Lake Area Businessmen's Association Drive On

The Northern Kettle Moraine Lake Area association held its 3rd meeting at Nick's Holiday Inn at Long Lake, Monday evening, Sept. 26.

A resolution was adopted by the organization to put on an extensive membership drive. A committee was selected to contact all individual businessmen within the area to solicit their membership. A very high percentage of those contacted thus far have joined the organization.

The general purpose of the organization is to generally help all businessmen in the area by attracting more traffic to our beautiful section of Wisconsin, particularly during the spring, fall and winter months. The success of the organization depends upon the cooperation of all the businessmen in the area by becoming members and thus accumulating sufficient funds to start an extensive advertising program for our common good. Membership fees should not be considered as a donation, but rather should be considered as an investment in advertising each member's own business and as such contributions are deductible from income tax. None of the officers nor committees receive any remuneration for their services.

The next meeting of the organization will be at Lake 15 resort on Monday evening, Oct. 10, at 8:00 p. m.

MEMORIAL

In memory of Bernice Roden Otten, who passed away five years ago, Oct. 5, 1944:
When all the stars have left the sky,
And we behold the dawn,
The memory of our last goodbye,
Will still be going on.
It will be filled with thought of you
When you were at our side,
And of the things you tried to do,
To give us greater pride,
And it will be a memory
Of happiness and tears,
And everything you meant to us
Throughout the fleeting years,
Because the hours were so brief,
And life so very gay
That every dawn was like a thief
Who stole the night away.
We shall remember you
Beyond the farthest dawn
And after all the stars above
Are permanently gone.
Here is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance last forever.
Sadly missed by her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Roden and son Lloyd.

Our boys weren't playing the brand of ball that they were capable of playing during the first half, and didn't seem to come to life until the second part of the game. On Friday afternoon, the Indians met their standard rival, Campbellsport, in their first conference game of the year.
On Saturday, the Kewaskum B team lost a non-conference game with Norris Farm. This game was important to

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U.S. Crops at Near-Record Peak; Lewis Hints at Coal Mine Strike; Steel Industry Resists Wage Hike

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

SUPERCHLIOUS SWINE UNIMPRESSED BY GI—Nominated for honors as swineedom's most snooty member, this porker at Okayama, Japan, is entirely unimpressed as Pfc. Joe McClen-don, Modesto, Calif., uses an aspirator to capture disease-bearing mosquitoes in a house at Okayama. The GI's not-to-happy look is probably inspired by the realization that a hog with such a supercilious appearance might quickly instill an inferiority complex in any human being who gazed too long.

U.S. CROPS:

Near Record

Marshall plan countries, nations everywhere sharing in the largesse of Uncle Sam, would rejoice at the news that the 1949 U. S. crop forecast indicated a near-record volume. So rosy was the picture that experts held that this year's farm production would almost approximate 1948's record output.

REPORTING this, the U. S. department of agriculture said that if the crop did not top all records, it certainly would be second only to last year's figures. Since the growing season for most crops was practically over, there was little likelihood of any change in the crop forecast.

Corn, especially, was abundant, with this crop almost certain to result in some sort of controls on surpluses. The prediction for the corn crop was 3.5 billion bushels, only 3.5 per cent below last year's record, but 27 per cent above average. The new figure was only about 13 million bushels less than the forecast of a month ago.

It was believed that a corn crop of this size was virtually certain to lead the government to invoke production controls on the 1950 crop in a move to prevent accumulation of a burdensome surplus. As a consequence, corn from this year's crop is expected to move into government hands under price-support programs to join the more than 400 million bushels remaining there from the 1948 crop.

NO OFFICIAL decision on corn was likely, however, until after the October crop estimate.

The agriculture department's wheat crop estimate of nearly 1.25 billion bushels was virtually unchanged from a month previous. This would make it the fourth largest wheat crop on record. Also among the relatively large crops were rice, tree nuts, soybeans, grapes, cotton, flaxseed, sorghum grain, dried beans, sugar cane and cherries.

RELIGION:

15 Priests Held

Charging the church with using an underground communications network, the Communist government in Czechoslovakia arrested 15 priests in an effort, it said, to smash the organization.

THERE were indications that despite the arrests, the system was still working because it was needed by the church to maintain contact between its priests and their bishops.

As a point in proof of the continued operation of the system, it was pointed out that parish priests still are sending in declarations to the government that they would rather go to jail than obey a new church-control bill which the Communists proposed to enact.

PRIESTS who have been sending in these declarations say they will never accept appointment from anyone except their freely-acting church superiors.

The church has demanded that the government call off its war against the clergy if it wants to enter into any new negotiations for an agreement as to the role of church and state in the governmental setup.

PRESENT FARM AID DEFENDED

Aitken Claims Wheat, Cotton Props High

According to Senator Aitken (R., Vt.), present farm aid law provides for high price props for wheat and cotton and he declared that anyone who contends otherwise is guilty of misrepresentation. The senator was defending the flexible farm-support law he helped write in the preceding congress and which bears his name. Barring new farm-aid legislation, the Ait-

CHINA:

The Old Oil?

