In the preliminary at 7:15 unbeaten Slinger, the scourge of the Rivers, plays the local Bees. 'Pat' Miller Red Cross Chairman for Village

Appointment of Robert E. Engelke, West Bend, as general chairman and 'Pat' Miller as Kewaskum village chairman of the 1949 Red Cross fund drive of the West Bend chapter was announced last week by Stephen O'Meara, West Bend, chapter chairman. The drive here will coincide with the national campaign opening on March 1 and closing March 14. The slogan for the drive will be, 'You Too Can Help Through Red Cross.'

Engelke reported that he will announce the names of his precinct chairmen next week after he has had an opportunity to contact all of them. The chairman said he holds high hopes for the success of the drive and predicted the chapter would maintain its long record of being among the first in the state to attain its quota.

Miller, having served in previous years as Kewaskum chairman, echoed the predictions of the general chairman. He said he was certain the people would put the drive across to insure a continuation of the many Red Cross services offered local people.

The need for Red Cross disaster services is at a peak now in the blizzard stricken west-central states and the Red Cross is on the job. 'Funds contributed by people in the West Bend chapter area last year are helping now in the fight to bring food, medicine and other supplies to stricken cities and villages in the blizzard areas,' O'Meara pointed out.

'Special' Plea Made in Last Days of Dimes Drive

With the extended 1949 March of Dimes in Washington county scheduled to come to a close next Tuesday, Feb. 15, B. D. Rice, West Bend, chairman of the campaign in the county, this week issued a final and 'special' plea to the people of the county to join in one last concerted effort to make the drive a success locally during the few days which remain. While the situation in regard to contributions received has brightened somewhat, the general chairman disclosed, it still remains bad and there is no indication the county will meet the unofficial quota set for it. He urged campaign workers and the public to redouble their efforts during the last days of the drive in order that the county may make a 'respectable showing.'

'You may be sure you will share in the prayers of thousands by so doing,' Rice said in his appeal, pointing out more than 100,000 polo cases have occurred in the last six years, including cases in Washington county that reached epidemic proportions. As a result, the chairman emphasized, the treasury of the Washington county polo chapter has been completely drained of funds and the epidemic epidemic aid fund of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Rice said, 'by aiding those stricken while financing research to find a preventive cure. Therefore, I urgently appeal to each and every resident of Washington county to redouble their efforts zealously during these remaining few days of the campaign in making the 1949 March of Dimes the most successful in local history. Let me repeat that by so doing you will share in the prayers of thousands,' the chairman said in his plea to the public.

Man Dies of Monoxide Gas North of Village

Bound for Oshkosh, Arthur L. Miller, 28, of Racine, died in his ditched car early Saturday, a victim of carbon monoxide and exposure. Miller was traveling on Highway 55 and had reached a point about one-half mile south of Highway 67, about six miles north of Kewaskum, when his 1915 automobile slid off the road shoulder into the ditch. Motorists said that visibility at the time was poor due to a heavy fog. The car had traveled 35 feet along the shoulder. Marks in the ditch indicated that Miller had attempted to drive the car back onto the road. But the snow, which reached up to the running boards, held the vehicle fast. Miller apparently gave up the futile effort and returned to his car, apparently to wait until daylight. He left the motor running. Fond du Lac County Coroner Joseph E. Murray said he believed that Miller worked in the cold for several minutes before returning to the auto.

Humor—a
Saving Grace

Is a sense of humor a mark of intelligence?

Answer: Not in itself. There have been outstanding geniuses who had very little sense of the ridiculous and were quite incapable of laughing at themselves, however childish they behaved. But a sense of humor usually indicates emotional maturity because it keeps you from childish exaggeration of your own importance and makes you less apt to get "all steamed up" over trifles. And there's nothing more characteristic of a person who has never grown up than to feel his momentary joys and sorrows matter desperately to him and to others.

Is "blood thicker than water?"

