Big Crowd Meets Pres. Roosevelt's Son Here

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., son of the President, stopped off in Kewaskum a short time Wednesday morning while enroute from Milwaukee to Fond du Lac to deliver a campaign speech for his father's re-election. He arrived in town shortly before 11 a. m. and from Kewaskum went through Campbellsport to Fond du Lac, where he addressed a crowd of 1,000 persons at 12:30.

Although the very handsome young man's arrival was entirely unexpected here, a crowd of about 150 persons gathered hurriedly as his car stopped at the intersection on Fond du Lac avenue and traffic was halted. Young Roosevelt stepped from his car and immediately won the hearts of the people of Kewaskum with his courteous, friendly and refined manner. He overlooked no one and greeted all who gathered around him. A large number of those in the crowd had the pleasure of shaking the young man's hand during his limited stay. Roosevelt confined his visit to greeting the people and shaking hands and gave no talk.

Mr. Roosevelt was escorted through Kewaskum by Charles E. Broughton, Sheboygan, national Democratic committeeman; Frank Kuhl, William Irigoin and Carl Pawinski, Milwaukee; Thos. King, Oconomowoc, Assemblyman Maurice Fitzsimons, former State Senator Morley G. Kelly, and L. E. Calve, county party chairman, of Fond du Lac; Jacob Fessler, Sheboygan, candidate for congress, Fond du Lac county Democratic candidates and members of veterans organizations of Fond du Lac county greeted the escort here and escorted the party through that county.

GAME THIS FRIDAY
Oakfield at Kewaskum (homecoming)

The members of the Kewaskum High football team must be saving themselves for the prom. They played one of their poorest games of the year and put up a "ping pongish" exhibition during the first three quarters to help make Campbellsport's homecoming a success (for the Belles) at the latter place Saturday. The final score was Belles 55, Kewaskum 32, leaving the team in a tie for fourth place.

The only reversal of form by Kewaskum was in the fourth quarter when they finally got started and played as good or better football than they have all season. In this period they paralyzed the apparently strong Campbellsport six. In the first three quarters the boys had pep but no drive or fierceness in their play. They look too fresh and fit for a date after a game of football.

In the final quarter they played like people would have liked to have seen earlier in the game. The Belles were backed up in their own territory and when Kewaskum got the ball they drove hard and picked up real yardage on every play, which showed it can be done.

Bad breaks on fumbles early in the game cost Kewaskum some points. Campbellsport was quite a little larger in size than Kewaskum, making it hard for the small local backs to get past the line of scrimmage. Dunkelmann and Petermann played best for Kewaskum.

In other conference games the past week Brandon trounced Oakfield, 40-6, Friday, and North Fondy's steam roller crushed and buried Lomira, 104-7 Tuesday. The victory clinched the title for the Belles. Beaster, far ahead of the field in scoring in the loop, added six touchdowns to his total. All teams finished their season except Oakfield and Kewaskum, who meet today in Kewaskum's homecoming. Campbellsport won second and Brandon third.

The Kewaskum-Belle lineup:

John Tiss of Village and Wm. Jandre Die

After many years of patient and at times almost unbearable suffering, the calmness of death was imparted to John Tiss, 75, beloved and well known resident of this village, at St. Joseph's hospital, West Bend, at 3 a. m. Tuesday, Oct. 29. Announcement of the sad news threw a pall of heavy sorrow upon the community.

Mr. Tiss had been crippled many years, necessitating the use of a cane. In 1933 he suffered a stroke and later had the added misfortune to break his hip. He was helpless and confined to bed ever since that mishap. The complications of old age and his injury slowly sapped his vitality during his last years. He became seriously ill three months ago and was removed to the hospital about a month later, where he bore his final suffering until the end came.

Mr. Tiss was born on July 18, 1865, on his father's farm in the town of Kewaskum, now known as the Louis Foerster farm, located three miles west of the village. After becoming crippled 42 years ago he left the farm and came to this village, making his home on N. Fond du Lac avenue since, until he was removed to the hospital. His marriage to Miss Mary Straub took place on Feb. 12, 1889 at St. Kilian. She preceded him in death on Aug. 9, 1923.

Three children were born to the couple, all of whom survive their father, namely Agatha (Mrs. Joe Scheib) of Seward, Neb., Oswald of Waukegan, Ill. and Salome (Mrs. George Gutscheneiter) of Nashotah, Wis. He also leaves 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a. m. Thursday, Oct. 31, from Miller's Funeral Home and at 10 a. m. at Holy Trinity church. The Rev. Philip J. Vogt officiated and interment was made in the parish cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ignatz Strohmeyer, Christ. Schoofs, John Marx, John Muecke, Jos. Sukewaty and Simon Strofel.