A United States senator has hurled the charge that two American tankers recently carried a large shipment of oil to Chinese Communists with the apparent approval of the state department.

He pointed out that the incident "smacks" of pre-Pearl Harbor days when oil and scrap steel shipments were allowed shipped to Japan. If the senator was correct in his charges, U. S. memory was short.

Relax, Fellows

All was serene, at least for the moment, between the American army and the American air force. The army apologized and thus ended a "battle" crisis growing out of the army's challenge of an air force claim that a mythical "enemy" armored force had been wiped out in war games in Germany.

The air force general in command, after the army blast at his claims, had threatened to pick up his planes and go home from the maneuvers.

Then the army admitted the air force was right, with the commanding general apologizing for the inability of his ground-forces empire to assess properly the sudden strikes by the air force.

COAL:

Lewis Sputters

In the North, trees were showing the first sparks of autumnal color. In the West snow already had fallen in one state. Fall was in the air and the crisp sharpness, the thinning sunlight all indicated the time was right.

And as is his wont, John L. Lewis knew it. The United Mine Workers' chief was threatening coal strikes—and at a time when the threat would be most effective.

BUT AS USUAL, his threat was based apparently upon the highest ideals. There was no question of higher wages or shorter working hours. Instead, Lewis charged that southern coal operators had bled the union's welfare fund white by withholding payments.

Lewis did not mention the word "strike" but he said a continuation of the default in payments might cause "reactions deterrent to the constructive progress of the industry."

However, everybody on the sidelines in Washington construed that statement to hold a strike threat. The National Coal Association advised its members that Lewis' language was a "direct threat" and added:

"No mention is made of the fact that there is no contract and no agreement to pay. . . ."

STEEL:

4th Round Unsure

Unless the situation changed drastically, there would be no fourth-round wage increase for the nation's steelworkers. Almost on the eve of the strike call, the CIO-United Steelworkers union gave up its fight for a wage hike, and called off the strike.

THE million-member union accepted both President Truman's recommendation for an extension of the strike truce and recommendations of a presidential fact-finding board aimed at solving the steel-wage dispute.

Philip Murray, union boss, told the President in a telegram that he gave up the wage increase demand "with profound regret," but agreed to the board's recommendations "in the interest of concluding a prompt settlement."

Six of the nation's major steel producers accepted the truce extension request, but no company had given an answer on the board's formula.

FINANCE:

Advice to British

If the British got nothing else out of the Washington conference on the island's financial crisis, they had received a lot of advice.

That they were not prone to take it was evidenced by British comment in the homeland and hints by Washington newsmen that the British monetary delegation was peeved at the way U. S. treasury chief John Snyder was bossing the show.

WITH bland disregard for the fact, British comment in London was to the effect that Uncle Sam was playing England for a sucker. On the other hand, there was much criticism in the U. S. that the British had nothing but their own yen for the labor government to blame for their financial plight.

In the midst of the clamor, one thing appeared to be distinct: The major forces in U. S. agencies which might help the British were agreed that devaluation of currency was the immediate answer to Europe's financial problems. Snyder believes that, and he has been backed up by the opinion of the World Bank and Monetary Fund.

EUGENE BLACK, American president of the 48-nation World Bank, summed it up neatly. He said:

"I do not underestimate either the complexities or the far-reaching consequences of such action (devaluation), but I fail to see how it can be avoided."

SECURITY:

Cost Rising

An increase in the cost of social security to about 15 billion dollars by 1960, and possibly more than 30 billion by the year 2000, would be the net effect to American taxpayers if congress would pass the pending proposals to expand our present system.

THIS ESTIMATE was made by the Research Council for Economic Security, a Chicago organization, in a study entitled Estimated Cost of Social Security Expansion. Cost estimates are based upon the estimated population and mortality rates for future years. No allowances for variations in wage or price levels has been made.

The expanded program, all of which has been given consideration in the 81st congress, consists of four parts:

1. Increase in old age and survivors insurance benefits and coverage.
2. The introduction of a new concept in federal social insurance, namely, compensation for temporary and permanent disability.
3. An expansion in federal public assistance payments.
4. Adoption of a national compulsory insurance system.

"THE COST in terms of taxable payrolls," the council points out, "ranges from 9.7 per cent to 11.4 per cent in 1960, depending upon low-cost or high-cost estimate. For the year 2000, the estimate ranges from 13.3 per cent to 18.8 per cent of taxable payrolls."

WORLD SERIES:

Video at Movies

Everything, someone has observed, happens in Brooklyn. What was slated to happen in Brooklyn this fall would engage the interest of every baseball fan in the nation.

FOR, at a Brooklyn theater, all the World Series baseball games were to be shown, via television, on the theater's movie screen.

True, it was an experimental project for which the theater-owners reportedly paid $10,000; but other theaters had shown some interest in the plan, and it had the endorsement of A. B. "Happy" Chandler, baseball's night commissioner.