Answer: Not because of any automatic or instinctive feeling. We like or dislike our relatives, as we do anything else, on the basis of the way they treat us. But because most of us felt more secure with our families as children than we have since, and the stronger our need of security is as adults, the more likely we are to cling to our "blood kin" and feel ill at ease with "strangers." A mature and self-reliant person, on the other hand, will feel closest to the people with whom he has most in common, whether they are relatives or not.

Is it normal for a co-ed to be homesick?

Answer: Not for long, at any rate, writes Annalies A. Rose of Smith College in the Journal of Social Psychology. On the basis of a study of 66 women freshmen in their first five weeks at college, Dr. Rose concludes that "well adjusted" girls, particularly those who have no trouble making contacts with the opposite sex, are not homesick at all. Those who have one attack of homesickness after another are emotionally weak and childish, while the personalities of girls who are homesick only once show comparative "minor deviations" from the norm.

Stomach Trouble?

By Dr. James W. Barton

IT IS known that nervousness and emotional disturbances are the early causes of stomach and intestinal ulcer, and also inflammation of the lining of the stomach. Overcoming the nervousness or reaching a final decision on some disturbing conflict often brings relief from symptoms.

It is also known that infection—of the teeth, gums, tonsils, sinuses, gall bladder or large intestine—also can cause stomach disturbances, including ulcer.

What was not suspected of causing stomach ulcer is allergy to certain foods, despite the fact that stomach disturbances and hives (urticaria) frequently are caused by foods to which the individual is allergic.

Foods causing allergic skin reaction in order of decreasing frequency include meat, milk, egg yolk, barley, oats, vegetables, egg white, rye, fish and wheat. This means that our most nourishing foods—meat, milk, egg yolk—are the commonest causes of stomach disturbances due to food allergy. Only 29, or 17 per cent, of 170 patients without stomach disturbances gave positive reaction to the food substances.

The fact, then, that 60 per cent of the patients gave a positive reaction to one or several foods, and only 17 per cent of those without stomach disturbances gave a food reaction, shows a definite relationship between stomach disturbances and food allergy.

Leaving out the foods causing allergic reaction for two weeks, together with a rest cure, usually did away with the symptoms of which the patient complained.

To remove the tendency to allergy, small amounts of the food causing the symptoms were rejected under the skin twice a week and the strength of food substances gradually increased. Then the patient was given a cup of broth by mouth beginning with one spoonful. This finally enabled the patient to eat this formerly allergic food without causing any symptoms.

HEALTH NOTES

Meat (protein) for breakfast helps prevent mid-morning fatigue on the job and enables you to work more efficiently. Where heavy work is being done, meat or other protein should be eaten not less than twice a day. Hard physical workers really require twice as much food of all kinds—proteins, starches and fats—as do white collar workers and housewives.

Snacks between meals may prevent reduction in weight. As few of us can eat much fat food like butter, cream, nuts, pastries, etc., at one time, but can eat plenty of starch foods—potatoes, sugar, bread—it is practically always too much starch food that causes excess fat.

That eating more food than is needed—that becoming overweight—can cause a rise in blood pressure—now is generally known to insurance company physicians as well as to other doctors.

Plenty of bed rest supplemented by exercise of the affected joints is the best prescription for rheumatism. With the patient resting in bed—which prevents the weight of the body from setting up further irritation or inflammation—motion in joints and muscles can be kept up by heat, light or passive movement.

The cause or causes of asthma were unknown until recently. Now it is known that allergy, nose and throat defects, emotional disturbances, can cause the attacks. Most cases are caused by allergy to pollen, house dust, furs, feathers and certain foods.

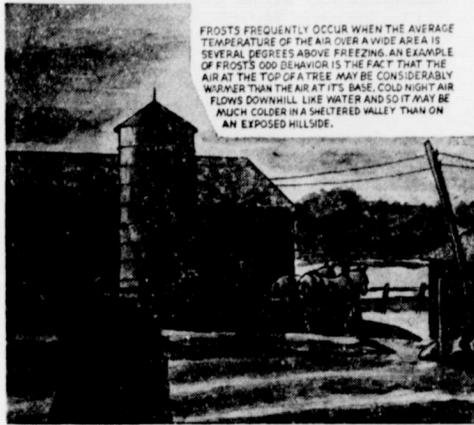

Pernicious anemia formerly meant death in months or a few years. Now it is possible to rebuild the hemoglobin and red blood cells to restore health by the use of calf's liver and iron.

