 bees.

WASHINGTON COUNTY BOYS ARRESTED

Two of Washington County's boys got into serious trouble when they drove an automobile while intoxicated Sunday night in Fond du Lac. The boys are Jerome Schiller, 20, Barton; and Martin Reiland of the town of Kewaskum. The two were arrested by Fond du Lac police after an accident when their car sideswiped a trailer, upsetting same, and its load of potatoes scattered over the street. They were brought into Municipal Court Monday morning, Schiller pleading guilty to driving an automobile while intoxicated, was fined $100 and costs with the alternative of 60 days in jail. Reiland, owner of the car, pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly and was fined $1 and costs or two days in jail.

EBERLE'S BEAGLE HOUNDS WINNERS

Joseph Eberle of this village, and S. D. Fell of Oshkosh, president and secretary of the Wisconsin Beagle Club, respectively, motored to Rockford, Ill., Saturday and attended the second annual dog show of the Rock River Valley Kennel Club, Inc. Mr. Eberle had two of his high pedigreed beagle hounds, a male and female, entered in the show. The male dog was awarded the Kishwaukee Workman Winners and two special prizes. The female dog in close competition captured the reserve winner prize in the female class. Mr. Eberle has entered his dogs in various shows throughout the country and won prizes in every show. The male dog, awarded the winners blue ribbon, now has seven blue ribbon winners to its credit.

CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER

Vaj Keesacker of Peoria, Ill., was convicted of fourth degree manslaughter by a jury in Circuit Judge John C. Klezka's court at Milwaukee Wednesday afternoon. Keesacker was found guilty of negligence in an automobile accident on February 26th, which killed Mrs. Anna Bull of Slinger. The jury was out one hour. The defendant is liable to two years in prison. Attorneys for Keesacker asked for a new trial. Motions will be heard before Judge Klezka on May 20. He was allowed to remain at liberty under a $1000 bond. The accident happened at the intersection of Highways 100 and 41. The state prosecutors charged that Keesacker failed to stop at the arterial highway. Witnesses testified he was traveling at the rate of 50 miles an hour when the accident happened.

NOT TO RE-LOCATE HIGHWAY 67

By a two-to-one vote of the Sheboygan county board last Saturday a resolution presented by Supervisor E. W. Nehrling was adopted, opposing any substantial change or re-location in Highway 67, and requesting the state highway commission to rescind its order re-locating that route.

UNITED IN BONDS OF MATRIMONY

HERRIGES-RODEN

St. Michael's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Tuesday morning, May 3rd, at nine o'clock, when Rev. J. F. Beyer united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Andrew Roden and Miss Cecilia Herriges. The bride was beautifully gowned in white soft taffeta, and wore a long veil in cap effect and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, sweet peas and swansonia. Miss Gertrude Herriges, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was dressed in light blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of roses, sweet peas and forget-me-nots. Miss Veronica Roden, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and was dressed in orchid taffeta and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Joseph Roden, brother of the groom, was best man, and Frank Herriges, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. After the church ceremony the bridal party, together with about 140 guests, repaired to the St. Michael's hall where a reception was held and a bountiful wedding dinner was served, and where the occasion was duly celebrated. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Roden, and is well liked by his many friends. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Jos. Herriges and is a popular young lady, well trained in home affairs and will no doubt, make a happy home for the groom of her choice. They will reside on the groom's farm about 1/2 mile north of St. Michael's, where they will be at home after May 23. Their many friends wish them happiness in their new home.

HERRIGES-HURTH NUPTIALS

The St. Michael's church was the scene of another pretty wedding on Saturday morning, May 7th, at 9 o'clock when Rev. J. F. Beyer united in marriage Alvis Herriges and Miss Margaret Hurth. The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin and wore a long veil edged with lace in cap effect and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, sweet peas and swansonia. Miss Hurth, a niece of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an orchid color satin dress with slippers and head band to match and carried yellow roses. Mrs. Roman Boegel, another niece of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a blue silk crepe dress with slippers and head band to match and carried pink roses. Frank Herriges, brother of the groom, was best man, and Roman Boegel was groomsmen. Little Rayner Herriges, dressed in a white suit, carried the rings in a large lily. Little Helen Herriges, dressed in a white silk crepe dress, with head band to match, was the flower girl; she carried a basket of mixed flowers. The bride is a popular young lady, the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hurth of St. Kilian. The groom is a model young man and is the son of Mrs. Joseph Herriges. After the ceremony at the church, a reception was held at the groom's home with about sixty guests in attendance. The young couple will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm, about 1/2 mile west of St. Michael's. Congratulations to the young couple and may they meet only sunshine and happiness on their voyage through life on the sea of matrimony.

QUIETLY MARRIED

Ellsworth Schaefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaefer, and Miss Lorraine Maeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Maeder, both of West Bend, were quietly married in Waukegan, Ill., on Thursday, May 5. The young couple are making their home at West Bend.

MEMORIAL DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Memorial Day, Monday, May 30th, will as usual be observed this year, according to plans formulated at the regular monthly meeting of the American Legion held Monday evening. A committee of legionnaires was appointed to carry on all details. The program for the day will be announced next week. It will begin with a parade in the morning to the various graves of the soldiers in past wars, who have gone west, and concluded with an appropriate program at the high school. All business men will be asked to decorate their business places and all societies will be invited to participate in the day's observance.

SLINGER BANKS MERGE

The Farmers State Bank and State Bank of Slinger last Saturday, May 7, consolidated and merged. All business transactions of the Farmers State Bank will be carried on through the channels of the State Bank of Slinger. At the time of the merger officers of the Farmers State Bank were: Peter Mueller, President; John Merten, Vice-president; and Math. Weiss, Cashier; and of the State Bank of Slinger: Peter Schuck, President; Jac. Roth-enback, Vice-President; and William G. Kratz, Cashier.

KEWASKUM DROPS LEAGUE OPENER

BADGER STATE LEAGUE TEAM STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct
North Fond du Lac	1	0	100%
Menomonee Falls	1	0	100%
Sheboygan Falls	1	0	100%
Kewaskum	0	1	00%
Mayville	0	1	00%
West Bend	0	1	00%

GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

North Fond du Lac at Kewaskum
Sheboygan Falls at Menomonee Falls
Mayville at West Bend.

In what started out to be a pitcher's battle between Lehman for the locals and Amend for Menomonee Falls, and which ended in a listless game on the part of Kewaskum, the locals lost the opening game with Menomonee Falls at the latter place last Sunday by a score of 9 to 2.

Kewaskum, in the very first inning scored one run, after Kohn, the first man up, struck out. A large rally was prevented when Kral was allowed only two bases on a perfect hit into right field on account of ground rules, and Dreher after scoring was obliged to return to third base. From then on until the last half of the fifth, no score was made on either side, both pitchers having their opposing batters guessing. In the fifth, Menomonee Falls scored three unearned runs, which took the pep out of the locals, and from then on errors were numerous. Lehman, for the locals, pitched a wonderful game, and should have won the game, even though the score shows it to be one-sided. No pitcher, regardless as to how good he is throwing a game, can win if the support back of him is not good. This defect does not discourage the players nor the manager. Several weak plays were noticeable and the boys are determined to work harder and overcome the mistakes made. Kewaskum has the makings of a good ball team; and before the season ends, we predict they will be one of the runner-ups for the pennant. The box score according to official scorer:

Player	AB	R	H	E
Kewaskum	29	2	5	4
Kohn, R.	4	0	0	0
Nell, 2b.	4	1	1	0
Dreher, cf.	4	0	2	1
Kral, c.	4	0	1	2
Elliott, 3b.	2	0	0	0
Trotter, ss.	4	0	0	0
Miller, lb.	3	0	0	1
Heberer, rf.	1	0	0	0
Schaefer, p.	0	1	0	0
Lehman, p.	2	0	0	0
Malac, p.	1	0	1	0

Player	AB	R	H	E
Menomonee Falls	29	2	5	4
Lehman, 2b.	5	2	2	0
Pierce, 3b.	5	1	3	0
Adlam, ss.	4	0	1	0
A. Rott, c.	4	1	1	1
Amend, p.	3	0	0	0
D. Wilke, lb.	4	0	2	0
Jac. Rott, rf.	3	2	1	0
A. Wilke, cf.	3	1	1	0
J. Rott, p.	4	2	0	0

Totals 29 2 5 4

Menomonee Falls AB R H E

Lehman, 2b. 5 2 2 0
Pierce, 3b. 5 1 3 0
Adlam, ss. 4 0 1 0
A. Rott, c. 4 1 1 1
Amend, p. 3 0 0 0
D. Wilke, lb. 4 0 2 0
Jac. Rott, rf. 3 2 1 0
A. Wilke, cf. 3 1 1 0
J. Rott, p. 4 2 0 0

Totals 35 9 11

R H E

Kewaskum 100 000 010-2 5 4

Menomonee Falls 000 031 230-9 11 1

Summary—Two base hits—Lehman, Adlam, A. Rott, D. Wilke, Kral. Three base hits—Dreher. Struck out by Amend 13, by Lehman 7, by Malac 2. Base on balls—Amend 4, off Lehman 3. Hit by pitcher, Schaefer. Wild pitch, Amend. Passed ball, Kral. Stolen bases, Menomonee Falls 5, Kewaskum 2. Double plays, Menomonee Falls 3. Left on bases, Kewaskum 5, Menomonee Falls 6. Umpires—Wickert at home plate, Hobson at first base. Time of game, 1 hour and 45 minutes.

HIGH LIGHTS

About half of the spectators were fans from Kewaskum.

Malac replaced Lehman at pitching for Kewaskum in the seventh. Schaefer took Heberer's place in right field in the sixth.

Pierce of Menomonee Falls copped three hits out of five times at bat. Dreher batted 500 per cent, getting two out of four.

Official scorer slipped up on several errors on the part of Kewaskum, which gave the opponents hits which they were not entitled to.

All home teams won the opening game, which should be.

NORTH FOND DU LAC HERE SUNDAY

On Sunday, the opening game of the season will be played on the local grounds, when the strong North Fond du Lac Tigers will be here. The Tigers are the favorite contenders for first place in the league. Manager Schmidt expects to shift the lineup somewhat and with good baseball by his players will win the game. Arrangements are being made to accommodate a large crowd. President T. R. Schmidt will pitch the first ball. A brass band will be present to furnish music before and during the intervals of the game. The visitors will be on hand with a large number of rosters. This promises to be a real thriller.

(Continued on Last Page)

All Around WISCONSIN

Platteville—The annual convention of the Wisconsin Rural Mail Carriers' association will be held at Platteville in July.

Racine—State Senator Walter Goodland, editor of the Racine Times-Calls, has announced himself as a republican candidate for United States senator.

Rhineland—The summer residence of B. G. Brinkman of St. Louis, Mo., on Lake Minocqua has been destroyed by fire with loss estimated at $55,000.

Beloit—A resolution proposing that athletics in Beloit public schools be abolished as an economy measure has been endorsed by a 3 to 2 vote of the city council.

Appleton—Jerry Metcher, town of Freedom, was sentenced to one to three years in the state prison after being convicted of practicing medicine without a license.

Portage—George Clemmons, 72, keeper of the government locks here for many years, was found dead from a heart attack in the caretakers' house at the Portage canal.

Elkhorn—Congressman Thomas R. Amble of this city was married at the national capital on May 7 to Mrs. Gertrude Beyer, formerly of Madison, who was his housekeeper for the past two years.

Ashland—The deserted village of Oriant, in Bayfield county near Cornucopia, has been destroyed by fire. A dozen old buildings were burned. The village was abandoned ten years ago after logging operations ceased there.

Milwaukee—Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette university negro sprinter, tied the world's record of :05 in the 100 yard dash in the dual track meet in which the University of Wisconsin nosed out Marquette, 66 1-3 to 64 2-3.

Melford—The Taylor county board has voted to bond the county for $40,000 to pave highway 64 in Melford and highway 102 1-1 Rib Lake. Bonds are to be retired in two years by the county's share of the state gasoline tax.

Appleton—Appleton's joint celebration of its seventy-fifth anniversary and the Washington bi-centennial, held during the week of May 1-7, was featured by an open air music festival in which 2,200 school pupils participated.

Wausau—City officials of Wausau have volunteered to accept salary reductions. Cuts of 10 and 15 per cent were accepted and Mayor Otto Muenchow trimmed his own salary 25 per cent. A general salary reduction for all city employees, including policemen and firemen, to become effective May 15, was voted by the council.

Waukesha—Six town of Pewaukee farmers who sell milk and cream at roadside stations were haled into municipal court here on charges of illegal creaming with less than 18 per cent butter fat required by law. Five cents per quart is the prevailing price for milk at roadside stations in this county. Pasteurized cream sells at 25 cents per quart.

Racine—The state law providing that children 4 years old may attend kindergarten is to be disregarded by the Racine school board. After cutting $20,000 from the budget for kindergartens, the board raised the age limit to five years in the belief that parents of 4-year-olds will not insist on legal rights in view of the need for economy.

Beloit—The Rock county unemployment relief station here was closed because of disorders resulting from the refusal of a number of clients of the station to work for the relief orders given them. The trouble started when communists, said to be from Racine and Kenosha, held a mass meeting here urging the indigent to refuse to work for relief and the following day stopped a county truck carrying workmen to Janesville and induced them to strike.

Madison—Circuit Judge A. C. Hoppmann has refused to make the Capital City bank, Thomas Herred, acting banking commissioner, and State Treasurer Solomon Levitan party defendants in the state's suit against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company and the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland. The state instituted suit against the surety companies to collect money covered by bonds issued against state deposits in the Capital City bank which failed several months ago. The companies refused to pay the full amount of the bonds on the ground that the law had been violated in making the deposits.

Plymouth—The absence of a 2-week-old baby from the home of Walter Payne here caused neighborhood concern which led to the arrest of Payne on a charge of abandonment. He confessed that he had left the baby on a doorstep at Wilmette, Ill., because he could not support it.

Madison—Communist students at the state university have decided to boycott California oranges as long as Tom Mooney, who is serving a life sentence for Preparedness day bombing, is held in prison in that state.

Rice Lake—Seventeen pickle stations of the Pepin Pickling Co. around Rice Lake and points north will not be operated this year. The stock on hand is still large and prices down. Plans for a sauerkraut factory in Rice Lake are also being held up.

Washburn—More than 1,400 acres of tax dead lands owned by Bayfield county have been sold within two weeks. A 720-acre tract in the town of Cable was sold to the Kiel Woodware Co. of Mellen, which will cut second growth timber on the land.

Milwaukee—Six Indians from the Menominee reservation near Shawano plead guilty in federal court here to charges of stealing government dynamite and trading it for whisky.

Oshkosh—All city officials reapportioned for next year must take a 10 per cent cut, the commission council has decided. Teachers in the Oshkosh schools were given a 10 per cent cut, effective Sept. 1.

Oshkosh—W. J. Campbell of this city, one of the founders of the "regular" republican organization in Wisconsin, has announced himself a candidate for the nomination for United States senator against Senator John J. Blaine.

Kewaunee—Anton G. Schauer, 71, former Kewaunee county assemblyman, died at a Green Bay hospital following an operation. Long in public life, he was a former sheriff, register of deeds, clerk of courts and was court commissioner at the time of his death.

Green Bay—Frederick W. Conrad, who was in charge of the U. S. weather bureau here for thirty years prior to his retirement in 1923, died recently at the national soldiers' home in Washington, D. C. His service record dating from 1871 was the longest in the history of the weather bureau.

Marshfield—Melvin Leinwander, Marshfield, charged with using the same automobile license plates for four years, was sentenced to spend 90 days in county jail and also pay a $100 fine. Police said the 1928 Illinois license plates on his car had been repainted to conform to the proper coloring four times.

Madison—Prof. Frederick L. Paxson, chairman of the history department, will resign his post at the close of the semester to accept a history professorship at the University of California at an annual salary of $9,300. Professor Paxson has served in the history department 22 years.

Viroqua—The model farm developed near here by the late Dr. Christian Christianson, former La Crosse surgeon, and valued by him at $130,000, has been sold at sheriff's sale to the Bank of Viroqua for $17,000. After Dr. Christianson died the 455 acre farm was rented to tenants but they were unable to operate it profitably.

Janesville—Mrs. Paul Nita of Evansville and her five-year-old daughter were burned to death in an auto accident about twelve miles east of here. The car driven by her husband ran off the road and struck a stump following the blowout of a tire. It was immediately enveloped in flames and Nita managed to get out only after he was seriously burned.

Racine—The council approved a resolution asking city employees to return to the municipal fund portions of their salaries. According to the resolution, employees will return 10 per cent of the first $1,000 in salary they receive; 12 1/2 per cent on the second $1,000; 15 per cent on the third $1,000; 17 1/2 per cent on the fourth and 20 per cent on the fifth.

Madison—Notice has been served on the state by the Shell Petroleum corporation, St. Louis, Mo., that it will sue for recovery of fees paid under protest for "chain store" licenses for its filling stations. Almost all of the filling station taxes paid under this law have been protested in anticipation of such a suit, challenging validity of the statute.

Madison—A request for a court order compelling the state highway commission and the bureau of personnel to reinstate him as state highway engineer has been denied Walter G. Buetow by Circuit Judge A. C. Hoppmann. Buetow contended he was discharged from the position in violation of the civil service law, but Judge Hoppmann ruled that he had resigned on July 1, 1931.

Marshfield—Six persons, consisting of a family of four and two relatives, were killed at a Soo line railroad crossing about six miles west of here when the auto in which they were riding was struck by a fast train. The dead are Irvin Reimer, his wife and two children aged 3 and 12, Joseph Reimer and his wife. The two men were brothers. The families lived in adjoining farms near Rudolph.

