Strachota Store And Tavern at St. Kilian Sold

Sunday, January 1, was the date of change of ownership of the St. Kilian store and tavern, the former owner and operator, Orville Strachota, selling to Lambert Jacak, a well liked and known resident near St. Kilian, who previously was engaged in farming.

Orville Strachota will continue with his seed and wool business which he operated along with the store and tavern since taking it over from his late father, Simon Strachota, in 1940. It is his plan to further expand the seed business and processing plant at St. Kilian, with the installation of additional cleaning and seed testing equipment in the very near future.

Strachota also operates a licensed and bonded seed warehouse in St. Kilian. In 1952 he had the only such licensed seed and bonded warehouse in Wisconsin approved to process and store seeds for the U. S. Government. He is a member of the Wisconsin Seed Dealers' association, and in 1955 was admitted to the ASTA, the American Seed Trade association, a national organization in the seed trade with high ethical standards.

In addition, Strachota also operates the St. Kilian cheese factory which he reopened in the fall of 1951, having leased it until July 16, 1955, when he took over active operations of the plant. Present operations are at the rate of over one million pounds of cheese annually.

IMAGINARY TRIP AROUND WORLD FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

At the next meeting of the Kewaskum Woman's club on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 7, the members will be taken on an imaginary trip around the world as Miss Edna Schloemer of West Bend relates her experiences of a round the world journey she made several years ago. An employee in the advertising dept. of the West Bend Aluminum company, she had a life-long dream of such a journey, and two years ago her hopes and dreams were realized when she made the trip on a tramp steamer. For an adventurous afternoon, be sure to see the many interesting and exotic items and pictures she will show, and hear the many fascinating tales she has to tell.

Hostesses will be Mrs. D. B. Hanrahan, Mrs. Ted Rohlinger and Mrs. Carl Schaefer.

NEW OWNERS TAKE OVER SMOLEY TAVERN TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ortmann and family of near Oconomowoc, who recently purchased Smoley's tavern on the corner of Main and Railroad streets, took possession of the business on Tuesday, Jan. 3. They moved here over the weekend from Oconomowoc. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Smoley, the former owners, have rented an apartment in Milwaukee and moved there at the same time.

In other recent moving activity Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hulse moved from the upper apartment in the Schnurr-Belger home on Prospect ave. to Beloit.

More Couples Tell Of Engagements

Adding to the list of engagements published in last week's issue, several more young couples made known their holiday betrothals during the past week.

FIREMEN EXTINGUISH TWO GASOLINE FIRES

The Kewaskum fire department received two calls last week to put out blazes caused by gasoline igniting.

At 12:45 p. m. Thursday the firemen were called to the Flynn Shell service station on the corner of Main and East Water sts. Apparently parts of a motor were being cleaned with gasoline when the fumes ignited, causing flames to spread over the floor area. The blaze was snuffed out with the only damage resulting from smoke spreading through the building.

At about 4 p. m. Saturday an auto accidentally backed into a gasoline pump in front of Johnson's restaurant on the Kewaskum hill, knocking the pump off of its foundation. Resulting sparks caused the gasoline to ignite and pump to burn. The blaze was extinguished with only the pump being damaged.

PILLOWCASE CARD PARTY

Because the New Year's holiday was officially observed on Monday this year, and in order to give the publishers an opportunity to enjoy the holiday, too, as you did, this issue was printed on Friday instead of Thursday as a result of losing a day. Next week we'll return to our regular publication day.

Kewaskum Vo Ag and FFA Flashes

Next week Tuesday night at 8 o'clock (Jan. 16) the adult farmers will hear our new county agent, Maurice Hovland, talk on farm management problems. Maurice has been a mighty busy man and we're glad he can spare a night with us to discuss farm problems.

On Thursday night, Jan. 12, Bill Biddick, a fieldman for the Northeast Wisconsin Coop Farm Management association will talk about the association and will present farm management problems. These meetings are set up for the benefit of all the farmers in the Kewaskum Community High school district. It isn't necessary to attend every meeting, but come in whenever you can. The more fellows that come to these meetings, the more outside speakers can be contacted.