FROST-WITHOUT-FREEZE

FROSTS FREQUENTLY OCCUR WHEN THE AVERAGE TEMPERATURE OF THE AIR OVER A WIDE AREA IS SEVERAL DEGREES ABOVE FREEZING. AN EXAMPLE OF FROST'S ODD BEHAVIOR IS THE FACT THAT THE AIR AT THE TOP OF A TREE MAY BE CONSIDERABLY WARMER THAN THE AIR AT ITS BASE. COLD NIGHT AIR FLOWS DOWNHILL LIKE WATER AND SO IT MAY BE MUCH COLDER IN A SHELTERED VALLEY THAN ON AN EXPOSED HILLSIDE.

Cough Syrup Is Most Effective

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one which you can easily make at home. Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. Or use corn syrup or liquid honey. Instead of sugar syrup.

Then get from any druggist 3/4 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle, and fill up with your syrup. This gives you a full pint of wonderful Pinex for coughs due to colds. It makes a real saving because it gives you about four times as much for your money. Never spoils. Tastes fine. This is actually a surprisingly effective, quick-acting cough relief. Swiftly, you feel it taking hold. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes and makes breathing easy. You've never seen anything better for quick and pleasing results. Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, a most reliable soothing agent for throat and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Bottoms Up!

THE OLD lady leaned out of the carriage window, called the guard and said:
"Guard, does this train stop at Rugby?"
"Yes, madam."
"Well, will you tell me when we get to Rugby?"
"Yes, madam."
Then she turned to another traveler and said: "Will you know when we get to Rugby?"
"Yes, madam."
"Will you be sure to tell me when we get there?"
"Anything to oblige, madam."
When the train stopped at the next station she called the guard, and told him to be sure and remind her when the train reached Rugby.
This happened about every twenty minutes. In the end the train reached Rugby, and a passenger told her that she had arrived. Just then the guard rushed up and said, "This is where you get out, madam."
"Oh, no," she said. "If this is Rugby it must be twelve o'clock, and that's when I have to take my medicine."

REAL-LIFE MAGIC

Jack—When I was 6 years old, a miracle happened to me.
Joan—What was that?
Jack—I swallowed a dime and the doctor made me cough up two dollars.

That Got Him

A bumptious fellow was giving evidence in a police court.
"You say you stood up?" asked the magistrate.
"I said," retorted the conceited one, "that I stood. If one stands one must stand up. There's no other way of standing."
"Oh, isn't there?" replied the magistrate. "Pay two pounds for contempt of court — and stand down!"

WISE GUY

The woman had been trying to the shop assistant, whose temper was beginning to get a little uncertain.
"I think you had better fetch the manager," sniffed the customer. "Perhaps he'll have a little more sense than you seem to possess."
"Oh, he has, madam," was the tired reply. "He went out as you came in."

Business as Usual

A doctor and dentist had been close friends for over fifty years, but each had always taken particular care that the other should not discover his age. When, however, the dentist died, the doctor could not help looking forward to the funeral, when he hoped at last to know the dentist's secret.

As the coffin was being lowered into the grave he stepped forward to look at the brass plate, only to read: "Angus McLeod, Dentist. (Hours, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.)"