Madison—Lower prices and tendency of farmers to do less intensive feeding has greatly reduced the feed bill of Wisconsin farmers, according to the crop reporting service of state and federal departments of markets. Prices of feeds, for which Wisconsin farmers spent $31,000,000 in 1929, have fallen 47 per cent since that time, but on April 1 nearly 10 per cent less grain, mill feeds and other concentrate were being used by farmers. During March of this year, the level of feed prices was 29 per cent below the pre-war average, while most other commodities purchased by farmers were priced slightly above the 1910-1914 average.

Madison—A general decrease in canning crops will characterize Wisconsin farms this year, the crop reporting service of the state and federal department of agriculture has announced. Unsatisfactory return from cucumber, canning beans and peas, sweet corn and kraut cabbage crops last year is said to have caused the decrease.

Milwaukee—The Crocker Chair company, Sheboygan, has filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in federal court, listing assets of $1,715,639 and liabilities of $390,288.

Portage—The creamery at Arlington, owned by the Midwest Canning company, has cancelled contracts for 1,250 acres of peas and closed up its plants for this season. The company's payments to farmers and employees have run as high as $250,000 per year.

Manitowoc—Buildings which once comprised this city's most important industrial plant, the American Seating company, were torn down after the owners, who no longer operate the factory, and city officials were unable to agree on a tax reduction.

MASSIE CASE FOUR SET FREE BY JUDD

Hawaii Governor Commutes Sentence to Hour.

Honolulu.—Swiftly, almost secretly, Hawaii's tangled criminal and political knot was cut and a horizon of peace began to unfold before the people of this troubled island.

The first move, made as a result of negotiations and conferences since the jury's verdict convicting Mrs. Granville Fortescue, her son-in-law, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, U. S. N., and the two sailors, E. J. Lord and Albert O. Jones, of manslaughter, came as a surprise. Two days in advance of the time set for the passing of sentence the four defendants were called into Circuit Judge Charles S. Davis' court and sentenced to ten years in prison at hard labor for the killing of Joseph Kahahawai, half caste islander and alleged confessed attacker of Mrs. Massie.

This was followed within an hour by legal moves and executive action by Gov. Lawrence M. Judd which set the naval group free forever. Their sentence was commuted by the governor to one hour and this hour was served partly in the courtroom and partly in the office of Attorney General Hewitt.

Almost at once pressure began to be felt from various sources, led by Clarence Darrow of Chicago, chief counsel for the murder trial defense, to drop the prosecution of the four remaining youths charged with the assault on Mrs. Massie, which was the beginning of all Hawaii's troubles.

Governor Judd, in commuting the sentence to one hour, merely said he was acting on a petition of the four defendants in which their counsel joined, and was commuting the sentence to one hour. It was understood he acceded to demands from the States. He had received a cabled petition for a pardon signed by eighty members of congress, and many other requests for such action.

Washington.—Official Washington received with general satisfaction the action of Governor Judd of Hawaii in freeing the four "honor slaying" defendants.

News of the action was speeded to the White House, congress and the Navy department as soon as the wires carried the flash.

It came as both senate and house were expediting legislation to ensure a pardon for Lieut. Thomas A. Massie, Mrs. Granville Fortescue and the two navy men, Lord and Jones.

Despite the sentence imposed and the commutation quickly given by Governor Judd, an opinion by Justice Benjamin Cardozo, declined to pass on whether political parties in the various states had the right to prescribe the qualifications of their members and determine who should be permitted to vote at party primaries. The opinion pointed out, however, that the action by the Texas Democratic executive committee was based on authority given in an act of the legislature.

Law Barring Colored Voters Is Held Invalid

Washington.—The Texas election law which a colored voter contended denied him the right to vote in a Democratic primary was set aside by the United States Supreme court.

The court, in an opinion by Justice Benjamin Cardozo, declined to pass on whether political parties in the various states had the right to prescribe the qualifications of their members and determine who should be permitted to vote at party primaries. The opinion pointed out, however, that the action by the Texas Democratic executive committee was based on authority given in an act of the legislature.

AI Capone Is Taken to Atlanta Penitentiary

Chicago.—Handcuffed to a petty automobile thief and guarded by prohibition agents, policemen, deputy United States marshals, and a secret service agent, Al Capone boarded a train at the Dearborn station and started on his journey to the federal penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga., where he began serving a term of eleven years for evading payment of his income tax.

The United States Supreme court had refused to review Capone's case and there was no way in which the former boss gangster could be kept out of the federal prison. When he finishes his Atlanta term of ten years he must serve one year in jail. By seven o'clock he may get out in about seven and one-half years.

Dog War Hero Gets Full Military Funeral

Dover, Ohio.—A military funeral was given "Bing" war dog which accompanied the Tuscarawas county machine gun company to France during the World war. "Bing" was winner of a decoration, was buried in soldiers' lot in the Union cemetery at Uhrichsville, Ohio, near here.

Murray to Talk in East

Hudson, N. Y.—Governor Murray of Oklahoma will speak at the Valley Blossom festival May 20 in behalf of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President, it was announced here.

Fire in Indian's Town

Macy, Neb.—Fire destroyed four of the principal buildings in this town, inhabited chiefly by the Omaha Indian tribe. Damage was estimated at $75,000.

Rhode Island for AI Smith

Providence, R. I.—Rhode Island's 14 delegates to the Democratic national convention in Chicago June 27 were elected at a special state convention here and instructed to "make every effort" to obtain the nomination of Alfred E. Smith for President.

Two Killed Blasting Stumps

Manson, Iowa.—H. H. Doyen, thirty-six, and William Behrends, forty-two, were killed while dynamiting stumps in a field on Doyen's farm.

ALPHONSE CAPONE

The United States Supreme court having refused to review his case, Al Capone, the former boss gangster of Chicago, has been taken to Atlanta penitentiary to begin serving his sentence of eleven years for income tax fraud.

ECONOMY BILL IS WRECKED BY HOUSE

Savings of Only $42,300,000 Left in Measure.

Washington.—Virtually useless as an aid to budget balancing, the economy bill was put through the house, a mere shadow of the $120,000,000 measure originally drafted.

It was passed and sent to the senate easily enough, carrying $42,300,000 of savings, but only after the insurgent majority had withstood, on nine successive roll calls, the desperate efforts of regular leaders to force reinstatement of big economies previously voted down.

The final outlook for the bill was uncertain. The senate, busy with the tax bill and other legislation, had given the measure scant attention, but, being attached to the legislative appropriation bill, it is sure to get action.

All the bill can accomplish in its present shape is:

- 1. Authorize President Hoover to reorganize government agencies, subject to congressional approval; create a public works administration to concentrate all but military and rivers and harbors work; disband or reduce the Philippine scouts and reorganize the shipping board to save $2,500,000.
2. Suspend all overtime pay, automatic promotions and salary raises, and retire all superannuated government employees, reducing traveling allowances of railway mail clerks and congressmen, and curtailing the transfer from post to post of officers and enlisted men of the army and navy.
3. Cut by 11 per cent all government salaries above $2,500 exemption and prevent retired military and naval officers holding government positions from drawing more than $3,000 a year through their retirement compensation.
4. Reduce government printing expenditures by $4,000,000; set a $10,000 limit on salaries in government boards, corporations and commissions, and transfer and consolidate several departmental activities.

Detroit-Windsor Tunnel in Hands of Receiver

Windsor, Ont.—The Detroit-Windsor tunnel was placed in receivership by Federal Judge Arthur J. Tuttle in Detroit. The receivership was voluntary and George R. Cook, president of the Detroit and Canada Tunnel company was appointed the receiver.

65 Years' Reign Ends as Indian Prince Dies

Chatrapur, India.—Rajrishi Maharaja Sir Vishwanath Singh, bahadur of Chatrapur, is dead here after one of the longest reigns in history, only three years short of that of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria. He ascended the throne when he was only a year old, and had an uninterrupted rulership of 65 years.

Maj. Gen. Connor Takes Command at West Point

West Point, N. Y.—Maj. Gen. W. D. Connor took command of the United States Military academy here, replacing Maj. Gen. William R. Smith, who was placed on the retired list of the army.

Cow Causes Fatal Wreck

Clinton, Iowa.—Frank Gallacher, engineer, and a number of cattle were killed by derailment of the locomotive and ten cars of a Santa Fe stock train here. Railroad officials said they believed a chain pulled across the tracks by a cow caused the wreck.

Foundry President Kills Self

Bellaire, Ohio.—Carl L. Dorer, eighty, president of the foundry company bearing his name, killed himself with a shotgun.

Pershing's War Chauffeur Dies

Columbus, Ohio.—Elgin Braine, forty, who served as General Pershing's personal chauffeur many months during the World war, died of heart disease here. He was district sales manager for the American Steel and Wire company of Chicago.

Fire Sweeps Village

Quebec.—Reports from St. Felicien, in the Lake St. John district, said that a fire there destroyed 17 houses, comprising a large part of the village.

HEADQUARTERS FOR ROOSEVELT RIVALS

Five or More Engage Suites in Chicago Hotel.

Chicago.—No matter what happens to or for the Democratic Presidential nomination aspirations of Franklin D. Roosevelt, headquarters of at least five of his opponents will be opened in Chicago before the national convention begins on June 27.

Large suites of rooms have been arranged at the Congress hotel for Alfred E. Smith, Gov. William Henry Murray of Oklahoma, Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri and Former Gov. Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia.

The largest suite of them all has been contracted for by the Roosevelt campaign committee. Roosevelt probably will not come to Chicago for the convention, but the five others are expected, for sleeping suites have been arranged for them as well as the headquarters parlors for campaign operations. The James Hamilton Lewis G. H. Q. probably will be in the Sherman hotel.

Only two candidate headquarters will be opened for the Republican convention, which begins on June 14. One will be for President Hoover, who will not be here, and the other for former Senator Joseph I. France of Maryland. France will manage his convention affairs personally.

While the national committee headquarters and the greatest activity of both conventions will be located in the Congress, all of the downtown hotels will see plenty of action. State headquarters and living accommodations are being arranged in all of the central hotels, most of them being at the Stevens, the Palmer house, Auditorium, Morrison, Sherman and LaSalle.

In addition to the general Roosevelt headquarters at the Congress, the Pennsylvania squabble over division of that state's 76 delegates elected on April 25 will be carried to Chicago with establishment of Pennsylvania Roosevelt-for-President headquarters at the Stevens hotel. That state will have two suites there, the other being arranged for the regular state headquarters.

Contrary to rumors that have been circulated in various parts of the country, John Burke, vice president of the Congress Hotel company and president of the Chicago Hotel Men's association, asserted that there will be no difficulty about housing everybody who comes to Chicago during the convention period.

"There are 18,000 rooms in the downtown section alone," Mr. Burke said, "and about 30,000 more in districts within thirty minutes of the loop. Chicago will be able to provide rooms for everybody who comes, absolutely without increase in regular rates—many of which have been reduced in recent months.

"Of course, it is advisable for persons who expect to be here to make reservations early, so that they can get more desirable space, but we anticipate no difficulty in caring for all."

25 Sandino Aids Die Fighting U. S. Marines

Colon, C. Z.—A surprise attack by Nicaraguan guardsmen, commanded by United States Marines, scattered rebel forces concentrated along the Honduran border in the Cocos river sector. Twenty-five of Gen. Augusto Sandino's rebel followers were reported slain, and the rest of his band were being pursued through the border jungles.

Ex-Steamfitter Is in Presidency Race

New York.—Verne L. Reynolds, a former steamfitter, was nominated by the Socialist Labor party as its candidate for President. J. W. Alken of Boston was nominated for vice president.

Groceries of Detroit Form Biggest Merger

Detroit.—Consolidation of the Wolf Wholesale Grocery company, George W. Rudell company and Checker System Stores with Lee and Cady established what is believed the largest wholesale grocery organization in the United States.

Guess Ice Breakup to Minute; Win $60,000

Fairbanks, Alaska.—Guessing the exact day, hour and minute that the spring ice thaw on Tanana river would start, three veteran Alaskans received $20,000 apiece from the annual ice-guessing contest.

Fire Destroys Cement Plant

Adrian, Mich.—Fire destroyed the packing house and one section of the storage quarters of the Consolidated Cement corporation's plant at Cement City, causing a loss of over $60,000.

Pioneer Aviator Is Dead

Jacksonville, Fla.—Lee Hammond, pioneer Chicago aviator and commanding officer of the Great Lakes Naval Training school aviation department during the war, died suddenly from heart disease.

Edge to Be Curtis' Rival

Paris.—Ambassador Walter E. Edge is being groomed by Republican leaders to succeed Vice President Curtis as President Hoover's running mate in November, according to reports in authoritative circles here.

Deputy Treasurer Missing

Davenport, Iowa.—Victor Paustian, thirty-six, chief deputy county treasurer, is missing and a checkup of his accounts has revealed an alleged shortage of approximately $11,400.

Gorgeous Prints With Velvet Accents

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

FASHION has discovered nothing more gloriously harmonized to afternoon and formal evening environment than richly colorful prints. This season, more than ever, printed materials have a way of telling their intention. You know the moment you look at a print whether it is to be worn formally or informally.

As in every other realm of fashion at the present moment, it is smart for prints to be gay. The dressier prints, especially, are perfectly gorgeous. This is so not only in the matter of their exotic coloring, but their patterning is outstanding. One finds, for instance, such striking effects among evening chiffons as a black background with life-size tulips printed in red and white with leaves in lively green. Natural flowers which look almost as if hand-painted flourish in the printed mode, special prominence being given to field flowers, the red of the enormous poppies and the blue of the cornflowers responding to the red, white and blue of the now-so-fashionable bi-centennial colors.

A crinkled construction is favored in chiffons this season, which include many tinted grounds with delicate artful color work in vari-sized patterns. These carry large florals of tropical aspect, which seem to say that they are going to dance under moonlit skies or pose on picturesque verandas, or be seen elsewhere amidst luxurious surroundings under glamorous lights.

Bordered chiffons done in real flower colorings capture the fancy of every woman seeking the new and the beautiful. They work up delightfully into the new scarf drapes and gypsy girle effects.

Just as if the richly colorful prints of present vintage were not sufficient unto themselves, fashion fills their cup of beauty full to overflowing by adding a velvet accent which repeats a leading tone of the designful patterning. It may be achieved, this added touch of elegance, via a velvet skirt or soft tied bows at the shoulder or at other strategic points. It is, perhaps, to their little velvet wraps that evening fashions owe most of their gaiety. Waist-length jackets or capes or boleros—the treatments are varied, but the idea is universally appealing.

Fashion-wise budgeters, this year, are planning at least two jackets with their evening frocks—one in velvet in a high color and the other in the fabric, which makes the dress. For instance, the strikingly colorful printed flouncy dress with its jewel-clasped velvet girde as shown to the left in the illustration spends as you now see it, a formal afternoon at bridge. With the jacket removed it stays on for dinner and dancing. It again alters its appearance completely when later on in the season of festivities it changes its printed jacket for a short wrap of bright medioc velvet that matches one tone in the print.

When it comes to thrills and frills, too, for that matter, for many of them boast myriads of prettily frivolous ruffles and shirrings, there is nothing so conspicuously present as the new little capelet wraps of velvet in vivid tone. For instance, if milday's dress is made of one of the very new printed heavy sheer crepes like the Persian print pictured on the figure standing to the right in the picture, she may wear a wrap-around cape of flame-colored medioc transparent velvet to repeat a colored motif in the print. It is taken for granted that somewhere in reserve a brief jacket of matching print is in waiting to complete upon demand a perfect ensemble for dinner or informal evening wear.

The twisted scarf, or those braided, which employ two or three colors of velvet, are accessories which should be included in every wardrobe of pretty trifles which brighten the spring or summer costume.

(© 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

AFTERNOON FROCKS NOT SO ELABORATE

With the return of beige as a costume color, other pastels have come into prominence—soft pinks and greens and blues. But there is no elaboration to these frocks.

They do not approach the feminine fashion of afternoon dresses that we have always associated with the name. For these are essentially day-time dresses. The smartest frocks are fashioned along simply tailored lines, without much trimming, except perhaps the ever-present lingerie touches.

Rough silk crepes and flat silk crepes are used, but always silks with dull surfaces. Shiger crepes also, of the heavier varieties, that tailor almost like flat crepe, are very smart for spring.

Black dresses, with plenty of white trimming, will, of course, be worn with black coats, but many women will seize this opportunity for lightness and brightness. Coral, pink, light greens and blues and beige all make smart frocks to wear with black coats. With a blue coat the lighter shades of blue form a pleasing contrast. With brown, beige or the aquamarine shades are particularly attractive.

These dresses, fortunately, will not be long. Longer dresses will be of a more formal type for late afternoon occasions and formal dinner. These frocks will be more elaborate, and lower as to décolletage.

Draping Shoulders New Graceful Figure Line

Women shouldn't wilt this season in evening gowns but just a slight drooping of the shoulders with perfect dignity and body control is considered a new and graceful figure line.

In order to help the smart woman to accomplish this little trick without overdoing it, you will find that dress-makers have turned to the insertion of many yokes, guiding the lines in artful swerves about and off the shoulders. This is done for coats as well as dresses and blouses.

DAYTIME PRINTS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Jane Regny designed this unusual and very likable frock for afternoon wear, featuring one of the new daytime prints in a small all-over patterning in soft shades of blue. The styling which calls for front flat-fitted skirt lines in contrast to a graceful tiered flare at the back is admirably demonstrated in this model. Many of the smart lace evening frocks have adopted this tiered, flared effect at the back with flattering success.

What Women Want to Know About Fashions

The plackets grandmother wore in her frocks are coming back to style. Lightweight wools in new beige and gray tones are shown for midseason wear.

Fashion has certainly gone patriotic this season for the tri-color is everywhere. Trousered wool skirts and waist-length sweaters are the "dernier cri" in teatime frocks.

The vogue for prints has produced unusual designs for midday's spring frock.

Suede, the soft supple quality, that fashions the finest gloves, is used for sets comprising a bare and scarf with matching bag. Scarfs are exceedingly important, especially the narrow ones, worn knotted close to the throat with collarless coats and suits.