Mr. Tiss was of honest, upright character and an ideal family and Christian man. He believed that to be happy one must make others happy. No matter how distressing the circumstances, he was always cheerful, thinking of ways to help someone else. He lived a benevolent life day by day and words cannot sufficiently honor him. His memory will live on in the hearts and lives of those close to him, to whom we express our heartfelt sympathy.

Draft Numbers of 69 County Men Called In First 500 Drawn

Henry Lemke First Kewaskum Man to Have Number Drawn; Few From County Expected to Leave in First Call

Drawing of draft numbers for the selective service army took place at Washington, D. C. Tuesday and the first number drawn was 158, which in Washington county was held by Harris O. Ewald, Hartford. The first number held by a Kewaskum young man was that of Henry Lemke of this village, whose registration number, 2914, was fiftieth in the order called. His was the only one in the village drawn among the first 500.

In the county 69 men had their numbers called in the first 500 capsules taken from the bowl. According to unofficial press reports only those within the first 25 numbers drawn will get the first call to camp, and in this case it would only include a few from the county. The lottery caused considerable interest here, all registrants studying the newspapers to find out their order number.

Below is a list of Kewaskum men drawn in the first 500. These numbers are not official. The local board will receive the official list from Madison within a few days.

The first number drawn, 158, in the second district of Fond du Lac county was held by Roderic Reese, who makes his home with his father-in-law, Math. Kohn, just north of the village. He registered in his home county. He is married to the former Ruth Kohn and is exempt. The registration number of Fred Siegel of Town Auburn was 94th in the order drawn. Numbers of others in this vicinity reported drawn among the first 500 are those of Wilmer Hawig (286) and Wm. Forester Jr., Wayne.

The seven numbers held by Kewaskum young men in the first 500 drawn are:

Clerk of Court
Candidate Gives
Voters Choice

Cliff Hutchinson is a candidate for the office of clerk of court of Washington County.

When you vote Tuesday, you'll find Hutchinson's name third from the bottom in the first column on the ballot.

At the present time the clerk of court is Al Bandle who did not seek re-election and therefore the office is open.

The salary of the clerk of court is $80 per month plus fees which brings it up to an average of between ninety and one hundred dollars a month.

If Hutchinson is elected he will give his full time to the office and at no time will Mrs. Hutchinson be employed in the office.

Hutchinson was a teacher in West Bend high school for seven years where in 1931 he taught civics and government.

He is trained for the job and is familiar with the office, having visited court sessions often during the past six months in order to become still better acquainted with the duties of the clerk.

On next Tuesday, Wisconsin law permits you to split your ticket when you vote—that is you may vote for candidates on all parties providing that you vote for only one man for each office. If you vote a straight ticket by placing your X in the circle at the top of the column you are in danger of electing men who are not fitted to serve you as county officers.

So vote for Roosevelt or vote for Willkie, vote for Hell or vote for Leemis—party differences may be important in national and state elections—but when you vote for clerk of court pick the man who is best trained and fitted for the office regardless of party connections.

Place your X on the ballot Tuesday in the third space from the bottom in the left hand column. Vote for Cliff Hutchinson for Clerk of Court.

How One Woman Lost 20 Pounds of FAT

Lost Her Prominent Eyes
Lost Her Double Chin
Lost Her Sluggishness
Gained a More Shapely Figure and the Increase in Physical Vigor and Vivaciousness Which So Often Comes With Excess Fat Reduction

Thousands of women are getting fat and losing their appeal just because they do not know what to do. Why not be smart—do what thousands of women have done and get off pounds of unwanted fat. Take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water first thing every morning to gently activate your liver, bowels and kidneys—cut down your caloric intake—eat wisely and satisfyingly—there need never be a hungry moment!

Keep this plan up for 30 days. Then weigh yourself and see if you haven't lost pounds of ugly fat. Just see if this doesn't prove to be the surprise of your life and make you feel like shouting the good news to other fat people. And best of all a jar of Kruschen that will last you for 4 weeks costs but little. If not joyfully satisfied—money back.

SICK, CRANKY, NERVOUS

AT CERTAIN TIMES?
Then read how thousands go smiling thru "difficult days!"

You women who suffer functional monthly distress such as cramps, headache, backache—nervous, cranky, moody spells—should find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound simply marvelous to bring relief.

For over half a century Pinkham's Compound has been helping hundreds of thousands of such weak, run-down, nervous women—so try this famous woman's tonic not only to help relieve distress but also to help build up resistance against functional female disorders. Over 1,000,000 women have reported remarkable benefits by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound. Try it!

The best rule for passing care when in doubt—Don't!

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

National Lottery for Peacetime Draft Holds Spotlight of Defense Program; Germany Changes Tactics in Air War; Tension in Far East Affairs Grows

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Interest in the current draft program has led the government to place on display in the Washington office of the Selective Service board this first World War draft register. The register shows that the draft lottery began 9:16 a. m., Friday, July 20, 1917, and ended 16 hours and 46 minutes later, with the drawing of the 10,500th capsule. The same method is being used to determine the order in which men shall be called for the 1940 peacetime conscription program.