"BEEF"—ING

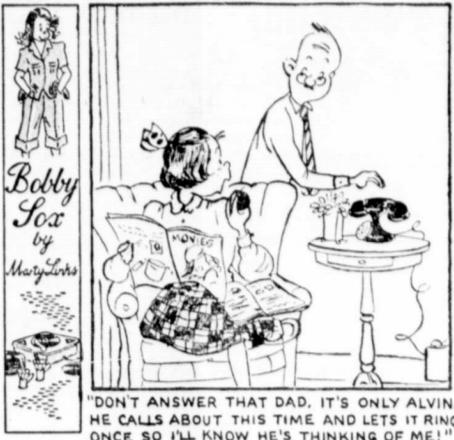

Customer: "I wonder if you would be so kind as to weigh this package for me?"
Butcher: "Certainly . . . three and a quarter pounds."
Customer: "Thank you. It contains the bones you sent me in that 4-pound roast yesterday."

Inventory

In a city hit by the housing shortage, a man implored a landlord for a room. "Have you any children?" the landlord asked.
"No," answered the would-be tenant.
"Any dogs?"
"No."
"Any other pets — a canary or parrot perhaps?"
"No," said the man, "but I've got a fountain pen that scratches a little."

"DO SOMETHING ABOUT THE REAR END OF THE GARAGE—IT'S SO WEAK IT BARELY STOPS ME!"

"DON'T ANSWER THAT DAD. IT'S ONLY ALVIN. HE CALLS ABOUT THIS TIME AND LETS IT RING ONCE SO I'LL KNOW HE'S THINKING OF ME!"

AROUND THE HOUSE

To make fudge squares uniform in size, pour the fudge in ice cube trays which have been greased with margarine. The fudge hardens quickly and each piece is uniform.

Sheets should be dried out of doors if possible, because fresh air gives them a sweet, clean smell.

It is not necessary to iron Turkish towels. Ironing may mat the loops and make the towel less absorbent.

Do not use too hot an iron or use too much pressure when ironing the folds of sheets. This results in weakness at the line of the folds and finally causes cracking of the sheet along these lines.

For removing stains from sheets and pillowcases, special methods should be used for the various types of stains. Lipstick usually comes out when bleached in hot, sudsy water. If it refuses to come out, the stained part should be bleached with hydrogen peroxide or Javelle water. If breakfast-bedders have spilled coffee or chocolate, the spots will usually wash out in hot sudsy water. To remove fruit stains, pour boiling water through the stain. If it is stubborn, bleach with hydrogen peroxide or Javelle water. To remove iron rust, apply a solution of oxalic acid and rinse thoroughly.

Gone are the days...

It's a long time since a penny would buy a valentine—comic or otherwise—for a little boy. But it's a long time since a penny could buy much of anything. Except electricity, of course. Pardon us for pointing, but each penny spent for electricity is a very pretty penny indeed. It buys so much for you! Yes, a single little copper will do any one of these things:

- BRING YOU AN EVENING OF RADIO ENTERTAINMENT
- SWISH THE DIRT FROM HALF A WEEK'S WASH
- TOAST THREE FULL LOAVES OF BREAD
- VACUUM-CLEAN SIX LARGESIZED RUGS
- TELL YOU THE CORRECT TIME FOR A WEEK

Yes, electricity does a lot for a little. And that's something, because it costs more to make and deliver electric service to you these days! Your friends and neighbors in this company—under sound business management—have used their skill and experience to make electricity the biggest bargain in your family budget.

"We have given our patrons Sunday and Holiday service for years, and intend to keep up our established reputation."

This is a diesel... a modern locomotive that means better service to you.
Leaders of two unions think it's a feather-bed... a "make work" grab that means less service to you.

Leaders of unions representing railroad engineers and firemen seek to force railroads to add extra, needless men on diesel locomotives. This is sheer waste—a "make-work" program which would mean fewer improvements and higher costs—for YOU!

Railroads use modern diesel locomotives because they are one of the means of giving faster, better service to you. Two men compose the crew of a diesel. They occupy a clean, comfortable cab at the front. The engineer handles the throttle. The fireman sits and watches the track ahead. With no coal to shovel, he has practically nothing else to do.

No Benefit To You
Now the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen want to use the diesel locomotive as a means of forcing a feather-bedding scheme on the railroads. The extra men they propose to add to the diesel crews are not needed. There is no work for them.