The vo-ag boys are back in school and preparing hard to end the first semester with good grades. In the meantime the FFA members are starting two fund raising campaigns—the sales of hybrid seed corn and garden seeds.

The hybrid seed corn project, in its second year of operation, is not to promote any single hybrid corn or brand, but to raise funds for the chapter and provide an educational experience for the vo-ag students.

Our chapter has permission to take orders and handle seed corn from the following authorized dealers: Ray Bales, Pride; Ray Garbisch, Pioneer; Bill Ruth, King-screst, and Howard Laatsch of Niere Seeds, Wisconsin Hybrid.

For every bushel of certified seed corn ordered from the FFA members, the chapter will receive a one dollar commission from the dealer.

The garden seeds that will be sold are from the Daniel Seed Farms of Grantsburg, Wis. The FFA boys have sold these seeds for the past two years with success. The seeds will sell to the customer at ten cents a package and the chapter will receive five cents per packet as its commission.

The profits from these fund-raising activities are used to purchase chapter-owned equipment, to pay for educational and recreational field trips, parties, father and son banquets, and many other expenses that the chapter incurs.

WELFARE DEPT. SEEKS HOMES FOR TEENAGERS

Robert G. Hintz, director of the Washington County Public Welfare department, has made an appeal for homes in the county specifically for teenagers.

Hintz has announced that the present child welfare program is progressing well, but that there is still a shortage of homes for the teenage group. These young people who need good homes with affection and understanding offer enjoyment, a challenge and satisfaction to families who are interested. Financial arrangements are made to cover their expenses in the home.

If you are interested in this program, please direct further inquiries to Washington County Public Welfare department in the court house at West Bend or phone FEderal 4-3495.

Our Lakes Team

"Break up the New York Yankees, the Cleveland Browns, and the Kewaskum Chevrolets." That was the word after Kewaskum clinched the undisputed first half title while trouncing powerful West Bend in the feature tilt of the holiday Land o' Lakes schedule. For a small town team to consistently be on top, over teams from larger cities, with a squad of entirely local players is quite an accomplishment. Every booster of Kewaskum may well be proud of their city team.

Why does Kewaskum have such a terrific record? It is because they play fast, tough, hard fighting basketball and they are mighty proud of their record and the town they represent.

Come on you Kewaskum fans! Give the team a break—don't break it up because of poor attendance. If you like rip-roaring excitement, come out and support the team in their fight for the second half crown. Give yourselves and the team a thrill by being at the next home game.

WARNING!

The second half race will get off to a fast start tomorrow night, Saturday, Jan. 7, when Kewaskum meets Mayville at Mayville, Beaver Dam, the only team that beat Kewaskum in the first half, will be in town Sunday, Jan. 15. Remember the date, Jan. 15. Be there.

MORE POWER IN FORD LINE—Ford's 1956 F-750 Big Job is a heavy duty truck with a gross vehicle weight of 21,000 pounds. High performance is obtained with a special heavy duty 168 hp Y-8 engine equipped with a four-barrel carburetor. It is one of the most powerful engines in this weight class. Five different wheelbases and power steering are available on this model. A hood air scoop aids engine performance.

It looks high priced

...but it's the '56 Chevrolet!

THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE

Who wouldn't mistake this new Chevrolet for a high-priced car!

It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new full-width grille.

But, even beyond the costly appearance of its beautiful Body by Fisher, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. It brings you lightning acceleration for safer passing. Horsepower ranges up to 205! All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters.

Besides, you get safety door latches in all models. You can also have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

County Holstein Breeders Annual Meeting Jan. 24

The Washington County Holstein Breeders association will have its annual meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 24, in the Electric Co. building in West Bend.

This is the annual meeting of the association at which time the members of the board of directors will be elected and all business will be transacted for the good of the association. The featured speaker of the program this year will be James Crowley, breeding specialist of dairy cattle from the University of Wisconsin.

Crowley has had tremendous experience in this matter, feeding and caring for livestock and has proven his knowledge many times over. He is a very fine speaker and has a tremendous amount of information available for breeders at this time. A lunch will be served to all those who attend.