CAGED

By COURTNEY RYLEY COOPER

Copyright by Courtney Ryley Cooper

(TNU Service)

SYNOPSIS

Joe Barry, country youth in New York, seeks out a living as caretaker in a poor rooming house and accordion player in Louis Bertolini's restaurant. Lured by the open country, he spends a night in the fields, near Newburgh. Bertolini discharges him. Friendless and "broke," he is offered $10,000 by a man he knows only as "Martin" to impersonate a liquor runner facing arrest. It means the penitentiary, but Joe is desperate. He defers decision until the next night, and is given $1,000 "on account." Next day Joe deposits $800 in country banks, giving his name as Joseph Bradley. A circus attracts him. Outside a tent he sees an accordion and is tempted to play it. A girl, Sue Dayton, niece of the owner, who admires the music, urges him to take a position with the circus, but Joe says he must first return to New York "on business." He has decided to refuse "Martin's" offer. In his rooming house four men accost him. Bewildered, Joe sees the men, who are detectives, find large amounts of money, a machine gun, two revolvers. Next day, under arrest, Joe is identified by men who had seen him the night before near Newburgh, when two prohibition agents were killed and robbed. Joe is charged with their murder and robbery. He realizes "Martin's" object—to have him found guilty of the murders, executed, and the case closed. A man known as "The House," who Bertolini's, buys Joe's case by his evidence. "Martin" cannot be found. Joe keeps silent as to his previous days. Fearing to embarrass Sue Dayton, his cellmate, Hymie Fradke, having secured a parole, "shoots it out" with prison guards, and is killed. In the confusion Joe escapes. Using the $20 Fradke had given him, he flees New York, draws some of the money he had deposited and finds the Dayton circus, looking upon it as a refuge.

CHAPTER V—Continued

It meant more hours of weakness and strength, at last it meant capitulation. There could be no harm in that; the damage had already been done. To talk to her again, to look upon her in the graceful beauty of silk and tulle, to stand with her by the little dressing tent where first he had met her; there must be no more than that. The throngs of the menagerie found Joe Barry before the cages. The instant Sue Dayton's act was over, he was out of his seat and hurrying for the marquee that he might round the tangled gyropes of the big top, to her dressing tent.

As he approached her, she waved excitedly to him and then turned for a moment within the tent, to make her exit as hurriedly, a professional copy of sheet music in her hands.

"I wonder if you've heard it?" she asked, giving him the music. "It's just out; you'd think it was written especially for us, wouldn't you?"

"Gee! Joe had looked at the title. "That's great, isn't it? 'Queen of the Sawdust Ring.'" He laughed. "That's you, all right," he said.

"Well, we'll play that it is," Sue agreed. "The music's real pretty. And you ought to hear the band play it! Queer; the orchestration and song came through the mail the day after we saw you. Uncle Dan and I said right away it would be just the thing. Bert Wilson, the band leader, you know, tried it out, and we started using it for the act yesterday. But of course, the real touch will be the solo when you play and sing it. Don't you like the words?"

Joe nodded as he read the chorus: "You're my shimmering dream of the sawdust ring, You're the hit of life's show for me, I wonder if you know the joy you'd bring."

If the queen of my heart you'd be, Tinsel and spangle and fluttering tulle, Queen of the sawdust ring, You'll make me a king, the world to rule. When you're queen of my diamond ring."

Joe purred in his breath, deeply. "That sure was written for you," he said at last. "I'll bet somebody saw you in the ring and wrote that."

"Foolish!" the girl bantered. "But it does fit into the act, wonderfully. That's the line I like," she added, pointing. She was beside him now, the soft touch of her breast against his shoulder sending through him a strange, almost delicious sort of thrill. "That fifth line: 'Tinsel and spangle and fluttering tulle.' Isn't that pretty?"

"The music's nice there, too." Hastily he crossed to the chair and, raising the gleaming lorio, swung his head under the strap.

"Play the whole thing over," she said. Joe obeyed greedily. Everything else in life had momentarily faded except this, except the fact that he was with her, translating a Tin Pan Alley creation into a sordid scene that in his mind at least, had been written just to describe the only circus girl who ever existed.

Tinsel and spangle and fluttering tulle, Queen of the sawdust ring, You'll make me a king, the world to rule. When you're queen of my diamond ring."

"That's a cracking good song," said a voice from the rear, and Joe turned to grin at greeting to Uncle Dan Dayton. "Well, boy, you were a day or two late, but it's all right. How do you like the song?"

"Oh gee!" Joe's smile finished the sentence. Uncle Dan stuffed his hands into the diagonal pockets of his riding breeches.

"Seem to be getting along pretty well with it. How about making the break tonight?"

"You mean—"

"Sure. You can memorize it in that time, can't you? If it's rotten, we'll be gone tomorrow, anyway, and you've had rehearsal."

"I—I don't know." A certain ugly tinge of grayness had made its appearance about Joe's lips. Realization had returned. Suddenly he wondered what these people would do if he should suddenly blurt forth the fact that he was a fugitive from a charge of murder. "I don't know about doing the act tonight," he said. "I'd planned to write a lot of letters and get sort of cleaned up on various things."

Uncle Dan laughed, and waved the objection aside. "Just got stage fright, that's all," and at a call from a lot boss, moved away. "Be back in a minute."

Sue Dayton waited until her uncle had reached the big top.

"If those other things can wait," she said seriously, "it'd do us all a lot of good."

"We'd really just be putting on a rehearsal, wouldn't we?" asked Joe.

"Yes, that's it. Come on!" She caught his arm. "You can learn that song in no time. Why, you almost know it now!"

There was considerable activity about Slat's Beeton's trunk in Clown alley that night. Uncle Dan, an equestrian director, wandered in and out, carrying over his arm a Pierrot suit which he fitted to Joe Barry, yanked away from him, and grumbling, returned to the wardrobe ward for more alterations. Sue Dayton came to the outer edge of the side wall and called through, wanting to know if Joe needed the song to run over. Cathouse Green, menagerie superintendent and animal trainer, sat on a trunk, heavily absorbed with a end of tobacco and thoughts of the value of a new act to the circus. Joe—Joe Bradley, as they knew him—was being made ready for his entrance to the ring.

CHAPTER VI

It was best, Joe had figured. Somehow, lies had refused to come to his lips. It could not go on, he had told himself, it must not go on—tonight after the show, he must fade out of this longed-for life forever. A tortured brain had seized upon that, arguing, showing reasons, prompting him to believe that he was doing a service by remaining just for tonight. This was just a try-out, as Sue had said, just a demonstration, to see how an idea would work. After that, it wouldn't make any difference who played and sang to her, so far as the circus was concerned. And if he could only make it successful, and point the way to what Sue and Uncle Dan wanted, that would be something to carry away with him when, after the show was loaded, he faded into the night.

A half-hour passed. A groom stuck his head under the side wall. "The perch act's on. That new clown ready? Got the horses at the back door?"

Uncle Dan moved forward to help Joe button the neck of his Pierrot suit. Some one handed him the gleaming lorio with its silverstone brilliance and facile keys. Over his shoulder went the strap—he swung his head and sang a bar or so of the tune that occupied his brain. Then he ran to the pad room entrance and the sight of her, perched atop the back of a ring horse.

Closer he moved, unnoticed in the attention of the audience upon her gyrations as the amiable old Percheron loped about the ring and the band played the music of her new number; the lilt and sway of it got into Joe's blood. He forgot about the tent, he forgot that he never had done anything like this before in all his life, he forgot everything except to sing to her, to sing it as if he meant it. An electrician threw a switch and the tent was dark, save for the flood lights bathing the ring, and the spots which centered upon her and upon him, as he made his entrance, his fingers drawing the very soul from the beloved instrument within his grasp, his lips sending forth the words of a love song that he could sing because it was his song, too.

And then the mounting roar of applause, for her and for him—at last he vaguely realized that they were outside and that she had leaped from the back of her horse to grasp him by the arms with strong, excited fingers.

"Oh, you were wonderful!" she exclaimed.

And he could only talk of her excellence, and ask her why he shouldn't do a thing well when she was helping him. Then there was Slat's Beeton and Clown alley again. After a long time Uncle Dan, still very excited, ducked under the side wall.

"Better get your grip just as soon as you're through here," said Uncle Dan. "Take it down to Car One Hundred and One. That's where you'll sleep. Ask for Bill, the porter." Then Uncle Dan grinned. "Sue's waiting for you—says you might not know the way to the cars."

"Yes, sir."

Still he was allowing himself to drift, these were treasured minutes which went so swiftly, each begging that another follow. At last he was outside, upon the moon-swept lot and beside her. Sue was dressed now as he first had seen her.

"Going down to the cars?" she asked. "I thought maybe I'd better show you the way—you might not know circus signals."

Joe had taken her arm, as if to guide her over the roughness of the lot; the warmth of her flesh had crept through to the palm of his hand and was thrilling upward to his heart. The girl did not draw away. Onward they went, past the place where her little tent had been. The circus was dismantling in a dozen places. For the first time, Joe really understood its magic, the speed and system by which it worked. No one seemed to hurry, no one ran about shouting orders, no one gave an indication of excitement; yet it was everywhere.

Onward Sue and Joe went in that silence which is so often eloquence. Sometimes the girl broke it by a few bars of her song; often she only walked beside him in the contentment of newfound friendship; Joe's hand had moved from its awkward position at her elbow. His arm was linked with hers now. At last, as a jumbled glare showed from a short distance ahead, she chuckled and reverted to a previous philosophy.

"Isn't it queer?" she asked. "So many people come to the circus feeling sorry for us, because we're show folk and wanderers. Really! Actually, Joe—she used the name in casual friendliness—"I've seen them peep in the cookhouse, just to see if we eat like other people."

They were at the loading runs now, where a tangle of men and horses and paraphernalia showed itself in the gleam of the carbides. "Shall we go to the grease joint?"

"The which?"

"Oh, it isn't as bad as it sounds. That's the circus name for the lunch counter. Smoky Todd runs it."

Through the maze of activity they went, and to sandwiches and coffee. At last Sue Dayton turned toward the dimly outlined sleeping cars.

"I guess you're tired," she said.

Joe Barry raised a hand across weary eyes.

"Yes—I am a little tired," he confessed.

"So am I. The excitement and everything. Now that I look back on it, I guess we were both pretty shaky about it. Well, if that's the way you feel about it," answered Bill Curry with a widening of his eyes, "hop to it! Blame yourself, though, if a few of us bosses drop dead. We ain't used to having performers do much of anything but beef."

An hour later, when Uncle Dan and Sue Dayton came on the lot, they halted at the sight of a grimy being, in borrowed overalls, who was assisting with the unrolling of the big top canvas. Again there was a remonstrance; again the answer, this time with boyish eagerness:

"But I might learn something!"

Uncle Dan and Sue walked on then, and Uncle Dan whistled enthusiastically all morning.

It was a beginning of exertions which did not end with the wearing off of the first veneer of Joe's enthusiasm. His body was of the sneaky type which reverted easily to muscle; as soon as the first soreness was over, he found a certain joy in the strain of effort, to say nothing of the mental alleviation which it gave him. For this was a new world into which he could submerge his own; here was a life which seemed endless in its mysteries. It meant the opening of new fields, new aspirations to be followed in this beloved place of deliverance. The circus had been all of that for Joe. For the first ten days or so, there had been a certain amount of agony in his existence, the fearful watchful attitude of one who was constantly amazed that out of these people, there was no one who should recognize him. Then, too, there had been the matter of his name, to be guarded every instant, lest he should afford the real one to slip. Hour after hour and day upon day he had re-peated it to himself as if it were a rote.

"Joe Bradley, I'm from Great Bend, Kan.; Joe Bradley, I'm from Great Bend, Kan."

At last it had become second nature to him. Now and then he thought of his true cognomen and it sounded strange to him. Slowly he had become Joe Bradley in reality, and with that transition, it had seemed that some of the venom of his memories had departed. Likewise, the watchfulness. Gradually he was becoming accustomed to the sight of a policeman. Slowly, ever so slowly, it became possible for him to walk through the crowds when they gathered on the midway before performance, or milled across the circus lot after the show was over, without the feeling that covertness was the constant price of his liberty.

All-pervading interest in this new life had made these things possible. It was as though he had been seeking his existence all his life. He had been the task of adapting himself to it almost feverishly, like a man striving to make up for lost time. Not the least pleasurable of his duties were those in the ring, when the gleaming lorio was in his grasp, to be transformed from a mere thing of pearl and silverstone and piano keys to the guardian spot of all the music that was in his soul. It made little difference to him that the song was a temporal one; it was a tribute to Sue and stage-struck in the ring, don't you? Posing that way and stage acting, as we call it, is a lot different from straight circus work."

"I suppose so. I guess I was terrible."

"Not half as bad as I was. I was all hands!" she confessed. "Anyway, that was just a dress rehearsal. We'll both be leads better tomorrow."

Joe did not answer. He knew there could be no tomorrow. Sue Dayton talked happily on.

"I'm just dead, aren't you? Uncle Dan told you where you'd bunk, didn't he? In the Hundred and One car? It's just down two coaches. This is my car here." She held forth a hand. "Good night, Joe," she said.

"Good—good night, Sue," came in a mumble. He caught her hand, longing to press it in both of his, to raise it to his lips and hold it there. But he only clasped it formally and said again: "Good night, Sue."

She swung to the steps and within the car. Joe Barry walked slowly back along the train, stumbling in the shadows. At last he halted, in the fringe of darkness, a car-length away from the loading runs.

Tomorrow! It clutched at Joe's heart. He could only think of tomorrow as related to the past, the fleeting, invisible things which chased him, the clicking wires, the reward sheets and description circulars. Joe Barry raised his hand to his eyes with that old, tired gesture. Tomorrow—and then a new thought came.

What would she think tomorrow, when she came on the lot to find him gone? Without explanation. Without a word of gratitude for all she and Uncle Dan had done for him. Suddenly he wondered if a part of his supposed sacrifice had not been egotism, after all. Something began to whisper here something would turn up to whisper something would turn up to whisper something would turn up to whisper that was it! He wasn't taking advantage of them by staying. Maybe it was the thing to do, to hide out, and keep his brain working to figure out just how that trick had been worked on him, and who had done it. Besides, he was innocent, wasn't he? It wasn't as if he had really committed a crime—

From far ahead, a double whistle sounded, the "highball" signal of the engineer. Slowly the train began to move. Just before it reached dangerous speed, a panting form overtook Car One Hundred and One and climbed aboard its platform.

CHAPTER VII

Joe Barry awoke the next morning to new realizations and new resolves. No one else in his particular car was awake. He tiptoed to the washroom, carrying his shoes. Once his eyes had opened, sleep had departed wholly. This, he realized, was tomorrow.

He must make it such in every way. He had come upon the show in the belief of a debt owed to others; his own affairs therefore must be subjugated. It was a self-hypnotism which changed his attitude toward life greatly. A half-hour later, out at the circus grounds, Bill Curry, the boss canvas man, looked hard at the young man who faced him.

"Aren't you a performer?" he asked.

"Yes, sir," said Joe Barry.

"The which?" asked Bill Curry with some amazement, "do you want to know if there's any work around the lot for you? Performers don't have to help put up the circus."

Joe grinned.

"Oh, I know that. But, you see, I'm new. I'd learn a lot about the circus by working this way. Besides, I'd like to."

"Well, if that's the way you feel about it," answered Bill Curry with a widening of his eyes, "hop to it! Blame yourself, though, if a few of us bosses drop dead. We ain't used to having performers do much of anything but beef."

An hour later, when Uncle Dan and Sue Dayton came on the lot, they halted at the sight of a grimy being, in borrowed overalls, who was assisting with the unrolling of the big top canvas. Again there was a remonstrance; again the answer, this time with boyish eagerness:

"But I might learn something!"

Uncle Dan and Sue walked on then, and Uncle Dan whistled enthusiastically all morning.

It was a beginning of exertions which did not end with the wearing off of the first veneer of Joe's enthusiasm. His body was of the sneaky type which reverted easily to muscle; as soon as the first soreness was over, he found a certain joy in the strain of effort, to say nothing of the mental alleviation which it gave him. For this was a new world into which he could submerge his own; here was a life which seemed endless in its mysteries. It meant the opening of new fields, new aspirations to be followed in this beloved place of deliverance. The circus had been all of that for Joe. For the first ten days or so, there had been a certain amount of agony in his existence, the fearful watchful attitude of one who was constantly amazed that out of these people, there was no one who should recognize him. Then, too, there had been the matter of his name, to be guarded every instant, lest he should afford the real one to slip. Hour after hour and day upon day he had re-peated it to himself as if it were a rote.

"Joe Bradley, I'm from Great Bend, Kan.; Joe Bradley, I'm from Great Bend, Kan."

At last it had become second nature to him. Now and then he thought of his true cognomen and it sounded strange to him. Slowly he had become Joe Bradley in reality, and with that transition, it had seemed that some of the venom of his memories had departed. Likewise, the watchfulness. Gradually he was becoming accustomed to the sight of a policeman. Slowly, ever so slowly, it became possible for him to walk through the crowds when they gathered on the midway before performance, or milled across the circus lot after the show was over, without the feeling that covertness was the constant price of his liberty.

All-pervading interest in this new life had made these things possible. It was as though he had been seeking his existence all his life. He had been the task of adapting himself to it almost feverishly, like a man striving to make up for lost time. Not the least pleasurable of his duties were those in the ring, when the gleaming lorio was in his grasp, to be transformed from a mere thing of pearl and silverstone and piano keys to the guardian spot of all the music that was in his soul. It made little difference to him that the song was a temporal one; it was a tribute to Sue and stage-struck in the ring, don't you? Posing that way and stage acting, as we call it, is a lot different from straight circus work."

"I suppose so. I guess I was terrible."

"Not half as bad as I was. I was all hands!" she confessed. "Anyway, that was just a dress rehearsal. We'll both be leads better tomorrow."

Joe did not answer. He knew there could be no tomorrow. Sue Dayton talked happily on.

