The handkerchief edged imperat illusion fingertip veil cascaded from a crown of seed pearls and sequins. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, centered by an orchid. She was presented in marriage by her father.

Miss Mary Jane Mayer, friend of the bride, acted as maid of honor, while Miss Marcella Mlodzik, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. The attendants both wore coral gowns of lace and net. A shawl collar of lace set off the neckline. Pleated net panels alternated with lace panels formed the bouffant skirts. They wore head pieces of lilies of the valley and also carried bouquets of lilies of the valley.

John Heller, a friend, served as best man for the bridegroom, Harold Westerman, cousin of the bride, attended as groomsman. Guests were placed by Harold Oswald and Eddie Kalinske.

Dinner and supper were served in the St. Killian school auditorium and an afternoon reception was held there for 250 guests.

Prosperous Farms Reduce Rio Grande

The Rio Grande has been called the "world's dustiest river" and it is getting smaller and dustier.

United States hydraulic engineers warned recently that the river forming the border between Texas and Mexico probably never will be as big as it once was. Increasing irrigation for a rich agricultural area has robbed the lower river of water until it sometimes is little more than a trickle, says the National Geographic Society.

The flow of the Rio Grande was formidable when it was first seen by Europeans. When Alonzo Alvarez de Pineda sailed into its mouth in 1519, he encountered a volume of water in keeping with the stream's 1800-mile length.

Third Longest

The Rio Grande is the third longest river in the United States. It is exceeded only by the Mississippi and the Missouri. It has been used for irrigation for centuries, but in de Pineda's time it watered only the scattered fields of New Mexico's Pueblo Indians. At present the river irrigates some two million acres in Mexico and the United States.

The river waters a great variety of crops—corn and cotton, potatoes and broccoli, citrus groves and alfalfa. It also serves thousands of head of livestock as it flows hundreds of miles past tremendous Texas cattle ranges whose cowboys first termed it "the world's dustiest river."

The Rio Grande rises in a group of springs 12,594 feet up in the San Juan Mountains of southern Colorado. Enlarged by snow fed streams, it drops some 5,000 feet through forests of spruce, fir and aspen before it is first tapped for irrigation in the San Luis valley.

Millions of Acre-Feet

Between this valley and the Gulf of Mexico, dams and reservoirs draw off millions of acre-feet of water for the dry fields of Mexico, New Mexico, Colorado and Texas. The biggest single reservoir, at Elephant Butte, New Mexico, has capacity enough to cover 2,219,000 acres of land one foot deep.

The lower reaches of the Rio Grande are dotted with historic sites marking wars, bandit troubles and border irregularities. The upper reaches are rich in the history of exploration. Zebulon Pike crossed the river in Colorado, and not far away Kit Carson did battle with the Utes.

Coronado first reached the Rio Grande in 1540 on his expedition in search of the lost cities of Cibola. He found there the highly developed civilization of the Pueblo Indians, who had been in the river valley before Europeans dreamed of a new world.

At Alamogordo, a remote spot on the New Mexico desert, in the Rio Grande valley, the first atom bomb was exploded on July 16, 1945.

Something to Worry About
And now we hear the people say That winter's gone and lost it's way. If so, I hope that lost 'twill stay. And not come raging round in May.

NATURE NOTES

New Richland salutes an albino robin... A Renville goose produced an egg which, had it golden, would have made the owner pretty wealthy: 9 1/4 by 12 1/2 inches!... The path of learning in Watonwan County School No. 18 was well scented when a striped kitty wandered into one of the small utility buildings at the rear, where a senior student was permitted to use a .22 rifle on the trapped animal... A turtle taken by a school boy near Gully bore marks put on the shell by the lad's uncle in 1906, a mile from where it was finally taken.

Too Personal
"Jimmy," said his mother, "run across the street and see how old Mrs. Smith is."

Jimmy was back in a few minutes. "She says its none of your business how old she is."

IT SOMETIMES HAPPENS THAT WAY

Many years ago a Winnebago resident, now 68, was struck on the head by a broken pole and severely injured. Now, like sheep, he submits to only one "shearing" a year, in the spring, creating quite a local occasion... A Wabasso man attracted national attention by building an 8x10x12 house or shrine of bottles... A "lost and found" department in Minneapolis recently loaned a pair of unclaimed glasses to a lady until she found her own... Encountered in recent travels was a "Dead End" street leading, of all places, to a cemetery!

A New Version
Teacher: "Is your mother or your father the boss in your house?"
Betty: "My daddy is the boss, but mommy does most of the talking, and that's what we go by."