The union leaders are fighting among themselves about which union should furnish these extra, needless men. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have even threatened a strike. You may not be interested in this dispute of these two unions, but you would be vitally concerned if these groups succeed in putting through this feather-bedding scheme, because it would mean a slowing up of the improvement program of the railroads—of which the diesel is the outstanding symbol. Diesel crews are among the highest paid railroad employees—real aristocrats of labor! Their pay is high by any standard. Granting these demands, therefore, would mean that the railroads would be paying out millions in unearned wages to those in the very highest pay brackets.

We'd Like To Spend This Money On You
You know how much the diesel has meant to you in increased speed, comfort and convenience. The railroads have many more of them in order for even greater improvement in service to you. But needless drains of money, such as this present demand of the unions for needless men on diesels, reduce the ability of the railroads to spend money on better service for you.

Proud as the railroads are of the diesel, it is only a small part of their improvement program. Since the War, literally billions of dollars have been spent on improvement of tracks and stations, on new passenger and freight cars, as well as on diesel locomotives, and on the many other less conspicuous details of railroading that contribute to improved service.

Feather-Bedding Means Less Service To You
But brazen feather-bedding schemes like the one now proposed would, if successful, divert large sums of money from our present improvement programs. Even worse, they make improvements like the diesel worthless, by making the cost of their operation prohibitive. These demands are against YOUR interests—as well as those of the railroads. They are schemes to "make work". Neither you nor the railroads should be forced to pay such a penalty for progress.

That's why the railroads are resisting these "make work" demands to the last ditch—and why they are telling you about them.

SHORT STORY Turkey In The Hay

By Dorothy Roseborough

CLETA BROWN was furious. For the third time Seth Jones had caught her turkeys in his alfalfa. Now he was acting as if she had driven them in.

3 Minute Fiction

it, maybe? They're under the fence and in your place before I know it. "Under the fence!" growled Seth.

Cleta was proving up on her desert claim with a crop of milo-maize. The scattering grain made wonderful forage.

THE smell of autumn was in the air the morning Cleta rode into town to enter her tom for the show.

Then she saw the turkeys were in the alfalfa again, and she turned in at Seth's gate.

Jumping off her horse, Cleta snatched at her sunbonnet and beat frantically at the fighting gobblers.

Cleta stood up. She saw Seth turning in at the gate, and as he hurried toward the field a hot triumph flooded through her.

But this would end everything, she told herself. Cleta knew she could not bear to keep on fighting with Seth.

"So you let 'em get in again," he stormed. "Anyone with a brain might know this would happen. By heck!" he exclaimed.

Cleta slapped her sunbonnet at the flustered turkeys. "Do you think I want 'em over here?" she snapped.

He knelt and turned the gobbler over. "Well, I know my own bird, even if you don't," Cleta retorted.

Seth looked from the dead bird to the swelling gobbling tom with the swelling gobbling tom with the swelling gobbling tom.

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By INEZ GERHARD Released by WNU Features JOHN PAYNE so enjoyed making his first western, "El Paso," that he'd like to make more.

that it was impossible to see more than a few feet ahead. Payne said he killed the wrong man four times. In his next for Pine-Thomas he will work four days in water.

After six years as announcer on "We, the People" Dan Seymour has become master of ceremonies.

Melvyn Douglas has had distinguished careers as a theatrical producer, army officer, (he fought in both World Wars) and actor.

Paul McGrath, "John Wayne" on CBS' "Big Sister," like Douglas juggles two careers. He may be a hero on the air, but he is practicing to be a villain at the moment.

Roseanna McCoy's marriage to a 11 Thompson was displaying the wedding ring he'd bought for Barbara Long.

Also in "Roseanna McCoy" you'll see Raymond Massey gallop up to a log cabin on horseback, to be greeted by Aline MacMahon.

Lon McAllister hesitated about ordering meat for luncheon—said he'd been making too many animal pictures lately. And his next for Eagle-Lion will keep him in the rut; an Irish setter is featured.