"I'm just dead, aren't you? Uncle Dan told you where you'd bunk, didn't he? In the Hundred and One car? It's just down two coaches. This is my car here." She held forth a hand. "Good night, Joe," she said.

"Good—good night, Sue," came in a mumble. He caught her hand, longing to press it in both of his, to raise it to his lips and hold it there. But he only clasped it formally and said again: "Good night, Sue."

She swung to the steps and within the car. Joe Barry walked slowly back along the train, stumbling in the shadows. At last he halted, in the fringe of darkness, a car-length away from the loading runs.

Tomorrow! It clutched at Joe's heart. He could only think of tomorrow as related to the past, the fleeting, invisible things which chased him, the clicking wires, the reward sheets and description circulars. Joe Barry raised his hand to his eyes with that old, tired gesture. Tomorrow—and then a new thought came.

What would she think tomorrow, when she came on the lot to find him gone? Without explanation. Without a word of gratitude for all she and Uncle Dan had done for him. Suddenly he wondered if a part of his supposed sacrifice had not been egotism, after all. Something began to whisper here something would turn up to whisper something would turn up to whisper something would turn up to whisper that was it! He wasn't taking advantage of them by staying. Maybe it was the thing to do, to hide out, and keep his brain working to figure out just how that trick had been worked on him, and who had done it. Besides, he was innocent, wasn't he? It wasn't as if he had really committed a crime—

From far ahead, a double whistle sounded, the "highball" signal of the engineer. Slowly the train began to move. Just before it reached dangerous speed, a panting form overtook Car One Hundred and One and climbed aboard its platform.

CHAPTER VII

Joe Barry awoke the next morning to new realizations and new resolves. No one else in his particular car was awake. He tiptoed to the washroom, carrying his shoes. Once his eyes had opened, sleep had departed wholly. This, he realized, was tomorrow.

He must make it such in every way. He had come upon the show in the belief of a debt owed to others; his own affairs therefore must be subjugated. It was a self-hypnotism which changed his attitude toward life greatly. A half-hour later, out at the circus grounds, Bill Curry, the boss canvas man, looked hard at the young man who faced him.

"Aren't you a performer?" he asked.

"Yes, sir," said Joe Barry.

"The which?" asked Bill Curry with some amazement, "do you want to know if there's any work around the lot for you? Performers don't have to help put up the circus."

Joe grinned.

"Oh, I know that. But, you see, I'm new. I'd learn a lot about the circus by working this way. Besides, I'd like to."

"Well, if that's the way you feel about it," answered Bill Curry with a widening of his eyes, "hop to it! Blame yourself, though, if a few of us bosses drop dead. We ain't used to having performers do much of anything but beef."

An hour later, when Uncle Dan and Sue Dayton came on the lot, they halted at the sight of a grimy being, in borrowed overalls, who was assisting with the unrolling of the big top canvas. Again there was a remonstrance; again the answer, this time with boyish eagerness:

"But I might learn something!"

Uncle Dan and Sue walked on then, and Uncle Dan whistled enthusiastically all morning.

It was a beginning of exertions which did not end with the wearing off of the first veneer of Joe's enthusiasm. His body was of the sneaky type which reverted easily to muscle; as soon as the first soreness was over, he found a certain joy in the strain of effort, to say nothing of the mental alleviation which it gave him. For this was a new world into which he could submerge his own; here was a life which seemed endless in its mysteries. It meant the opening of new fields, new aspirations to be followed in this beloved place of deliverance. The circus had been all of that for Joe. For the first ten days or so, there had been a certain amount of agony in his existence, the fearful watchful attitude of one who was constantly amazed that out of these people, there was no one who should recognize him. Then, too, there had been the matter of his name, to be guarded every instant, lest he should afford the real one to slip. Hour after hour and day upon day he had re-peated it to himself as if it were a rote.

"Joe Bradley, I'm from Great Bend, Kan.; Joe Bradley, I'm from Great Bend, Kan."

At last it had become second nature to him. Now and then he thought of his true cognomen and it sounded strange to him. Slowly he had become Joe Bradley in reality, and with that transition, it had seemed that some of the venom of his memories had departed. Likewise, the watchfulness. Gradually he was becoming accustomed to the sight of a policeman. Slowly, ever so slowly, it became possible for him to walk through the crowds when they gathered on the midway before performance, or milled across the circus lot after the show was over, without the feeling that covertness was the constant price of his liberty.

All-pervading interest in this new life had made these things possible. It was as though he had been seeking his existence all his life. He had been the task of adapting himself to it almost feverishly, like a man striving to make up for lost time. Not the least pleasurable of his duties were those in the ring, when the gleaming lorio was in his grasp, to be transformed from a mere thing of pearl and silverstone and piano keys to the guardian spot of all the music that was in his soul. It made little difference to him that the song was a temporal one; it was a tribute to Sue and stage-struck in the ring, don't you? Posing that way and stage acting, as we call it, is a lot different from straight circus work."

"I suppose so. I guess I was terrible."

"Not half as bad as I was. I was all hands!" she confessed. "Anyway, that was just a dress rehearsal. We'll both be leads better tomorrow."

Joe did not answer. He knew there could be no tomorrow. Sue Dayton talked happily on.

"I'm just dead, aren't you? Uncle Dan told you where you'd bunk, didn't he? In the Hundred and One car? It's just down two coaches. This is my car here." She held forth a hand. "Good night, Joe," she said.

"Good—good night, Sue," came in a mumble. He caught her hand, longing to press it in both of his, to raise it to his lips and hold it there. But he only clasped it formally and said again: "Good night, Sue."

She swung to the steps and within the car. Joe Barry walked slowly back along the train, stumbling in the shadows. At last he halted, in the fringe of darkness, a car-length away from the loading runs.

Tomorrow! It clutched at Joe's heart. He could only think of tomorrow as related to the past, the fleeting, invisible things which chased him, the clicking wires, the reward sheets and description circulars. Joe Barry raised his hand to his eyes with that old, tired gesture. Tomorrow—and then a new thought came.

What would she think tomorrow, when she came on the lot to find him gone? Without explanation. Without a word of gratitude for all she and Uncle Dan had done for him. Suddenly he wondered if a part of his supposed sacrifice had not been egotism, after all. Something began to whisper here something would turn up to whisper something would turn up to whisper something would turn up to whisper that was it! He wasn't taking advantage of them by staying. Maybe it was the thing to do, to hide out, and keep his brain working to figure out just how that trick had been worked

POULTRY

YEARLING HEN NOT ALWAYS POOR "BET"

Many Can Qualify as Profitable Layers.

One way farmers and poultrymen can save this year is to keep most of last year's pullets so that fewer chicks will have to be raised, says H. H. Alp, poultry extension specialist of the college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

"In some instances it is good economy to keep most of last year's pullets. For one thing, they have gone through their most expensive depreciation. Last fall good pullets sold for $1 to $1.25 apiece, but these same birds probably would not sell for more than 50 to 75 cents this spring. This heavy depreciation is all because they have reached the hen class, and in the minds of the buying public they do not represent the potential value of a pullet.

"However, many of these yearling hens, if well bred, are far from being through as profitable layers. It is true that they may not make as high an annual production record, but they can be quite as profitable as many pullets. One big advantage of the production from yearling birds is that there should be no discount for small eggs.

"With the present knowledge of feeding and of management methods, it is not hard to have yearling birds laying well early in the fall and winter."

Chicks' Growth Helped by "All-Mash" System

Where dried buttermilk or skim-milk is mixed in with the mash it enables the chickens to get their source of milk much more evenly than in any other way. This also is a wonderful source of vitamins for young chicks and helps to give the substance which would not be obtained if only scratch grains were fed.

To sum up the advantages of an all-mash system: It keeps the chicks busier throughout the day; it supplies the chicks with many sources of protein; it enables a better distribution to the chicks of milk and the vitamins it contains and, furthermore, it insures a better distribution to the chicks of the minerals which are so essential for uniform growth.—Exchange.

Feeding Too Late

It was formerly a common practice to feed baby chicks too soon after hatching but now many farmers and poultrymen are going to the opposite extreme and waiting too long before feeding. About 24 hours are required to complete a hatch. That is it will be 24 hours from the time the first chicks hatch until the last ones are out of the shell. If the chicks are not fed until more than 48 hours after the hatch is completed some of the chicks are more than 72 hours old before they receive any nourishment. The long wait makes them weak and past desire to eat.

Forty-eight hours after the hatch is completed is now recommended as the maximum amount of time to withhold feeding. For best

Here's a Fine String of Fish for Mr. Hoover

Miss Vesta Steven of Cape May, N. J., with the first catch of mackerel, which were sent to the President as a gift from Jersey fishermen.

WAUCOUSTA

John Bohlmann of Osceola was a caller here Sunday.
John Buslaff of Fond du Lac was a caller here Sunday.
Martin Encels and Ed. Ford are spending the week at Green Bay.
Mr. and Mrs. Harley Loomis of Milwaukee spent the week-end with relatives and friends here.
Mr. and Mrs. Roland Romaine and Miss Carrie Buslaff of Fond du Lac spent Sunday with relatives here.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
Mr. and Mrs. John Ford and daughter Audrey of Fond du Lac spent Sunday at the Eugene Ford home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Voltz and daughter Bernice and Mrs. M. Flanagan of Campbellsport visited relatives here Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Baumhart and family of Campbellsport spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bartelt, here.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Raeder was christened at the Lutheran church here Sunday by the Rev. Walter Stroschein of Dundee, receiving the name Ralph Jacob. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Norzges were the sponsors.

LAKE FIFTEEN

Gust. Lavrenz spent Monday at West Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gatzke spent Thursday at West Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wunder spent Thursday at Fond du Lac.
Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gatzke spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Elton Schultz.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kobs of West Bend spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wunder.
Miss Edna Petrich spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Petrich, at Eldorado.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sukowaty and family visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gatzke.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
Mrs. John Gatzke spent a few days with Mrs. Wilmar Janssen at St. Agnes hospital, who underwent an operation.
Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wunder, Mrs. C. Krawald and daughter Eleanor of New Fane spent Sunday at the Herman Molkenthine home at New Prospect.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buettner of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mielke of Fond du Lac visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Buettner and son George.

FARM AND HOME LINES

"Songs and Rhythms for the Child in the Home," a circular published by the Wisconsin college of agriculture, has been used as a text in the nursery school of Cornell University.
The most effective time to fight the fly nuisance is early in the spring when first flies appear. A house fly begins laying eggs in from 10 to 20 days after emergence. A female fly in April may mean 6,000,000,000 flies in September.
Even though the Iris in the flower border may be rather crowded in the spring, it is usually considered best not to transplant it until after blossoming time because Iris never flowers quite as well if disturbed before flowering. Florists have found.
Thirty-six nations, including all Europe outside of the United Kingdom, have adopted and use the metric system of weights and measures, according to a recent report. More than half of our foreign commerce, today, is said to be with these countries.
Wisconsin rural folk rank high in their spare time work in home talent dramatics, pageants, music, and recreation. About 10,000 farm people either wrote, coached, or took part in plays or pageants, or led and sang in choral groups in 1931, according to A. F. Wiloden at the Wisconsin college of agriculture.
—The West Bend High School band was listed among the winners in Class C, Group 2, at the thirteenth tournament of the Wisconsin School Band and Orchestra association held at Wisconsin Rapids last week Saturday. The High School orchestra was the winner in Class D, Group 2.

Will Play Abroad

Helen Jacobs, next-to-the-top American woman tennis player, sailed for Europe to take part in tournaments in Germany, France and England.

WAYNE CENTER

Miss Rosella Hawig spent Friday evening at the Wm. Foerster home.
Misses Lucinda Hawig and Rosella Hawig were Allenton callers Friday.
Arthur Brandt, Willie Duffering and Herman Polzean spent Thursday at Milwaukee.
Herbert Brandt spent from Saturday until Tuesday of last week with relatives at Fond du Lac.
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kullman visited Thursday with Louis Ensenbach and family at Campbellsport.
Mrs. Arthur Jossi and sons and Miss Dorothy Wurster of Milwaukee spent Sunday with Mrs. Carl Struebing.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
John Kohn of Kewaskum was busy doing some mason work at the Arnet sisters' home a few days last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moll and Miss Laura Abel of Cascade visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Simon Hawig, Sunday, May 15th, German services at 9:45 a. m. Sunday school after services at the Salem's Reformed church.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schlosser, and Miss Mona Foerster of Milwaukee spent Sunday at the Wm. Foerster home.
Mr. and Mrs. John Kuechler, Mrs. Jake Hawig and daughter Rosella visited Thursday afternoon at the Simon Hawig home.
Mrs. Wm. Foerster and daughters Mona and Beulah and Mrs. Schlosser visited Sunday afternoon with Grandpa Herbel and son Geo. at Campbellsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Geidel and son John of Kewaskum spent Sunday at the Schmidt and Borchert homes.
The Ladies' Aid of Salem's Reformed church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Foerster. Their next meeting is at the home of Mrs. Henry Guntly.
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kugler, Mrs. R. Olwin and Mrs. Geo. Petri of Milwaukee were Sunday guests at the R. W. Petri home. Mrs. Petri remained here for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Unferth and son Lester of Byron, Mr. and Mrs. Art. Schmidt and son Marvin and Roman Foerster were visitors at the Wm. Foerster home Thursday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hawig and daughter Rose of Milwaukee accompanied by Jake Hawig and John Werner of here, spent Friday and Saturday at Hilbert where they attended the funeral of John Modler.
Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Schuman and family, Herman Rossow, Mrs. Albert Peters and daughters Eleanor and Virginia, Miss Frieda Spoerl of Milwaukee, Mrs. Carl Radtke and son Erwin of Kewaskum, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spoerl and family, Mrs. August Schnurr of Campbellsport, Mrs. Fred Spoerl and son Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Jung, Mrs. John Jurg, Mrs. Wm. Rauch, Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Graf and son Robert of here were visitors of Grandma Spoerl Sunday at the home of her son John.

Subscribe for the Kewaskum States-

BOLTONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hiller were West Bend callers Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Matthies were West Bend callers Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dettman were Sheboygan callers Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Belger were West Bend callers Saturday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stautz called at the Chas. Eisentraut home Monday.
C. Webster and family spent Saturday and Sunday with the Ben Woog family.
Mr. and Mrs. Mike Yearling of Barton spent Sunday with the Aug. Arndt family.
Ray Koth and family of West Bend called on the Al. Koth family Tuesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heuser spent Sunday with the Jac. Bloecher family at Saukville.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Belger spent Sunday with the Fred Belger, Sr., family at Kewaskum.
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Koth and daughter Myrtle spent a few days with friends at Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hiller and sons spent Sunday evening with the Ed. Bester family near Kohler.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frauenheim spent Sunday afternoon at the Otto Klein home near Fillmore.
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Woog and daughters Iva and Marjorie were business callers at Milwaukee Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Quass and daughter were Sunday guests of the Bob. Weinrich family at West Bend.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Dettman and family spent Tuesday evening with the William Pfeifer family at Batavia.
Mr. and Mrs. Julius Eita and Miss Margaret Walters spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Belger.
The Ladies' Aid society were entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Liepert at West Bend.
Mr. and Mrs. Art. Dettman of Bondage spent Thursday and Friday with the Art. Woog family and also with the former's mother.
Mr. and Mrs. Orin Conrad and family of West Bend spent Sunday evening with the Oscar Schultz and Herman Voltz families.
Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stautz of West Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stautz and family of Kewaskum spent Sunday at the Chas. Stautz home.
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Marshman and Huzo Kempf attended the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wilkens at their home near Cheeseville on Friday evening.

ST. MICHAELS

Mrs. Math. Thull is still confined to her home by illness.
Veronica, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nic Thull, is ill with quinsy.
Mr. and Mrs. Math. Schladwiler of St. Francis spent the week with local relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Marx called on Mr. and Mrs. John Roden Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Al. Butzlaff and daughter spent Monday evening at the Louis Habek home.
Grandma Mondloch spent last week with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Math. Mondloch and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stern attended the funeral of the former's aunt at Fillmore Tuesday afternoon.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brodzeller, son Stanley and daughter Jeanette, spent last Thursday with relatives at Mayville.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Radmer of Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rose and children of Jackson spent Sunday with their parents here.
Next Sunday, May 15th, at 8:45 o'clock a class of ten children will receive their first Holy Communion at the local Catholic church.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schneider and son of Milwaukee spent a few days here with relatives and also attended the Hergges-Hurth wedding on Saturday.
Louis Schaefer is having a second concrete silo erected on his premises, that is an excellent way to combat the hay shortage this year, as the clover has all been winter killed.

Math. Thull, who has been in ill health the past few weeks, has been removed to a hospital at West Bend, where he is receiving treatment. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.
Moll Brothers of Barton have finished sawing lumber for Frank Hilmes and have moved their sawing outfit back to their home. Mr. Hilmes is now excavating the basement for the house which he expects to have erected this summer.
The play "Oak Farm" given at the Society hall by the local dramatic club on Sunday and Tuesday evenings, was a decided success, and enjoyed by all who attended. We wish to thank all those who in any way helped to make the play a success and to the public for their kind attendance.
Mike Schneider, who is employed as farm hand for Frank Hilmes, had the misfortune of being kicked by a horse last Saturday morning. Medical aid was at once summoned and it was found that his arm and hip were badly injured, three stitches were required to close the hip wound. Mr. Schneider was removed to his home Monday afternoon.

