

KEWASKUM PUBLIC SCHOOL COLUMN WIN BY A NOSE

The blowing of the whistle ending the game, saved the local High School Five from defeat by the Brandon High School Five last week Friday evening at the local gym. Final score, Kewaskum 29, Brandon 19.

The visitors were in the lead until the last two minutes of play when Coach Rose's boys caged two baskets and forged in front. The game was one of the hardest fought contests the local five ever entered this season.

Marx, center for the locals, was the chief pointer getter, scoring 3 field goals and 3 free throws. For the first time this season he was eliminated from the game on account of four personal fouls. Koehler headed the Brandon...

They Will Stage Inaugural Show March 4

March 4th, for the inauguration of President-elect Roosevelt into office. It is reported that simplicity will mark the ceremonies in accordance with the wishes of Mr. Roosevelt. . . . Those in the picture are, seated, left to right: James A. Farley, National Democratic Chairman and Admiral C. T. Grayson, chairman. Standing: John F. Costello and John B. Colpays of Washington.

WHEN you see that signature on a cartoon in these columns look carefully at the cartoon. It will have been drawn by M. G. Kettner, one of the leading cartoonists of America. We are proud of the fact that he is numbered among the contributors to our columns, and know that his work appeals to all of our readers. In a kindly way he pictures our kind of "folk" and his cartoons are never of the offensive type. Call them to the attention of your friends.

A Pole-Cat Pet

"Cute little fellow, this pole-cat," says Miss Ruby Knight of Atlanta, Ga., who has him for a pet. His name is "Stinky"—which is unfair, inasmuch as he has long since been denatured and is the sweetest and most loving "guy" imaginable.

STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.—"Otto B. Graf, Druggist, says BUKETS is a best seller."

The amount of scab and black scurf on the potato crop, that is harvested, depends not only on the amount of infection introduced with the seed but on weather and on the amount of infection already on the soil. Seed potatoes are treated for the control of these diseases before planting, plant pathologists state.

Research and Education

In the last analysis humanity has but one supreme problem, the problem of kindling the torch of enlightened creative effort here and there and everywhere, and of passing on for the enrichment of the lives of future generations the truth already discovered—in two words, the problem of research and education.—Dr. Robert A. Millikan

Tallest President?

George Washington was the tallest man who has ever been President of the United States. He was six feet three inches in height. No other President has ever been able to measure up to him, although Lincoln was only one inch short of the mark.

Artistic Taste

Until we learn to appreciate the cherubs and angels that Raphael scatters through the blessed air, in a picture of the "Nativity," it is not amiss to look at a Dutch fly settling on a peach, or a bumblebee burying himself in a flower.—Hawthorne's Journal.

Early Diving Suit

The diving suit is not so new as one might think. A patent was granted to John Stapleton on March 17, 1893, for "a new engine so by him contrived as to permit a person inclosed in it to walk under water, and to a new invented way to force air into any depth of water to supply the person in the said engine therewith and for continuing a lamp burning under water; also a way to de-aerate and purify the air so as to make the same serviceable for respiration."

Specialists

"Specialists may have their good points," says Abe Martin in Farm and Fireside, "but who'd want 'em? I used to know a gild edged contortionist but he wasn't a feller you'd want 'em spend an evenin' with."

After Each Meal

If a newspaper is crumpled and then rubbed over the gas stove top after each meal while the stove is still a bit warm all grease and dirt will wipe off with it and the stove will always look clean and polished.

Made in England

Parchment, which is now popular in America for university degrees and diplomas, is still made in the same old-fashioned way, in the same methods and on the same site as it has been for a thousand years.

Men and the Truth

Men in all ways are better than they seem. They like flattery for the moment, but they know the truth for their own. It is a foolish cowardice which keeps us from trusting them, and speaking to them rude truth.—Emerson.

Emergency Took Him Out

During his first week of school little Mary came home saying her teacher had told the class the story of Joseph and his coat. In repeating the story, Mary exclaimed: "Joseph's brothers put him down in a deep well and went away and left him and the 'emergency' came along and took him out of the well."

Quite an Industry

Tough little Frank was visiting a beach town, and one day on the beach an old salt said kindly, "These here are fish nets. Know how we make them?" "Sure," said Frank. "Easy. You just take a lot of holes and sew them together."—Boston Transcript.

Highest Paid Short Fiction Writer

FANNIE HURST is the highest paid short story writer in the world today. There's a good reason for that. She knows human nature and under the magic of her touch, the people about whom she writes become real people, not mere literary creations. The plots of her stories are based on incidents from real life as it is lived every day by the common people.

Such are the stories which are appearing in this newspaper. Be sure to read them and talk to your friends about them, for they like interesting stories, too. And Fannie Hurst's stories are interesting stories.

FARM AND HOME LINES
Trees furnish the frame and background of the home picture. Plant them on the border of the lawn, to frame the view of the house from the roadway, and at the rear of the house to serve as a background for the home grounds, landscape architects suggest.
Evergreens seldom if ever need pruning except in the case of those that must be kept in definite formal shape. Pinching back the buds at any time in order to thicken the growth is all the pruning most evergreens require horticulturists state.
In investigational work, at the Wisconsin college of agriculture, oat feed when fed in limited amounts in grain mixtures of farm animals has proved to be worth 40 to 50 per cent as much per ton as corn or hominy feed and 70 per cent as much as wheat bran in dairy cow rations.
The stone silo in Wisconsin was the real pioneer and has perhaps as good a record as the best of other makes, agricultural engineers state.

Substitute for Words
You can say one thing for petting. It is a great relief to those who haven't wit enough to make conversation.—San Francisco Chronicle.