Not There!
Far out in the Texas desert was a little gas station with this sign on it:
"Don't ask us for information. If we knew anything we would be here."

Accommodating Shopper
Just as a small-town butcher was explaining the merits of a roast to a customer, a woman rushed in and interrupted him. "Give me a half pound of cat meat—quick!" she ordered. Then she turned to the first customer and said: "I hope you don't mind my being served ahead of you."
"Oh, no," shrugged the first woman, "not if you're as hungry as all that."

Speaking of Arks
"And now, said the history teacher brightly, "Can anyone tell me who Joan of Arc was?"
The class was silent, and then one small boy ventured tentatively. "Maybe she was Noah's wife?"

THE CHIMNEY WALL COVERING

The wall covering over a chimney flue is often a source of trouble. Plaster cracks, usually at the corners. Wall paper does not stick. Paint often peels. An old chimney flue opening, no longer useful, detracts from the beauty of the wall.

A flue opening should be closed with brick and mortar, the same thickness as the chimney wall above the opening. Be sure not to have bricks protruding out into the flue. See illustration.

If the chimney was plastered directly onto the brick, as it should not be, patching plaster can be used to smooth off the wall. Do not do this job while the chimney is in use. The heat will dry plaster and mortar too fast, and it will crack.

The chimney wall should be furred out away from the chimney as illustrated. There should be no floor joists, rafters, or studs in contact with the chimney.

Floor joists should be framed completely around the chimney. Fireproof insulation should be used between studs and the chimney, also between joists and the chimney. This is good protection against fire, and also against cracks caused by settling.

Fireproof insulation between the chimney wall and the plaster will reduce the danger of plaster cracking, and will help wallpaper and paint to stick.

HELP THE MENTAL PATIENT

Are you one who has been laboring under the erroneous idea that mental illness is a disgrace? Did you think that mental illness is the result of sin—sin of the individual, of his parents, or of his grandparents? Have you entertained the idea that mental abnormalities are the direct result of the drinking of alcoholic beverages or sexual abuses? Did you think that your family is disgraced for life because of the presence of a mental patient therein? If your answer is "Yes," then take heart, for unquestionably each of these ideas is a fallacy; and the sooner the general public embraces the real truth about mental disease and emotional disorders, the more effective will become the campaign of attack against America's Number One health problem.

Unfortunately, there are found in every generation some whose brains are not fully developed, this condition having arisen perhaps because of malfunctioning of glands because of trauma (wounds) or some other organic defect. These cases constitute, however, only twenty per cent of those who are mentally ill. The remaining eighty per cent are mentally disturbed, because of detrimental emotional factors to which nervously-inclined individuals are over-long subjected.

How intricate an organ is the human psyche (the mind). In some individuals such an organ may appear exceedingly resistant to gross tension, perplexities and painful stresses, whereas other minds may show a tendency to fret, to worry, to feel frustrated and finally to become sick. The latter type of mind reacts occasionally as it does, because of inherited tendencies toward nervousness. More often, however, the mind becomes ill because unhealthful factors of the environment prove as poisonous as a malarial region would prove to his body.

The public must entirely discard the idea of any shame or stigma to be attached to mental sickness but must realize that it is as natural for some emotions to become ill as for stomachs, hearts or lungs to become diseased. No longer must the public withhold jobs from those who have been treated in mental hospitals. What with the marvelous scientific advance in psychiatric therapies during recent years, the best hospitals are effecting cures on eighty per cent of its mental patients. To refuse jobs to former patients and to shun them is only to hinder their future progress, happiness, rehabilitation and personal rights within the community.

Not A Chance

One senator had been making the rounds of his home territory to remind the voters that he's been doing a right fine job for them in Washington. Following a speech before a women's group, he was introduced to a new resident.

"Madam," he smiled, "I certainly hope this constituency will return me."

She shook her head. "I wish you luck, but from the short time I've been in this community I can assure you that these people never return anything!"

BUTTERMILK—A REFRESHING LUNCHEON TREAT!

A salad of fruit and cottage cheese, homemade nut bread sandwiches and chilled buttermilk is a menu the whole family will enjoy. Buttermilk, that year 'round favorite beverage, goes into the making of this nut bread, giving a moist loaf with a delicate flavor, characteristic of buttermilk-made breads and cakes.

- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed

- 2 tablespoons molasses
- 1 1/2 cups buttermilk
- 3 tablespoons melted butter

The most popular nuts used in cooking are almonds, pecans, walnuts and peanuts; they all contain Vitamin B. Greater use of them should be made in bread, cake, cookies, salads, etc. A few nuts added to even the simplest dish will give it new flavor and distinction.

