Fire at Legge Home Causes Much Damage

MRS. LEGGE IS TREATED AT HOSPITAL AFTER INHALING TOO MUCH SMOKE

A roof and attic fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Legge in the town of Kewaskum, located at the intersection of Hwy. H and Kettle Moraine drive southeast of the village, caused damage estimated at several thousand dollars last Wednesday evening.

The Kewaskum fire department was called to the scene at 8:15 p. m. The blaze had a good start before it was noticed and when the firemen arrived flames were shooting out of one end of the roof and the entire attic of the south section of the L-shaped home was enveloped in flames.

After extinguishing what flames they could reach, firemen began tearing off parts of the roof to get at the sources of the blaze between a double roof and in the attic. Much of the roof had to be torn off to reach all the flames and firemen worked deliberately for about an hour and a half before getting the blaze completely out. Considering the limited supply of water they did a very good job in snuffing the flames and saving the home, which appeared as though it might be destroyed when the firemen arrived.

Along with the damage resulting from the fire other damage was caused to the living quarters on the first story by smoke and water, although the firemen held this to a minimum. Much of the furniture was removed to an adjoining garage by the Legges and bystanders. The blaze started in the attic from a short in the wiring of a junction box.

Mrs. Legge was taken ill from inhaling too much smoke while removing furniture from her home and spent the next two days in the hospital for medical care. During the night the fire started burning again in one place on the roof and Legge doused it with a bucket of water.

The firemen answered another call Thursday afternoon to the George Strohmeier farm on Hwy. 28 in the town of Kewaskum, located several miles west of the village. The Strohmeiers were burning grass and brush in an orchard when the flames got out of control and spread toward the house. The firemen extinguished the fire in a short time.

Two mobile units will be held that week, one at the extreme north end of Washington county and the other in the south. A blood donor event will be held Monday, May 6, in Kewaskum and Tuesday, May 7, in Germantown.

Both communities and surrounding areas have wholeheartedly supported their own mobile units in the past and volunteer chairmen are already hard at work registering donors for the two events. The goal will be 100 pints of blood at each mobile unit and the contributions will go into the life-giving "bank" of the Community Donor club, which serves Washington county residents.

Germantown's mobile unit will be held between the hours of 2:30 and 6:30 p. m. on May 7 at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church.

Donors from the Germantown, Richfield and Rockfield areas are urged to call Mrs. O'Deal Walterlin, Richfield (Hubertus 94F3) or Mrs. Hugo Dhein, Rockfield (phone 51F21) as early as possible for an appointment.

Refreshments at the Germantown event will be served by homemakers of the village and town of Germantown.

The Kewaskum mobile unit will be held Monday, May 6, at Kewaskum high school from 2 to 6:30 p. m.

Donors in the Kewaskum area can make appointments for any time that afternoon by registering with Mrs. Harry Koch, phone 179W, Kewaskum.

Acute dental discomforts are relatively few and are promptly reported by competent, observant attendants. Correction of these cases always results in improved dispositions. Dental cavities are small in number, which is truly the result of having wholesome, well balanced nutritious foods, mostly from the County Farm. Dentures are provided for those who do physical labor on the farm, in the barns, and in the laundry. REPORT NO. 25 ANNUAL REPORT - WASHINGTON COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE - 1956 Washington County Health Committee E. M. Romaine, Chairman Judge Milton L. Meister H. D. Sheske, Secretary Mrs. Kenneth Pike Dr. Wm. Nielsen, Medical Representative Dr. James Algiers, Medical Representative Dr. Robert Schacht, Dental Representative

The Washington County Nurse presents this Annual Report for the period of November 1, 1955 to November 1, 1956. The understanding support of the Public Health Program by our Washington County Health Committee has been greatly appreciated.

An expression of thanks should also go to the Medical and Dental professions for their guidance and cooperation. Friendly and constructive working relationships with the schools and other community agencies, the State Board of Health, State Department of Public Instruction, the hospitals, the West Bend City Nurse, the newspapers and radio and the many volunteer workers have contributed much toward better community health and have been most gratifying.