Tapped as Envoy

Robert D. Murphy, career diplomat and former political adviser to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, was nominated for post of U.S. ambassador to Belgium. He would succeed Admiral Alan G. Kirk, who is now U. S. ambassador to Russia.

PARTY LINE:

On the Farm

Communist officials, including three representatives from Moscow, held an organization and policy-making meeting at Beacon N. Y.

That's the story that fell into the hands of the senate judiciary subcommittee on immigration. It reportedly came from one Maurice Malkin, Brooklyn, a self-acknowledged former Communist official in this country.

Malkin, the report said, told the committee that the Communist party and Moscow now are "concentrating a great deal on the United Nations." That statement recalled a charge some months ago that the U. N. was harboring many Communists among its officials and personnel, a charge that was immediately denied.

Malkin said he had been told by a party member present at the meeting that it had been held at a farm house and was attended "by the whole group of the top leadership of the Communists in the U. S."

F. D. R. ELECTED AGAIN . . . But he is F. D. R., Jr. and he is elected a bridegroom. Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., stands with his socialite bride, the former Suzanne Perrin, 28, after their marriage at the New York apartment of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and the bridegroom's brother, Elliot, attended the ceremony. The 34-year-old son of the late President was divorced last May in Nevada by his first wife, the former Ethel Dupont.

FIGHTER AND FAMILY . . . Training for his fight with Charles Fusari at the Polo Grounds, New York, Rocky Graziano rests with wife, Norma, and his children, five-year-old Audrey and infant Rosie at Summit, N. J., training camp. Passing up the usual drink of water, Graziano allows Rosie to feed him from her bottle of milk. Graziano usually would not stay in a training camp for more than a few days, because he missed his family. This helped, and he KO'ed Fusari in the 10th.

UNUSUAL NUPTIALS . . . In a ceremony lawful only in Rhode Island, Rabbi Morris G. Silk (right) unites Mendel Rosenblum and his niece, Mrs. Regina Pofstrong, in Providence. Jewish law ordinarily forbids such a marriage, but in a case like this, the ceremony was sanctioned as a worthy deed. Spouses of both bride and bridegroom were slain by the Nazis. Mrs. Pofstrong came to America and was supported by her uncle. He found himself unable to maintain two households.

PIGSKIN MENTOR IS FRESHMAN'S PATER . . . Head football coach of the United States military academy's eleven, Earl H. Marine Corpsman Sets Unofficial Rifle Mark

Washington, D. C.—Marine Corporal Stanley F. Sanders of Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, set an unofficial National Rifle association record recently when he fired a string of 117 consecutive bullets in the Maryland state .30 caliber championship rifle matches.

Sanders' feat came about in the prone rapid fire matches on the 200 yard line. Seven shooters were tied with perfect scores on the initial run, and it was necessary to continue firing in the eliminations. The records will be posted as "unofficial" until the NRA can examine the claim for record.

Navy personnel of the carrier (above) get a bird's eye view of an Italian port from the flight deck. The townspeople in the crowded square seem to find the Philippine Sea and her personnel as interesting as they, themselves, appear to the sailors. The Athens street markets (left) attract attention of a group of servicemen, including one marine, as the visitors barter for native pottery. Sailors shown are W. A. Dalton, AF2, New Bedford, Mass., and W. D. Bell. The marine is Pfc. Goery.

Visitors turn host as the U.S. navy carrier "Philippine Sea" welcomes residents of Messina aboard for an impromptu inspection. This is one way the navy helps build good will for the U.S. abroad, at the same time that it is demonstrating its strength on the seas.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round
DREW PEARSON

Another Sarajevo?

SHORTLY AFTER the end of World War I this writer stood beside a cracked piece of pavement on the main street of Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. The crack marked the place where a bomb, thrown at the Archduke Franz Ferdinand on June 28, 1914, had touched off the bloodiest war so far seen by man.

The bomb had been thrown seven years before I, then a young reconstruction worker in the Balkans, visited Sarajevo; yet in those seven years the cracked pavement had not been repaired. Reconstruction moves slow in the Balkans, thought I—at that time being a very young idealist—but it moves sure. Never again would war come to sick and weary Europe?

Well, another war did come; and today events are shaping up in these same tired but turbulent Balkans which could bring still another Sarajevo almost over night.

Should Tito be assassinated, should the Red army divisions on the Hungarian-Yugoslav border start south, should revolt flare in Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Czechoslovakia, then war might come all over again. And war in Europe has a habit of being contagious.

Danger vs. Hope

Yet with all its dynamite-laden danger, the Balkan situation also presents one of the most optimistic developments in the cold war against Russia. For, to date, Russia has suffered serious defeats.

There are three phases to the Balkan battle, one laid in Washington, one in Yugoslavia, one in the other satellite countries. Here is how they stack up:

SITUATION 1—Washington: Without benefit of fanfare, the state department has been doing an efficient job of boycotting trade to the little iron curtain countries. Several million dollars worth of goods ordered by Poland and Czechoslovakia are on New York docks ready to move. But they can't get clearance.