The county association has also announced they will again conduct the sire sale as in the past. This year, as before, the breeders will make available a bull calf to a boy who has declared himself a candidate to be a member of this sire program. The boy cares for the sires until the latter part of October when they will be sold at public auction. Any Holstein breeder of Washington county who has a bull calf coming from good stock which is a registered calf, may register his calf in this sale by making formal application through either the extension office or other member of the breeders organization.

NEW TAX BULLETIN NOW AVAILABLE TO FARMERS

Farmers of Washington county will be interested in the new tax bulletin that has recently been released by the United States Department of Taxation. This bulletin is now being released to the county extension offices and probably is also available to the internal revenue office.

This tax book deals with practically all of the problems in filling out the 1955 income tax forms. Any farmer or other person who is interested in obtaining a copy of the 1955 tax bulletin may have a copy of it by contacting the extension office. Write to the office, P. O. building, West Bend, or call and they will be happy to send it out to you.

VETERAN'S AUTO SUITABLE FOR PARAPLEGIC FOR SALE

George A. Kolb, Washington County Service Officer, has been advised by William H. Stiemering, veterans employment representative for Wisconsin, that a veteran recently died, leaving a 1954 Chevrolet, four-door sedan, equipped with approximately $160 worth of clutch and pedal accessories suitable for a paraplegic.

The veterans' brother would like to sell this automobile to someone who could use this special equipment. Anyone interested, contact W. A. Wendland, 2533 Lake Shore Drive, Sheboygan.

Sell it with a classified ad.