For one hour and a half the pretty girl and the handsome young man kissed each other languorously, while lights were set and cameras adjusted. Then they left separately. Just standing for Ronald Reagan and Patricia Neal in "John Loves Mary."

Jimmy Durante says he will make personal appearances in London's Palladium Theatre after taking his annual summer vacation from radio.

ODDS AND ENDS Basil Ruysdael, who went to Hollywood to retire from radio announcing, plays an admiral in "Task Force."

Lester O'Keefe, director of the Electric Theatre, starring Helen Hayes, has been in radio since 1924, and remembers when many a big performer broke in.

Eleanor Parker and Bert Friel-eb should be congratulated. Long before the stork's arrival they planned a nursery wing for their home and had work begun.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS by Lynn Chambers

START THE DAY WITH A GOOD BREAKFAST (See Recipe Below)

BRIGHT BEGINNING

ONE OF THE biggest services which any homemaker can give her family is to feed them a good, substantial breakfast to get them off to work and school with proper spirit.

A good breakfast need not be elaborate to serve its purpose. Start off with a simple pattern including fruit, cereal and milk and you can be well fed.

Naturally if you want more, there are any number of foods to be added. Too, there's no need to feel that breakfasts can't have variety.

FOR THOSE of you who depend upon the oven to take the chill out of the house in the morning, here are some splendid, quick-to-mix hot breads for breakfast or any other meal.

Honey Nut Bran Muffins (Makes 16 large muffins) 1/2 cup honey 1 cup flour 1/4 teaspoon soda 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon baking powder 2 cups bran 1 tablespoon melted butter 1 1/2 cups milk 1/2 cup walnuts, chopped fine

Sift together flour, soda, salt and baking powder. Mix with bran and add to flour mixture. Place in greased muffin pans and bake in a quick (425° F.) oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

Raisin Bran Muffins (Makes 6 Muffins) 1/2 cup sifted flour 1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder 1/4 teaspoon salt 1-2 tablespoons sugar 1 egg, well beaten 1/2 cup milk 1 1/2 tablespoons melted shortening 1/2 cup raisin bran

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and sugar; sift again. Combine egg and milk and add to flour mixture. Add shortening, then mix only enough to dampen flour. Fold in raisin bran. Turn into greased muffin pans, filling them 2/3 full. Bake in a hot (425° F.) oven 25 minutes.

Flake Gems (Makes 12 muffins) 1 cup sifted flour 4 tablespoons sugar 1 teaspoon salt 3 tablespoons baking powder 1 egg 1/2 cup milk 2 tablespoons melted fat 2 cups corn flakes or wheat flakes

LYNN SAYS: Add Variety To Breakfast Orange toast is a delightful variation to serve for breakfast. To make it, toast and butter bread, then spread with a mixture of sugar and grated orange rind which has been moistened with orange juice.

Flaked cereals are delicious if heated in a shallow pan, dotted with butter and sprinkled with brown sugar. Heat in a moderate oven for just a few minutes and serve at once.

Never stack toast as it will become soggy and lose its fresh, crisp texture. Make toast as needed and cut in triangles or fingers to make it more interesting.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU BREAKFAST

- Orange Juice Cooked farina with raisins Honey Kuchen Butter Beverage *Recipe Given

Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Beat egg until light, add milk then stir in dry ingredients, being careful not to overmix.

Honey Kuchen (Makes 1 square) Topping: 1/4 cup brown sugar 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg 2 tablespoons butter 1/2 cup bran or wheat flakes

Kuchen: 3/4 cup sifted flour 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup milk 1/4 cup honey 1 egg 3 tablespoons melted fat 1 1/2 cups bran or wheat flakes

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt. Combine milk, honey well-beaten egg and add to flour mixture. Add fat mixing only enough to combine. Fold in flakes. Place into a greased pan 8x8x2 inches. Sprinkle topping over batter. Bake in a moderately hot (400° F.) oven 25 minutes.