The Polish ambassador has been beating a path to state department doors, then to the commerce department, then back again. All he gets is the polite run-around. The state department says export licenses are issued by the commerce department and the commerce department says policy is fixed by the state department.

The run-around is no accident. It's deliberate and carefully planned. And it's having real repercussions behind the little iron curtain.

SITUATION 2—Behind the little iron curtain: Near economic chaos now reigns in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania. This is partly a result of the U. S. trade boycott. People have money but they can't buy. In addition, farmers are revolting at collectivization, national pride is coming to the front, and people generally don't like their Russian masters.

Tito's Spies

Also, Tito, formerly an NKVD operator trained by the Soviet, is now using NKVD methods against the Soviet, not merely in Yugoslavia, but in all the satellite countries. He has about as many underground agents in Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and Romania as Moscow has working against him.

Should this network of undercover revolt start popping, it may start a chain reaction throughout all eastern Europe.

SITUATION 3—Yugoslavia: Tito has had 30 million dollars in gold salted away in Portugal. He now has withdrawn five million dollars to finance revolts in other satellite countries. Once dethroned by the Serbs, Tito is now their hero, thanks to opposing Moscow's farm collectivization. In fact, Tito, still a staunch Communist, is stronger at home than ever, could not be kicked out of office, can only be removed by assassination.

So far, Moscow has tried the latter course—and much more frequently than has leaked to the press. Apparently Stalin, worried over what goes on in the other satellite countries, doesn't want to risk open war with their friend Yugoslavia.

Through U. S. eyes—if the Red army should cross the Yugoslav border, U. S. military experts believe Tito's troops can hold out about three months.

To bolster Yugoslavia's defense, the United States has enough arms to supply four divisions stored on the British island of Malta. They could be rushed to the Dalmatian coast in a hurry.

U. S. worry—Should Yugoslavia fall completely to Moscow, then Greece, according to U. S. experts, would soon go Communist. They point out that it was not until Tito cut off supplies to the Greek guerrillas that the Greek army made any real progress in cleaning up the communists.

Help Poses Risk

And if Greece goes Communist, then Turkey, the Suez Canal, plus near Eastern oil areas and North Africa would follow. That is why a steel mill is being shipped to Tito today! Also why he is getting an American loan, plus any supplies which can bolster the man who still remains a ruthless, unrelenting dictator, but who is the only European who has stood up against the power of the politburo and got away with it.

Devised Swiss Puffs Make Delightful Sandwich

(See Recipe Below)

Luncheon Ideas

DO YOU FEEL that your head is brimming full of question marks instead of good ideas when it comes time to think of something for luncheon?

Then tack the ideas given in today's column somewhere where they'll be sure to remind you of something guaranteed to be successful. Some of these recipes are for simple family fare while others are sheer elegant eating, suitable for guests, for a special Sunday night supper.

With a well rounded luncheon dish, you need only a big vegetable or fruit salad, chilled to joy crispness, to make the main course complete. Your dessert might be pie, cake, ice cream, or simply fruit and cookies.

Keep your pantry shelves well supplied with staples, as well as such items as dried beef, deviled ham, noodles, evaporated milk, rice and condensed soups so that you can whip together these recipes without trips to the store during the last minute. In this way you'll be well prepared to meet family meal problems as well as those which arise when guests drop in.

THIS deviled swiss puff is truly new and different, easy to prepare and fun to eat. When made in the individual casserole skillets as shown in the picture, it will be a real success at a ladies' luncheon. Savory deviled ham is used in the recipe, but you might also try liver sausage or another favorite meat spread.

The cheese mixture may be prepared, except for the baking powder, a day in advance of use, in case you are rushed for time in meal preparation. Remove the mixture from the refrigerator an hour before using so that it will be soft for easy spreading. Add the baking powder just before using.

Deviled Swiss Cheese Puff

- (Serves 4)
- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
  - 1 tablespoon flour
  - 1 tablespoon water
  - 1 egg, slightly beaten
  - 1 cup grated Swiss cheese (processed)
  - 1/4 teaspoon onion juice
  - Dash of tabasco sauce
  - 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
  - 6 tablespoons deviled ham
  - 2 tablespoons evaporated milk
  - 4 slices tomato
  - 4 slices bread

Heat the 1/2 cup evaporated milk in top part of double boiler. Mix flour with water. Stir into milk and cook until thickened, about five minutes. Add the beaten egg, cheese and seasonings and continue cooking until cheese is melted and the mixture thick and creamy. Set aside to cool. Blend ham with two tablespoons of evaporated milk. Spread the slices of bread with the ham mixture, then top each with a slice of tomato. Blend baking powder into cooled cheese mixture. Spread the cheese mixture thickly on each sandwich. Place sandwiches in individual shallow casseroles or in a shallow baking pan. Place under broiler. Using moderate heat, broil until cheese is

LYNN SAYS: Making Cooking Easy In These Simple Ways

Use the pastry blender for mashing eggs for egg salad or sandwich mixtures. It works easily to make the eggs coarse or fine, as you like.