DEFENSE: Numbers Called

To War Secretary Henry L. Stimson went the honor of selecting the first number in the national selective service lottery. President Roosevelt was to pick the first capsule out of the goldfish bowl that was used in the 1917 draft lottery, but graciously yielded to Stimson. The late Newton D. Baker, secretary of war under President Wilson, selected the first number in 1917.

Contracts

The industrial program of national defense entered its second phase. First was drafting and awarding of contracts. Billions of dollars worth of goods, from battleships to paper clips, were contracted for.

The job now is one of procurement, actual manufacture on the speed-up scale demanded by the Defense Commission in order to achieve the two-ocean navy and equip an army that will number close to 1,500,000 within a few months.

Chief bottleneck is machine tools, the machinery and gear necessary in the process of turning automobile shops into tank factories, and the mass production of warplanes and munitions. William S. Knudsen, head of the production division of the commission, said tool makers are swamped with orders, sold out a year in advance. President Roosevelt issued an order permitting seizure of tool machines being made for foreign countries, wherever the material is necessary in American defense.

Outside tools, however, the vast industrial capacity of the United States seemed to be taking both defense and expanding civilian orders in its stride toward record production figures. The climb in manufacturing indices since last spring still has left a margin of surplus in manpower, raw materials and money.

But despite the rise of various business statistics to new peaks since 1929, Wall Street security markets remained inert.

WAR AT NIGHT: Tactics Change

England was emerging from almost three months of continual bombing with greater confidence in its ability to withstand whatever the Luftwaffe can deliver. As the stormy weather wore on and German planes were not halted by fog and freezing weather, British air leaders increased the fury of their own raids over France, Germany and Italy. Prime Minister Winston Churchill made bold to predict that by spring, 1941, with the help of American production, England will seize supremacy of the air.

The German air attack on London was reduced in one respect. Daylight raids were fewer and less violent. In the beginning Air Marshal Goering sent large formations in daylight raids. During this period the British scored heavily. Then the tactics shifted to single planes at varying heights. The German losses were reduced, but still remained high.

Now raids are confined largely to night. Bombers drop their packages from the stratosphere and scoot for home. The result is that the Romance—Martha Jane Mooney, 24, daughter of a vice president of General Motors corporation, went to England last spring to drive an ambulance. Her parents protested but to no avail. Now the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James V. Mooney, have announced her engagement to Lieut. John K. McGlynn, who is in a hospital, having shot down 22 Nazi fliers.

Labor—In London hospitals crowded with victims of the air raids, women volunteers undergo 54 hours of training and then are given tasks such as making beds, scrubbing floors and serving meals. In the University College hospital, one auxiliary nurse, known only as Sister Kay, was the favorite of patients. Sister Kay has been identified, after three months, as the beautiful young Duchess of Kent.

U. S. army guns, tanks and toy soldiers in miniature are the favorite of the current season's new crop of toys as far as Nick Tassalo, 6, is concerned. Nick is shown at the preview of the toy manufacturers' display in New York. A large percentage of the new toys for the coming Christmas season reflect the national defense program preparations.

POWER: On the St. Lawrence

An agreement between the United States and Canada looking toward development of a hydroelectric system along the St. Lawrence river has been advocated by four Presidents but never achieved. The war need for greater power has brought about a start.

With the consent of the United States, Canada will take more water from the Niagara river to generate power for its defense industries. So far, to maintain the level of the Great Lakes, waterways now flowing into the Albany river and Hudson bay will be diverted southward to the lakes.

The announcement immediately awoke echoes of the two-decade fight for a Great Lakes-to-the-Seas waterway. Existing navigation above Montreal is limited to 14 feet. Locks are sought to provide a 32-foot draft.

Farmers of the West favor the plan. It would permit ocean liners to dock at Great Lakes ports and load wheat. Advocates of public power look upon the proposal as providing cheap electricity.

Opposition comes chiefly from ports in the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic, as well as trans-shippers of grain. On the Canadian side the same is true.

President Roosevelt has allotted $1,000,000 of special defense funds for a survey.

SABOTAGE: Mr. Dies Again

A wave of fires and explosions in U. S. defense industries "like the recent Hercules powder blast in New Jersey," is predicted by Representative Dies (D., Texas), chairman of the house committee investigating un-American activities. He called attention to the fact that a former member of the German American Bund told his committee several weeks before the Japanese disaster that it could be expected.

Dies said there are more than 250,000 alien agents in the United States and more than 5,000 in defense industrial plants in the Detroit area alone.

Meanwhile members of the same committee declared they have proof that Friedrich Draeger, German consul in New York, has for six years been the actual head of the National Socialist party in the United States. They said the German diplomat has been "under observation for a long time" and is head of a vast ring of espionage, sabotage and propaganda.

