try during 1989. SUMMER TRIPS TAKEN

The committee sponsoring the local lostel selects the hostel and houseparents and assures maintenance of youth hostel standards Summer trips are taken annually by those who dee re to travel. Trips may be taken throughout the Thited States and to Canada, Alaska, Merico and South The half ended 13-11, Kewaskum. America. The AYH also sponsors trips to Europe and Par Bast but these will not be resumed until concitions there permit.

Short trips may also be taken by a group of friends unde the leadership of scout leaders, teachers or other reliable youth leader. The group may go to nearby hostels and the houseparent will be glad to we'rome them and introduce them to other hostelers, bringing the final tally to 83-21. These trips last aw lens as members desire to travel, overnight or all summer, AYH sponsored groups start out between June 20 and July 5. For trips the AYH handbook is consulted.

All over the country the zest for youth hosteling is stirring. Back roads for bikers, foot paths for hikers, canceists' lakes and rivers, bridle trails MAYVILLE and ski runs call to youth to go a-hosteling. For more information concerning the Kewaskum hostel call at this office, or preferably, write or consult Victor T. Broome, 28 Oak avenue, Fond du Lac, or my other member of the local committee

Oppose Highway Change

Four hundred taxpayers of the town of Farmington present "i a petition to the Washington county board late Wednesday protesting the $100,000 wi. BECKER-Borr, to Mr. and Mrs. dening and relocation project on Highway 144 through that 1 wnship.

The taxpayers charged the project was an extravagance unjustified the amount of traffic the highway carries. The project calls for construction daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William of a 100 foot, three land road for a distance of about seve miles to the Washington-Sheboygar county line.

Clyde Schloemer, West Bend attorney representing the Formington delegation, told the county loard that many farm homes along the highway would be too close to the road if the project were completed. Joseph Stransky of Milwankee, division engineer of the state highway commission, said it was the first "me he had seen so many signatures to a petition against road improvement. He sid the situation was usually reversed.

> once more, she got to her feet. "You are going to stay for dinner," she announced abruptly, and in spite of his protests she went to the kitchen to confer with Hannah.

The sound of Florian's car on the highway was still audible to Autumn as she hurried to her room and began removing her white linen suit. She changed quickly to her black riding clothes and fastened a bright green scarf about her throat, her hands trembling with an unaccountable excitement.

Her flight down the stairs and out of the house brought from old Hannah a mere despairing click of the tongue. She had long since given up the struggle of trying to cope with the vagaries of her young mis-

The sun had gone and the new moon had cut a barely perceptible silver curve in the pale sky as Autumn mounted her horse and turned him westward. She was glad, shamelessly, that her gaze fell full upon it, and neither over her right shoulder nor over her left.

Beneath the serene dome of evening the mountains had drawn into their blue secrecy. The drowsy murmur of the range drifted toward her and overwhelmed her senses with its prophecy of fulfillment. Bruce had told Florian that he would not be at home. He would be in his cabin. She turned from the trail and rode over the hills straight in the direction of the ravine. As she came to the white birches and looked ahead, she saw quietly open and stepped within. Bruce was on his knees in the middle of the floor, packing a heavy box with supplies. He looked up quickly, then got to his feet and faced her in the shimmering gloom of the place. She retreated a step and leaned her back against the frame of the doorway.

For a moment neither spoke. Then he stepped toward her.

Teddy Bear

THE coy, mild teddy bear, the idol of all small children, was named after the brusque, forceful Theodore Roosevelt, as a result of a bear hunt down in Mississippi during November, 1902.

For 10 days "Teddy" and his companions searched in vain for big game. One morning the cry of "Bear!" was raised and the President hurried out of his tent to discover a small, frightened cub which had been dragged into camp for him to shoot.

"Take him away!" snorted Teddy contemptuously. "If I shot that little fellow I would be ashamed to look into the faces of my children." When Clifford K. Berryman, a OUILTMAKING'S fascinatingcartoonist for the Washington Post form lovely flower blocks-printed heard about the incident, he drew materials set off these flowers effectively. Miniature Army

A military museum in Paris has a collection of 19,000 dolls. Each is about two and a half inches tall, and clad in period uniform. The uniforms and weapons are perfect replicas of those used in the Napoleonic wars. The whole army of 19,000 was made by one man—an Alsatian soldier who fought under Napoleon, and spent the rest of his life making miniature soldiers.

Adventure, love, dramatic action—they're all a part of "The Gift Wife," Rupert Hughes' great serial. It's the story of Dr. David Jebb, skilled surgeon whose only fault is a spasmodic but overwhelming desire for drink. Because of this desire, Dr. Jebb experiences the greatest adventure of his life.