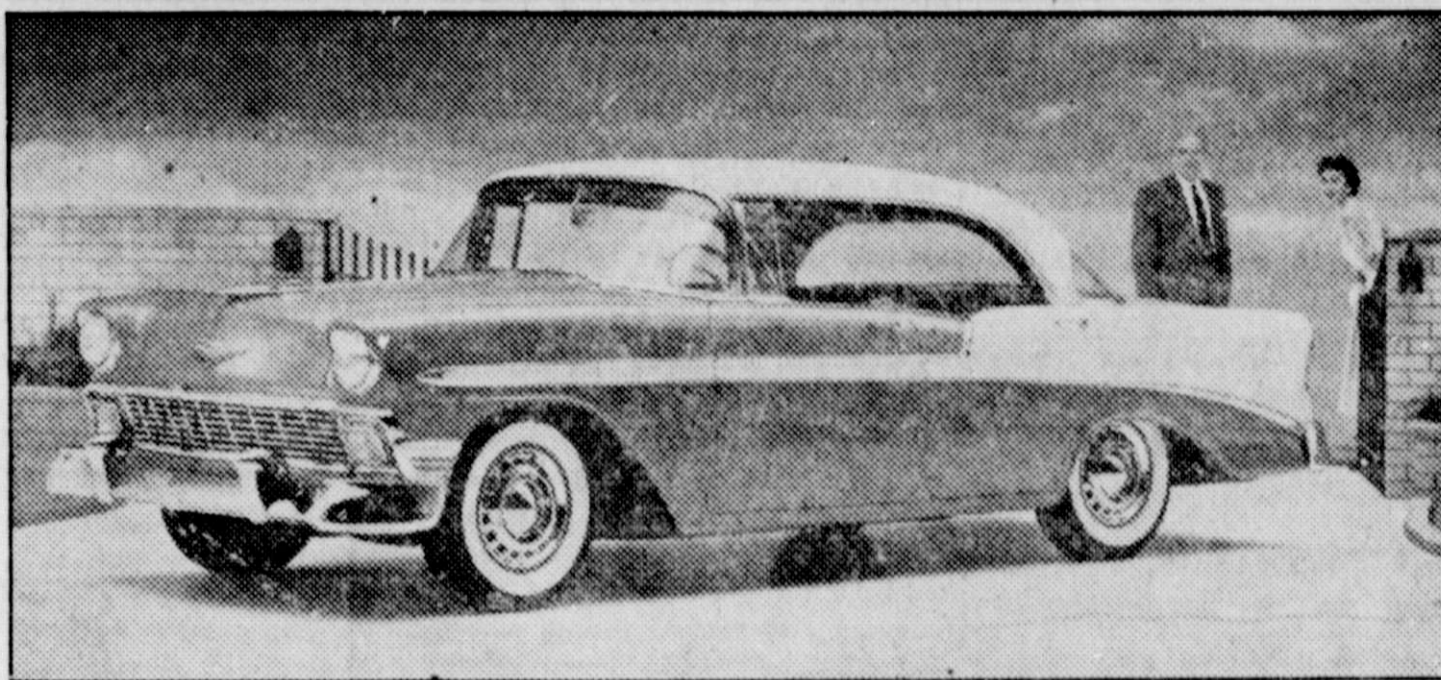

TRAINING WITH MARINES

Pvt. Robert Tischendorf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tischendorf,

R. 8, Campbellsport, and a grandson of Mrs. John S. Schaeffer, Kewaskum, is in training with the U. S. Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, Calif. In service since September, he hopes to be home for Christmas.

'Sport Sedan Makes Bow with 1956 Chevrolets

Reminiscent of the sport coupe which Chevrolet introduced with such sensational success in 1950, a sport sedan makes its debut along with the company's other new models. Elimination of the center pillar in the window area adds smartness as well as unexcelled visibility. The hardtop sedan will be available in the Bel Air (above) and "Two-Ten," two of three price-graduated series of cars offered by Chevrolet for '56. Engine choices include two more powerful V8's and one 6. The "Super Turbo-Fire V8" develops 205 h.p.

Almost 3500 Acres of Soil Inventories Made In County During 1955

Almost thirty-five hundred acres of detailed soil inventories were made during the 1955 mapping season in Washington county according to James C. Meschnick, district conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service at West Bend.

These land inventories were prepared by Soil Scientist Bruce Watson, assigned to the area office at Waukesha. The maps were made of farms and groups of farms in the Washington County Soil Conservation District.

The inventory, continued Meschnick, includes a determination of the soil type, the slope of the land, and degree of erosion on each portion of land. Areas delineated vary in size from one acre to several acres depending upon soil and slope changes on each farm.

After the soil inventory maps have been inked by Soil Scientist Watson, they are sent to the cartographic section of the Soil Conservation Service in Milwaukee for processing. Individual farm maps then returned and used by District Conservationist Meschnick in developing soil conservation plans for individual farms.

The inventory provides basic information for determining proper land use, namely cropland, pasture, woodland or wildlife. Soil problems such as wetness, droughtiness, and erosion are analyzed and conservation practices are recommended according to needs. Most adaptable crop rotations are determined.

Plans individually fitted to each farm's needs will be worked out jointly with the farmers by the soil conservationist in the Washington county district.

Farms mapped in Washington county included in the 3,420 acres were the following: Franklin Blank, Albert Brinkman, Andrew Berres, E. J. Copps, Reuben Fritz, Rudolph Heidtke, Harold Hartman, John Horlamus, Edward Praefke, Alfred Seefeldt, Leonard Skiba, Milton Schuette, John P. Schneider, Roy Schoenl, Leonard Schneeberger, and Wm. Wulff.

The average Wisconsin feed dealer does a $250,000 business annually; nearly half of this amount is in feed sales.

JANUARY 12 IS FINAL DATE FOR GRAIN PRICE SUPPORT IN THE COUNTY

Farmers expecting to apply for price support loans on their 1955 small grain, flaxseed and soybean crops should do so by Jan. 12 according to A. John Cleary, office manager for the Washington County ASC committee. The storage structure and grain must be inspected and a sample of the grain forwarded to an out-of-state laboratory for analysis before the loans are completed. If the storage structure and the grain are found to be acceptable, the producer will be given an opportunity to complete the loan, but the signed note and mortgage must be on file in the county ASC office by Jan. 31, 1956.

Price support may be obtained by producers through purchase agreements by applying to the county ASC office on or before Jan. 31, 1956. Purchase agreements differ from loans in that the producer receives no funds unless or until he delivers the commodity to CCC next May or June.