It was revealed that Draeger's connections were linked up when a raid was made on the German Tourist Information Bureau and Trans-ocean Press, both in New York.

Far East Bloc

In Manila, Capt. Ruffo Romero, a native Filipino, graduate of West Point and officer of the Fourteenth Engineers at Fort McKinley, was formally arrested and charged with plotting to sell confidential military papers to an unnamed foreign power. He was taken into custody in the basement of his home while allegedly photographing documents showing defense fortifications at the entrance to Manila bay. Two civilian accomplices were arrested. His American-born wife was sought.

Meanwhile a Japanese, who feigned insanity, was seized on the U. S. aircraft carrier Langley, at Olango. He was found when still in a wet bathing costume and apparently had swum from shore to the ship.

MISCELLANY:

President Roosevelt borrowed a dollar from Postmaster General Walker to buy $6 worth of the new defense stamps. The stamps were exhibited at the White House on the first day of sale, but when the President went to make a purchase for his collection he had only $5 in his pocket.

An attendance record was established in the national parks during the 1940 travel year. Visitors numbered 16,741,855, a million more than last year.

A fiery gas tornado, which shot 150,000 miles into the air was observed on the sun by astronomers at Mt. Wilson observatory, in California. The observers said velocities ranged from 12 to 37 miles a second.

Congress Establishes Vocational Schools to Train Farm Youth

Rural Schools to Offer Instruction in Mechanical Trades; Rumors Predict Roosevelt, Willkie Will Name Loser to Head Defense Board.

By BAUKHAGE

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.) WASHINGTON.—Remember that old song: "Who you going to keep 'em down on the farm, after they've seen Paree"?

Well, you're not going to be able to keep some of them down on the farm who haven't seen Paree. This time it isn't the bright lights that are calling, it's the pay envelope. Not the lure of the ladies but the lathes and riveters and stamping machines in the factories that are calling.

At least, that is what the experts here in Washington who claim they can see through a haystack without blinders prognosticate.

And Uncle Sam is helping. Most people didn't notice it but congress slipped $10,000,000 into the last deficiency bill, most of which is going toward helping the farm boy get a job in the city. The money is to be appropriated as part of the industrial defense program for "out-of-school rural and non-rural vocational schools" but the fact that states will share in the fund according to their farm population.

At present more than 2,500 rural vocational schools are offering instruction in vocational agriculture. These schools, if they get additional money for equipment and teaching, can provide training in auto-mechanics and other skills basic to defense industries.

City Employers Prefer Men Raised on Farm

And this isn't just a defense measure, either. We know that scarcely any city produces enough babies to keep its population even. We know that while some farm districts are overpopulated now and have been since the depression, a lot of farmers' sons will always go to the city if they can find work there. Right now defense industries need help and they prefer a man with a card that shows he has had vocational training. This doesn't mean that agricultural vocational training will be cut down but the $10,000,000, while it won't go very far, will help a lot to give the farm boy the mechanical training the city boys have been getting.

But there is another reason why more farm boys are going to get city jobs. They are preferred in a lot of industries anyhow. A farm boy makes a good factory worker, the experts tell us, if he comes from a farm where machinery has been used, because he's just that much more experienced than the city boy. Especially the tractor wheat farms of the Northwest, the corn-belt, the Mississippi South. He knows a cam from a gear, he knows what makes the wheels go round. He can transfer this "feel" he has for farm machinery to a lathe or any other simple machine.

Another thing, he's better disciplined than the city boy. On the farm Pa is the foreman. The boy is used to taking orders. Also he's used to working hard. And when he goes to the city he's likely to be steadier and more reliable than the city worker.

Defense Commission Post in Doubt

There is an interesting rumor chasing itself around the lamp-posts on Pennsylvania avenue these days. It's one of those wish-fathered thoughts but it's worth repeating over anybody's back fence. This is the way it goes: "If Roosevelt is elected he's going to make Wendell Willkie chairman of the defense commission. If Willkie is elected he's going to name Franklin Delano Roosevelt for the job."

Such a consummation might do more to unify the defense program than any other single thing.

At present there isn't any chairman of the commission. When Mr. Knudsen, head of the production unit of the group, has a problem that involves national policy he has to put on his hat and walk over to the White House, or else call National 1414 and ask to speak to one Franklin Delano Roosevelt, for he's the boss.

The same thing applies to the heads of the other units. As a matter of record there has been no public criticism on the part of the defense commissioners about the arrangement but some people feel that it would be a wonderful thing as far as public opinion goes, if the next President, whoever he may be after next January, picks his erstwhile

TRADE SCHOOLS

Farm youths will soon be offered training in mechanical trades, according to Baukhage. He passes on the rumor whispered in Washington that when Roosevelt or Willkie is elected in November, the losing candidate will be appointed chairman of the Defense commission. If the election is close, Baukhage writes that it is possible the United States may be without a president after January 20.