DUNDEE

Norman Seifert was a Milwaukee visitor Sunday.
Rev. Walter Stroschein was a Milwaukee visitor Tuesday.
George Gilboy returned home Tuesday after a week's visit in Chicago.
Mrs. George Gilboy and Mrs. H. J. Shea spent Friday at Fond du Lac.
Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roethke visited Sunday evening with relatives near Mayville.
Mrs. Erwin Kutz entertained the ladies of the Dundee Card Club at her home Thursday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haushalter of Addison called on Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roethke Sunday afternoon.
Mrs. Edwin Moore of near Eden, visited Friday with her mother, Mrs. Gertrude White, and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haback and children of Fond du Lac visited Sunday with Mrs. Lydia Hennings.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
Harold Matthes and Miss Ingeburg Pieper were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arno Matthies Sunday.
H. W. Krueger spent Sunday and Monday with his family in Plymouth. Mrs. Krueger is on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett and family of West Bend visited Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roethke.
Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Koehn visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. August C. Bartelt and Mrs. August Bartelt, Sr., at Forest Lake.
Mrs. J. B. Oelke returned to her home in Markean Tuesday, after a few days' visit with Rev. and Mrs. Walter Stroschein here.
The Henry and Louis Ramthun families received the sad news Saturday of the death of their aunt, Mrs. Herman Stern, at Farmington.
The Messrs. Hubert Ullrich and Clarence Bauer of Campbellsport have been doing some paper hanging here in the village the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brawand, and the Messrs. Harold Matthies and E. Buslaff, and the Misses Erma Matthies and Ingeburg Pieper spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Pieper near Woodland.
Mr. and Mrs. John Krueger entertained the following at their home Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Strobel and children and Leo Strobel of St. Killan, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koenig and family of Campbellsport.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Baumann was baptized by the Rev. Walter Stroschein at the Trinity Lutheran church Sunday forenoon, and received the name Allen Frederick John and the sponsors were Mayme Aupperle, John Kolter and E. Buslaff.

CEDAR LAWN AT ELMORE

Esther Rathman, formerly of here, is now working at Kewaskum.
Peter Kohl of Fort Atkinson visited Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schmitt Friday.
Conrad Mack of Campbellsport spent Sunday at the Herman Sabish, Jr., home.
Ed. Rauch, a world war veteran, had the misfortune of breaking his right arm on Sunday.
John and Frank Markert, who visited here for several days, returned to Milwaukee Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. William Becker and son Joseph visited the Herman Sabish Jr. family Monday.
The Ladies' Aid of the Elmore church met at the home of Mrs. A. Scheurman last Thursday.
Dr. and Mrs. Ed. Hausmann of Kewaskum were welcome guests at the Adam Schmitt home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Birkholz, Mr. and Mrs. G. Suanndt of Milwaukee visited the Fred Stoll family Sunday.
Miss Anita Struebing of Lomira spent over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Struebing.
Gerhard Wiefel and Engelbert Yolks of Milwaukee were entertained at the Joe Markert home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Poepping and Elsie Pieper of Milwaukee spent Sunday with the Joe Markert family here.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
Mrs. Regina Kleinhans is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Belsber, and family near St. Killan this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feuerhammer and sons Vernon and Elmer spent last Sunday at the August Koepke home near Kewaskum.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kohl and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kohl of Marshfield were entertained at the Adam Schmitt home on Friday.
It is reported that the Elmore Cubs will play their first base ball game with Ashford at Fred Hammen's diamond next Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bartelt and daughter Gladys of Waucoista were welcome guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gudex Friday.

FOR RENT—Twenty acres of meadow land, especially adapted for pasture, suitable for cattle or horses. Inquire at office of Kewaskum Statesman.
Misses Ella Feuerhammer, Anna Puchalski, Marcella Rauch, Mildred Winkler and Mable Rathman were entertained at the Fred Hammen home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fitzlaff and family of Milwaukee visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil C. Dallert, also Miss Gladys Olson of the same place accompanied them on Sunday.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Our rates for this class of advertising are 1 cent a word per issue, no charge less than 25 cents accepted. Memorial Notices $1.00. Card of Thanks 50 cents. Cash or unused government postage stamps must accompany all orders.

FOR SALE—Service Holstein and Guernsey Bulls. Inquire of K. A. Ho-neck, Kewaskum, Wis. Phone 91. 2-6-1f

FOR SALE OR RENT—Desirable double flat on Fond du Lac avenue, Kewaskum. Inquire at this office. 4-15-1f

FOR SALE—Golden Glow Seed Corn Inquire of Martin Schmidt, R. 2, Kewaskum, Wis. 5-31-pd

WANTED—200 Heavy Hens. Write Casper Stollenwerk, Sta. F., Route 12, Milwaukee, Wis. pd

West Bend THEATRE

Admission: Children 10c, Adults 30c Sunday Matinee 10c and 25c till 6 p. m. After 6 p. m. 10c and 30c. Sunday continuous from 1:30 to 11 p. m.

Friday and Saturday May 13, and 14, TOM MIX in

"Destry Rides Again" Hear him - see him - in the most exciting picture of his brilliant career - cramed with drama, thrills and action - and Tony, too, of course. ALSO Comedy, Cartoon and 2-Reel Mystery. Suitable for Children.

Sunday, May 15, He had offered his life for his country. So the whole nation took away his wife! See how—and you'll see why—

"It's Tough To Be Fomous" With DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS Jr. and MARY BRIAN. ALSO Comedy, News and Cartoon Suitable for Children

Monday & Tuesday May 16, & 17, THE PEOPLE VERSUS ?

Final Edition With Pat O'BRIEN, Mae CLARKE Sizz'ing Speed, Splendid Story ALSO Comedy, and Other Short Subjects. Not Suitable for Children

MERMAC

Admission 10c and 30c

Saturday only BOB STEELE in "LAW of the WEST" Vanishing Legion No. 11, Comedy, Cartoon and Floyd Gibbons. Suitable for Children.

SALES OF WISCONSIN DAIRY CATTLE SHOW INCREASE

Wisconsin farmers shipped more dairy cattle to other states during April than in any month since December, 1931, according to the Wisconsin Crop Reporting Service. The number shipped out during the past month exceeded the sales in March by 6.8 per cent and were 8.5 per cent greater than the number shipped out in April, 1931. Furthermore, each of the four months of the present year has shown increased dairy cow sales over the corresponding month of 1931. Out-of-state shipments during the four month period, January to April 1932, aggregated 14,201 head as compared with the sales of 12,555 during the same period last year, an increase of 13 per cent.
As has been the case in recent months, the State of New Jersey to which 1,447 head of dairy cattle were shipped in April of this year, bought more Wisconsin dairy animals than any other of thirty purchasing states. Illinois was second with purchases of 967 head. Other states taking notable numbers were New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and Vermont. Wisconsin outside purchases of dairy cattle during the first four months of the present year have gained somewhat more slowly than in the same months a year ago. A total of 260 head were shipped into Wisconsin this April as compared with 299 in March, 235 in February, and 126 in January.
Prices of Wisconsin dairy cattle have declined somewhat more rapidly during the first four months of this year than in that period of 1931. The average price per head declined from $46 in January to $41 in April, 1932, according to a group of reporters who furnish price information to the Wisconsin Crop Reporting Service. This is a decline of 11 per cent as compared to about a five per cent decline for the same period a year ago. For the United States as a whole milk cow prices averaged $39 on April 15 as compared with the same figure on March 15 and $57 in April a year ago.
Subscribe for the Statesman and get the news of your home community.

Dependable
FUNERAL SERVICE
At Reasonable Cost
Miller Funeral Service
Phones 167 and 307 - Kewaskum

We invite your PERSONAL CHECKING ACCOUNT
For a better record of your expenditures, and a receipt for every transaction.
Farmers & Merchants State Bank
Kewaskum, Wisconsin
"A Community Bank"

NOW AT
REX Garage
Oil Drain and Five Quart Refill 90c
Wadhams Bonded Motor Oil
6 quart $1.08 8 quart $1.44
7 quart $1.26 9 quart $1.62
SINGLE QUARTS 20c EACH
5 gallon Lots $2.45
Bring Your Can.

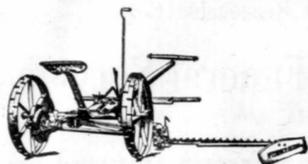

O. K. KUNNEL b. b. m.
Doctor of Discretion
Study the policy of the successful business firm and you usually find that it has a "Doctor of Discretion" directing its activities. Just like O. K. Kunnel B.B.M., who knows that letter heads and printed matter sent out by his firm establishes the "character" of that firm. Therefore they must be of the best. In our commercial printing department we produce letter heads and printed matter for many of the most successful business firms in Kewaskum. Let us submit samples and quote prices on your next printing order. No obligation on your part.

Statesman Printery
Kewaskum, Wis.

Public Auction
Wednesday, May 18, 12:30 P. M.
In Case of Bad Weather Sale Will be Held May 21, Same Hour.
FARM located 2 miles south of West Bend on Highway 55 and 3/4 mile east of Rusco school house, better known as the Miller Sister Farm. FOLLOW THE ARROWS directing to Sale. Having sold my farm I offer the following articles to the highest bidder.
LIVE STOCK—14 Milk cows, 9 fresh. (Holsteins); 1 2-year old Holstein bull; 3 1-year old Holstein heifers; 1 Holstein heifer calf; heavy gray horse, 1400 lbs. 10 years old; 1 heavy bay mare, 1400 lbs., 10 years old; 50 heavy chickens; 2 ducks; 1 drake. Farm Machinery, Feed, Furniture, Household Goods and many other articles too numerous to mention. TERMS of Sale—Sums of $10.00 and under, Cash. Over that amount, credit of three to six months on approved notes bearing 6% interest from date of sale.
ARTHUR A. QUADE, Auctioneer. FRED BARTEL, Owner

STATESMAN WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Here are Three Modern Tools to Speed Up the Haying

MCCORMICK-DEERING Mowers, Side Rakes, and Hay Loaders are the last word in hay machinery efficiency. They have been the standard in hay tools for years. You can put them into your fields year after year and be assured that they will do as good a job as the first crop they handled. You need tools like these that can be relied on to beat the weather. Each has many special features which we will gladly explain. We hope you'll come in soon and ask us a lot of questions about them.

McCORMICK-DEERING HAY TOOLS

A. G. KOCH, Inc.
Kewaskum, Wisconsin

IGA SPECIALS!
I.G.A., MILK, 2 Large Cans for	11c
Granulated SUGAR, 10 Pound Sack	43c
I.G.A., LAUNDRY SOAP, 10 Bars for	25c
CLOROX, 2 Pint Bottles for	25c
I.G.A., MATCHES, 6 Boxes for	19c
'G' Brand MALT SYRUP, Can	37c
GINGER Snap and FIG Bars, Per Pound	10c
Palmolive SOAP, 3 Bars for	20c
I.G.A., CLENSER, 2 Cans for	9c
I.G.A., APPLE SAUCE, No. 2 Can	10c
I.G.A., GRAPEFRUIT, No. 2 Can	15c
BISQUICK, With a Free Biscuit Tin	33c
Silver Buckle FLOUR, 49 lb.	1.19
E A C O FLOUR, 49 lb.	1.35

JOHN MARX

Ladies and Gents TAILORING
Starting Monday, May 16,
New and Old Clothing to be Altered
Cleaned and Pressed
PRICES REASONABLE
B. BECKER
in Fred Bleck's Residence on Main Street
Kewaskum

KEWASKUM STATESMAN

HARBECK & SCHAEFER, PUBLISHERS
Entered as second-class mail matter at the post office, Kewaskum, Wis.
SINGLE COPIES 5 CENTS
TERMS—$2.00 per year; $1.00 for six months. Advertising rates on application.

AROUND THE TOWN

Friday May, 13, 1932
—Pentecost Sunday, May 15th.
—Mrs. A. P. Schaefer was a Milwaukee visitor last week Saturday.
—Henry Yankow of Lomira called on the furniture trade here Monday.
—Edward E. Miller transacted business at Milwaukee last week Friday.
—Miss Kathryn Marx of Milwaukee visited under the parental roof Sunday.
—Miss Viola Casper spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Milwaukee.

—Mr. and Mrs. Val. Peters visited the John Strachota family at Milwaukee Sunday.
—Henry Bath of Minneapolis, Minn., visited with Math. Bath and family last Sunday.
—Dr. Brauchle and family spent the week-end with relatives and friends at Columbus.
—Hubert Wittman and wife motored Sunday to Byron to visit Mr. Wittman's mother.
—Robert Bohn and family of Milwaukee spent Sunday here with T. R. Schmidt and family.
—Mrs. Ed. Selp of Milwaukee on Sunday entertained the Arthur and Erwin Koch families.
—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Flasch of St. Killian were pleasant visitors with Jos. Eberle and family.
—J. W. Stollpflug and family motored to Milwaukee Sunday visiting the Gerhard Peters family.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Bath and family of Port Washington called on Math. Bath and family Saturday.
—Mrs. N. Edw. Hausmann was at Milwaukee Tuesday spending the day with relatives and friends.

—Paul Tump and family of Wauwatosa called on Mrs. Louis Brandt and children Mothers' Day.
—Bear in mind the date of the card party at the Holy Trinity school hall, Monday evening, May 16th.
—Miss Marcella Casper of Milwaukee spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Casper.
—Carl F. Schaefer and family were visitors at the home of Kilian Kral at West Bend Sunday evening.
—Miss Renetta Becker was the guest of Miss Mary O'Connell at Beechwood several days last week.
—Math. Stockhausen and family of Milwaukee Sundayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stollpflug.
—Miss Ruth Ziesdorf of Wausau was a week-end visitor at the home of Chas. C. Schaefer and family.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Bath of Wabeno spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Math. Bath and family last week.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
—Rev. and Mrs. John Vocks and son of Palatine, Ill., visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Klessig.
—Clarence Mertes and family motored to Plymouth Sunday for a day's visit with the Carl Spradow family.
—50,000 tires—2 FOR PRICE OF ONE, 30x4.50 at $2.19—30x3 1/4 at $1.79 each, in pairs.—Gamble Stores, West Bend.
—Miss Mathilda Mayer was at Milwaukee last week Friday where she was the guest of relatives and friends.
—Join the crowd at the card party at the Holy Trinity school hall on the evening of Pentecost, Monday, May 16.
—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schalles of West Bend were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gruber.
—Elwyn Romaine and family spent Mothers' Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Romaine, at New Prospect.
—Arthur Koch and Alex. Klug attended the district implement dealers' meeting at Fond du Lac Monday evening.
—Miss Frances Zeimet of Milwaukee spent the week-end here with her mother, Mrs. Mathilda Zeimet and family.
—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Giese of Fond du Lac visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belger Sr. and other relatives last Sunday.
—William Martin and family of Allenton spent Sunday evening with the J. H. Martin and Norton Koerble families.
—Herman Groeschel and wife of Fillmore visited with Messrs. and Mesdames Chas. Groeschel and N. J. Mertes Sunday.
—Ferdinand Raether left Tuesday for Batavia, where he will spend the remainder of the week with the Al. Wegner family.
—Mr. and Mrs. Ph. McLaughlin, Jr., spent Mothers' Day with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Warner at Cascade.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brunner, Mrs. Pat. O'Malley and daughter Shirley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brunner Sunday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holtz of Milwaukee called on the Elwyn Romaine and John F. Schaefer families last week Sunday.
—The Ladies' Aid of the Ev. Peace church last week Thursday afternoon held their regular monthly meeting at the church parlors.
—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Diels of Mayville visited at the home of Rural Carrier John H. Martin and family last week Thursday.
—Mrs. Chas. Guth and son Charles and John Zimmermann of West Allis were guests of Mrs. Hannah Burrow Saturday and Sunday.
—Mrs. Otto Meinecke, son Eldon, Jacob and the Misses Frances and Regina Koenen were Fond du Lac visitors last week Thursday.
—William Knickel and family of Wauwatosa called on the A. A. Perschbacher family Sunday while enroute to Campbellsport.
—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sennott and Edward Krause and family of Milwaukee were Mothers' Day visitors with Mrs. Casper Brandstetter.
—Charles Miller, who is attending the Lawrence University at Appleton, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. Miller.
—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buddenhagen, daughter Dorothy and son Paul, of Milwaukee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ph. McLaughlin Sunday.
—The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical Lutheran St. Lucas church was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week.
—Meet your friends for a social good time at the card party at the Holy Trinity school hall on Monday evening of next week, May 16th.
—Miss Pearl Schaefer, student at the Wisconsin University, Madison, was a week-end visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Schaefer.
—A. P. Schaefer, wife, daughter Pearl, and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Reinlers were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt at West Bend, Mothers' Day.
—Miss Belinda Belger, who recently returned to Milwaukee to resume her position with the Boston Store, returned home last week on account of ill health.
—Alderman and Mrs. Chas. Winkelman and son Hubert of Milwaukee were the guests of the J. H. Martin and Norton Koerble families Saturday and Sunday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Otto Backhaus, daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Eisentraut of Fredonia were at Milwaukee Sunday visiting with the William Bassel family.
—Dr. and Mrs. Gustave Hausmann of Waupun spent Sunday in the village.
—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.
—K. A. Honeck, the local Chevrolet dealer, on Saturday delivered a Chevrolet coach to Joe Reindl of this village.
—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Koch, son Harry, Mrs. Oscar Koerble and Mrs. Lulu Davies were Fond du Lac callers on Monday.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Eberle, daughter Violet, and Mr. and Mrs. John Guenther were at Milwaukee on Sunday, being the guests of the Robert Widder family.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mass of Milwaukee and Mrs. William Kobler of New London were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Colvin and Mrs. Sarah VanEpps.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bath and Mrs. Mike Braun of Wabeno, Mr. and Mrs. Math. Bath, Mrs. Joe Herman and Mike Bath were guests of the Louis Bath family Sunday.
—Henry Becker and family and Adolph Claus on Monday attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Gustav Mueller at West Bend. The deceased is a sister of Mr. Claus.
—Mrs. A. A. Perschbacher on Friday motored to Minneapolis to visit her son Ray, who is attending the Minnesota University. She returned home Sunday afternoon.
—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bath and son Louis accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stein and Mrs. William Stein and daughter Bernice were Milwaukee visitors Wednesday evening.
—Miss Emogene Perschbacher of West Bend, for the second time received the appointment as counsellor at Ormsby Hall, dormitory for freshmen women at Lawrence college.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Heim last Sunday entertained the Messrs. and Mesdames Ed. Steigerwald and Walter Wieseck of Milwaukee and Fred Puestow and family of Cedar Lake.
—Harold Weber of Crooked Lake on Tuesday received from the Wisconsin Conservation Commission at Burlington, four cans of wall-eyed pike which he planted in Crooked Lake the same day.
—Are you watching the expiration date of your subscription to the Statesman? We ask that no one should unnecessarily let it run overdue. We can use the money to very good advantage.
—Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Braun of Jefferson on Sunday entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ockenfels, P. J. Haug and family of this village, Edward Guth and family and Mrs. Olive Haase of Adell.
—Quite a number of our younger set last week Friday evening attended the Junior Prom at Campbellsport, while a number of others attended the Prom at Random Lake the same evening.
—Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. Miller motored to North Lake last week Thursday evening. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Lulu Davies, who had spent several weeks there at the home of her sister, Mrs. Meta Shearer.
—Live stock trucking at 25c per 100 lbs. or less, depending upon the load. Calves on Wednesdays only 65c, including commission and trucking. Walter Schneider, Kewaskum, Wis. Phone 69F3. 2-12tf
—Henry Weddig was at Cedarburg Sunday where he attended the 10th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Erdman. He was accompanied home by his wife and daughter who visited with the Erdman family several days of last week.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bath and Mrs. Mike Braun returned to their respective homes at Wabeno Monday following a week's visit with relatives here and after having attended the funeral of the former's mother, the late Mrs. Catherine Bath.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bath of Wabeno, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stein and Mrs. William Stein, daughter Bernice, of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Math. Bath, daughter Florence and Mrs. Joe Herman visited with the Louis Bath family last Tuesday evening.
—Twelve members of the local society, Royal Neighbors, were at Campbellsport Tuesday evening attending the camp meeting of the Royal Neighbors of that village. After the meeting the members visited their sister member, Mrs. Harvey Kijpenhan.
—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pagel, daughter, and Mrs. Homer Claus of Birlamwood, and Oscar Claus of Mattoon, spent a few hours with the Henry Becker family on Sunday. They were enroute to West Bend to attend the funeral of Mrs. Gustav Mueller.
—The teachers of the county are invited to don their old duds and join a hiking party Sunday, May 15, at 10:30 at the Freis Lake School in the town of Richfield. Fries Lake is 4 miles south of Ackerville on County Trunk "J". Bring a picnic lunch with you.
—Mrs. Edw. F. Miller was at Milwaukee last week Friday where she visited her daughters, Margaret and Sr. Mary Aquin at the Milwaukee State Teachers' College. Sr. Mary Aquin is remembered as Miss Isabella Miller. This was parents' day at the college.
—William Gossman, the local music instructor, on Thursday underwent an operation for the removal of a growth on his lip at the Riverside Hospital, Milwaukee. Mr. Gossman wishes to inform his students that he will be unable to give music lessons for a few weeks.