Banana Bread

 - 1 cup sugar
 - 1 egg
 - 2 cups flour
 - 1 teaspoon soda
 - 3 large bananas
 - 2/3 cup chopped pecans
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla

Pineapple, Olive and Nut Salad

- 1 package lemon gelatin
 - 1 cup boiling water
 - 1 small can crushed pineapple
 - 1 cup water
 - 1 tablespoon vinegar
 - 1/2 cup stuffed olives cut fine
 - 1/2 cup nuts chopped
- Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Cool. Add other ingredients. Pour into 8 individual molds. Chill. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

Cream Nut Rolls

- 1 cup coffee cream
 - 1 cake yeast
 - 1 cup butter
 - 5 egg yolks
 - 3 cups flour
 - 1/3 cup sugar
 - 1 cup blanched almonds chopped fine
- Scald cream and cool to lukewarm, mix yeast with cooled cream. Cream butter thoroughly.

Sift together the flour, salt, soda and baking powder. Add sugar and walnuts. Beat egg until thick and lemon-colored. Add molasses and buttermilk. Combine with first mixture along with the melted butter. Stir only to blend ingredients. Do not beat. This will be very thick.

Spoon the mixture into a well-buttered loaf pan, 9x5x3 inches, making slight hollow in center. Let stand 20 minutes before baking. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 60 minutes or until a wooden pick thrust into the center comes out clean. Turn out of pan onto wire rack to cool.

NOTE: One-half to three-fourths cup chopped figs, dates or raisins may be added along with the nuts.

Add egg yolks one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add flour with yeast mixture to creamed butter and egg yolks. Beat thoroughly. Chill the dough overnight in refrigerator. Mix sugar and almonds. Sprinkle half of mixture on bread board. Divide chilled dough in half. Roll out each portion on the sugar and nut mixture until 1/8 inch thick. Roll up like jelly roll. Cut off 1/2-inch slices. Place on baking sheet 1 1/2 inches apart. Let rolls rise until light about 1 hour. Bake in an oven 350 degrees about 25 minutes.

A Return Visit

The big-game hunter was showing his trophies to a guest. He pointed proudly to the wonderful collection of heads around the wall and the tiger skins on the floor. "Very interesting," muttered the guest, peering at them through his spectacles. "Perhaps you'll drop in some evening and see my butterflies."

Handle With Care
Have you a baby in your home? What a joy... and what a problem, too! Of course, your particular problem is those diapers! There they are, and they've got to be done, because your chief aim is the baby's comfort. To make it easier for you, and to get the best results, here are a few rules to follow.
Scheduling is a must in caring for baby, and the diaper duty will fit right in, if you plan it as a daily chore. You'll find this best. Soiled diapers should be immediately dunked in the toilet bowl, holding them by one corner. Then, into a special soaking solution they go, in a 2-gallon enamel pail with a cover. Fill it half full of cold water and 2 tablespoons borax.
To wash them, use HOT water—the hotter the better. After wringing out the soaking solution, wash them in a good, sudsy water and add a half cup of head-bluing, and a good water conditioner, if necessary. Putting the detergent-base head-bluing right in the washing water is much better than the old-fashioned way of putting it in the rinse water. There's no chance of over-bluing, and every bit of the soap and detergent is rinsed away. You'll find your washing machine your best friend for laundering baby's things. You need run the machine only 5 minutes if these instructions are followed.
After rinsing, shake them well and dry, then smooth and fold. Never iron. They'll be softer and more comfortable, and why work when you don't have to.

Teacup Topics by Betty Ann

In the matter of good grooming, there can be no letting down, says Betty Ann. The biggest mistake any woman can make is to fix up only for special occasions and not care how she looks in between.

Every day is inspection day. There are moments in every woman's day when either her husband, her children, friends, business associates or casual acquaintances are looking at her and quietly judging.

Beginning with her hair, she knows that without a permanent, her hair-do may wilt. So she has, on schedule, a wave that is carefully adapted to her hair and her coiffure. She has an open mind on styles, and changes her hair-do often enough to keep it interesting.

She also has a system in the care of her skin and is particular about the choice of soaps and creams. Neither does she forget about her hands. A weekly manicure is only the beginning.

She is alert enough to know that make-up is not static and she likes to try new products and new tints. She even uses new fragrances from time to time. She picks up new techniques all the time and is seldom at a loss in an emergency.

A woman may, as the men often maintain, carry everything in her handbag but the kitchen sink, but that's no reason why it has to look like Fibber McGee's closet.