Public Health Today Reflects the Many Changes and New Developments in the Entire Field of Health. Research and studies have found many new ways of promoting more healthful living. Tremendous strides have been made in the areas of preventive medicine as well as in the actual care of the sick and disabled.

Public health programs must be planned to work toward meeting the existing problems. All of these factors necessarily influence how the public health worker must serve a given community. The basic aims and purpose of public health, however, remain the same. They are: 1. Care and rehabilitation of the sick and disabled. 2. Prevention of illness. 3. Promotion of healthful living.

The public health nurse continues to serve individuals; families and the community as a nurse and teacher promoting these objectives. The scope of public health nursing, however, has gradually changed through the years from emphasis on Control of Communicable Disease, School Health, and Sanitation to much broader and more effective functions. The growing mass of information about health and prevention of disease as well as people's awareness and demand for more and better health services have affected the duties of the public health nurse.

Statistics which point toward heart disease, cancer, mental illness, accidents, overweight and diabetes as some of our principle public health problems have definite influence on the responsibilities of the public health worker. These factors plus the changing and increasing population affecting public health on a large scale also affect us locally. We certainly wish to emphasize at this time that the public health nurse is not alone in her concern for health needs and in her efforts in promoting better health. Many other agencies, individuals and groups are also very much concerned with health and do much in promoting better health for themselves and others.

Physicians, hospitals, schools and other community agencies are very conscious of health needs and continually work toward more healthful living. We have discussed many times how the public health nurse in Washington County works toward a total family health service. By this we mean a program which is directed at meeting as many health needs as possible of the people within the various age groups. The nurse must understand the problems of the area as a dual and his family group activities and mass programs must be combined with family visits and individual teaching in an effort to reach the greatest number of people. A sketch report of the activities which have been carried on to serve our population and to meet as many needs as possible are as follows:

MATERIAL AND CHILD HEALTH: Field Visits, Expectant Mothers Class. ADULT HEALTH: Field Visits. SERVICES TO HANDICAPPED: Field Visits. COMMUNICABLE DISEASE CONTROL (including Tuberculosis): Field Visits, x-rays, State Board of Health Mobile Unit, Tuberculin skin tests, Immunization Clinics, Gamma Globulin Clinic - Hartford, Immunization Letter Service, Letters to 3 month old children, Letters to 1 year old children.

SCHOOL HEALTH SERVICE: Joint Planning Conferences, Health Department and School, Schools visited, Teacher-Nurse conferences, Screenings, Field visits regarding children referred by teacher. ADMINISTRATIVE AND EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES: Public Lectures and Talks, Total attendance, Movies, Newspaper releases, Radio programs, Program planning with physicians and dentists, Conferences with others, Official Health Committee Meetings, Staff education conferences, Other group meetings, Total homes visited.

With these activities in mind, let us take a look at the present total population of our County and how this population is distributed in the various age groups. The following figures are approximate but are in line with the estimated population for 1955: 1,000 - infants, 5,000 - preschool, 11,000 - school children, 10,000 - adult population, 3,000 - senior citizens

Total 30,000. In thinking about future needs, let us remember that public health officials point out the fact that if a really meaningful public health program is to be carried out, one nurse should serve an approximate population of 5,000. Some of the activities which should be carried on in a good public health program directed at the various age groups are as follows:

- Infant and Preschool: 1. More home visits. 2. More parents classes. 3. Promotion of more complete immunization. 4. More frequent contacts with parents of handicapped children. 5. Increased health education including dental health, safety and emotional health. School Group: 1. Planned visits to each of the 65 schools annually. 2. Planned conferences with each of the 216 teachers annually. 3. Opportunities for closer working relationships with school administrators. 4. Increased contacts with school boards, Parent-Teachers Associations, etc. 5. Greater concentration on Readiness for School Program. 6. Closer follow-up of health problems of school children through home visits. Adult Health: 1. Improved health education with emphasis on information about heart conditions, cancer, mental illness, nutrition, safety and chronic diseases. 2. Promotion of periodic physical examinations. 3. Earlier case finding of tuberculosis, heart conditions and cancer. 4. Increase knowledge of resources available to help with family health problems. 5. Promote better understanding of community health problems. Senior Citizens: 1. Promotion of more effective planning to improve health, social and recreational facilities for this group. 2. Improve facilities for nursing care in the home. 3. Improve case finding of tuberculosis, heart and cancer. Our future plans attempt to work toward meeting some of these needs. FUTURE PLANS: I Complete follow-up of Hearing Conservation Program and Mobile X-ray Survey. II Greater efforts to work more closely with public and parochial schools. III Work toward increased nursing case in the home under the direction of the physician. IV Continued promotion of Readiness for School Program in cooperation with school personnel and physicians. V Continuation of Parents Classes. VI County-wide immunization program. VII Begin three year old letter service emphasizing dental care and safety. VIII Promote Discussion Groups for parents of preschool children.

He stated that several road crossings in the rural areas were not properly marked and presented a dangerous problem. He asked that Town Chairmen make an effort to mark such crossings so that accidents would be avoided. The second item presented was a problem that pertained to teenagers. He stated that several accidents have been reported where young people had obtained intoxicating liquor and were the cause of fatal accidents. He asked that the Board support a bill before the State Legislature that would prohibit the sale of malt beverages to anyone under the age of 21 years. He asked also that more severe penalties be imposed on tavern owners who have violated the law. He presented a petition signed by 400 residents who supported the proposed legislation, and asked that members also endorse petitions to be presented to the State Legislature. Thirdly, he called to the attention of the Board, the problem of testing people who were intoxicated. He stated that he would be willing to purchase a Drunkometer or Breathalyzer to make such tests. A meter of this type would cost about $800.00 and a charge would be made to the county each time a person would be tested. It was his opinion that this device would be of great help to the sheriff and District Attorney who must investigate matters of this sort. Mr. Ray Storck, Civil Defense Coordinator, appeared before the Board and he introduced Mr. Wilson who is in charge of the State Office of Civilian Defense. Mr. Wilson stated that Washington County was in a critical area and the enemy would strike at points in Southeastern Wisconsin because of industrial development, if an attack would be made. He stated that evacuation of large cities would create a problem for our county. Medical aid, food and shelter would be the problem of our county, and he estimated that two million people might be using our highway in case of disaster. APPEARANCE: MR. WILSON Resolution No. 23 was given first reading and laid over for second reading. Resolution No. 35 was given second reading and laid over for second reading. Mr. Carl Mayer appeared before the Board and explained that the Anti-litter Committee of Washington County had met several times and was in need of appropriations to purchase litter bags. Moved by Mr. Schmahl; seconded by Mr. Campbell that this matter be referred to the Finance Committee. Motion carried. APPEARANCE CARL MAYER Report No. 37, a report submitted by the Public Property Committee, suggesting the availability of St. John's School as possible quarters for offices of the County was read. The members of the Board were in accord with this suggestion. Judge Meister also stated that Washington County was caught in a growth of juvenile crimes and related problems. Just recently juvenile gangs were appearing in the county from neighboring cities and causing disturbances for local police departments. He stated that civic leaders, church and school heads were being consulted to see if some of these problems could be prevented. It was his thought to have a meeting of these leaders and Board members in the future to discuss related problems. Moved by Mr. Schroeder; seconded by Mr. Lofy that the Washington County Board of Supervisors welcome a joint meeting with groups of citizens regarding the study of the juvenile problems. Motion carried. MOTION: JUVENILE PROBLEM Moved by Woldt; seconded by Troedel that the problem of office space for county court be referred to the public property committee. Motion carried. RESOLUTION NO. 50 Resolution No. 53 was given second reading. Several members inquired regarding some re-imbursment for the parcel of land to be deeded to the State Highway Commission. The parcel in question had been purchased by Washington County for gravel pit purposes, and it was felt that it would only be fair to expect some compensation from the State. Moved by Mr. Schroeder; seconded by Mr. Gauger that Resolution No. 53 be referred to the Highway Committee for study and recommendation. Motion carried. RESOLUTION NO. 53 referred to Highway Committee. Moved by Mr. Bloedorn; seconded by Mr. Gauger that the Board return to the rules. Motion carried and the Board proceeded on rules. Supervisor Schmahl, suggested that inasmuch as the zoning ordinance is being revised it might be well for the set back on all Town Roads be 100 feet as is required on county and state roads. Moved by Mr. Schmahl; seconded by Mr. Zuern that the Board recommend to the Park Commission that the set back on all Town roads now known as Class B roads be 100 ft. Motion carried. Moved by Mr. Woldt; seconded by Mrs. Courtney that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned. Respectfully submitted, ANTON P. STARAL, County Clerk