ANOTHER way to include cereal in the menu is to cook, chill and fry it. This may be served with fruit or breakfast meat or with syrup. It's a hearty, tasty dish.

Fried Wheat-Meal (Serves 6) 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 1/2 cups boiling water 1/4 cup wheat meal

Add salt to boiling water in the saucepan. Add cereal slowly, stirring constantly. Bring to a boil and cook 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour into cold, wet mold. Let stand overnight, or until cold and firm. Turn from pan. Slice into 3/8-inch slices, and saute in a small amount of fat, turning to brown both sides. Serve with maple-flavored syrup. (Leftover cooked wheat-meal may be used in this way.)

Fried Wheat-Meal with Fruit: Add 1/2 cup seedless raisins, chopped dates or chopped figs to the cooked cereal before turning into mold.

Fried Wheat-Meal with Apples: Add 1/2 cup apples, peeled and cut in 1/2-inch pieces to cooked wheat meal before turning into mold.

Either of the above are excellent when served with sausages, prepared this way: lay pork patties or links in a cold frying pan and fry slowly for 12-15 minutes, turning occasionally with 2 forks or a spatula, being careful not to puncture the casing. Four off fat as it accumulates. Serve the fat for seasoning vegetables, frying eggs, potatoes, French toast or for making sauces of gravies.

Cinnamon toast made this way is delicious: toast and butter bread, then sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon and broil until bubbly.

For maple toast, make a cinnamon toast, substituting shavings of maple sugar for cinnamon-sugar mixture, broil.

Dried fruits, cut and added to any of the cooked cereals, then served with brown sugar and rich milk provide an interesting dish.

KATHLEEN NORRIS Strength in Optimism

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

MOST of the things that make life pleasant don't cost anything. This is a simple truth, but staggering in its significance. It has all the force of that little chamber of steam that moves mighty locomotives.

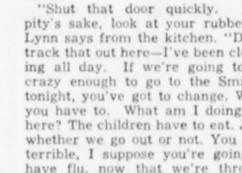

It costs nothing to be agreeable, but if many men and women knew what it wins, our divorce, suicide, melancholia and general domestic tragedy statistics would be changed amazingly.

Most persons are not agreeable. They didn't have an example of family pleasantness as children; they get into criticizing and dissatisfied habits of speech; they went on into their own lives and marriages just being mean. Not always in action, but often in speech.

Approach is Hostile

One of my neighbors is a fine, unselfish, capable wife and mother. But she is disagreeable. Her voice has an undertone of whine and contempt. She accomplishes wonders for her family and would die for their welfare; she takes tender care of her invalid mother; she is a true, economic, sympathetic wife.

When Jim Scott gets home at night, Lynn often will start off with a string of discouragements that ac-

"... string of discouragements..." counts for Jim's somewhat browbeaten and henpecked aspect. The best of husbands and fathers, he is meek, quiet, trouble-avoiding at home.

"Shut that door quickly. For pity's sake, look at your rubbers," Lynn says from the kitchen. "Don't track that out here—I've been cleaning all day. If we're going to be crazy enough to go to the Smith's tonight, you've got to change. Well, you have to. What am I doing out here? The children have to eat. Jim, whether we go out or not, you look terrible, I suppose you're going to have flu now that we're through with it. That's the way—one gets it, all get it. There's Thompson's bill-awful, perfectly awful. I've nothing to wear tonight, I don't know why I said we'd go, but you always accept everything and then wish afterward you hadn't. We've never had them here and I don't want them here, but we'll have to have them now. No, the kitchen isn't clean at all, Jim—it's filthy. Rose had hers done. It cost $60. I said 'Not for the Scotts, not this year.' I'll get my teeth fixed, the next money I get. Rose said Bert's were going to be over $700. You're so tired you don't want it. That's all I get for heating you up a cup of soup."

She Loves Her Family

And during this monologue, Lynn will be putting a cup of delicious broth before her tired man, moving briskly about a speckless kitchen, setting the children's dinner down on a daintily set kitchen table and proving every second that she loves her own people and will do anything for their comfort.