Get the full taste from green peppers for a salad or any other dish, by grating or shredding them, instead of chopping.

Add a few banana flakes to hot or cold cereal just before serving. They add delicious flavor.

To make Welsh Rarebit more hearty, blend a can of deviled ham into the cheese mixture a few minutes before serving it.

To ice cake easily, place a bar of sweet milk chocolate over the top of it, as soon as the cake comes from the oven. The heat is enough to melt the chocolate for easy spreading in just a few minutes.

When making custard in individual cups, drop a marshmallow into the bottom of a cup before pouring in the egg-milk mixture. This will rise to the top during baking and make its own meringue puffed and slightly browned on top. Serve at once.

Note: American cheese or pimento cheese are also good to use in the above mixture to replace Swiss cheese, if desired.

A BUDGET MEAL that is a tempting dish can be turned out of dried lima beans, seasoned with onion, mace and powdered sage, the latter to point up the sausage topping. Double rich evaporated milk poured over the beans for baking adds richness to the dish as well as keeping the beans admirably moist.

Limas Louisiana

- (Serves 4)
- 1 cup dried lima beans
  - 2 cups water
  - 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
  - 1 teaspoon sugar
  - 1/4 teaspoon mace
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 teaspoon powdered sage or poultry seasoning
  - 1/2 pound small pork sausages
  - 1/2 cup evaporated milk
  - Shredded green pepper

Wash beans; soak for several hours or overnight in four cups water. Drain; cook beans in the two cups of water until tender. Add onion, sugar and seasonings to the beans. Place the sausages in a skillet and cook until the links are browned. Use the drippings to grease the baking dish. Turn the bean mixture into the dish. Pour milk over the beans. Arrange browned sausages over the top. Shred a bit of green pepper over them and bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 20 minutes.

FRAGRANT and steaming chicken baked with rice boasts a sophisticated flavor combination spiked with green pepper, onions and slivered almonds.

*Chicken Baked with Rice

- (Serves 6)
- 2 1/2 cup uncooked rice
  - 1/4 cup green pepper, chopped
  - 2 tablespoons minced onion
  - 1/4 cup slivered almonds, if desired
  - 1 1/2 cups diced chicken
  - 1 10 1/2-ounce can condensed mushroom sauce
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 Few grains black pepper
  - 1 cup evaporated milk

Cook rice according to favorite recipe or directions on package. Mix with green pepper, onion and almonds. Arrange layers of rice, chicken and soup in a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Season with salt and pepper. Add milk and bake in a moderate (350°) oven until bubbling and browned, about 30 minutes.

When you purchase ice cream which has been frozen too hard to serve, place the container under hot water for just a few seconds, and it will slice readily enough for serving.

Poached eggs will not spread if you stir the water vigorously in one direction, to create a whirlpool, before you drop in the eggs. Before scalding milk for a recipe, butter the bottom of the pan you use, before pouring in the milk. It will not scorch or brown so easily.

When yeast coffee cakes get a little bit stale, pour some maple or maple-flavored syrup over them, just enough to moisten the surface, and then heat slightly. They'll taste deliciously fresh!

Squeeze a small amount of lemon juice over dates, figs and raisins before putting them through the food chopper. They'll come through more easily.

To give the tops of fruit pies a nice glaze, brush the tops with milk during the last 15 minutes of baking and sprinkle lightly with granulated sugar

PRESENT DAY ECONOMY UNDERMINES . . .

Clink of Dime Is Death Knell of Parting Era

... THE PROVERBIAL NICKEL PHONE CALL

By H. I. PHILLIPS

THE NICKEL'S LAST STAND

AMERICAN TELEPHONE companies are experimenting with 10-cent pay stations, which abolish the proverbial 5-cent call. Even talk is to be more expensive than ever.

In some cities field tests are being made with new phone booth dime-a-call machines. We presume the tests have two purposes: (1) to see how the apparatus works; (2) to note how loudly the user squawks.

The telephone business "ain't what it used to be and the companies are up against terrific costs. For all we know the nickel phone call is as economically unsound as the nickel bus fare, the nickel hot-dog and the nickel movie. But a bigger fight is likely, as the public has been brought up on the 5-cent phone call. It may even regard the telephone booth as the nickel's last stand.

It has seen the 5-cent piece replaced in most every field, but there is something about disassociating it from a phone booth that fills many a heart with anguish. One of the few things left in America at the old price is the nickel phone booth. It stands almost by itself as a place a man may enter without asking, "I wonder how prices have gone up in here since I was around last time."

There has always been something about the clink of a nickel in a phone booth that made sweet music, and of late it has conveyed unmistakably the soothing proof that there was still something in America not out of reach of a man in the lower brackets.

Even if you made the call and found your girl has just left for dinner with somebody else, it didn't seem exorbitant. But when it takes a dime to get the same news it will be something else again.