Also, even though the Extension Offices were presently located at the Post Office, it was possible that quarters would have to be vacated. The committee then made a tour of the St. John's School with a committee from the E & R Church; namely Rev. Baumer, Carl Schneiss, N. A. Schowalter, Geo. Strohoff and R. S. Grogan. Mr. Schowalter stated that his committee had obtained an option on the St. John's School for the E & R Church. He stated that in the event this option is exercised, the church would be interested in selling or leasing to Washington County. The committee expressed an interest in the offer and asked that said offer as to terms and other details should be submitted in writing. It was brought out that said lease could not be obtained for at least two or three years and in that time it might be necessary for Washington County to make other plans to solve their problems. The committee felt that it would probably be better to lease quarters than to purchase the school building. A sketch of the grounds and building was presented to the committee by the Church group, and said plans were placed on file in the Clerk's office. FRED C. BAMMEL, ALVIN BUNKE, JACOB HILT, E. M. REPORT NO. 34 February 25, 1957 TO: THE HONORABLE WASHINGTON COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS: The November report contained a considerable amount of interpretive material about the various Assistance and Service Programs we administer and this material will not be represented at this time. Our report, herewith presented, is limited solely to a fiscal report. In comparing this report with the February 20, 1956 report, we find that assistance payments in the Aid to Dependent Children and Aid to Dependent Children in Foster Home programs increased due to increased caseloads. The other programs remained virtually the same or decreased slightly from 1955 figures. It is interesting to note that even with increased gross costs in the Social Security Aids Programs, the County's share of this expense declined slightly because of higher federal reimbursement in these programs. We again extend our thanks to the Board of Supervisors, Board of Public Welfare, all county officers and their staff, the State Department of Public Welfare, and private organizations for your kind and thoughtful participation in the public welfare programs. As always, may we extend a sincere invitation to each of you to visit our office if you have any questions or problems. Respectfully submitted: ROBERT G. HINTZ, Director. REPORT NO. 36. 1956 Report of Wisconsin Retirement Fund (66.90 Statutes). Washington County, by a resolution dated November 17, 1946, began participating in the Wisconsin Retirement Fund for elected and appointed officials and employees as of January, 1947.

Individual employment records for each employee and participating official are maintained by your agent the County Clerk. The Highway, County Hospital and Home, submit copies of semi-monthly payroll for employees to the County Clerk, from which are completed necessary monthly reports required by the State Office.

In the following chart we submit figures showing monthly employer's and employee's contributions to the Retirement Fund for the 1956 fiscal year:

Table showing monthly contributions for Employer's and Employee's from January to December 1956.

The rate for 1956 for the municipality (Washington County) was 3.17% for prior service credits, plus 3% for Wisconsin Retirement plus 2% for Federal Social Security, a total of 8.17%. The employer's and official's contribution was 3% for the Wisconsin Retirement and 2% for Federal Social Security, a total of 5%.

The County Judge, as per state statutes is included in a separate classification. Under this plan, the County Judge contributes the maximum to Social Security which is $94.50 in 1957. When the maximum to Social Security is reached, the County Judge continues to contribute the full 7.25% of his salary to retirement. The county does not make any contributions for the County Judge.