OIL STOVES REDUCED

New Type High Power STOVES without shelf
$18.15

3 Burner STOVES with shelf
$29.15

4 Burner RED STAR Gas or Kerosene with shelf
$25.00

3 Burner Universal ELECTRIC Range with built-in Bake-oven and shelf
$42.50

Automatic ELECTRIC WASHING Machine
$49.50

ELECTRIC IRONER with Stand
$69.50

L. ROSENHEIMER

Department Store

Kewaskum, Wis.

PAID

YOU WILL NOT NEED A Receipted BILL if You Pay by CHECK — Your Check is Your Receipt — That is just one of the many worthwhile advantages of a CHECKING ACCOUNT.

We will gladly arrange the checking privilege for you.

COME and SEE US.

Bank of Kewaskum

Kewaskum, Wisconsin

The Old Reliable Bank of Good Service.

RCA VICTOR Again steps ahead in 1932 and smashes into the low price field with the highest quality radios. Nowhere at any time in the history of radios, have you been offered such high quality at low prices.

All sets are equipped with every advance feature that could be practically applied. RCA has again stepped ahead and proved itself the leader in the radio and electrical recording industry. The line comprises—Table models, Consoles, Radio-phonograph combinations, Home Recording, Automobile, Portable and Short Wave sets. Let your new radio be an RCA Radiola from Endlich's. Prices from $46.75 to $995.00.

Mrs. K. Endlich

JEWELER—OPTOMETRIST
Established 1906
KEWASKUM, WIS.

MACHINE SHOP

General Repairing and Welding
Automobile Fender and Body Straightening and Refinishing
Straightening Axles and Housings
PROMPT SERVICE

Also Distributor of SILENT AUTOMATIC OIL BURNERS and DISTILLATE OIL HEATERS

LOUIS BATH

—AT—REMMEL CORPORATION
Phone 201 Kewaskum, Wis.

Local Markets

Winter wheat.....	50-60
Wheat.....	50-60
Barley.....	48-59
Rye No. 1.....	40-45
Oats.....	25
Eggs, strictly fresh.....	12c
Unwashed wool.....	10-11c
Fans, per lb.....	2 1/2c
Hides (calf skin).....	15c-20c
Cow hides.....	75c
Horse hides.....	$1.00
Potatoes.....	40-50
Live Poultry
Old roosters and stags.....	8c
Light hens.....	12c
Heavy hens.....	13c
Ducks, heavy.....	13-14c
Ducks, light.....	12c
WISCONSIN CHEESE EXCHANGE
Plymouth, Wis., May 6—On the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange today 170 Twins were offered for sale and all sold at 9c, State Brand. 50 Daisies were offered for sale and all sold at 9 1/2c, State Brand. One-half cent lower was suggested for Standard Brand. The sales a year ago today were 230 Twins at 10c.

LEROY WEBER

Teacher of Violin, Sax and Clarinet
Dance Orchestra—Dealer in Band and Orchestra Instruments and Repair Work—Phone 442—433 South St West Bend.

Subscribe for the Kewaskum Statesman and get all of the news of your community.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON
R. G. EDWARDS, M. D.
Office Hours: 10-12 a. m., 2-4 p. m., 7-8 p. m.
Phone 591
Kewaskum, Wis.

Subscribe for the Statesman and get all of the news of your community.

Dad and Daughter in First Meeting

It was a momentous day in the lives of this pretty twenty-one-year-old American girl and her father, a French opera singer, as they met for the first time on the deck of a great ocean liner at New York. Like the story of one of the father's beloved operas, reads the account of how Louis Rousseau and his daughter had unsuccessfully sought each other for years, once actually living within calling distance of each other in New York. The girl was born in Dallas, Texas, a few weeks after her father and mother had divorced and separated. Louise Rousseau was at the pier as the liner glided up the bay, bringing her father to her. She had waited all her life for him.

How It Started

By Jean Newton

"BACKSTAIRS INFLUENCE"
BACKSTAIRS influence—that is to say clandestine, secret, underhand force that accomplishes its sinister purpose so no one may hear, see or know—this is not a twentieth century discovery though the phrase finds frequent usage in this fin de siècle century.
The very name, as a matter of fact, comes to us from the incident that centuries ago, every palace had its numerous backdoors and back stairs through which private access was had to rooms in which privy conferences were held.

It is this sort of underhand intrigue that flourished because of backdoors and backstairs; and, which, however, undesirable it was in times gone by, still seems to be prevalent today.
(©, 1932, Bell Syndicate.)—WNU Service.

British Naval Victory

Told in Old Newspaper
Memphis, Tenn.—An issue of the London Times one hundred and twenty-seven years old, carrying an account of the victory of the British fleet at Cape Trafalgar, was discovered recently by Mrs. Florence Johnson while cleaning out an old bookcase.
The paper evidently had been placed in the case by her grandfather, a native of England. In the battle Lord Nelson, Britain's naval hero, was killed.
Vice Admiral Collingwood, who assumed command after Lord Nelson had been killed, reported the battle to the newspaper.
The issue was dated November 17, 1805.

Eat Most Eggs
Ottawa, Can.—Practically an egg per day is eaten by every man, woman and child in Canada. The average per capita yearly consumption of eggs in the Dominion is 361, the highest of any country, according to an official compilation.

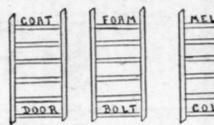

Building Sway May Make Stenog

Columbus, Ohio.—"Stenographers of the future may become ill in lofty offices, he rushed off to a physician and hear him say they are suffering from 'synchrochrous swaying of pendulous fixtures.'
Prof. Clyde T. Morris, Ohio State university engineer, said here that something like such sickness may occur in upper stories of tall buildings.
Commonly, he said, it has been believed this was caused by the swaying of the structure in the fresh winds of the lower skies. But, in fact, it is the swaying of the fixtures.
Experiments in the American Insurance Union tower here, the tallest structure west of New York, showed a sway of only one-tenth of an inch in a 30-mile wind at the thirty-seventh floor.

Cheerio Chapters Fun for All the Children

Edited by DOROTHY EDMONDS

LADDER CLIMBING

(Change the words at the base of the ladders to the words at the top in five changes. Each change of a letter, of course, must spell a real word, and only one letter can be changed at each move.)

OLD MAN COYOTE AND THE WHIRLWIND

(Reprinted From the Tepee Book by Permission)

An Indian Legend.

One day Old Man Coyote was walking through the woods talking to himself. "There is a woman living in these woods," he said, "who wants a husband and I think I should like to have her for a wife."
"You will have to wrestle with me," a voice replied from among the trees, "and if you throw me I will be your wife."
"I will wrestle with you," Old Man Coyote replied and because the woman knew who he was she let him throw her. But she had not forgotten how he had run away and left her when he was her husband before and she intended to get even with him.
"I move so often, no man will live with me," she told him.
"That won't bother me," Coyote answered.
Mrs. Coyote began to get supper and said nothing but just as her husband began to eat she came in and said they would have to move right away. She pulled the tepee down upon his head and tied the poles together. Then she tied Old Man Coyote on to the tepee poles and told him to hold on tight. When she had everything ready, off they went over the prairie. Old Man Coyote protesting all the way. Finally they came to some woods and Mrs. Coyote took him through the tops of the trees rapidly, paying no attention when the branches got in his eyes and tore his clothes. They came to a river. For a long time she dragged him down the river until he was cold and wet. When he looked as though he had had punishment enough she set him down and began to set up the tepee. Old Man Coyote was mighty glad to get off those tepee poles and thought he would run away from such a terrible wife, so he made believe that he would go off and get some firewood as an excuse. But Mrs. Coyote knew what he was up to and tied him again to the tepee poles and started on.

"Please don't move this way," Old Man Coyote cried. But Mrs. Coyote paid no attention to him. She took him through the woods again, and over the mountains and through the river until he was so cold and hungry he was half dead. Then Mrs. Coyote, who was the whirlwind, set him down and let him run away.

MISS PETITE

(Here is one of the smallest paper dolls in the world, straight from Paris with her new clothes. If there isn't a paper doll family in your house, you can start one with Miss Petite.)

(©, 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

My Neighbor Says

THE soil in piazza and window boxes dries out very quickly. Plants in these boxes should be generously watered every day and fresh earth added to the old in August.

To make a starch that will not stick, stir a pinch of borax into boiling water and add it to the starch, with a few drops of bluing.

Tar stains may be removed from cotton fabrics by covering the spot with butter and allowing it to remain for a few hours before washing.

To clean a Panama hat put an ounce of oxalic acid (poison) in sufficient scalding water to cover the hat. Put the hat in this solution and hold it down with a stick so that it is entirely covered. Leave it for five minutes, then take it out with a stick and dry in the shade.

(©, by the Associated Newspapers) (WNU Service)

ONE THING SURE

Teacher—What things in this world can a man always count on?
Tommy—His fingers.

LIGHTS OF NEW YORK

by WALTER TRUMBULL

Dr. Charles H. Mayo, one of the famous brothers from Rochester, said recently that the greatest enemy of the human race is food. He maintains that most persons either eat too much, or have poorly selected diets. This sounds reasonable. We do not believe in any diet which includes creamed codfish, brains and eggs, or parsnips, and we don't think any man, unless he has been engaged in hard manual labor should eat over one roast of beef at a sitting.

Louis Angel Firpo, to be sure, used to eat a large beefsteak garnished with a dozen fried eggs, and he was certainly a healthy looking specimen. But he also was larger than the ordinary man and also had known times when food was not plentiful, so perhaps he was only striking an average. Diamond Jim Brady was at one time a famous eater, but he ended by endowing some sort of clinic for stomach troubles at Johns Hopkins.

A man who never had visited New York before told me that his first impression of the city was its size and quantity. "Our town," he said, "has wider streets than some of yours, and sometimes they are just as crowded.

But go 25 blocks and the crowd has melted away. You begin to get out in the rural section. Here, you can go for miles and still keep on finding throngs of people. It is the same way with everything else—skyscrapers, stores, taxicabs. We have them all, but yours are multiplied.
I always have thought it would be interesting if part of the residential portion of New York could be divided into 48 sections, governed in relative size by the population of the various states, and then to gather all the former residents of each state into their own section. They would all feel that they were at home again, especially if the floating population was assigned to quarters under the same system. Even now we have miniature countries in New York—little Italy, China, Hungary, Africa. There are mighty few races in the world that are not represented somewhere in New York, and there is scarcely any article of trade known to man which you cannot find somewhere in the city, if you know where to look for it.

Peoples, jewels, objects of art, animals, foods, shrubs, trees, flowers, drugs, chemicals, all sorts of things from every corner of the earth, find their way to New York. You may see lions from Africa, tigers from India, dinosaur skeletons from Mongolia, spices from Araby, diamonds from Brazil, emeralds from Columbia, cherry trees from Japan, paintings from Italy, dresses from France, something from every known country, in the course of a day's wandering. If a student were intelligently to visit New York's museums, parks, libraries, theaters, movie houses, stores, foreign quarters, hotels, docks, business districts and restaurants, he would gain more information, learn more than he would if he devoted the same time to a trip around the world.

Having just said that you can find everything in New York, I wish I knew exactly where to lay hands on oysters Rockefeller, and pompano in paper bags, such as they serve in New Orleans. Or even those thin-skinned grapefruit, half the size of a pumpkin, they have in southern climes.

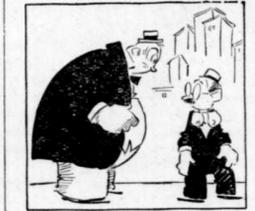

On the other hand, I do not believe you can get any finer meats anywhere than in Manhattan. And there is no better food than roast beef or beefsteak to be had on this spinning earth.
(©, 1932, Bell Syndicate.)—WNU Service.

Britain Lists 540 as Millionaires in 1931

London.—Five hundred and forty millionaires in this country were assessed for surtax last year, according to the report of the inland revenue commissioners for the year ended March 31, 1931, which has just been issued here. Statistic indicate that the number of millionaires increased by twenty-one, that the yield from income tax rose by £18,000,000, and that 50,000 taxpayers dropped from the lists of Somerset house during the year. Among them they paid £255,339,304.

The total number of taxpayers was 2,500,000 and among them they paid £255,339,304. There were actually 4,950,000 persons with incomes liable to taxation, but 2,750,000 were relieved of payment by the operation of various allowances, such as those for wife, children and dependent relations. The total income brought under review was £3,160,000,000, but through allowances and reductions the actual tax was levied on only £1,300,000,000.

HADN'T SEEN HIM

Big Man—I understand you said I look like the devil. Is that so?
Small One—Gosh, no—I've never even seen the devil.

Hen Turns Miner

Sonora, Calif.—Joseph Morris' hen has turned miner. When he went to feed Old Biddle he found she had scratched up a gold nugget valued at $13.30.

They've Never Tasted a Tonic!

THESE are not patent medicine children. Their appetite needs no coaxing. Their tongues are never coated, cheeks never pale. And their bowels move just like clockwork, because they have never been given a habit-forming laxative.

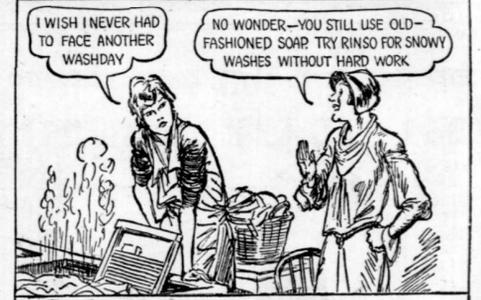

You can have children like this—and be as healthy yourself—if you follow the advice of a famous family physician. Stimulate the vital organs. The strongest of them need help at times. If they don't get it, they grow sluggish. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin is a mild, safe stimulant. When a youngster doesn't do well at school, it may be the liver that's lazy. Often the bowels hold enough poisonous waste to dull the senses! A spoonful of delicious syrup pepsin once or twice a week will avoid all this. It contains fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin, and does a world of good to any system—young or old. You can always get this fine prescriptive preparation at any drug store. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

Get some syrup pepsin today, and protect your family from those bilious days, frequent sick spells and colds. Keep a bottle in the medicine chest instead of cathartics that so often bring on chronic constipation. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin can always be employed to give clogged bowels a thorough cleansing, with none of that painful griping, or burning feeling afterward. It isn't expensive.

Responsibilities
"A man in your position," said the lady with a notebook, "has to be both a politician and a statesman."
"Frequently," assented Senator Sorghum. "And there are times when he must forget that he is either, and proceed to be a plain patriot."

Interesting Work
Laundry Girl—Why does it take Flossie so long to wash those tablecloths from the Businessmen's restaurant?
Coworker—Oh, she spends too much time looking at the pictures on them.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Rinso SOAKS OUT DIRT —SAVES SCRUBBING
THE GRANULATED HARD-WATER SOAP

Bottle Had Traveled
After bobbing and tossing about the Atlantic ocean for almost six years, a sealed bottle containing a slip of paper bearing the name of Gustav J. Erick of Baltimore, Md., several weeks ago turned up at the southwest tip of Ireland, not far from Crookhaven harbor.

Spurns Using Car
James Melrose of York, England, who at ninety-nine directs large business interests, says he never will use an automobile.

A punctiliously honest man is the one who throws away the bum dime somebody has worked off on him.