Awakening from one of his periodic jousts, David finds himself in a strange land, inhabited by unfamiliar people. The little girl, for whom he had been acting as temporary guardian, has disappeared. He has no memory of his previous actions. Then a masked lady enters his life, guiding his confused thoughts, and helping him to recovery-

A VEILED LADY ...

Brings comfort and returning courage to Dr. David Jebb, famed surgeon, when he wakes to find himself alone in a strange land, his memory of preceding events a complete blank

Cursed with an overpowering desire for drink, David Jebb knows he has shirked a grave responsiblity in succumbing to temptation. A little girl, placed temporarily in his charge, has disappeared. All because he could not resist the lure he knew would sooner or later wreck his life.

Help comes to him at an opportune time. The veiled lady, gentle and kind, looks after him, restoring his health and aiding him in his search for his missing charge.

David grows to love his mysterious benefactor, but knows he will again fall victim to his desires. There is only one way out—he must leave the veiled lady, knowing that to remain would cause only unhappiness.

He finds, however, that he is powerless to shape the course of his destiny. A stronger force prevails, and David Jebb finds happiness and contentment.

You'll like "The Gift Wife." It's one of Rupert Hughes greatest stories!

Is 'Real War' Coming at Last? Hitler's Speech Viewed as Signal For Bitter Drive Against Allies

(EDITOR'S NOTE-When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) Released by Western Newspaper Union

INTERNATIONAL:

Charge and Answer

The comments of a Catholic primate in late January seemed destined to touch off a one-two-three sequence that would lead Europe to a real war.

At the Vatican, August Cardinal joining the Anglo-French war bloc. Like-Hlond reported that his primacy of Poland was the scene of mass shooting, religious persecution and other atrocities by Nazi Germany. Adding its two-bits worth, Poland-in- by (1) assignment of American volunteers exile charged from Paris that Ger- to a legionnaire unit, and (2) arrival in many had executed 18,000 Polish Norway of at least 11 American-made purleaders.

These things, true or not, made Berlin downright mad, insulted and vengeful. Diego von Bergen, ambassador to the Holy See, protested in vain. German executives in Poland like Arthur Greiser, Arthur Seyss-Inquart and Hans Frank made speeches and gave interviews, the general theme being an admission of stern measures against "chauvinistic agitators" and sterner measures against Polish Jews. But atrocities were denied; all reprimands, they asserted, were designed to make everybody happy.

Adolf Hitler didn't bother to explain; he merely raved against his enemies. Occasion was the seventh anniversary of his rise to power. In his speech Der Fuehrer: (1) promised continued friendship with Italy and Russia; (2) tried to "pep up" Germany's war morale; (3) attacked Britain as usual; (4) attacked France, which was not usual; (5) announced the "real war" was about to start.

(London interpreted the speech as a surrender of hope that the allies might somehow be split, Italians heard Hitler with indifference, perturbed because he spent more time polishing apples with Russia than with Italy.)

Western War

In Britain, where a cold wave and fuel shortage had made bigger news than the war, Adolf Hitler's declaration suddenly struck home. Waves of Nazi bombers swept down the coasts for the second consecutive $49,975,000 for sugar benefits, $25,day, destroying (according to Berlin) 19 ships. Just as France's Premier Daladier had warned a few hours earlier that total warfare would start soon, so did Britain's Neville Chamberlain indirectly hint at the same thing when he made a speech containing strong overtures toward neutrals like Japan and the U. S.

(Japan was still protesting British seizure of 21 Nazi sailors from a Jap steamship. But she had more serious troubles closer home. Russo-Jap boundary discussions broke down, indicating the Manchukuoan-Mongolian war may start again soon. Also broken down was electric power. Reason: Fuel shortage.) mittee presented the revised bill un-

All efforts to get the fund increased have met with opposition in the economyminded house appropriations committee, despite the fact that Arnold's division will probably collect $6,-000,000 in fines during the current year. Attack on President by C. I. O. Lewis Is Followed by Exaggerated Claims for Roosevelt Delegates in Florida And Ohio; It Is All a Part of the Game.

By WILLIAM BRUCKART WNU Service, National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON .- The Democratic political pot has come to the boiling point. High political temperatures have prevailed now for several weeks. The condition probably will continue for several weeks more before there is a lull. But a lull will come. Political strategists, presidential aspirants and wheelhorses will not be able to maintain the current pace until convention time. If they attempt it, there is only one end possible: the Democratic party will be split beyond any hope of repairing the damage.

There is one thing to be noted, even now: New Dealers, near-New Dealers and New Deal payrollers have put on one of the really great drives to insure the renomination of President Roosevelt for a third term. They have hit in every direction. Some blows appear to have been effective. The payrollers hope all of their efforts have brought favorable results, but that seems improbable.