The Traffic Police and the Radio Operators likewise have elected to make additional contributions which have been approved by the County Board. Under their plan, the contribute 5% instead of 3% to Retirement. They also make a contribution of 2.25% to Social Security.

Tips on Starting a New Lawn

Let's start this off with "what kind of seed should we sow?" There is no best kind of grass or combination of grasses. The soil, shade, tree competition, soil moisture, and the amount of care you're willing to give the lawn should influence your choice of seed.

The following are recommended mixtures for various conditions (parts by weight).

For average soil with sunshine: four parts Kentucky Bluegrass, one part fancy Red Top, one part Rye grass for quick coverage, one part Colonial Bent grass for general purposes and one-eighth part Dutch white clover. Seed this at the rate of one and one-half pounds per 1,000 square feet. At this rate, each part would equal about three and one-half ounces.

For shade and with tree competition: four to five parts of Chewings Fescue, one to two parts of rough stalked Meadow grass and one part of Red Top. Sow this at the rate of about three pounds per 1,000 square feet.

For sandy or poor soil with sunshine: mix four parts Chewings Fescue, one part Colonial Bent Grass and one part Red Top at the rate of three pounds per 1,000 square feet.

Always look on the seed package to find out what kind of seed you are buying. A high price doesn't necessarily mean the mixture is a good one. Buy your seed from a reliable dealer—and we have reliable dealers right here in Kewaskum. If you need large quantities of seed, you'll save money by buying the different types of seed separately and mixing them yourself.

Don't buy a mixture that doesn't list the different grasses on the package.

For seeding, the soil should be moist but not wet, with the surface soil fine and smooth and the soil below the top surface-inch firm but not compact.

The best time to seed, believe it or not, is late summer or early fall. However, spring seeding has made many satisfactory results. For spring sowing, sow as early as possible or as soon as the soil is ready to be worked.

For covering the seed, rake or brush in the seed, being careful not to rake the seed into windrows.

Right after seeding and raking in the seed, roll with a medium weight roller. This usually helps germination, but be careful in spring not to pack the soil too much.

On slopes that are likely to wash, spread coarse burlap over the area and fasten it with stakes. You don't need to take the burlap off; it will soon rot. Or a light mulch of straw or hay will keep the soil from washing and hold moisture in the soil.

A new lawn must have plenty of water for a good start. As soon as the new grass starts to show you'll need to water if the soil surface shows sign of drying out. You can water any time—day or night. Evaporation, of course, is less at night. However, watering in full sun doesn't harm grass.

Good stands of grass are sometimes ruined by not mowing soon enough. Mow the new grass when it is three inches high, or at the latest when it is lopping over. Set the mower to cut at least two inches high. After four or five mowings, set the mower at one and one-half inches and keep it there.

In next week's Statesman we'll discuss the care of the established lawn.

Elwyn M. Romaine Re-elected County Board Chairman

PETITION FOR STATE FUNDS FOR HWY. 45 IMPROVEMENT AT KEWASKUM APPROVED

Members of the Washington County Board of Supervisors last week re-elected E. M. Romaine of Kewaskum to his 13th consecutive term as chairman of the county board. He has been a member of the county 18 years.

H. B. Woldt, Jackson, veteran member of the board with 25 years of service, was again re-elected to serve as vice-chairman of the supervisory group.

Highlight of the annual organization meeting of the county board, held last Tuesday, was the adoption of a new county zoning ordinance which had been two years in the process of development before its passage.

Other business included the passage of a resolution authorizing the hiring of a youth administrator for the county with $6,400 appropriated from the general fund for salary and expenses for the new administrator.

In another resolution the supervisors asked the appointment of a committee to survey jail and court house facilities in the county to study the needs, of all county departments, provisions for detention of juveniles, females and mentally ill persons, for additional court house space and parking facilities.