Why Worry?
When you lose your appetite—not only for food... but for work and play—don't merely go on worrying. Do something about it!
One of the most famous tonics for weakness, "nerves," and "run down condition," is Fellows' Syrup. It stimulates appetite. Lifts the entire bodily tone to higher levels of vigor and energy. The first few doses will prove that "Fellows' Syrup" is the medicine for "building up." That is why so many doctors prescribe it. Ask your druggist for genuine.

FELLOWS' SYRUP

The Pope's Railroad
The new railroad in the Vatican City is only 600 feet long (half of which is tunnel) but is double tracked, has an elaborate station and one of the most elaborate trains in the world. The latter, for the pope's especial use, is made up of three coaches. One carries a throne, another a private chapel and the third a combination dining and sleeping car. All coaches are of steel, painted maroon with the pontifical coat of arms in bronze.

Early Colonial Coins
The earliest coins struck in the United States were the New England shilling, six-pence, and three-pence, issued in the colony of Massachusetts about 1652.

Fait Accompli
Motorist (indignantly)—Officer, you can't speak to me like that.
Officer—Oh, can't I? Then what have I been doing?

PARKER'S HAIR BALMSAM
Removes Dandruff, Stops Hair Falling, Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. See and Buy at Druggists, Hairdressers, Chemists, etc.
FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hixson Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

W. N. U., Milwaukee, No. 20-1932.

Cuticura Preparations

CLEANSING SOAP SHOULD be kept in every household for the daily use of all the family; the Soap to protect the skin as well as cleanse it, the Ointment to relieve and heal chafings, rashes, irritations and cuts.

HEALING OINTMENT

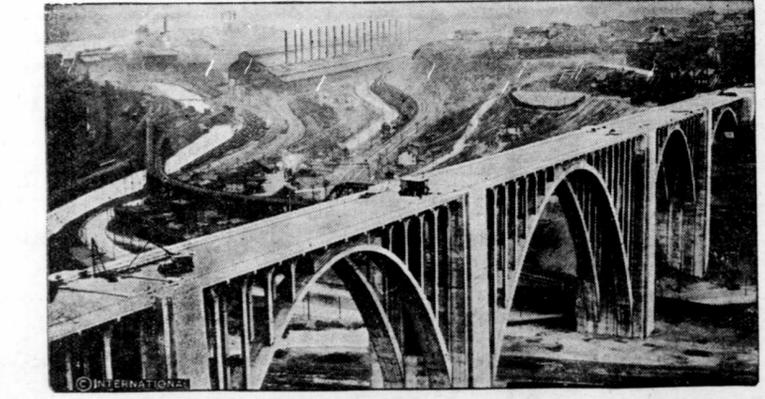

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., Malden, Mass. Try Cuticura Shaving Cream.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Have you anything around the house you would like to trade or sell? Try a classified ad. The cost is only a few cents and there are probably a lot of folks looking for just whatever it is you no longer have use for.

CLASSIFIED ADS GET RESULTS

World's Longest Bridge to Be Opened Soon

Completed concrete span, the longest in the world, which is to be known as the George Westinghouse Memorial bridge, following its opening at Pittsburgh this summer. The bridge will save several miles of hill and dale travel on the Lincoln highway from Pittsburgh to the east.

Here's Real Pedigreed Person

Washington.—All you who boast of ancestors, pause and take heed of the Peripatus. His family tree may go back 500,000,000 years.
The Mayflower? William the Conqueror? Adam and Eve?
Just fleeting incidents, modern upstarts, to the peripatus. His clan may have known the time when it was the only living creature on dry land.
Evidence has been discovered by the Smithsonian institution that the peripatus, a small worm with many legs, has lived on earth at least half a billion years, practically without change. Fossilized remains of a creature preserved in rocks believed 500,000,000 years old, have been found to be so much like the modern peripatus that it seems probable it must be an ancestor of his. If so, it means the peripatus clan is one of the earth's very first families.
The modern peripatus is described as the "world's champion spitter." He dines on flies that he brings down by "spitting" slime at them from reservoirs in his body.
Evolution, apparently, didn't have much effect on the peripatus. The ways were good enough for him. The modern peripatus, sinking in the dark under bark of trees and stones, looks enough like his reputed ancestor to be his twin. The main difference is that the older insect lived in the sea.
The fossil believed to be the very distant great-grandfather of the peripatus of today was found in rocks in the Cambrian age, the oldest geological period in which life is known to have existed on earth.
Peripatus may have been the first bold pioneer in the process of evolution, says the Smithsonian announcement—perhaps the first to climb out of the primeval oceans and try living on land for a change. All life, most scientists agree, originated in the sea.
While it is not positive that the half-billion-year-old fossil is a peripatus, says Dr. Charles E. Resser of the

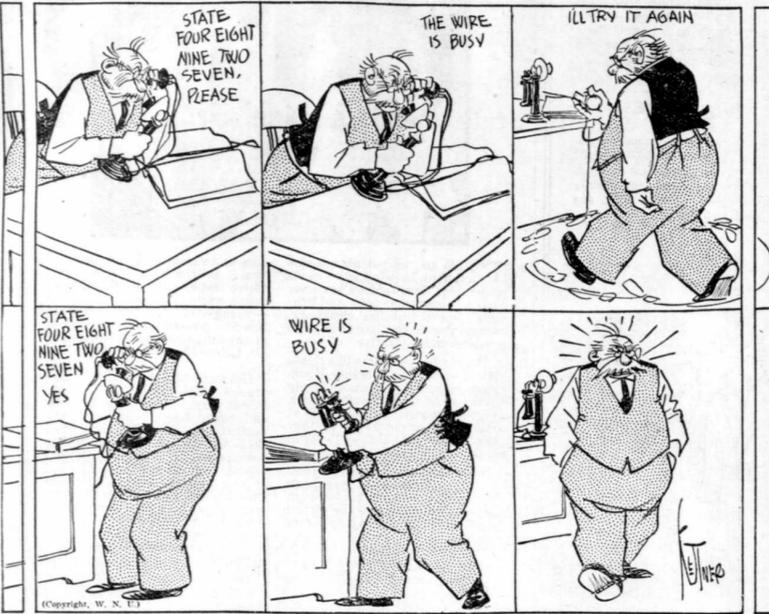

The Kitchen Cabinet

SUGAR, SPICE, ALL THINGS NICE
THE delicious cinnamon or pecan roll which may be made with one base is a most delicious bread to serve on many occasions.
Cinnamon Rolls.—Take one cupful of scalded milk, add two tablespoonfuls of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, four tablespoonfuls of shortening to the hot milk. Cool until lukewarm and add a yeast cake softened in one-fourth cupful of warm water. Mix with sufficient flour to handle and knead thoroughly, then allow the bread to rise until treble its bulk. Cut down and fold and let rise again. When light roll into a sheet one-half inch in thickness and spread with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Roll like a jelly roll and slice into one-inch slices. Place in a baking pan and allow to rise again. Bake in a hot oven twenty minutes.
For the pecan rolls place a generous portion of butter and brown sugar with a half cupful of pecans in the bottom of the pan. Place the rolls and bake when light. Turn upside down and serve.
Spiced Hot Cross Buns.—Prepare the above mixture, make the rolls into rounds after adding one-half cupful of currants or a mixture of currants and raisins, a teaspoonful of cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful of allspice. Cut a cross on the top of each with a sharp knife just before baking.
Spic' Cake.—Sift two and one-half cupfuls of pastry flour with one-half teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one-fourth teaspoonful each of allspice, nutmeg, mace and one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon. Sift three times. Cream one-half cupful of butter, add two cupfuls of sifted brown sugar and cream together until light and fluffy. Add two eggs well beaten and the flour mixture alternately with one cupful of sour milk. Beat well after each addition and bake in a greased tin eight by eight inches. Bake fifty minutes.
(©, 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

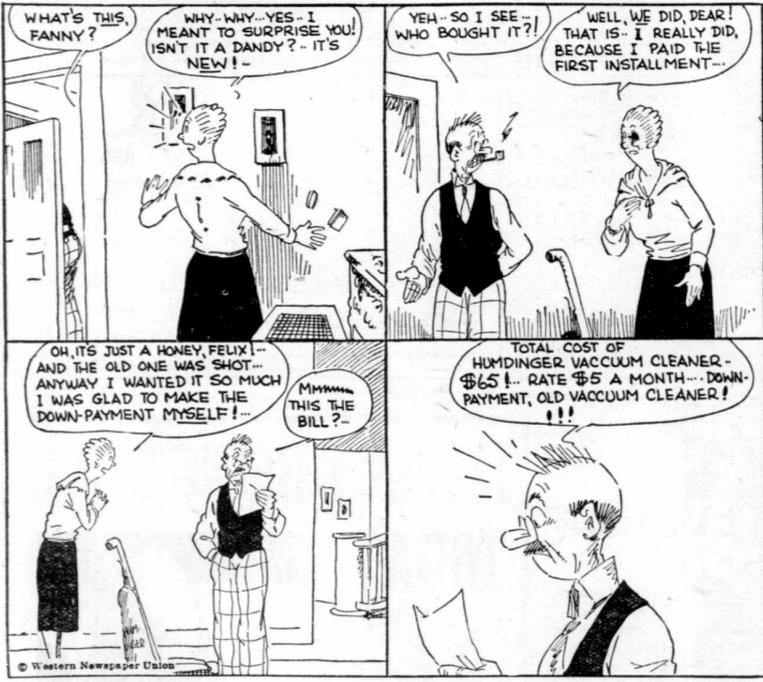

Smithsonian, it has been identified as a member of the same class of the family of arthropods, a peculiar type of insects to which the peripatus belongs, by Dr. G. E. Hutchinson of Yale.
The fossil was found in British Columbia several years ago by Dr. Charles D. Walcott, former secretary of the Smithsonian Institution. Recent studies have revealed its apparent relationship to the peripatus of today, which crawls in the dark places of Africa, Australia, South America and the East and West Indies.

OUR COMIC SECTION

Our Pet Peeve

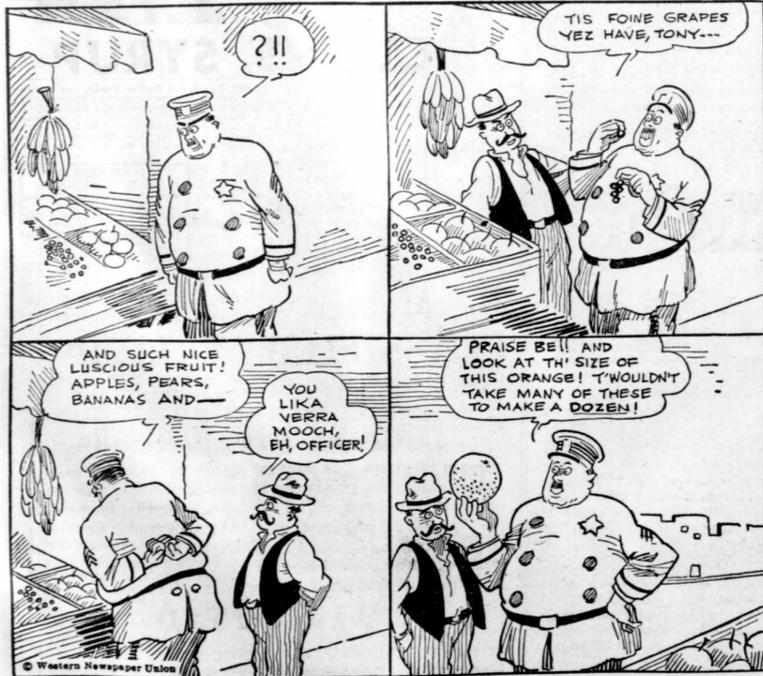

THE FEATHERHEADS

Fanny Is Willing to Sacrifice

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

Higher Mathematics

CAUSE FOR SADNESS

"They have to look that way. It wouldn't do for a man to be constantly smiling at his own happy thoughts."

Why They Laughed

He was charged with begging. "I'm not a lazy man, sir," he pleaded. "I work when I can get work. But I've been out of a job."

"Look at his hands, sergeant," said the magistrate.

The police-sergeant examined the prisoner's hands.

"It's a long time since this man did any work, sir," he said, critically. "His hands are as soft as mine."

How It Affected Her

Two girls were discussing a member of the stronger sex.

"How do you find his conversation?" asked one.

"Like the waves of the sea," came the reply.

"Ah! You mean you find it rolling, irresistible, vital--?"

"No, it makes me sick."

A Few Little Smiles

GOOD GAME

Bobbie and his little sister were playing in the garden. Their mother had given them an apple each. Bobbie had eaten his straightway; Mary was saving hers for the time being.

"Let's play Adam and Eve," Bobbie suggested.

"How do you play that?" asked Mary.

"You tempt me to eat your apple and I give way," was the explanation offered.

NOT VAIN

"She is not at all vain about her beauty, although she has good cause to be."

"How do you know?"

"She told me so herself."

Page Kipling!

Big Game Hunter--On my first trip to Africa my bag included two elephants.

Dear Old Thing--Good gracious! However did you carry it?--Everybody's Weekly.

Remarkable Bird

"I would like a parrot like that. Does it talk?"

"Talk! It walked from Hamburg to Berlin and asked the way the whole time."--Hummel (Hamburg).

Nothing More

"Would you be happy if you had all the money you wanted?"

"I should be happy if I had all the money my creditors wanted."--Beringke Tidende (Copenhagen).

Always Punctilious

Little Fred, well trained by his parents, was bidding his adieu after a rather dull evening.

"Good-by," he murmured, "I had a pretty good time."

ONE EXCEPTION

Smith--Friends are a great consolation.

Jones--Not if you're broke.

Floriculture

The junior dance was over, and Bill, in a dreamily reminiscent mood, was telling his mother all about it.

"Gee, Betty looked swell," he related. "She had on a green dress and a bunch of those oily-looking white flowers with the leaves that look like linoleum!"

Catty Chat

"This is my twentieth birthday."

"Strange, today is my twentieth birthday."

"Yes, but it is mine for the first time."

Inexcusable

"That man was very rude," said the songster to the hostess.

"In what way?"

"When you introduced me as a crooner, he said 'I'm a coroner. Hope to see you again.'"

Poor Judgment

"Mother, did baby come from heaven?"

"Yes."

"Fancy leaving heaven for a home like this!"

An Achievement

City-Bred--Your method of cultivating your crop is old-fashioned. I'd be surprised if you got more than ten pounds of apples off that tree.

Farmer--So would I. It's a pear tree!--Cambridge Chronicle.

Cause for Complaint

Circus Manager--Well, what's wrong now?

India-rubber Man--Every time the Strong Man writes a letter he uses me to rub out the mistakes.

It Fits Him

"Now your husband must live on milk for a month."

"He says milk is no food."

"Babies live on it."

"Then it's all right, doctor. He's a big baby."--Louisville Courier-Journal.

Hard to Please

"This is the finest rug in the city," said the salesman.

"Won't do," sighed the young matron. "My sister has the finest rug in the country and I want a better one."

RELATIONSHIP OF BODIES AND MINDS

One's Personality Matter of Health?

Erich Maria Remarque, author of "All Quiet on the Western Front" and other excellent stories of the war, is quoted as saying:

"It is very queer that the unhappiness of the world is so often brought on by small men. They are so much more energetic and uncompromising than the big fellows. I have always taken good care to keep out of sections with small company commanders. They are mostly confounded little martinet."

Several years ago Dr. Robert Hutchison of London gave a talk before the Cambridge University Medical Society on the relation between a man's physical constitution and his character. Among other things he said:

"There can be no doubt that a man's character is largely dependent upon his physical constitution. This is certainly the case so far at least as several important elements of character are concerned, such as energy, courage, vivacity and good temper, although as regards some of the finer elements, sympathy, sincerity and so forth, the physical basis may not be so obvious."

"Sir Walter Scott said, 'Yet it does appear to me that high and independent feelings are naturally, though not uniformly or inseparably connected with bodily advantages. Strong men are usually good humored, and active men often display the same elasticity of mind as of body.' To quote Mr. H. G. Wells, it may be that 'even the capacity for friendship is a question of physique.'"

"Herbert Spencer, in an interesting chapter of his autobiography ventures the opinion that much might be said about the mental effects of bodily deformity. One, he suggests, who knows that he is looked upon by others with disfavor or pity cannot help being in some measure soured, or if his deformity is of such a nature that he cannot join in the pursuits of normal men he may become the prey of envy. In present-day language he is said to suffer from an inferiority complex."

Unquestionably, as Doctor Hutchison suggests, the state of health and physical constitution of the individual have much to do with his personality. As to the production of an inferiority complex because of physical deformities or crippling, this is not so common as one might suppose. It is often observed that the people with physical disabilities are not at all unhappy but have adjusted

HEALTH!

The new cereal with the true graham flavor! If you like cereal crisp and crunchy, toss Graham Dots into milk or cream a few at a time and eat them while they float! Sweetened just right--no sugar necessary.

Order from your grocer
ROBERT A. JOHNSTON COMPANY
Milwaukee

Johnston GRAHAM Cereal DOTS

themselves to such deficiencies and live in a world of their own, quite contented. Hence the sympathy and pity that are meted out to them are often misplaced and may be harmful if too obviously expressed.--From How to Live.

Viking Fishermen Cling to Old-Time Methods

Fishing is now one of the most highly organized industries in the world. But, although everything has been "speeded up," and mass production methods are used for catching fish, progress has not killed the old long-line fishermen of the Scandinavian countries.

These Vikings, direct descendants of the discoverers of America, go to sea in a vessel about the size of a trawler. On the fore deck there is a small engine, worked by steam and about the size of a typewriter.

This is a set of spools for winding up the line. The twine they use is no thicker than the string shop assistants use for tying up parcels, but it is strong, and there are miles of it on the spools.

At intervals all along the line there are long strings branching off, and at the end of each branch a hook, baited with a bit of fish. The number of hooks on one line may be anything from 1,000 to 5,000. The bait used is generally mussels, whelks, squid and herrings.