Landscaping Gives Grounds "New Look"

Warm spring days provide a chance to plan a "new look" for home grounds.

G. W. Longenecker, landscape specialist at the University of Wisconsin, advises home owners to plan landscaping before the shrub and tree planting season starts.

Decide how you want the grounds landscaped. That will tell you exactly how much material you need for a pleasing design. Select only plants that fit the surroundings—native Wisconsin varieties are often best.

If your stock arrives early, you can "heel in" the plant material. Dig a trench, six to 12 inches deep, and temporarily plant the stock at about a 20 degree angle, slanted to the south.

For final planting, dig holes large enough to allow uniform root spreading. Pack the soil solidly around the roots, and add water and small amounts of fertilizer. Soak the roots in water before planting if the ground is dry.

Longenecker says a deciduous stock—shrubs and trees that lose their leaves in fall—will get a better start if you trim off one-third of the branches. Trim off more if the stock has started to leaf out.

Evergreen usually come balled and burlapped. When planting these evergreens, dig a hole large enough for the ball and soil to be tamped in. Be sure the evergreen is set straight. Leave the burlap on the ball and fill the hole around the ball three-fourths full of good soil.

Longenecker says, watch newly planted shrubs or evergreens for lack of moisture during the first growing season. Be sure the soil around the evergreens is moist, especially in the fall.

Top dressing with a good fertilizer is a way to boost yields on pasture—the cheapest feed for dairy cows. Apply the fertilizer when the grass is dry to avoid burning, says C. J. Chapman, soils specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

Cheese Balls Add Food Value to salad

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

WE all turn to salads when the weather gets warm. If salads include some form of protein such as cheese, eggs, fish or meat, they can be used as main dishes for luncheon.

Here are two main-dish salads and a delicious buttermilk cole slaw.

CRISPY CHEESE BALLS
(Makes 8 balls, about 1 1/4 inches in diameter)
One package (3 ounces) cream cheese, 1/4 to 1/2 cup candy-coated puffed wheat.

Form cheese into balls and roll in cereal. Serve with pineapple, orange, or other fruit salads. For an attractive salad, center 2 or 3 crispy cheese balls on lettuce or other salad greens. Arrange fruit sections in swirls around the cheese balls.

BUTTERMILK COLE SLAW
Shred a head of crisp cabbage very thin. Then slice thin 2 small onions, 5 or 6 stuffed green olives, and add with 10 capers to the cabbage. Salt to taste.

TOSSED MACARONI SALAD WITH BLEU-CHEESE DRESSING
(Makes 6 servings)

One tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces elbow macaroni (2 cups), 1/2 medium-sized head lettuce, shredded, 1/4 bunch chichory, broken in pieces, 2 medium-sized tomatoes, cut in wedges, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 1/4 cup chopped celery, 1 green pepper, cut in thin strips, 1 1/2-ounce package bleu cheese, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 cup salad oil, 1/2 teaspoon meat sauce, 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground pepper, dash paprika.

These crispy cheese balls will turn any kind of fruit salad into a main dish for an attractive summer meal.

occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Rinse with cold water and drain again. Chill. In a large salad bowl, combine chilled macaroni, lettuce, chichory, tomato wedges, onion, celery and green pepper; toss lightly but thoroughly.

Chill. Crumble bleu cheese. In a small bowl, combine bleu cheese and remaining ingredients; mix thoroughly. Add bleu cheese dressing to chilled salad; mix lightly but thoroughly.

Marshmallow Sweet Potatoes

- 8 medium sized sweet potatoes
2 tablespoons butter
1/3 cup hot milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1 cup chopped nuts
1 lb. marshmallows

Cook sweet potatoes until tender, remove skins and mash. Beat in butter, milk, salt, cinnamon and paprika. Beat well and add nuts. Cover with marshmallows and bake in an oven 350 degrees until marshmallows puff and are a golden brown.

About The Home

By FRANCES DELL

If your house is beginning to look old, shabby and drab, it is time to paint it. Whether or not you give it a full basement-to-roof job or just touch-up work, you will find you can give your home a complete new personality.

Knowing what paint and equipment to buy is half the battle. The first, and most important step is preparation of the surface to take and hold the paint. For this you will need rough sandpaper, steel wool, or a wire brush or a scraper.

In addition to the paint you will need extra cans for mixing, paddles for stirring, strainers for removing lumps and cloths for wiping up spatters. If possible, have some drop cloths for protecting your shrubbery and porch roof.