An appropriation of $1,800 for additional wiring in the Slinger highway shop was approved to augment a $1,000 fund already available for that purpose. A memorial resolution honoring the memory of former board member Howard Dettmann, recently deceased, was passed. Sale of a parcel of land to the state for the Hwy. 60 improvement project in the town of Polk was approved. Transfer of $300 from the "second nurse" fund to the extra help fund in the county nurse's office was approved and an additional appropriation for $300 for the immunization program for the county nurse's department was also approved.

A petition for $370,000 in state funds for improvements to Hwy. 60 and Hwy. 45 from Kewaskum north to the county line was approved for submission to the state. Expenditures of $16,314.78 in purchases of equipment by the county highway commission were approved and other business was discussed.

Around The Town

Daylight saving time goes into effect at 1 a. m. Sunday, Apr. 28, in Wisconsin so don't forget to turn those clocks one hour ahead before you hit the sack Saturday night. Otherwise the churches are going to be awfully empty Sunday morning.

Now that Lent is over and many people have fallen back to their former eating and drinking habits they are complaining that their ulcers are bothering them again. We always maintained that ulcers are caused not so much by what you eat as what's eatin you.

Except for the checks the most welcome piece of mail we received the past week was that little envelope from Donald Davidson of the Milwaukee Braves containing our season passes for 1957. Thanks a lot, Don, you're a doll.

We didn't waste any time taking advantage of them either as we drove down to have our first look at the 1957 Braves Sunday afternoon. And what we saw they looked good as they beat the Reds to move into first place. They are the same team as last season except for a new utility infielder and added pitching strength. But it is a faster running, more aggressive and determined team.

Most of the big sports writers predict the outcome of the pennant race so a little one might just as well, too. Here's our picks:

1. Milwaukee
2. Brooklyn
3. Cincinnati
4. St. Louis
5. Pittsburgh
6. Philadelphia
7. New York
8. Chicago

Our prediction doesn't differ much from most of the selections but that's the way the outcome looks from where we sit, even without expectorating on the ball.

Bought some lumber this week for a new steps and the price proved to us that nowadays money does grow on trees.

Members of the Peace E and R church accepted with regret the resignation of their pastor, Rev. F. L. Rodenbeck, who is retiring from the ministry. During their six years here Rev. and Mrs. Rodenbeck made numerous friends and were very well liked, both within and outside of the parish. We wish the best of everything for them in the future.

pitch down the aisle. The right arm we're saving.

Rains of the past week really made the lawns and fields greer again after the long, barren winter look. Soon the leaves will be growing out and nature will be a thing of beauty once more. Next come the sweet smelling flowers and shrubs. Another sure sign of spring—we saw Kewaskum's swept wing, model T convertible buzzing down the streets again. Just two weeks until the prom and only a little over a month to graduation. Summer is not far off.

Sure seemed good to have regular mail service restored Saturday again at the post office after the curtailment of the Saturday before because of a lack of funds. And it only took a little thing like 41 million dollars to do it.

On the last page starting in this issue is a new feature from the dairy association which we will bring you whenever space permits. It is a series of dairy recipes, food ideas for picnics, barbecues, parties and lunches, along with tasty desserts and other dishes featuring Wisconsin's dairy products.

State Fire Departments Petition for Approval Of Fire Training Bills

Wisconsin fire departments, 276 of them, volunteer and paid, have sent petitions to their senators and assemblymen asking approval of the Wisconsin Firemen's Training Bills 205 S and 297 A, according to local Fire Chief Harry J. Schaefer.

The bills were drawn by firemen for firemen, with the guidance of state officials. They follow the path of successful instruction in other states.

Wisconsin is now eighth state from the bottom of the list in the number of firemen taking state and provincial training. Wisconsin with 365 barely nosed out Saskatchewan. Iowa had 4,310, Arkansas 4,497, Georgia 5,661, and Washington 12,717.

The appropriation of $100,000 asked for the next biennium will be needed for the adequate training of part-time instructors in firemanship, and for their expenses in giving evening instruction in the local fire stations.