We can see the phone companies' point. There is not the money in conversation that there used to be. It costs twice as much to produce "number please" as it did 10 years ago. The companies say they are losing money on the transaction at nickel pay-station rates.

Nevertheless we look for a hot time at hearings before the public service commissions. Elmer Twitchell is among those who will be present with some novel pleas. "I may not fight the abolition of the nickel call if the figures show it is necessary," he said, "but I will demand that a 10-cent phone booth be made twice as roomy as a nickel one."

"I want it better ventilated too," he continued. "In a nickel phone booth you are practically in solitary confinement. If I pay a dime I may even demand a soft chair and maybe television."

"A $15,000 dream house raffled off on Sixth avenue, New York, had to be sold by the owner for $1,000 because of the costs of moving and reassembling," news item.)

Want a lovely dream house? Take a chance—you must—Win it and, my dears, How the dream will bust! Fifty cents a ticket . . . Give your luck a try! Who will get the building? Some fast dollar guy!

It seems to us the dream house might have been advertised as having hot and cold indifference, a fine view of snafu, crossed-up ventilation and an acre of headaches.

YE GOTHAM BUGLE & BANNER

A British parliament member says John Bull will not be kicked around by unlettered pot bellied money magistrates from the U.S. . . This is the first indication anybody could look at Uncle Sam and sing, "He's too fat, he's too fat, he's too fat for me." . . Ye ed hears Jolson's next pictures will be called "Jolson Hits The Jackpot" "Jolson Follows Through" or "Jolson Takes Fort Knox." . . The driver who killed Margaret Mitchell and who is alleged to have been drunk, speeding, and on the wrong side of the road, as well as a repeated offender against traffic laws, is charged merely with involuntary manslaughter, the penalty for which is one to three years!

Why movie review readers go mad: "The second Jolson film is not as sentimental nor as heart warming as its predecessor." — Kate Cameron.

"Of course the plot of the new Jolson movie is soggy with sentiment. The songs drip with nostalgia." — Jim O'Connor.

MIRROR Of Your MIND

Heartlessness Is a Danger By Lawrence Gould

Can a heartless person win your affection?

Answer: Certainly, if he (or she) is clever enough. It is easier in some ways to win the affection of someone whom you care nothing about than of someone you are genuinely fond of, since wanting intensely to have someone like—or love—you may make you feel tense and awkward with him. There are egotists who gratify their vanity by "turning on the charm" until they're sure you like them and then have no further interest in you. But you're better off than they are in the long run since a person who cannot be hurt cannot be happy, either.

their own imaginations. Compared with the average of the whole group, these students showed less neuroticism, less introversion, more skill in personal relations and a greater degree of confidence in themselves.

Can you know a person you haven't lived with?

Answer: You can never "know all about" anybody under any circumstances, any more than you can absolutely know yourself, and however long you may live with another person, you are never wholly safe against surprises. But day-by-day contact usually does reveal sides of anyone's personality which may not appear if you see him only occasionally. It's not just a case of his being on his best behavior when he's with you; it's that when we are "off guard" (for instance, at the breakfast table) that we are prone to unconscious self-revelation.

Is a child who has imaginary playmates "strange"?

Answer: He's apt to turn out more nearly normal than the average, writes Dr. Robert C. Wingfield, well-known psychologist, in the Journal of Child Psychiatry. Dr. Wingfield tells of tests given to 229 college women freshmen, 67 of whom recalled as small girls having imaginary playmates who existed only in Preparation GRACE NOLL CROWELL. WHAT shall I take into the coming year? And what shall I leave behind? I asked my heart, And quick came the answer: "Lay all doubt and fear And anxious care aside before you start. Take but life's stark necessities along: The Word of God that you may be kept fit, The staff of faith, the lamp of hope, a song Of high and dauntless courage; fill your kit With laughter, and take happiness to wear, 'Twill cloak you on the bleakest, coldest day; And take an apple and a loaf to share With one who may be hungry on the way. Fill your canteen from a wayside well, You may grow thirsty," said my cautious heart. And Hark, across the world a midnight bell Peels out a summons—it is time to start.

Star Dust STAGE SCREEN RADIO

BY INEZ GERHARD

NOW that it's over, Robert Q. Lewis can draw a long breath and look back with pride on the terrific job that he did from August 1 to October 1. He took over for Arthur Godfrey five morning shows a week on CBS and one television show, lasting an hour, on Wednesday evenings. Godfrey's popularity made him a difficult man to fill in for, and Lewis was bound to be a target for a lot of criticism, just because he wasn't Arthur. Now they're saying that there couldn't have been a better man for the job. Lewis did his best, of course, but he wasn't worried; he's done too many outstanding shows of his own for that.

ROBERT Q. LEWIS

Sonny Tufts carried a container like a knitting bag to the "Easy Living" set at RKO every day; it held a two-quart thermos of half-milk, half-cream and another filled with soup and sweetbread mixture. It was his daily lunch.