Aircraft Industry Employment Increases 400 Per Cent

WASHINGTON.—A 400 per cent increase in employment in the aircraft manufacturing industry in the last two years was reported recently by the White House. The industry has received large defense orders from the army and navy. Information submitted to Secretary Henry Morgenthau Jr. by manufacturers showed that the number on the payrolls in September, 1938, was 28,700, in September, 1939, 50,600, and in September of this year, 118,800.

The data placed employment in the Atlantic seaboard states at 14,000 in September, 1938, 25,000 a year later, and 54,800 last month. In 28 states in the mountain, central and southern regions, the comparable figures were 2,200, 3,600, and 11,500. In the three Pacific states the figures were approximately 12,500, 22,000 and 52,500.

political opponent as head of our fighting effort to ring America with an impenetrable wall of wings and ships and men.

U. S. May Lack President in January

As a matter of fact when inauguration day rolls around there actually may not be any President to inaugurate.

At least that's what some of the prophets of gloom on Capitol Hill are predicting will happen if the November election should be very close.

This is what the worrying ones say:

"When the Lame Duck amendment to the Constitution was written and inauguration day and the convening of the new congress were moved back from March to January, Senator Norris and everybody else thought our troubles were over. We all agreed it was wonderful to get rid of the painful sight of lame ducks limping around the political barnyard. It was a waste of time, often with a defeated President still in the White House, always with some defeated congressman who really didn't represent anybody, sitting in the Capitol until the March following the November elections.

"That's all very well under ordinary circumstances, but that is when we don't have a close election. But suppose we do have a real close election this year. Congress meets on January 3. The brand new congress. It has to organize, elect a speaker and be ready for the joint session with the senate three days later because that's when the electoral vote is counted. And until the vote is counted and approved by the whole of congress the results of the election are not official.

"Usually this ceremony is just an empty form—unlocking the specially made box, taking out the beautifully engrossed certificates from each state signed by the proper officials and reading off the score that everybody has known since election day. But suppose the vote is close and there are charges of fraud and the side which makes the charges has enough votes in the house to demand a recount?"

Close Election Would Necessitate Recount

"The law says that if the electors can't decide on the President that the Vice President with the most votes has to take over the presidency in the interim. But it would be quite likely that if one candidate's vote was questioned his running mate's would be, too. So who would be President then?"

This is the problem as some of the legislators see it. They point out that if fraud were approved in a single precinct in a single state, it might change the electoral vote of that state and so the outcome of the election. Meanwhile, an investigation might drag out and postpone the approval of the electoral vote indefinitely.

Of course this isn't likely to happen but at least it provides something for congress and the country to worry about and take their minds off the war. And it could happen.

In the famous case of President Hayes the vote was protested and it took a nine-man commission to settle it. Congress selected three members of the Supreme court, three senators and three representatives to do it. The task was considerably expedited, however, since they had a pro-Hayes majority and simply threw out all the electoral votes challenged by the other side. The supporters of Tilden, the defeated candidate, were never convinced that he wasn't cheated out of the presidency.

Such a thing could hardly happen again but it is true that fraud charges are predicted this year and nobody but a spendthrift or a violently loyal partisan is anxious to risk his money betting on the number of seats that will be won or lost in the house in November.

What we forget is that the American people usually go for the landslide and the close election is the exception. That's probably why we don't take close races into consideration and perhaps it's why Senator Norris and his friends who drew up the Lame Duck amendment didn't allow a little more time between the meeting of the new congress and the counting of the electoral vote and inauguration day, "just in case."

A humorous note was given defense preparations recently when President Roosevelt vetoed legislation designed "to safeguard and promote the breeding and training of the homing pigeon for use as a means of communication in an emergency." The President commented that this was carrying national defense "a little too far." The measure would have made it a Federal offense to shoot or tamper with a homing pigeon, because the birds may be needed to carry military messages.

Badger State Happenings

State License Law Upheld—Municipal Judge Max W. Nohl, Milwaukee, upheld constitutionality of the state law requiring journeymen and master painters to hold state licenses.

Boys in Overalls Barred—Overalls are on the taboo list of masculine attire at a Madison high school, even if their wearers are merely observing "national overall week," according to a recent ruling.

Check on Relief Job Hunters—The Manitowoc relief department has adopted a card system to check whether persons on relief are making sincere efforts to obtain employment in private industry.

Thirteen Is Unlucky—Clarence Haven, Lancaster, whose name contains 13 letters, was found guilty on a charge of stealing 13 chickens. He was sentenced to one year to 13 months in Waupun state prison.

Must Register Bicycles—The owners of an estimated 1,400 bicycles will be required to register them and pay a 25c registration fee under an ordinance passed by the Stevens Point city council which becomes effective Jan. 1.

NYA Workers Get Jobs—John Faville, Jr., state National Youth administration director, announced that 533 NYA project workers in Wisconsin were placed in private industry during September. This number, he said, was the largest since inception of the NYA program in the state.