Buy only good brushes. A brush four and one-half to five inches across is best for painting large areas. A sash brush is needed for narrow strips and a brush one and one-half to two inches wide is best for the trim.

You will need some paint thinner to clean your brushes and some linseed oil to break them in. Surfaces to be painted must be absolutely dry.

Check to see if any wood replacements are needed under the eaves, around window heads and sills on posts or steps, etc.

Find out about the many new kinds of paint and choose one that is made to meet your needs.

"Certified Camps" Provide Good Housing For Migrant Workers

Each year Wisconsin houses an estimated 12,000 migratory workers. Many entire families are among the seasonal influx of these migrants. Their coming gives rise to numerous problems, prominent among which are those of health.

Many individuals and organizations are vitally concerned with these people—their health and their welfare. The Governor's Commission on Human Rights and the State Migrant Committee of the Wisconsin Welfare Council have been especially active in their behalf.

The State Board of Health in cooperation with industry has set up minimum standards for Wisconsin industrial camps, which are designed to provide good housing and a sanitary environment for these people.

A "certified camp" is made up of substantial, adequately ventilated dwellings, located on a well-drained, properly graded site. Overcrowding is avoided. Graveled or paved walkways connect the dwellings with a service building, which includes a laundry room and washrooms for both men and women.

All buildings are screened and electric lighting is provided throughout the camp. A reliable water supply which meets accepted health standards is provided for the workers. If the camp has a dining hall, proper food handling practices are instituted and food is stored under sanitary conditions.

All migrant camps are inspected on a regular basis and any camp which reasonably conforms to the minimum standards is designated as a "certified industrial camp."

Wisconsin needs help to harvest its crops each year. These people contribute greatly to our state's economy. The least we can do is to provide healthful living conditions for them.

Faint One, At That "I hear her clothes are the last word." "Last word? Dear old thing, they're the last whisper."

REGAL BEAUTY — All eyes turn in salute to Iran's lovely Empress Soraya. She is seen above alighting from a plane at the airport in Rome, Italy.

LIFESAVER—This ram-jet turbine, only 12-inches in diameter, means life instead of death for jet airmen and passengers in case of engine failure.

GOOD NEWS FOR Homemakers

- Playing Games At Dinner is always fun. Good game to play is this: Have each one in your family add up his "eating score" for the day.
1. MILK (1 quart for youngsters, pint for big folks).
2. TOMATO JUICE, orange or grapefruit juice.
3. EGG (1 a day or every other day).
4. MEAT, FISH OR POULTRY
5. VEGETABLES, GREEN AND YELLOW (carrots, cabbage, green beans, etc.)

The Easter Season, and After-Easter inspire you to bring forth your best in the way of good food. Two to one, the Easter feast means a big rosy ham to grace your table.

For a ham-glorifying dish, make Ham-Potato Scallop. It has double appeal—luscious flavor and quick preparation.

- Ham-Potato Scallop
1 small onion, chopped
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (1 1/4 cups) cream of mushroom or celery soup
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
3 cups diced cooked potatoes
2 cups cubed cooked ham

GOOD HEALTH

1. SHOULD YOU HAVE A FAMILY DOCTOR?
2. WHY MUST FOOD HANDLERS HAVE A "CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH"?
3. CAN INDIVIDUALS GET HEALTH INSURANCE?

Answer to Question No. 1: A family doctor is your protection when illness or accident strikes. Caring for the members of your household over the years, he knows your "health history" and his skill is thereby supplemented by personal knowledge of you and your family.

The Explanation Of the Apostle Paul's Conversion

HOW sudden are conversions? It is doubtful that Paul's conversion was as sudden as it seems to be. In his persecuting zeal, Paul was traveling toward Damascus after leaving the scene of Stephen's martyrdom.

RECORD-BREAKING GAS MILEAGE

for the driving YOU do!

This year's Chevrolet brings you the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. And it's the kind of everyday economy that saves you money wherever and however you drive!

Inch along through heavy traffic. Roll up the miles in steady highway cruising. Long trips or short errands, byroads or boulevards, you get far more miles per gallon in this great new Chevrolet.

New high-compression power is the reason. Both the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine in Powerglide* models—and the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrift-King" engine in gearshift models—deliver more power on less gasoline. Acceleration and hill-climbing ability are greater, fuel consumption is lower!

This is the kind of economy that counts the most—important gasoline savings for the driving you do, together with lower over-all costs of upkeep. And along with it, you enjoy all the other advantages that only the new Chevrolet offers you. Come in and see for yourself!

*Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine and Powerglide automatic transmission available on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models only.