Well, the physical service is valuable. But equally important is the mental and spiritual help that a healthy, courageous philosophy brings to even the most drab or discouraging situation.

We all know what it means when to our frightened and apprehensive questions the doctor says, "This is nothing serious. We can take care of this and have you back in shape in no time."

To certain persons that optimistic, hopeful attitude is natural. But all of us should try to cultivate it. Courage is contagious and, when in the face of disaster, one's closest companion is undaunted and takes the position every second, we can meet this. We'll weather it; we have everything else; how refreshing, how reassuring it is! How one's own courage rises to meet it!

Many years ago a family of six orphans had a family conference. They had been living along in care-free American fashion. Now, almost overnight, they were faced with mature responsibilities and burdens. The hope, the vitality and, yes, the fun of that talk comes back to me across almost half a century. They could cut this, save that, earn the other.

It was the oldest brother's incorrigible optimism that inspired them all. "Sure we can do it—we're Americans," was his argument then as it is his in success today.

Russians Report Completion Of New Tailless Glider

MOSCOW.—The Russians report they have perfected a new "flying wing" glider. According to the newspaper Evening Moscow, Pilot Ivan Petrov soared 1.86 miles at Tushino airfield near Moscow in a new glider that has no tail. The pilot's seat is in the center of the wing.

Petrov, the paper said, put the glider through a series of difficult loops and spirals.

Giant Australian Earthworms Measure 11 Feet in Length

Specimens of the giant earthworms of Gippsland, Australia, some of which measure 11 feet long, have been found to Melbourne for scientific study. They are the largest earthworms in the world. Their eggs are three inches long.

To catch them, worm hunters stood over their burrows listening for the gurgling noise these giants make.

Lumberman's Act of Charity Backfires; Costs Him $100

INDIANAPOLIS.—An act of charity backfired for Floyd Lewis. He cut $20 a thousand feet from the price of a load of lumber when he learned the Rev. E. P. Qualls, a prospective buyer, wanted it for building a home for the aged. Soon after unloading the lumber, Lewis was arrested for selling without a city license.

He was fined $100 and costs.

Rockets Can Fly to Moon; Return Trip Is Problem

LOS ANGELES.—You can take a rocket flight to the moon, but it will have to be a one way trip. Hall L. Hibbard, Lockheed Aircraft corporation chief engineer, revealed that science has solved the problems of building a rocket that travels into outer space.

"The trouble is that we can't figure out how anyone in the rocket would get back to earth," he said.

Bullets Fail to Irk Farmer Who Waits for News of Baby

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—Randall Hitchcock of nearby Chenango Bridge was sitting in a henag Bogota, Colombia, as snipers' bullets whizzed around during the rioting there.

That was bad enough, but Hitchcock was even more worried about his wife back home. She was expecting a baby.

"It was the biggest moment of my life," said Hitchcock, despite the danger from the bullets and mobs of the revolution.

K EWASKUM HIGHLIGHTS M

LEADING THE CONFERENCE

The Indians' victory over Brandon gave them first place by virtue of Lomira's defeat at the hands of Oakfield. Brandon was the loser, 51-35, and Oakfield beat Lomira, 44-40, in an overtime. The Indians had little trouble in downing the scrappy Brandon five. Although the Brandon team showed lots of zip and had many lay-up shots, they just couldn't do the trick. Kewaskum took the lead early in the game on a long two-handed swisher by Tessar and never allowed Brandon to edge ahead. Tessar was high for the evening with 23 points and Bobby Dreher had 14.

PEP SKIT

"Teaching a lesson in history" was the name of the pep skit presented to the students on Friday, the 4th, by several members of the pep club. The scene was a history class in Kewaskum High school many years from now. A discussion of great heroes was held and each pupil told of some great hero they had read about. The heroes were the "A" team players on the basketball team. Some humorous account was told about each player plus other interesting things about them. After the skit, cheers were given and the school song was sung.