Suing City for Damage—Miss La Verne Blackwell of Milwaukee filed a $5,000 damage claim against the city of Manitowoc, claiming she was injured on Sept. 10 when she drove her automobile into an oil storage tank at the foot of Chicago street which, she said, was not barricaded.

Gasoline Men Seek Tax Cut—Legislation to end gasoline tax diversion and to reduce the tax from four to three cents a gallon will be sought at the next session of the legislature, it was decided by the legislative committee of the Wisconsin Petroleum association at a meeting in Milwaukee.

State Draft Quota Set—Wisconsin's quota of men to be drafted for the army in the next year was set tentatively at 21,632 by selective service headquarters at Washington, D. C. There are 365,577 men registered in the state. The quota up to Mar. 1 for Wisconsin is 10,586 white men and 52 Negroes.

Paralysis Cases Increase—A sharp downward break in temperature remains the chief hope to end Wisconsin's outbreak of infantile paralysis, which had increased to an aggregate of 372 cases, the state board of health reported. The board said the number of cases for the year was the highest since 1931.

Compare Farm Land Tax—Wisconsin's 1939 farm land real estate tax of $1.71 on $100 of value was higher than that in any other east north central state, the bureau of agricultural economics reported at Washington. Lowest rate in the group was Illinois's 86c. Ohio's rate was $1.04, Illinois $1.12, Michigan's 91c.

Hits Crying Baby, Jailed—The crying of his 14-month-old baby kept him awake nights, so Leonard Specht, 24, an Oshkosh WPA worker, blackened the baby's eye and bruised its body, his wife testified. Charged with assault and battery, Specht was sentenced by Municipal Judge S. J. Luchsinger, Oshkosh, to 90 days in the Winnebago county jail.

Youth Confesses to Holdup—Sheriff Harry Greer recovered $877 of the $1,400 stolen Oct. 11 from the South Wayne State bank. Harry McInnis, 22-year-old Iowa county farmer, who confessed to the holdup when arrested at Plattville, told Greer where to look for the money. Suspicion was directed at the young man when he went on a spending spree in taverns, made an unaccounted trip to Chicago and displayed a large roll of currency.

Raise for Teachers Sought—The Kenosha board of education submitted a budget to the city council requesting $23,000 more than was required for school purposes this year. The 1941 budget totals $887,896, of which $738,003 is to be raised by taxes. The budget includes restoration of pay cuts of from 3 to 12 per cent for teachers and school employees made early this year and asks for an additional $18,870 for teachers' salary increases.

Stowaway on Guard Train—Fred Groesbeck, 14, Fond du Lac, wanted to be a soldier like his father, Elias, who left his home with his national guard unit for Camp Beauregard, La. He stowed away on the train that carried about 250 guardsmen. Fred was discovered when the train was nearing Waukesha. Neither his father or company commanders agreed with his military ideas. He was taken off the train and returned to his home in Fond du Lac.

Koopman Tops Corn Huskers—Omer Koopman of Bloomington, Grant county, won the state corn-husking championship held on the Gutmeknecht & Sons' Richland county farm near Richland Center. Dick Post of Evansville, the defending champion, finished second. Koopman's net was 2,073 1/2 pounds, or 29.6 bushels. Post checked in with a net of 1,989 1/2 pounds, or 28.4 bushels. It is estimated that about 25,000 people watched the contest.

Sets Corn Husking Record—Participation in his first corn husking contest, John Weiss, 26, of Brown-town won the Green county corn husking title and doing so is believed to have established a new Wisconsin corn husking record. Weiss husked a net of 40.2 bushels of corn. The state record was reported to be 35 bushels.

Start Food Stamp Plan—The federal food stamp plan went into effect in Vernon county with 4,261 persons in the county listed as eligible to participate.

Daisy Hot Dish Mat An Appropriate Gift

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS IT WAS the flower handle of the teapot lid that suggested the daisy mat. I had been thinking of making a hot dish out of firm braided strips of cotton cloth. I wanted it to be thick and sturdy, firmly like a rag rug, so that it would stand frequent scrubbing. The design had to be novel and gay so that it would be appropriate for a Christmas gift or would attract attention if used to sell at a church bazaar. All the directions you need to make one are right here in the sketch.

Cotton flannel or heavy cotton knitted material are good to use for the braided strips. Cut the strips two inches wide if the goods is heavy or wider if light weight. Braid tightly and then use No. 10 white cotton thread to sew, as shown. A set of these mats are pretty on the table; and mats for oval dishes may be made by sewing two daisies together.

NOTE: There are directions for a hot dish mat made of cable cord in SEWING BOOK 4, Books 2 and 3 also contain directions for many gifts and novelties. These booklets are a service to our readers and each contains 32 pages of illustrated directions for things to make for the home. FIRST-AID to the AILING HOUSE

By ROGER B. WHITMAN

Smoking Fireplace. QUESTION: What can I do to stop my fireplace from smoking? Answer: There are many reasons why a fireplace smokes. One is that the area of the flue is too small for the fireplace opening.