It's easy to flatter a flatterer.

You save in buying... you save in using

KC BAKING POWDER

SAME PRICE FOR OVER 40 YEARS

25 ounces for 25¢

MILLIONS OF ROUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

WHY DID A BABY STARVE ON THIS?

WHY DID THE SAME BABY THRIVE ON THIS?

Food elements

in both were the same

CHEMICALLY, two baby foods can be exactly alike. The same percentage of carbohydrate, fat, protein, mineral salts. The same vitamins.

Yet on one, a baby may lose weight, grow thin and weak. And on the other, that same baby can flourish and gain and take on new life. What's the reason? ... Digestibility.

Digestibility of prime importance!

Doctors know that a baby can starve on what is apparently the most perfectly "balanced" formula if his body cannot use the food elements it contains. Only a food which is easily and completely digested and assimilated can give to your baby the full amount of building material his little body needs.

Countless doctors and mothers have found this out through actual experience. And that is why Eagle Brand, over a period of 75 years, has won a marvelous reputation as an infant food. For Eagle Brand, next to mother's milk, is the easiest form of milk in all the world to digest. In baby's stomach, Eagle Brand forms soft, fine curds, like those formed by mother's milk. Every drop of Eagle Brand is quickly assimilated, goes quickly into the making of bones and teeth, muscle and tissue, energy and strength.

This milk can build 100% babies! And what a builder Eagle Brand is! Recently, in a world-famous baby clinic, two physicians--specialists in their field

--fed a group of 50 average babies on Eagle Brand for several months, to test its exact value in baby building. Bone structure was studied with the X-ray. Tooth development was watched. Weight and height were periodically recorded. Blood tests were made... and those 50 Eagle Brand babies, judged by every known test, proved themselves splendidly nourished.

This simple diet--Eagle Brand with the usual supplementary foods--had proved equal in every way to the building of 100% babies.

What overwhelming proof that the mother whose own milk fails can put her baby on Eagle Brand with perfect confidence!

Try Eagle Brand. See the simple instructions on the label. And send for the new booklet "Baby's Welfare." It gives feeding schedules, full directions for baby's care, together with pictures and life stories of Eagle Brand babies.

*The usual supplementary foods, of course, are orange or tomato juice, and cod-liver oil or other source of the anti-rachitic vitamin D.

FREE! COMPLETE BOOKLET ON BABY CARE

The Borden Company, Dept. WN-2, Borden Building, 350 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

Please send me--free--the new edition of "Baby's Welfare."

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____

(Please print name and address plainly.)

6% Preferred Shares in Your Home Town Utility!

PREFERRED stocks of The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company, Wisconsin Gas and Electric Company, Wisconsin Michigan Power Company and Wisconsin Electric Power Company are owned by thousands of prudent investors living principally in the territory served by these companies. These folks have found opportunity for sound, conservative investment right at home in the essential public utilities that serve their communities.

A LIMITED amount of the 6% Cumulative Preferred Shares of each of these companies is now available for purchase in small allotments only. You may buy as little as one share.

THE price is $100 per share, and each share pays dividends at the rate of $6 per year. This is a liberal return on an investment of such high quality. Dividends are paid every three months by check.

WISCONSIN investors are familiar with the history and development of these companies. They comprise the largest and oldest group of public utilities in the state. They are ably managed and very conservatively financed. Their business is essential and continuous.

EACH of these companies has always met all of its obligations promptly when due. Each has an unbroken record of continuous preferred dividend payments. Each company is in strong financial position, and its current preferred stock dividends are being amply earned.

YOU may buy these 6% Cumulative Preferred Shares for cash or convenient monthly payments. Purchase one or more shares today. Put your money to work in your home town utility. Mail orders are filled promptly by registered letter.

For Further Information

call at or write to our Securities Department, Public Service Building, Milwaukee, or any of our local utility offices in Racine, Kenosha, Burlington, South Milwaukee, Cudahy, Waukesha, Watertown, Fort Atkinson, Whitewater, Menomonee Falls, Appleton, Neenah, and Iron Mountain.

Securities Department
CUSTOMERS HALL PUBLIC SERVICE BUILDING
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company
Wisconsin Gas and Electric Company
Wisconsin Michigan Power Company
Wisconsin Electric Power Company
COMPRISING THE WISCONSIN-MICHIGAN GROUP

It's a Pity Her Name Isn't Mary

The lamb's name is Willie and he doesn't follow her to school unless he's dragged. And her name isn't Mary; it's Cecilia Lawrence of Atlanta, Georgia. Otherwise it's all just like the old poem.

MATH. SCHLAEFER OPTOMETRIST

Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted Campbellsport, Wisconsin

ALL BADGER COUNTIES
ASK FOR SEED LOANS

Applications for federal seed loans have been made by farmers in every county in the state. Fully 6,000 applications, involving over half a million dollars, have been made. Supervision of the loans will be made by J. P. Riordan, who has been appointed chief seed loan inspector for Wisconsin; Kark Kuehl, of Eau Claire county; and Paul Thatcher, of Trempealeau county. It will be the duty of these men to look after the collection of loans made from the Minneapolis office to Wisconsin residents.

BLIND PENSIONS TOTAL $383,635.27

The counties in Wisconsin spent $383,635.27 in 1931 for blind pensions, the state board of control announced Monday. According to their announcement pensions were given to 1588 blind persons ranging from 18 to 99 years, and totaled $33,500 more than in 1930. The audit shows 608 persons receiving pensions were married, 545 single, 408 widowed and 27 separated or divorced. Florence county was the only county in the state which reported no blind pension expenditures. Other expenditures of counties in this locality for the blind are: Dodge $4,710, Fond du Lac $7,685, Jefferson $5,812, Milwaukee $59,851, Ozaukee $3,120, Sheboygan $5,850, Washington $1,950.

—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.

MANY DEATHS THE PAST WEEK

CAMPBELLSPORT TRUSTEE PASSES AWAY

Charles H. Seering, 34, trustee of the village of Campbellsport, and a prominent business man of that village, died Sunday, May 8th, at his home after being sick for several weeks.

Deceased was born July 27, 1897, at Shawano, Wis., where he attended the graded schools, coming to Campbellsport in the year 1913, graduating from the Campbellsport High School in 1916. He then attended the White-water Normal school for a few years. Finishing the Normal he accepted the position as assistant cashier of the First State Bank. Twelve years ago he became associated with his father in the mercantile business at Campbellsport under the firm name of H. Seering and Son.

Besides being a trustee of the village of Campbellsport, Mr. Seering was a member of Fond du Lac Lodge 140, F. & A. M., the Campbellsport Reformed church, Modern Woodmen of the Fond du Lac Presbyterian Men's Club and of the Campbellsport Fire Department.

Mr. Seering is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seering, a sister, Mrs. C. H. Van De Zande, and a nephew, Charles Van De Zande, Jr., all of Campbellsport.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Gilbert O. Wernecke officiated, and at 2 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church at Shawano. Burial was made at Woodland cemetery at Shawano. Rev. Mr. Perry of said city officiated.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT LIBERAL IN PENSIONS

The United States has always been the most liberal country in the world in providing pensions for the men who have served in the army and navy. Recently, there has been a good deal of discussion of this pension situation, which is costing the taxpayers of the United States considerably more than a billion dollars a year. We have no quarrel whatever with the principle that a man who has been wounded or disabled by illness while risking his life for the defense of his country, should be taken care of, so long as he needs it, at the expense of his country. But we have no sympathy for the able-bodied, self-supporting man who thinks that he is entitled to a pension merely because he was under arms for awhile in a training camp. And we have still less sympathy for the man who tries by fraudulent means to obtain a pension by special act of Congress.

President Hoover put his finger on one of the weakest spots in our pension system when he vetoed the Omnibus Pension Bill. This is an annual affair which usually has a great many meritorious claims in it, but frequently contains claims of would-be pensioners who are not by any stretch of the imagination entitled to be supported by the public. As Mr. Hoover pointed out the people of the United States should not be taxed to pension a man who was court-martialed for drunkenness and conduct prejudicial to good order and was finally discharged without honor for the good of the service, or for a man whose injuries were incurred in attempting suicide, or for a soldier whose only injury was the loss of a leg by being run over by a street car when he was lying on the track intoxicated. These are only a few of the fraudulent claims for pensions which were included in this year's Omnibus Pension Bill.

By all means, we think, every man who has ever proved his willingness to die for his country has a special claim upon the nation's gratitude. But we feel also that the greatest care should be taken at all times, and especially now, to protect the nation against fraudulent pension claims.

NEW FANE

Mr. and Mrs. August Heberer visited with relatives at Milwaukee Sunday.

Misses Louise and Marie Kolafa visited with Miss Ruth Corbett Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pesch visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ehnert.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Naumann and family visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Dworschak and family.

Rudy Kolafa and daughters, Louise and Marie, attended the baseball game Sunday at Menomonee Falls.

—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Brandt and family of Saukville visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Fellenz and family.

Miss Clara Albrecht, who has been spending the past six months at Murdale Sanitarium at Wauwatosa, is now home.

Mrs. R. Kolafa and daughter Gertrude and friend, Henry Schultz, Jr., visited at Milwaukee Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Albrecht.

Mrs. Frank Ehnert, son Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Keller, daughter Paty visited Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Dworschak and family.

NOTICE

Having purchased a stallion, iron gray, last fall, I will stand same at Dr. E. L. Morgenroth's place, Kewaskum, every Wednesday, starting May 18th. Barney Strohmeyer, Kewaskum R. 3

Phone 6519
5-13-31pd

KEWASKUM DROPS LEAGUE OPENER

WEST BEND LOSES 11 TO 1

West Bend took the worst defeat of all in the first game of the season, when North Fond du Lac Tigers took them into camp for a decisive victory of 11 to 1. Kuehlthau and Rose did the twirling for the Benders with Kircher behind the bat. Miller, Hahn and Pommerville were the battery for the Tigers. Score:

R H E
West Bend.....000 000 010- 1 7 1
N. Fond du Lac..400 030 40-11 13 1
Double plays, West Bend 2. Two base hits, West Bend 3, North Fond du Lac 3. Base on balls off Miller 5, Hohn 1, Kuehlthau 2, Rose 2. Struck out by Miller 7, Hahn 1, Kuehlthau 1, Rose 4. Left on bases, West Bend 10, North Fond du Lac 5.

SHEBOYGAN FALLS 7; MAYVILLE 4

In a closely contested game, Sheboygan Falls nosed out Mayville last Sunday by a score of 7 to 4. Of the first ten men to face the Falls baseball artist, eight of the Mayville men were retired to the bench via the strike-out route.

FOND-DU LEAGUE TEAM STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct
Campbellsport	1	0	1000
Brownsville	1	0	1000
Eden	1	0	1000
Lomira	0	1	000
Waucousta	0	1	000
Oakfield	0	1	000

Games Next Sunday
Brownsville at Waucousta.
Campbellsport at Oakfield.
Eden at Lomira.

CAMPBELLSPORT 2, LOMIRA 1

Campbellsport won from Lomira 2 to 1, in the opening game of the Fond-Du League played at Campbellsport Sunday. Felix pitched the full game for Campbellsport, allowing 9 hits, 1 base on balls and struck out 5 men. Jaeger did the catching, Groeschel and Glass did the twirling for Lomira, with Weyer behind the plate. Campbellsport connected for 7 hits, were given 1 base on balls, and 5 men whiffed the air. The score by innings:
Lomira100 000 000-1-3-2
Campbellsport.....001 001 00-2-7-2

EDEN 19, WAUCOUSTA 5

Eden Sluggers won an easy victory over Waucousta at Eden Sunday by a score of 19 to 5. The sluggers connected for 22 hits, while Waucousta were allowed only three hits. Numerous errors were made on each side. Eden being charged with six errors while Waucousta piled up 9.

BROWNSVILLE 4, OAKFIELD 1

Brownsville in the opening game defeated Oakfield by a score of 4 to 1. The game was won in the first inning when the Brownies scored all their runs. Oakfield scored their only run also in the first. The rest of the game was a pitcher's battle. Leu and Homes were the Oakfield battery, while Zingler and Wendler did the big job for Brownsville. Oakfield connected for 5 hits and the Brownies for 11. Two errors were made on each side. Leu struck out 7 and allowed 1 base on balls. Zingler struck out 5 and passed one man. Score by innings:
Oakfield100 000 000-1-5-2
Brownsville400 000 00-4-11-2

CENTRAL VALLEY LEAGUE TEAM STANDINGS

	W	L	Pct
Boltonville	1	0	1000
West Bend	1	0	1000
Jackson	1	0	1000
Thoma's Resort	0	1	000
Barton	0	1	000
Fond du Lac	0	1	000

Sunday's Results
Boltonville 7; Thoma's Resort 4.
Jackson 16; Barton 2.
West Bend 2; Fond du Lac 1 (10 innings).

Next Sunday's Games
West Bend at Jackson.
Barton at Boltonville.
Thoma's Resort at Fond du Lac.

SOUTH ELMORE

Will Brookman of Kewaskum was a caller here Friday.

Miss Lauretta Campbell of Wayne is employed at the Peter Thill home.

Fred Klomberg of Milwaukee spent the week-end with the Jonas Volland family.

Tony Welsner of New Fane called on the Charles Wilke family Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Groeschel of Milwaukee visited with John Thill and Mr. and Mrs. Will Volland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Boetcher and son Kenneth of West Bend called on the Ernest Reinhardt family Thursday.

—Booster Baseball Dance, Opera House, Kewaskum, Sunday evening, May 15. Music by Schmitz Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. August Hilbert and daughter Bernice of Ashford visited with the Will Rauch family Sunday.

Mrs. Peter Kohler and daughter Shirley of Kewaskum called on the Christ Mathieu family Saturday afternoon.

The Misses Lorinda and Ludmilla Mathieu attended a linen shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Endijan at Campbellsport Saturday evening in honor of Miss Kathryn Reimer.

If it were possible for a single bee to produce a pound of honey, she would have to work all day long, 365 days a year for eight years to produce it.

Your Favorite Photo Enlarged

FREE FREE

The Kewaskum Statesman has made arrangements with the Metro Art Studios to make beautiful Enlargements in lifelike colors with frame complete for its readers. (Send for sample photo enlargement)

How to Get an Enlargement Free

1. Send us $2.00 for one year's subscription to The Statesman and secure FREE a lovely $1.35 portrait enlargement, made from any of your favorite snapshot films or photos. It will be enlarged to size 7x5 inches in lifelike colors, complete with frame and easel.

2. These make wonderful gifts. Everybody wants a beautiful picture of baby, mother, dad or sweetheart. Get yours now. If you are already a subscriber, you can get a Portrait Enlargement by sending us an additional year's subscription or a renewal to the Statesman. (Send film or photo, films preferred but any photo will do if you have no film).

3. Your originals will be returned unharmed together with the Enlargement in a few days after we receive it. SEND US YOUR SUBSCRIPTION OR RENEWAL TODAY.

KEWASKUM STATESMAN

Kewaskum, Wisconsin

The Kewaskum Statesman,
Kewaskum, Wisconsin.
Gentlemen:—

I enclose $2.00 with (Film) (Photo) for one year's subscription to The Statesman and one beautiful Photo Enlargement, hand painted in lifelike colors with frame complete.

Name

Address

Write or Print Clearly

If one picture is to be taken out of a group, mark an (X) lightly with pencil on body of person or mention the one to be enlarged.

KETTNER
WHEN you see that signature on a cartoon in these columns look carefully at the cartoon. It will have been drawn by M. G. Kettner, one of the leading cartoonists of America. We are proud of the fact that he is numbered among the contributors to our columns, and know that his work appeals to all of our readers. In a kindly way he pictures our kind of "folk" and his cartoons are never of the offensive type. Call them to the attention of your friends.

TO HOLD COURSE IN FIREMANSHIP

The village of Kewaskum has received an invitation to attend the Fourth Annual Wisconsin Course in Firemanship to be held at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, June 21, 22, 23, 24, 1932. The Village President, Mr. T. R. Schmidt, and the Fire Chief, Mr. Harry Schaefer, are considering the selection of delegates to be sent to this University Course. Modern developments in fire prevention, fire control, and fire extinguishment make this annual course necessary. "Attendance by our firemen will result in the improvement of the local department with possible reduction in fire insurance rates," said the chief.

The Course will include a series of lectures and discussions, under the leadership of well-known experts in the field, on such topics as: Training of Firemen, Modern Methods in Fire Extinguishment, Common Electrical Fire and Life Hazards, Fire Prevention Inspections, Organization, Discipline and Maintenance of Volunteer Fire Departments, Spontaneous Combustion Fires, Types of Chemical Fire Extinguishers, Storage and Handling of Flammable Liquids, Minor Fire Department Equipment, Methods of Attacking Mercantile, Residence, and Garage Fires, Salvage Demonstrations, First Aid Demonstrations.

The part of the course devoted to the training of firemen will consist of lectures, discussions, and demonstrations. The demonstrations will include several hose and ladder exhibitions, practical salvage work, first aid, and the use of fire extinguishers.

IT ISN'T BEING DONE TODAY

Advertising Your Needs Is The Modern Way

Be Modern --- Consult The CLASSIFIED - COLUMNS

Brains do it—not brawn! Don't try to get what you want with a bludgeon. Knock-down and drag-out days are over. More modern facilities are at your service. The Kewaskum Statesman, through its classified columns—carries your need to the minds of the people you want to reach—immediately—effectively—inexpensively. One person at a time is the most you can personally interview. Your advertisement—inserted in the classified columns, reaches all the people who are interested—simultaneously. Your advertisement works for you—locating what you want in the shortest possible time. Insert an advertisement—read the advertisements. It's the modern way

DO YOU NEED

Salesmen Office Clerks Stenographers Chauffeurs
Gardners Furnace-Men Laundresses Painters
Furniture Housemaids Used Cars Apartments

Read The Classified Ads

Telephone 281

Kewaskum Statesman

Kewaskum, Wis.