The instructors will be qualified firemen, strengthened by the addition of 30 hours of teacher training to make their schools of approximately 20 hours interesting and effective to the members of the local fire departments.

Industry and retail centers are moving from the cities into the villages and rural areas. Country-wide, over 50% of the large fires (over $250,000 loss) were in the territories of volunteer departments. Studies show farm fires have a far higher probability of total loss than those in villages and towns.

In Wisconsin there are less than 30 paid departments and over 600 volunteer departments.

The training bills are backed by the Wisconsin Council of Firemen's Associations, the Wisconsin State Fire Chiefs, league of Wisconsin Municipalities, the Wisconsin Association of Town Mutual Insurance Companies, and other insurance, municipal, and farm groups.

Fertilize Pastures This Spring; Cut Feed Costs, Up Net Income

Cattle make profit-building weight gains on fertilized pasture.

FARMERS can boost forage yields, cut feeding costs and get higher net returns on beef and dairy cattle by fertilizing their pastures this spring, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"Fertilized pastures can add many days to the grazing season," says the committee, "and produce more and better forage."

How much fertilizer to add and what grade to use, will depend on the soil's need for nutrients, the committee points out.

"On improved pastures," says the committee, "some Midwestern agronomists advise putting on 300 or more pounds of phosphate-potash fertilizer and then adding needed nitrogen at the rate of 30 to 60 pounds per acre.

"For rotational pastures or haylands, they suggest using about the same amount of fertilizer as on improved fields."

Farmers are advised to wait until the ground is firm and the pasture stand is four to six inches high before turning cattle into the fields.

"Good management is essential to keep legumes in a pasture stand," says the committee.

"Agronomists emphasize that good management protects the investment a farmer has in good seed, liming, fertilizer and the work involved in getting a good pasture stand established."

Bethel Kahrs Bride Of Myron Matthies

Miss Bethel Kahrs, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Kahrs, Winneconne, and Myron Matthies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Matthies, R. 2, Campbellsport, were married Easter Sunday, Apr. 21, in a double ring ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Winneconne, at 4 p. m. by the bride's father, former pastor at Dundee.

The Wedding Prayer and Lord's Prayer were sung by Herman Nimmer, accompanied by Mrs. H. Grunwald.

The bride's white dress was ballerina length and she carried a hand bouquet of white orchids and carnations. The matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Kluge, Appleton, sister of the bride, wore a blue ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Donald Matthies, R. 1, Kewaskum.

A reception was held and dinner served for the immediate families at Cottonwood Villa, Winneconne.

The couple will reside at 1415 W. Summer st., Appleton, after a short honeymoon.

The following from this area were guests at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Matthies, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matthies and children and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Konen.

Avoid setting plants in a drafty spot or near a radiator, advises Louis Berninger, flower specialist at the University of Wisconsin. This causes the plants to lose water rapidly and shortens their life.

A. Grueschow Attends Sewage Short Course

Attending a special four-day short course for superintendents and operators of Wisconsin city and village sewage treatment departments at Madison is Adolph Grueschow of the Kewaskum sewage treatment department. The invitation was received from the University of Wisconsin department of hydraulic and sanitary engineering.

Sewage treatment department men from towns and cities throughout the state are attending the course being held at the state university April 23-26 inclusive. The course consists of a series of lectures and laboratory demonstrations given by the staffs of the university hydraulic and sanitary engineering laboratory, the state laboratory of hygiene, and the state board of health.

All classes and laboratory instruction of the course, designed particularly to assist operators of plants in both large and the smaller communities, and new men as well as more experienced operators, are held in the university hydraulic and sanitary engineering laboratories on the Wisconsin campus. Gerard A.

Rohlich, UW professor of civil engineering, is in charge.

CLYDE T. SMITH, FOREST SUPERVISOR FOR AREA, WARNS AGAINST FIRES

Extremely dry conditions prevail in the forest and marsh areas in southeastern Wisconsin and these conditions will prevail until heavy rains come and these lands become green, reported Clyde T. Smith, area supervisor of forests and parks in southeastern Wisconsin.