The father-son team of Walter and John Huston, which won three Academy awards last year, will be reunited in "Horizon Pictures" next for Columbia. "Reminiscences of a Cowboy" will co-star Walter Huston and Montgomery Clift. John Huston will direct, and, following tradition, will be seen in a small part. It should be good; everything John Huston does succeeds.

The cigarette company now sponsoring "Ladies Be Seated" and "One Man's Opinion," with Walter Kieran, has shifted them from Mutual to ABC; they replace "Against the Storm," daytime serial, and "Queen for a Day."

Cathy Lewis, "Jane" of "My Friend Irma," is back again after a long illness. Marie Wilson ("Irma") told me "sometimes I get sore or annoyed at Cathy, but I could forgive her anything, she's such a wonderful actress!"

ODDS AND ENDS . . . John Gibson, "Ethebert" on "Crime Photographer," recently played eight radio programs in one day, by scrambling in and out of taxis and dashing in and out of studios all over Manhattan. . . Paramount has taken up its option for six months on Dick Keene, who recently appeared in "The Lie" and the Bing Crosby starrer, "Riding High" . . . Marking a milestone in fan magazine technique, Radio Mirror devotes its entire October issue to CBS shows.

The Fiction FLASH OF BRILLIANCE

By Richard H. Wilkinson

CONSIDERING the fact that the necklace was valued at $50,000 and it was not insured, Mrs. Holbrook should have been upset. The fact that she wasn't astonished even her husband, for her husband knew her for an emotional, excitable person.

"But, good lord, Bess! You paid 50 grand for that rope. Maybe you think I'm made of money." "That," said Mrs. Holbrook, "is the point."

"Point? What point?" Mr. Holbrook was becoming irritated. "I mean," said Bess, "that I'm not the empty-headed, irresponsible person you think me. The diamond necklace wasn't stolen. I left it back in New York—in a safety deposit box."

"You what?" "The jewels that were stolen were imitations. I wouldn't dream of wearing the originals without having them insured."

"Mr. Holbrook's mouth fell open. 'So you see,' said Bess. It isn't as bad as it seems."

Rita Fenway, one of the guests, suddenly said: "But it doesn't alter the fact that there's a thief aboard. And that means we're all in danger of being robbed. And the cruise won't be over for another week."

"Of course," Mrs. Holbrook said. "And nothing could be more satisfactory. My dears, consider that we are to be on the high seas for a week. The criminal, whoever he is, will have to remain with us during that length of time. A week, my dears, will give our clever and efficient captain ample opportunity to apprehend the thief."

An hour after Mrs. Holbrook had demonstrated her hidden genius she excused herself from a group in the main lounge and unobtrusively descended to her cabin. After a moment she rang for the captain.

"Captain Talbert, my husband has undoubtedly told you about the theft and instructed you to apprehend the thief."

"Yes, ma'am. I have two of the crew making a search now." "Instruct them to desist. It will not be necessary."

"But, Mrs. Holbrook, your husband said—"

"Never mind what my husband said. The necklace has been returned." She nodded toward a box on her dressing table.

"No. The real ones, Captain Talbert, I'm going to take you into my confidence. The story I told about the necklace being imitation was false. I've never worn false jewelry and I never shall. I merely told that story so that the thief would think his loot valueless."

CAPTAIN TALBERT'S face lighted. "And then you spoke about apprehending the criminal by searching for the imitations so that the thief would return—"

"Exactly. The imitations weren't worth keeping, and in order to dispel the possibility of having them found in his possession he decided to return them. In doing so he unintentionally returned the originals—and spared me the unpleasantness of facing my husband—alone." Captain Talbert nodded understandingly. He knew what the word "alone" meant. He regarded Mrs. Holbrook with frank admiration. "Mrs. Holbrook, allow me to congratulate you, and please understand that you will have my fullest co-operation. After a reasonable length of time I'll announce that we have been unsuccessful in our search."

A moment later Captain Talbert went out. Left alone, Mrs. Holbrook sat down before her mirror. It had been a strain. A great strain. She sighed wearily. It was such a relief to feel that once more she could return to the role of the irresponsible spouse that her husband understood and expected.

KEEPING HEALTHY Another Cure for Alcoholism

By Dr. James W. Barton

ALL OVER THE WORLD today determined efforts are being made by individuals and organizations to cure and prevent alcoholism. Alcoholism not only ruins the life of the alcoholic but ruins the life also of his or her family.

I have spoken before of the excellent work being done by Alcoholics Anonymous, a group made up of cured and not entirely cured alcoholics. These men and women lean on, or pray to, a higher power than themselves and ask to be given the strength to abstain from alcohol just one day at a time. The cured by this organization with branches everywhere is estimated at nearly 90 per cent.

I have also mentioned the drug benzadrine sulfate (amphetamine), which not only takes away the desire for alcohol, but gives the patient a boost physically and mentally that thins over a weak spell or hangover.

A drug, accidentally discovered by two Danish physicians, that takes away the desire for alcohol is called antabus. In the "Journal of the American Medical Association," Drs. Erik Jacobsen and O.