DATES FOR PAYMENTS ON CONSERVATION EXTENDED

Chairman Christ Hoffman of the Washington County ASC committee advises county farmers that the reporting date for agricultural conservation practice payments has been extended from Dec. 20, 1955 to Jan. 20, 1956.

All farmers are urged to return their application or extension notice before the 20th of January, 1956. Failure to return these papers will result in non-payment.

Chevs to Open Play In Second Half at Mayville Saturday

The Kewaskum Chevrolets, first half champions in the Land o' Lakes league with a record of six wins and only one loss, will open play in the second half at Mayville Saturday night, Jan. 7.

This game will be one of the toughest in the entire second half. Mayville has a very good team. They gave the Chevs a close battle in the opening game here and will be much harder to beat on their home floor. Kewaskum must face other teams just as strong or stronger in this half but will play them at home. West Bend, Beaver Dam, and Hartford, three of the top teams, all meet the Chevs at Kewaskum this half. Other contests away besides Mayville are Campbellsport, Horicon and Rosendale.

Final figures show that John Tesar ended up third high in individual scoring in the first half with 129 points. He made 54 field goals and 21 free throws.

The Kewaskum Land o' Rivers eagles will start the second half at Thiensville Sunday night at 8 o'clock. They ended up in a tie for fourth in the first half with a record of 3 wins and 4 defeats.

INDIANS PLAY OAKFIELD, CAMPBELLSPORT AT HOME

After being idle over the holidays, the Kewaskum Community High school Indians will return to action in the Tri-County conference on Friday night when Oakfield comes here. The Indians will play another home contest Tuesday evening, Jan. 19, with the league leading Campbellsport Bells.

Kewaskum shouldn't have too much trouble with the Oaks, who share the bottom of the standings with a record of 1 and 3. But Tuesday's tilt with the Bells here is a very crucial one. Campbellsport is unbeaten to date with four straight victories. The Indians are a game behind them with 3 and 1 and hold second place. A win for Kewaskum will give them a tie for the lead with the Bells.

Plenty of bedding and daily hauling to the field is the best way to save the fertilizer value of manure, says Art Peterson, soils specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

FILM TREAT AWAITS FARM FAMILIES ON JOHN DEERE DAY

PROGRAM INCLUDES FULL-LENGTH FEATURE

A treat of six all-color films awaits farmers and their families, who are to be guests of L. Rosenheimer on John Deere Day to be held Tuesday, Jan. 17.

The film fare, which is to be shown at the Kewaskum theatre at 1:30 and 8:00 p. m. will be headed by a full-length feature titled "Tim's Choice" is a happy type of movie built around the three youngsters of a typical rural family. How the delightful young trio, all of 4-H age, vie with one another for activity honors and the sometimes anxious, sometimes comical, situations they find themselves in provides a story that is a pleasant combination of humor and sentiment.

All leading players have been seen frequently in motion pictures and on television and carry off their respective roles superbly.

The Gordon family, a Deere-created clan that has grown to seem as real as it is actually fictional, appear in the picture "A Lease on the Future." This time, the story is built around an immigrant refugee's new start in his newly adopted country. Tom Gordon's exasperating antics have their usual satisfying ending and will keep him a favorite of John Deere Day audiences everywhere.

A series of films which has proved extremely popular for the last half dozen years, "Oddities in Farming," is continued again this year with unusual sequences taken in the wild rice harvest, the rhubarb winter harvest and mushroom farming—all important, but little known, agricultural pursuits.

WHAT'S NEW FOR 1956

The John Deere Day audiences will also see the line-up of the latest in modern farm machinery when they view the film "What's New for 1956." They will see the new John Deere "80" Diesel tractor, the new John Deere hay conditioner, the new anhydrous ammonia applicator, the new rotary chopper and many more machines that promise lower operating and maintenance cost and increased leisure time for today's farmer.

FREE TO FARMERS

In announcing the program Mr. Rosenheimer emphasized that the showing will be free to all farmers, their families and friends. He cautioned, however, that admission will be by ticket only. Any farmer who has not received his tickets in the mail may have them by calling at the L. Rosenheimer store, Kewaskum.