In this area is located the Kettle Moraine State Forest, Point Beach State Forest and many state owned and leased public hunting grounds and the eight state parks. People are cautioned to be careful with fires and asked not to throw cigarettes from cars.

Burning without a permit is prohibited in the townships in which the state forests and parks are located. Permits must be obtained from the conservation department or the township officials concerned.

A fire in the woods kills young forest reproduction, trees in newly planted areas, causes death of wildlife in the marshes and much damage to the soil.

Only a short time before the mishap Kitzrow and a companion, Thomas Giniiani, 18, 1413 Wildwood drive, Milwaukee, were both arrested for speeding on the River road (East Water st.) in the village by Chief of Police Roland Pledl. After being reprimanded here they promised it wouldn't happen again and only a few minutes later Kitzrow was arrested on the same charge following his accident at Knoeck's curve.

Indians Win Baseball Opener, Mertzig Stars

Coach Walt Bade's Kewaskum high school Indians opened the 1957 baseball season with an easy 8-1 victory over Rosendale on the latter's diamond last Wednesday afternoon in Tri-County conference action.

Kewaskum's pitcher, Dave Mertzig, was the star of the game. In addition to hurling two-hit ball, Mertzig had a perfect day at the plate, getting two-for-two, including a grand slam home run in the fifth inning.

Mark Rodenkirch also homered for the Indians in the third inning with none on. The only extra base knock for the Dalers was a double by the losing pitcher, Jim Marshall. The Indians collected six hits.

Kewaskum and Hustisford are tied for first place with 1-0 records.

When Johnny Comes Home For Lunch

When Johnny comes scampering home from school, no slipshod lunch should greet him, especially if he is the finicky kind. Eye appeal rates high when it comes to eating as it should, though of course it can't stop there. For a child's lunch should be planned to provide a third of his daily food needs.

A sandwich may form the backbone of the lunch and well it may, with nourishing enriched bread spread with butter, its hearty filling of cheese, meat, fish or eggs, a crisp divider of lettuce. But do give it a change of pace from day to day. Cold or hot, open face or three decker—variety's the thing. Sometime, using a cookie cutter—any design from Peter Rabbit to roaring lion—cut out figures from a slice of white and a slice of whole wheat breads. Place the white bread figure in the opening of the dark bread, the dark bread figure in the opening of the white slice. Then put each on top of a plain slice of bread which has been spread (to the corners, please) with softened butter and the sandwich filler. Cutouts can be seasonal of course. Dress up the sandwich plate with carrot sticks, celery curls or a small tomato.

A bit of sweet can be cookies, cupcakes, fruit—fresh, dried or canned, fruit-flavored gelatins served with cream, milk-made puddings and custards, ice cream any day, an occasional chocolate bar. It's fun for him—and for you—to make cookie sandwiches by putting together graham crackers or "store" cookies with a bit of powdered sugar-butter frosting, softened sweet chocolate, or a toasted marshmallow. Use animal crackers in pairs in this way. Or give them frosting coats and serve a zoo along with the chocolate drink.

Make an elephant from a small orange, cutting large floppy ears from the orange and then peeling them off a little so that they will stand out. The trunk is cut and peeled from the orange skin on the under side of the body. The tail may be a piece of string or a bit of pipe stem cleaner. Legs are made of long gum drops, firmly attached to the body with toothpicks and fastened to small round gum drop feet. Stick whole cloves in the head for eyes, round toothpicks for tusks, and let him balance a gum drop or peanut log in his mouth.

Use buttered popcorn as a topping for the cream soup and a gaily-wrapped popcorn ball as the "sweet" of the meal.

Stir up a Banana Milk Shake by pressing a fully ripe banana through a medium mesh wire strainer with a spoon or slicing into a bowl and beating with a rotary egg beater or electric mixer until creamy. Then add 1 cup cold milk. Top with a dash of cinnamon and serve with gay colored straws.