Martensson - Larsen, Copenhagen, Denmark, report the results obtained by antabus in 550 cases up to December, 1948. Cases were treated in open wards in hospitals and were allowed to pay short visits to their offices and homes.

"It is important for rapid mental and social restoration to bring patients back into their ordinary lives as soon as possible, so that they may learn to live non-alcoholic lives among normal drinkers. "Antabus is cheap and easy to administer, but it is also easy for the patient to discontinue treatment thinking he can stop drinking again if he takes antabus again. The drug causes very disagreeable symptoms—great flushing of face, nausea, vomiting, dizziness and breathlessness.

"These symptoms are so severe that they prevent persons from taking alcohol." The British "Lancet" states: "So far no harmful systemic effects on liver, heart, kidney or blood formation in gorgans have been observed; nor have any untoward effects been noted."

HEALTH NOTES

Today the lives of many men and women stricken with both tuberculosis and influenza meningitis are being saved by new drugs—penicillin, sulfas and streptomycin.

When we see, smell and remember the taste of the food placed before us, all the digestive juices begin to flow.

It is good sense during hot weather to eat more of the foods rich in vitamin C—fresh raw fruits, grape fruit and lemons, raw cabbage, lettuce, tomatoes, strawberries.

The first, or baby, teeth are important. They make places ready for permanent teeth and preserve the shape of the mouth and jaw.

From leprosy hospitals at present, patients are allowed to visit their homes twice a year for a month at a time.

Physicians have learned in the past few years that patients may suffer from symptoms, the cause or causes of which cannot be discovered in a well equipped laboratory.

A patient in bed with no exercise and a mind full of worries is not usually hungry, yet he must eat well to gain weight and strength.

At times, tuberculosis, syphilis, psoriasis and leprosy will show disturbances before the real underlying disease is even suspected of being present.

Sometimes yellow spots on the skin of middle-aged women, and men too, point to a disturbance often present during change of life.

Physicians have new drugs to prevent and control epilepsy, the barbiturates being the greatest help.

FIRST AID to the AILING HOUSE

by Roger C. Whitman

QUESTION: Our wallpaper is coming loose above our radiator. We papered three years ago this spring. We took all the old paper off and then gave the walls a good coat of glue sizing. Could you suggest something we could use that will not loosen the paper? (We have vapor heat.)

ANSWER: As you say the paper loosened above the radiator, but evidently did not loosen anywhere else, I make the guess that the heat was in the radiator at the time of papering, and the heat dried out the glue size too quickly so that the paper did not make a good bond. If you are planning to repaper, make sure that the radiator is cold at the time you paper that part of the room.

QUESTION: Our dining-room furniture has white spots on the legs, probably caused by striking the legs with shoes. Is there some way I can touch them up? I do not want to refinish the entire piece unless I have to.

ANSWER: I suppose the pieces are made of a white wood, such as maple, and the varnish has been scuffed off. I believe you will find it more satisfactory to do a good job rather than touch up the pieces with preparations for hiding the damage. However, perhaps you would rather do it this way. If so, ask your hardware dealer for one or two of the new products made for concealing scratches and other blemishes on furniture or ask at a furniture store.

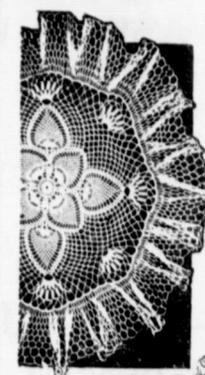

QUESTION: There is a corner crack in our bedroom wall and the ceiling has cracks. We have used a preparation for fixing cracks, but after a severe winter the cracks show up again. Is there any other material besides paper that would be pretty and not crack down at the corners? Our room is finished in calcimine. Would that have to be removed if covered with other material?

ANSWER: A corner crack needs a somewhat different treatment from a crack in the straight wall. The plaster should be removed down to the lath on each side of the corner for a distance of 4 to 6 inches. Then a metal corner lath is nailed in place and that part of the wall then is replastered. If you cannot get corner lath, you may be able to get metal lath in strips 8 to 12 inches wide. Bend the strips at right angles to fit the corner and fasten in place. It would be advisable to have a plasterer do the job for you. The ceiling crack can be "undercut" to make it wider at the lath than at the surface. The plaster crumbs should be cleaned out and the groove wet with water. It then can be filled with patching plaster almost to the top and allowed to dry. It will shrink a trifle in drying. It then should be filled to the surface and smoothed level with the surrounding plaster surface.

Hide Signs of Wealth

In every Bantu language there is a word to describe the action of a man who, owning a considerable herd of cattle, plants them out among his poorer relatives and neighbors so that he will not appear too prosperous. Everybody knows that they are his, and just how many he has, but he must avoid any appearance of ostentation. Similarly, it is not considered advisable to own too good a house or lands that are too well cultivated. Fear of exciting the envy of the chief is one of the motives that govern this attitude of mind, which always has been a powerful brake to the progress of Bantu agriculture in South Africa.