More than one fire connected to the flue; each fire should have its own flue, and the walls of the flue should be air-tight.

Chimney too low; the top of the chimney should not be less than four feet above a flat roof, or two feet above the highest point of a gable roof—higher yet if there are nearby tall trees or buildings.

Flue clogged; the condition of a fireplace flue can often be examined from the fireplace by the use of a mirror, with or without a flashlight.

Wrong construction of throat and wind shift. Throat damper closed. Opening of the fireplace too high for the width, which can be corrected by setting a sheet of metal across the top of the opening, or laying firebricks on the fireplace floor.

Thirty tired seniors will leave Saturday morning at 7:00 a. m. on their way to Madison. Here is the day as follows:

4. After "his the homecoming game between the Badgers and Illinois, will certainly keep our eyes wide open. It will be wonderful to be spectators at a real football game.
5. Horicon is the next stop before coming home. Due to the fact that it is supper time we will have to eat again.
6. When we leave Horicon we will be singing "Home Sweet Home."

GRADE NEWS
GRAMMAR ROOM

The grammar room enjoyed an initiation Halloween party on Friday evening, Oct. 25, at the school. The eighth graders of last year (now members of the freshman class) and faculty were guests. The initiation activities began Friday morning with the sixth grade girls coming to school dressed in their brightest colors and the boys wearing patches. Following the initiation stunts in the grammar room Friday evening, we played "Cooty" in the gymnasium. First prize was won by Joyce Bartlett, second Valeria Koerble, third Pearl Vorpahl, and the two low prizes went to Betty Jane Krueger and Donald Mertea. A delicious lunch was served.

The sixth graders read the story, "The Punishment of Toke" Wednesday. In connection with their study they wrote an imaginary myth telling why the sun shines at midnight in the summer in Norway.

In social science the eighth graders are studying the last lap of the westward movement. They are making salt and flour maps and putting in the positions of the United States in 1806.

INTERMEDIATE ROOM
The intermediate room had their Halloween party on Thursday afternoon. The party was in charge of the fifth grade.

The fifth grade is discussing colonization in social studies.
In arithmetic the fifth grade began long division.

The fourth grade began reading in their science books. They are planning a fourth grade science table.

BOYS' HOME ECONOMICS BREAKFAST
The boys in the home economics department are now full-fledged chefs with their white aprons and chef's hats. Everything the chefs have prepared up to date has been a success, even the cinnamon toast.

On Thursday morning of last week the home economics boys prepared their breakfast in the village park and Miss Yerke said the boys did a fine job of cooking in the open air even if Roger Bilgo did drop a hamburger in the fire.

We are learning to bake cakes and learning the scale of measures.

A MESSAGE

To All My Friends and Fellow Citizens:

The fact that I was nominated for the office of County Clerk with very little campaigning, fills me with a deep sense of gratitude towards the people who made this possible. I am also aware of the responsibility to the people of the County that a man places upon himself when seeking such an important office.

The outstanding fitness of any candidate for such an important office should be his qualifications. He should be a competent accountant, with enough practical experience, as an accountant and business executive, to install and keep proper accounting records that are foolproof, and that will be a credit to such an important office as County Clerk.

I have the qualifications necessary to conduct this office in the most satisfactory manner, and can assure all the voters of this County, that if elected, proper accounting methods will be employed, so that the taxpayers' money will be properly accounted for and safeguarded at all times.

I was born and reared on a farm in the Town of Trenton. I attended graded school there and High School in the City of West Bend. I took a complete course in accounting and business administration at McDonald's Business College from which I graduated. For years I have practiced accounting and worked for some of the largest concerns in the state in the capacity of chief accountant. I have also had two years' experience as Deputy Clerk of Circuit Court and six years as Deputy Assessor of Incomes for Milwaukee County.

Political parties within a county are not important. The people should vote for the man who is best qualified rather than the man who seeks office through those who control votes within a political party and expect favors in return for their support. To vote for the man regardless of party, who is best qualified, is the right and duty of every citizen and by so voting, the citizen is laying the foundation for clean and sound government.

It will be an honor and a privilege to prove the truth of the above statements, if you and your friends support me in the coming election and by proving them true, we will contribute to the welfare and happiness of all the people in our County.

Laws Made in 1939 Benefit the Farmer

State Laws Help, But National Changes Are Necessary

By Assemblyman Schmitz

The 1939 session of the Wisconsin Legislature, realizing that agriculture needed more help than any other group, enacted more sound and helpful legislation to aid and protect the Wisconsin farmer than any previous session in the state's history.

As your assemblyman, and as a member of that session of the legislature, I wish to say with due modesty that I took a very active part and fought hard for the passage of these new laws as well as for many others which would also have been of great benefit to agriculture, but which failed at passage.