In the period under discussion, there likewise has been a terrific attack upon the present New Deal leadership. This came originally from John L. Lewis and his C. I. O. labor organization. It dragged with it some others who might or might not have become so active at the moment-Sen. Burton Wheeler of Montana, for instance.

Lewis Support Like 'A Kiss of Death'

The Lewis attack was important solely because it represented the final stage of a break between himself and Mr. Roosevelt. I have that every move to direct the Florheard many persons say it was a ida vote towards Mr. Roosevelt was break of luck for the President. Mr. badly licked. W. campaign funds into Nutt, former governor of Indiana whatever coffer will best serve his and present federal security administrator, is sticking right close by the New Deal; so close, indeed, that he is not going to seek the Democratic nomination unless Mr. Roosevelt gets out of the way. It is held therefore, that when Mr. Lewis tried to pin back the Roosevelt ears, he inferentially helped Mr. McNutt for the reason that only a few political students here believe Mr. Roosevelt was damaged by desertion of the Lewis following from the New Deal to which they gave half a million dollars in the 1936 campaign.

As regards the Garner candidacy, observers seem to feel that the Lewis outburst was another feather in their cap. Mr. Garner, of course, has said he wants the nomination and wants to be elected and he made no mention at all of the possibility that Mr. Roosevelt may want to run for a third term. Thus, when Mr. Lewis said the Democratic party had broken faith with labor-he obviously meant with his own fac tion of organized labor-he could not have hit Mr. Garner as much as the out-and-out New Dealers. Mr. Garner certainly is not of that

Strange That Wheeler Should Encourage It

IT CAN'T KEEP UP

If the present boiling state of Democratic political pot should keep up, the party would be split, says William Bruckart. But a lull always follows feverish moments in politics. Over France's Western Front With Mighty Bombing Planes CARGO-Somewhere along the Western front, French mechanics and armorers prepare a squadron of bombers for a raid on German territory. In the foreground is a cart-load of lethal "eggs," most terrible weapon of modern warfare. (In the first five months of western war, there were no civilian bombings).

Hollywood has laughed at Mayor LaGuardia, of New York, for urging that the motion picture industry be transported bodily to New York. But recently Ernst Lubitsch, who directed Garbo in "Ninotchka," and William Dieterle, who directed Marlene Dietrich in "Destry Rides Again," called on the mayor and had a long talk with him. Not long before that, King Vidor, equally well known as a director, had a long visit with him. All insisted that the calls were just social, but it seems likely that there has been some discussion about bringing the movies back where they came from.

Don Kelley, publicity and promotion director at Station WLS, Chicago, recently sent a "singing telegram" to George Biggar, now at WLW, on his birthday. A girl at the telegraph office in Cincinnati sang "Happy Birthday" to Biggar over the wire, and was promptly invited to audition for a radio job.

Famed vaudeville artists of other years, who have practically disappeared from the American scene because of the onrush of the movies and radio, will be given an opportunity to entertain a greater public than they ever dreamed of. Al Pearce, air-wave master of ceremonies and comedian, has inaugurated a policy of presenting to the radio audiences each week a different vaudeville personality as a feature of the "Al Pearce and His Gang" broadcast. The guest artist will present his particular specialty as a distinct part of the half-hour program.

She finally finished the picture—at the old salary-and now that it is satisfactory, rumor reports that she'll get that salary raise.

But at first, Metro executives failed to see eye to eye with her. After all, she'd been seen by the public in only one picture; it was

TAKES PLANNING TO PRODUCE MEATLESS MEALS See Recipes Below.

Favorite Foods in Lent It takes a bit of planning to produce meatless meals that please the family because we're so accustomed to the meal that's built around substantial roasts, or chops, or steaks. But fish, eggs, milk, cheese, beans, peas and nuts, are excellent protein or body-building foods that should be substituted now and then for meat. Their uses are many and with judicious planning they add inon the part of parents that is most encouraging. Recently, a parent wanted to know of us what was required grammar, indicating that her daughter was having trcuble in Latin because of a lack of the fundamental principles of grammar in the rural schools. Another who is a college graduate said that his work from the grades through college gave him a good knowledge of subject matter, but little was done for him to develop the drive spirit, how to get along with people, or to think through a problem. Still, another indicated that the high school did not train popils to study. This comment put a finger upon the weakness in tlementary and high school teaching. A teacher should welcome these comments. The pupils be long to the parents and interest on their part will help very definitely. Ought parents be consilied as to the course of study? STOLEN WISDOM

Be friendly, and you will never want friends. Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well. We are never so happy or unhappy us we suppose. Many receive advice, only the wise profit by it. Let every man look before he leaps. Self control is only courage in another form. Method is the arithmetic of success.