Kept People at Home Informed
Through the courtesy of our local newspapers I brought you all through the session a weekly report of the activities of the legislature and of the new measures up for consideration. I invited your correspondence, and as a result received a great deal of mail from farmers in all parts of our county advising me as to their stand on these proposed new laws. I kept in frequent contact with the milk producers and other farm organizations in order to get the views of groups of farmers on legislative matters. This, coupled with my own practical experience on the farm and the testimony given at public hearings, enabled me at all times to vote for the best interests of the farmers of Washington county.

Bad Laws Proposed
Not all proposals made were sound. There were many bills introduced which could not possibly have been enacted into law for the benefit of the farmer. These were weeded out after many public hearings and after careful study of all the facts.

Besides a great number of minor laws enacted at the request of various agricultural groups, there were about two dozen major laws affecting agriculture placed on the last statute books. Those of particular interest to Washington county farmers are as follows:

Farm Moratorium
The first which needs little comment on its importance and helpfulness to the many farmers in financial distress, was the extension of the moratorium on farm foreclosures for two more years.

Tax Exemption
Three laws were passed which exempt farmers from certain taxes and substantially reduced agriculture's share of the state tax burden. The first of these exempts farm machinery from the weight tax; the second exempts farm trailers from registration fees; and the third exempts farmer owned cheese in factories owned by them from the personal property tax.

Bang's Eradication
One-half million dollars was appropriated for the control and eradication of Bang's disease. The bulk of this amount goes to farmers in payment for the loss of reactors. $456,000 was provided for the control and eradication of bovine tuberculosis.

Protects Farmers
One of the most protective laws ever passed by any legislature is what is known as the Licensing and Bonding Law. It requires the buyer of dairy and other farm products to be licensed and bonded to safeguard the farmer from loss through bankruptcy and otherwise from this source. Before the enactment of this law the annual loss to farmers ran over $300,000.

Canners Must Pay
Another law to protect the farmer, is the one which now compels canners of agricultural products to obtain a state license each spring before they may commence to can. Before this license is granted, however, the canner must show that he has paid all growers in full for their previous year's crop. This assures the farmer of a full annual payment for all his canning crops.

Sells Dairy Products
In an effort to increase the sale and consumption of dairy products, $141,000 was appropriated to advertise them and an additional $140,000 was appropriated for the inspection of dairy plants and for the proper grading of dairy products. New methods of merchandising, such as the Christmas package of last year have already sold more than two million pounds of cheese.

This quality and sales program inaugurated by the last legislature represents the greatest effort ever put forth by any state administration to aid its greatest industry in producing, assembling and merchandising a quality product. The results of this constructive legislation are becoming more and more evident as the months pass.

In order to attract customers to a store has been prohibited by the passage of the Loss Leader law, because this practice has a bad influence on the stability of the market for these products.

Good Session For the Farmer
The total amount provided by the last administration and legislature for the agricultural aids and for the department of agriculture was far over two million and was greater by a half-million than that of the previous administration.

National Legislation Essential
Despite the fact that agriculture was given all this consideration by the last legislature your assemblyman fully realizes that the troubles of the Wisconsin dairy farmer are far from being solved.

Many changes in our national laws are necessary to bring about a stable and prosperous condition for the nation's basic industry—agriculture. It is my belief that a new republican program for agriculture shall go a long way towards this goal. If I am re-elected I shall immediately introduce a resolution memorializing congress to consider a national farm program along the following lines:

1. Abolish the reciprocal trade-treaty policy which has ruined the domestic market by permitting the importation of unlimited agricultural products, and place a protective tariff on agricultural imports.
 2. Stop production control. Stop the killing of little pigs and the plowing under of crops. It means the regimentation of our farmers and requires a vast swarming of government agents checking acreage and arguing with farmers. The new deal has increased the number of employees in the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture from 26,000 in 1933 to over 100,000 today. Still the production control plan fails to produce results. The basic trouble is that they proceed on the theory that it is impossible to increase the market for the farmers' products.
 3. Find new uses for the products of our farms through governmental laboratory experiments. We have recently seen skimmed milk made into textiles; soybeans into automobile parts; etc.
 4. Have the government take a more active interest in finding and encouraging increased markets abroad for American farm products.
 5. Reduce surplus acreage not by plowing under, but by having the government use a few of the billions it has ineffectively spent on agriculture, to buy up sub-marginal acreage and to retire that land from production by reforestation. In this manner a paper pulp industry for the U. S. can be built up, and millions of acres of unsuitable land shall be permanently removed from production.
- Briefly, I believe this to be the outline of a sound agricultural program rather than a fancy patent medicine scheme to avoid the inevitable law of supply and demand. Our farmers are entitled to a fair profit on their investment and a good price for their long hours of labor. The farmer must prosper before the nation can have prosperity.
